A NEW PAINT JOB IS BEST!

Look at your car with a critical eye. If it is more than four years old, chances are it needs new paint. The road grime, rain and hot sun damage even the best and toughest factory finish. In every case, the original surface beauty can be restored, if our craftsmen are given the job. SCRIPTURE: II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10; Hebrews 11.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Romans 12: 9-21.

When We Work With God

Lesson for January 25, 1948

DR. E. STANLEY JONES was in Atlanta on one of his several visits, and some of us were asking him about his notable and unique experience as a missionary in the Orient. "If you had it all to go over, Dr. Jones, would you devote your life to the peoples of faraway Asia, or would you choose to live in America with its abundance of good things?" he was asked. Quick as a flash of lightning he replied: "If I had a thousand lives to give, they would all gladly go to the wistful souls of Asia."

Dr. Newton

Paul would have been enheartened in the day that he wrote II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10, and Romans 12:9-21, to have heard someone talk as Dr. Jones talked that afternoon, for is our lesson for Sunday, Paul is summoning every Christian to the highest possible commitment to the will of God as we go forth in the task to beseech all men to be reconciled unto God through Jesus Christ, who hath taken upon himself the iniquity of us all, "that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

Thus we come to see the significance and the meaning of the memory verse for Sunday's lesson, "We are fellow workmen for God," I Corinthians 3:9.

PEOPLE WHO WORK WITH GOD

READ Hebrews' 11th chapter for a picture of some of the noble souls who really worked with God, by faith, as the writer delights to put it.

Abraham, for example, "went out, not knowing whither he went," but when he came to the end of life's day, he was accounted the friend of God. Moses, "choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season, esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, endured as seeing him who is invisible."

HOW WE WORK WITH GOD

READ again that eleventh chapter of Romans to discover how the men and women named there worked with God. Two words will quickly come to light — faith and obedience. They believed God, and they obeyed God. Junior boys and girls will do well to recall some of the heroes of history — men like Washington and Lincoln and Lee—and in every instance you will discover that they, too, believed God and obeyed God. Remember the story of Washington kneeling in prayer in the snow at Valley Forge?

We cannot work with God unless and until we believe and obey him. "Can two walk together except they be agreed?" You cannot please your earthly father unless you believe him and obey him.

GOOD WORKMEN ESSENTIAL

WE COME now to the deeper implications of the lesson, revealed in II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10. "We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain; but in all things approving ourselves in much patience, in afflictions, in distresses, in watchings, by kindness, by love unfeigned, by the power of God. . . ."

Here is the acid test of doing the work of an ambassador of Christ — we must first be fully committed to him before we can persuade others to accept him as Saviour and Lord. We shall not have better homes and better churches until we first have better Christians. We shall not have better business until we first have better business men.

And the only way by which we become good workmen is through the redeeming, transforming grace of the Lord Jesus Christ.

JOY OF WORKING WITH GOD

WHY did Dr. E. Stanley Jones answer so quickly about giving a thousand lives to the benighted, wistful souls of Asia? Because he had discovered the unspeakable joy of working with God in reconciling men unto him. The largest, surest wages in this world is the experience of working for and with God. "What I kept, I lost; what I gave, I have."

Do you believe it? It is difficult to believe until you try it. Indeed, I would say that it is beyond all imagination to grasp the meaning of working with God. You have to take Christ at exactly what he meant when he said, "Come and see."

"When we walk with the Lord, in the light of his word, what a glory he sheds on our way!"

Engineering Frat Honors Local Girl

Dorothy E. Evans, 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight E. Evans, 2424 Steele-av, has been chosen as one of two coeds to be recognized by Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity (for men only) on the Ohio State University campus.

Miss Evans was awarded a badge attesting to her character and promise of success in the field of chemical engineering as well as for outstanding scholarship, in an initiation ceremony held on campus for 78 men students. It was the first time women had been accorded this honor.

Miss Evans' exceptional scholarship is not surprising to those who know her, for West High School records show that she obtained all A's with the exception of one B in physical education during her four years at West. She was a member of the marching band, National Honor Society and L Society, graduating in the June class of 1945 at the head of her class. Entering Ohio State the same month, she has been attending the university continuously since that time, and plans to graduate at the end of August this year.

Interested in physics, chemistry and mathematics, she desires to continue study in the field of chemical research, following graduation.

The badge awarded her by Tau Beta Pi does not confer fraternity membership upon Miss Evans because the organization limits the group to men only. Students chosen as members are selected from the upper 10 per cent of the junior class and upper 30 per cent of the senior class.

The Evans' have a son, James, who is a sophomore at Ohio State. He is studying bacteriology.

According to Federal statistics more than sixty per cent of America's farmers have automobiles and live on hard surface roads.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Luella Nietz, soloist at the First Congregational Church and a faculty member of OSU gave us a program of her well arranged music Sunday evening at the Columbia Heights Church. Miss Nietz is a former classmate of Mrs. Elwood Rose. Her evening of song was well received and thoroughly enjoyed.

Don't forget family night. Potluck supper at 6:30, Saturday, Jan. 30. The Junior High MYF will present a playlet, "Pop Buttonback's Birthday."

Georganna Emerson, New York City, sister of Mrs. McKendree, Buena Vista-av, and Mrs. Ernest Bozey of Springfield, who have been friends since childhood, were entertained at the Whalen home, Buena Vista-av, Thursday.

The Monitors Class met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Calland Friday night. The regular business was disposed of and then it was decided by the ladies to have a sewing bee the last Thursday afternoon of each month, in preparation for the annual bazaar. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caris, the teacher, on Maple-dr.

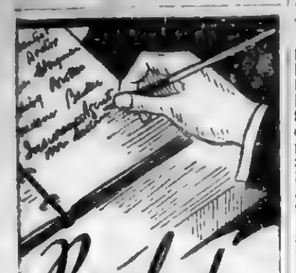
About 30 friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coulter (Martha Breckenridge), who are living temporarily at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coulter, Pasadena-av, to give them a delayed "belling" Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rings entertained with a euchre party Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Snyder, Maple-dr, and family visited Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snyder, Zanesville. They also attended the services in honor of the Putnam Presbyterian Church established in 1835. Their first pastor was Rev. William H. Beecher. It was very interesting to glance over the highlights of the past records of the church and notice the seemingly old style names, such as Mr. Increase Mathews, Mr. Levi Whipple and Solomon Sturges.

The Rome PTA held a very active meeting last Thursday in the school portable. It was decided that representatives of each of the three schools, Alton, Galloway and Rome, comprise a committee to call on the school board regarding the compulsory vaccination. Mrs. W. G. Lamb, health chairman of Rome School, was the representative of this district. The Rome Cafeteria can now be proud of the new floor covering as well as new knives, forks and spoons for the serving of the meals. The members of the association made a house to house canvass for the March of Dimes and were able to make their contribution in the amount of $210.

Last week Mrs. Kent Richey, Pasadena-av, spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sesslar, London, while Mr. Richey was in Pennsylvania.



Mrs. Russel Brocks, Maple-dr, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Buena Vista-av, entertained with a musical tea Sunday afternoon when her pupils presented a program of music for the pleasure of their parents and friends. Due to sickness and bad weather, several of her pupils could not be present. Those who were on hand with their selections were Eva Scott, Elizabeth French, Jean Ann Toy and Dian Kasler. Most of these girls are in the advanced class. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Lamb.

The regular meeting of the Rome Study Club was held Monday night in Columbia Heights Church. It was a family and friend night and Harold Hart's Class members were the invited guests. The speaker of the evening was Mrs. Herbert White, who was born and reared in Denmark. She was one of 10 children and her talk and pictures were of family and home. Although she has revisited Denmark several times, it was that first crossing which she told about in detail. She is the wife of Rev. Herbert White.

Mt. Renier National Park, in the state of Washington, was established by act of congress in 1899.

Cub Pow-wow Attended By 156

By Cliff Matthews

If it's something new in Cubbing you're looking for, just leave it up to the Southwest District. In fact, this pow-wow (held Saturday) was entirely new to the Central Ohio Council. From all outward appearances the day's affair netted a wholesome experience. Of course, those interested in serving youth cannot judge the success of any gathering upon attendance only. It is the sincere hope of your general chairman, Tom Howells, and his planning committee that all who attended took away at least one new idea to be applied toward pack betterment.

The first session of the afternoon got under way promptly at 2 p. m. The topic for discussion was pack management, led by Herschel Booth, organization and extension man, and Cliff Matthews, Southwest field executive. Pack registration was explained in detail as well as training courses for cubbers, selection and training courses for den mothers and parent participation in cubbing.

Sam Alford directed the second session, having to do with games and cubs. Several Cub Scouts were used for demonstration purposes, however, by and large adult participation was recommended in order to uphold the theory that "one learns by doing."

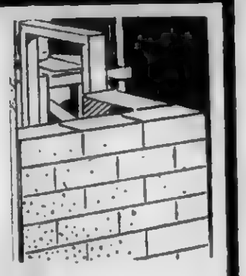
The tinker shop met with wide approval from all. An elaborate work shop was set up, complete with hand and electric saws. Larry Halter, Ed Segber and Carl Van Horn furnished some very fine exhibits and new ideas in wood craft.

An open discussion period was held following the third session in order to answer any questions brought about during the afternoon activities.

The Blue and Gold Banquet was served at 6 p. m., after which some 85 certificates were awarded to those persons participating in the day's activities. Jerry Spears was the after-dinner speaker and his message was "Laugh and Let the World Laugh With You." Total attendance for the day was in the neighborhood of 156 persons.

District officers present were M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, district chairman, Sam Alford, chairman of camping and activities, Gil Bolin, northwest field executive, and Cliff Matthews, Southwest field executive.

Plans are now under way for a Cub-O-Ral to be held some time in April.



Polite Pickpocket Fleeces Local Man

A polite but effective pickpocket relieved Harold Koon, 134 S. Terrace-av, of his billfold Saturday night.

As he was leaving a downtown theater, a man bumped into Koon and then turned to apologize. Later the billfold containing $122 was discovered missing.

The Spectator
By C.C. Hartley

With the author of this column finally basking in Florida sunshine, we had expected to have a sun-kissed version of Spectator this week but apparently battling snow storms all the way south, the boss forgot about this chore so we move what would otherwise have been Hilltopics "out front" for this week. Next week we expect to have an interesting Hilltopper as guest columnist. P. W.

Black Market Recording

W. Haydn Jones, chorister for the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, was pretty proud of the singing his club did at last week's luncheon. As a surprise stunt Dr. Jack Miles brought his recording machine and transcribed three choruses sung by the men and then played them back so they could hear their own singing.

After listening to the recording, Jones boasted, "I think more of you fellows now than ever before."

Unexpected Company

Down at 1640 Reaver Lane the missus constantly reminds me that one of the worst breaches of social etiquette is to go calling on friends or relatives unannounced—especially around meal time. Being an Indianan by birth she of course could not be expected to know that down in Monroe County such social conduct is not in the least out of order.

As a matter of fact as a boy I can hardly remember the time when we ever announced our intentions in advance to go visiting—be it for an afternoon or a week-end. Of course anywhere you might go, the smoke house was always well supplied with meat, the poultry yard never missed one or two fat hens and the fruit room could always be counted upon to produce three or four varieties of fruits and vegetables. So no one ever got excited if six or eight guests dropped in a half hour before meal time.

I can well remember one family of five (parents and

YMCA Drive Set For March

The first membership and finance drive for the Hilltop YMCA is expected to get under way about March 1, it was learned this week.

Following a meeting of the local "Y" board last week, final plans for the campaign were worked out. It is understood that each member of the board is expected to solicit, for membership, 20 persons who will also help conduct the drive.

Solicitation will be on a house-to-house basis with each worker having only a small section of the Hilltop to cover. Every home in the community is to be contacted.

At a time to be announced later, local drive headquarters will be opened in the Claggett Building, W. Broad-st and Ogden-av.

It is being pointed out this week that three types of membership will be sold. They are as follows:

1. Purpose memberships for those 10 to 19 years of age. Price $1.00.

2. Active voting memberships for those 16 years and over. $5.00.

3. Building fund contributors for those giving more than $5.00.

Jerry Spears, Sr., is chairman of the finance committee conducting the drive. He is being assisted by Ralph Jacobs, Mose Williams and Ira Claggett. Another meeting of the general board will be held Feb. 11.

The local membership and finance drive is being conducted with the full knowledge and cooperation of the Council of Social Agencies, although no financial assistance has been asked or is being given by that group, a spokesman for the local YMCA said this week.

Civic Concert To Benefit "Y"

Victor Voeller, conductor of the Columbus Civic Concert Orchestra, will direct the 75-piece organization in a concert on the stage of West High School Thursday, Feb. 26, at 8:15 p. m., under the sponsorship of the Hilltop Business Association.

Net proceeds will be given to the Hilltop YMCA Board to assist in operating expenses when this program gets under way.

The orchestra, with a membership of 75 musicians ranging from 17 to 60 years old, is a non-profit corporation recently reorganized after a period of disbandment during war years.

Voeller, its original organizer and an accomplished musician himself, obtained a state charter for the group when he reorganized it following his discharge from the army in June, 1947.

The musicians and 10 administrative officers do not receive any financial reimbursement for their services. The purposes of the orchestra are to develop musical appreciation in the city, give the opportunity to non-professional musicians to engage in orchestral playing, and to perform philanthropic work.

Dorothy Hingst, 314 S. Terrace-av, is first violinist for the group.

Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for children through high school age.

Tickets for the affair are now on sale at the following Hilltop places of business:

Hilltop Bank, 2374 W. Broad-st; Jones Flying Service, 3863 Sullivant-av; Phillip Stout, 2532 W. Broad-st; Mose Williams, 2581 Steele-av; Goodwin Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av; Hilltop Record, 2465 W. Arden Beauty Salon In New Location

The Arden Beauty Salon, formerly located at 2457 W. Broad-st, has moved to 2455 W. Broad-st, one door east of its former location. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Higdon, 462 Nashoba-av, are the owners of the business, and have had long experience in the beauty industry. They are equipped to handle any type of beauty work.

Mr. Higdon has also added a men's and children's hair-cutting department in the new shop. The owners welcome their Columbus patrons, both old and new. West High School's Jack Thrush

Outstanding Athlete - - Always A Gentleman

By Paul Wichterman

Jack Thrush, one of West High School's most recognized athletes, yesterday added another trophy (his high school diploma) to his already impressive collection.

Although graduation is past he is still eligible for two more athletic contests before he writes finis to his high school athletic career. According to eligibility rules he can still play in the Linden McKinley and the Logan basketball games tonight and tomorrow night.

Graduation brings with it more than the usual problems in the case of Jack. The lure of pay from organized baseball is being weighed carefully against the desire to go to college and compete on an amateur status. At least two baseball representatives were on hand to talk terms as soon as he walked off the commencement platform last night and a decision will probably be announced in a matter of hours.

As an athletic, young Thrush has had few peers at West High School, earning nine varsity letters while gaining all-city mention in all three years of baseball and football. Being a mid-year graduate, he will be recognized in only two seasons of his basketball participation but the fact that he is at present leading the individual scoring column for the second straight season in the cage sport, would make it almost mandatory that his name be included in a third all-city selection were half-year men considered by the sports writers.

Jack Thrush

Always a Gentleman

In the memories of faculty members, students, coaches and athletic officials alike, Thrush will ever be remembered as a gentleman both on and off the athletic field. It has been my privilege to become acquainted with many persons in all of those categories and I have yet to hear anything but praise where his name is mentioned. Jack long ago learned that in athletics, as in every-day life, one of the secrets of success is in getting along with your teammates, your superiors or your co-workers.

Competing coaches, players and officials reiterate the fact that Jack is at all times a gentleman in victory or in defeat. His influence around West High School has been far-reaching, as Principal Irvin F. Young will be quick to point out.

Athletics have always come naturally to Jack. He was warming up pitchers when only a lad of 7 or 8 years. He played on the Westgate Indians Knothole baseball team with Dick Slager when he was only 9, and all his summers since that time have been spent largely playing sandlot ball. In 1946 he was selected to play with the East All Stars in the Esquire Boys' All-American game at Chicago. Incidentally, he played the entire game at third base although he considers first base his favored spot on the diamond and is at least an average pitcher. The same year he was named the outstanding young baseball player in central Ohio. The Boston Braves and the Detroit Tigers are two professional clubs which are bidding for his services.

While not an outstanding grid star, Jack has gained greater recognition in that field of sport than most boys at West in recent years. At home in almost any position from end (which he played during the past season) to calling the signals at the quarterback spot, Thrush was named on the 1947 Associated Press and International News Service all-state selections.

Kicks Winning Goal

His most spectacular feat this year came in the North game when he booted the winning field goal in the closing seconds of play for the Cowboys. He has been serving as captain of the 1947-48 basketball team and has been the most consistent scorer all season.

Jack will definitely go to college one way or another. If the lure of play-for-pay is too much to turn down at this time,

Bandits' Guns Blazed Trail of Death Following Bank Holdups 10 Years Ago

Ten years ago next week bank robberies were much in the news on the Hilltop.

The files of The Hilltop Record reveal that on Feb. 3, 1938, bandits held up employes at the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, 2369 W. Broad-st, and escaped with $2,251.

Two days later four masked men held up the Hilltop office of the Ohio National Bank, just across the street, and made their getaway with $3,542. A gun battle that afternoon at a West Side rooming house cost the life of one Hilltop policeman and the lives of two of the bandits. Another bandit cheated the electric chair by days, when he died of wounds suffered in the spectacular gun battle while a fourth paid the supreme penalty in the Ohio Penitentiary.

The story rated front page space in the daily papers for several days and was written up in at least three national detective magazines.

Killed in the gun battle that followed the bank holdup was Detective Robert Cline, 257 Nashoba-av. Leo Phillips, recently retired from the force, narrowly escaped death when a bullet from one of the bandit's gun injured his right eye. Detective Bill Danner was shot in the stomach and was hospitalized for several days.

Detective Bob Cook, the fourth member of the police detail that went to investigate the West Side rooming house tip, was hit by a piece of a door lock torn loose by one of the bandit's fire but emerged little the worse for the incident although he was in the thick of the shooting.

Two of the bandits, (all four were from Cleveland) Jacob Miller and Vincent Grinkiewicz, were shot to death in the battle that followed where police apprehended them in a rooming house at 183 N. Guilford-av. Carl Boettcher, paralyzed by a policeman's bullet, was sentenced to die in the electric chair but cheated the law by days when he died of his wounds a few days before the death sentence would have been carried out. The fourth member of the bandit quartet, Stephen Figuli, also drew a death sentence and finally paid the supreme penalty 16 months following the crime.

Gas Shortage Closes Library

Prolonged near or below-zero temperatures led to the closing of the Hilltop Library this week.

In keeping with a request by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. to conserve fuel wherever possible, the library was closed on Tuesday morning.

Mildred Phalor, librarian, said Wednesday morning that she was unable to say when the doors would open again to the public.

Booster Club Meets Tonite

An important meeting of the West High Booster Club has been called at the school at 7:30 o'clock this evening at room 101.

Gilbert Buckingham, president of the club, said final plans would be formulated for the big paper drive to be conducted on the Hilltop Feb. 8.

Dick Francis, chairman of this paper drive, said this week that he is expecting the biggest collection of paper thus far. One collection last year netted more than $1,000 in scrap paper but it is understood that paper prices are lower now than at that time.

All proceeds will be used to help promote athletics for both girls and boys at West High School. Plans are now being drawn for expansion of athletic facilities for girls. Last week Principal Irvin F. Young outlined eight different projects that have been made possible at the school as a result of the work of the Boosters. Biggest single contribution thus far was the $1300 electric scoreboard for Magly Field.

Kiwanis Speaker

Major Fogo

Major Edward T. Fogo, registrar of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, will address the Hilltop Kiwanis Club at next week's luncheon meeting.

A veteran of both World War I and II, Major Fogo saw service in Belgium and France during the first conflict and received the Distinguished Service Cross, the Purple Heart and the British Military Cross. During World War II he was with the state headquarters of Selective Service for Ohio. He won the Army Commendation Ribbon for his work in that branch of service.

He was just recently appointed registrar by Governor Thomas J. Herbert.

Kiwanis Establishes Two $300 West Scholarships

A new phase of Kiwanis at work in the community was revealed this week with the announcement of the creation of two new $300 scholarships at West High School.

The scholarships will be awarded annually and will be payable in amounts of $100 for each of three semesters. Details of the program were worked out recently between school officials and members of the Hilltop Juvenile Council, a phase of Kiwanis work set up to deal with youth welfare in the community.

Need of the pupils selected for the getting the scholarship will be a consideration in choosing candidates for the honor. Scholastic ability, service rendered to the school, athletic achievement and moral standing, attitude and character of the individual will all be considered.

Any Course Of Study

The scholarships may be used for any course of study chosen and in any college or university selected. Five boys and girls will first be chosen by school officials. Final selection will be made by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club committee.

The faculty committee will be headed by Principal Irvin F. Young and will be composed of Blanche Kern, vice principal, George Williams, Helen McCormick and George Neeb during the first year. The principal of the school will appoint the school committee each year.

Donald F. Smith, 2465½ W. Broad-st, chairman of the youth service committee of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, is responsible for putting the idea into effect.

SHERIFF TO SPEAK

Sheriff Ralph J. Paul, a major in the United States Army Reserves, will be today's speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club. His subject will be: "Military Government in Germany."

Sheriff Paul served overseas in both World War I and II. He was appointed sheriff of Franklin County last year to fill the unexpired term of the late Jacob Sandusky.

Sheriff Paul

W. Haydn Jones of the Jones Lumber and Coal Company, 67 Sylvan-av, was elected at last week's meeting to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. C. O. Cramer on the board of directors. At the same time it was announced that Robert (Bob) Postle of the Hilltop Sporting Goods Company, 2461 W. Broad-st, had been accepted as a new member of the luncheon club.

"We must redouble and redouble our efforts to build up character in people and to support voluntary cooperation, if we are to preserve our American way of life," Rev. Floyd Faust, pastor of the Broad Street Church of Christ, told the local Kiwanians at last week's meeting.

Speaking on the subject, "Fit for Freedom," the Columbus clergyman pointed to causes for genuine alarm in present conditions in our country.

Close To The Edge

"We are getting awfully close to the ragged edge—the danger line, when the majority of our people follow the philosophy of giving as little as possible for all they can get in return," he said.

Insurgents Will Enter Ward Races

It was understood this week from sources close to County Engineer Allan Slade that insurgent candidates will again enter the Democratic primary race for committeemen in the 10th and 11th Wards.

Carrying the banner for Slade's organization in the 11th Ward will be Richard DeShetler, 285 Algonquin-av. It is understood that Henry Fagan, 308 S. Algonquin-av, incumbent, will not file for the office but will help with the DeShetler campaign.

At the last ward election, Fagan succeeded in unseating Grover Amrine, Heer organization candidate. Just whom the Heer faction will enter could not be learned this week. A spokesman for the group promised an announcement in next week's Hilltop Record. The filing deadline is midnight on Feb. 4.

In the 10th Ward G. Arlowe Bryant, 2139 Sullivant-av, will again oppose Oscar Dildine, 31 S. Wheatland-av, the incumbent. Bryant, also backed by the Slade forces, was unsuccessful in a three-way race that developed in the last party fight when C. A. Middleton ran as an independent candidate.

DeShetler admitted that he was being considered for the 11th Ward committee post but declined comment at this time.

Bryant admitted that he would again enter the 10th Ward race for Democratic committeeman.

In a summary of local candidates who will file for the May primary election, the name of Newton Thatcher, 2966 Crescent-dr, was omitted by an oversight last week. Thatcher, a Democrat and former county auditor, will be a candidate for county treasurer. His candidacy had been announced in the Jan. 15 issue of the Record.

Crego said this move is being made in order to effect a drastic reduction in prices, and that all savings would be passed on to the housewife in the form of lower prices.

Further details are contained in an advertisement appearing on Page 8A of this week's Record.

A Lovely Bridal Party

Glenwood Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Marcia Jean Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hall, 160 N. Wayne-av, to Mr. Clarence Richard Self, son of Mrs. Rose Self, 564 S. Terrace-av, which took place at 8:30 p. m., Friday, Nov. 28.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of oyster-white satin styled with a high round neckline upon a fitted bodice, long sleeves ending in points over the hands, and a peplum extending over the full skirt, terminating in a circular train. Bridesmaids Miss Pauline Krevdo and Miss Rowena Self wore mint green gowns styled wth off-the-shoulder necklines and full skirts. Matching mitts accented their costumes and they carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations. Both girls wore gold chokers, gifts of the bride.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the church parlors when the bride's mother received guests in a royal blue crepe dinner dress to which she pinned a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Self wore a toast brown crepe with corsage of Johanna Hill roses. Hostesses at the reception included Mrs. Ruth Mead, Mrs. Robert Self, Mrs. Wilma Johnson, Miss Mary Self and Mrs. Esther Clark.

RECOVERS PURSE

Harry Drake, 1578 Sullivant-av, long a leader in Boy Scout work, saw his chance to do the daily "good turn" Saturday and he did it.

His alertness prevented a purse-snatcher from getting away with a pocketbook belonging to Nellie Thatcher, 53, 375 S. Eureka-av. Walking on N. Sixth-st, Drake saw a boy grab the purse, containing $50, and run. He caught the boy a short distance away and recovered the purse but the boy shook loose and ran away.

Hoge Church Starts Senior Scouting Unit

Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church becomes the first local institution to sponsor all three phases of Boy Scout work.

Announcement was made this week by Jack Hostetter that a new explorer post is being started there to supplement the work of Troop 172 and Cub Pack 56. The number of the new senior scouting unit has not yet been designated.

Hostetter, who is in charge of both the troop and the senior unit, said that eight boys are signed up for the explorer post that will meet the second Monday night of each month. Some of the boys are still in the process of completing their Boy Scout work.

Charles Minor is cubmaster over Pack 56. Den 4 will soon be organized to take care of additional boys in that work.

The girls were selected by the Freshman Activities Council and will be elected by freshman men, the winner to be named at the dance.

Kindergarten Group Will Meet Tonight

For enrollment to the kindergarten parents are asked to call Mrs. W. C. Hineman, Jo. 1111, or Mrs. Clarence Tritsch, Ra. 4244.

Bandit In Basement, Stolen Car In Front

After hiding in the basement all night, an armed bandit coolly walked past four clerks and three customers in a local drug store and made his get-away.

After robbing two cash registers of $60 at the Economy Drug Store last Thursday night, a bandit apparently took refuge in the basement when his activities were discovered before he could get out of the place of business.

Police Sergeant Paul D. Hinton and Cruiserman R. R. Johnston reported finding the side window of the store smashed. The officers investigated and brought employees back to the store to check on the amount of the burglary.

Shortly after 9 a. m. Friday, after employees had reported for work, Benjamin Beckwith, 1509 Rosethorne-av, janitor, went to the basement for a broom. There he was confronted by a man with a gun. Ordering Beckwith to remain quiet, the man then walked up the stairs past four clerks and a customer and made his get-away in a stolen car parked outside.

NOAH H. RIGGLE
August 10, 1855 January 2, 1948
In Memoriam
to
Mr. Noah Riggle

You say that Mr. Riggle's gone
I say, my friend, he still lives on.
'Tis true his earthly body's dead
But by souls like his our spirit's fed.
In deeds he'll live 'til judgment's dawn.

No more we'll hear that voice appeal,
No more that friendly handclasp feel,
His face is missed by us, and yet
He lives as part of all he met.
The good he did death can't conceal.

Immortal are the lives that live
And freely of their efforts give,
To make this world a better place
For us who follow in the race.
Kindness is to them, imperative.

I'm sure we need not intercede
No need for us in prayer to plead,
But may his presence up on high
Look down upon US as WE try,
And help US be true in word and deed.

Written by Lowell H. McAllister, teacher of Married People's Bible Class, Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, and read by him to the class, Jan. 11, 1948.

Slippery Streets Result In Accidents

Heavy snow, ice and the resulting slippery roads and streets over the weekend were responsible for a number of traffic accidents on city and county streets during the past several days.

Lulu Stockwell, 69, of 44 N. Wayne-av, suffered minor cuts and bruises and was treated in University Hospital when a motor bus and an auto collided at the intersection of Northwest-blvd and King-av Saturday afternoon.

Two persons were injured Sunday night when an auto driven by William J. Johnson, 37, of 331 N. Burgess-av, skidded head-on into an auto driven by Richard Bishop, Milford Center. The accident occurred on Route 33, south of Route 161.

Johnson's wife, Mary, 32, and Bishop's father, George Bishop, 80, were brought to Columbus hospitals after emergency treatment by a physician in Dublin.

Church Elects New Council Members

Two new members were chosen and two re-elected to the Church Council of Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church at the annual congregational meeting Monday night in the church.

The two new members are Russell Fletcher and Bert Lowry and the two who were re-elected were Karl Kruckeberg and Michael Marcia. All four will be installed by Rev. Russell J. Olson, pastor of the church, at the Sunday morning service.

Retiring as members of the council are Hugh McCurdy and Walter Laird. Other council members are Hugh McCreight, Rudy Willer, Herbert Williams, Don Gardner, Neil McMillen, Paul Ebert, W. B. Dilsaver and Leonard Echols.

Burgess Is Only Undefeated Quintet In Intermediate West Church Loop

By Dave Miller

In West Church Intermediate games played at Glenwood Tuesday evening, Burgess EUB downed an alert, fine ball-handling Salvation Army five by a 37 to 28 score. It was the first setback for S. A., and the fourth win for Burgess.

Glenwood Methodist suffered its first loss in four outings as West Park Methodist defeated them, 25 to 19, in a well-played game. The first game saw St. Aloysius takes a 20-16 thriller from Riverside Methodist, and in the other contest of the day, Hoge Memorial swamped Westgate Evangelical, 41 to 19.

The schedule for Monday night is set as follows:

Salvation Army vs. Hoge Memorial.

Glenwood Methodist vs. St. Aloysius.

Westgate EUB vs. Burgess EUB.

Riverside Methodist vs. West Park.

three kids) who could always be counted upon to drop in unannounced for a week-end four times each year. Their arrival might be the afternoon, the early evening or any time up until 1 a. m. They just moved in bag and baggage and there was no telling just how long they might stay.

They were never hard to please at the table and were not above pitching in once in a while to help wipe the dishes. Beyond that there seemed to be little self-imposed obligation to their host.

Their visits might have become a little tiresome were it not for the fact thtat they were at least average musicians. Unless you have lived in Monroe County you can't possibly appreciate how far you can impose on the good nature of your host if you can repay with a tune of some kind. It doesn't necessarily have to be a masterpiece either.

Our perennial guests were decidedly musical down to the four-year-old member who could do a pretty neat job of cutting a junior-sized rug. Their visits soon become known all over the neighborhood and the neighbors would gather in to hear the "outside" talent. To their credit, I must say that they were never stingy with their music. They would play as long as anyone was around to listen and that was frequently until the small hours of the morning.

When they finally decided to pick up their belongings and move on it was usually with some regrets on the part of their hosts. They never exactly wore out their welcome.

Is it any wonder booking social engagements weeks in advance seems a bit silly to a country boy?

Physical education and coaching will be his choice of a major subject.

The five-foot-11-inch athlete is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thrush, 172 S. Westgate-av. His father is part owner of a garage and a jewelry store in the city. He has a younger brother, Bill, already a member of the Reserve basketball team at West. Jack grew up on the Hilltop and probably has a wider acquaintance among sports writers and athletes than any high school student in the city.

He hates to be interviewed and dislikes publicity out of proportion to that accorded other members of his team. He is particularly careful to give due credit to his coaches and teammates.

"If you must write something about me," he said, "be sure and tell them I couldn't have gained all this recognition if it hadn't been for a swell bunch of coaches and the help of all the boys I've played with."

By coincident the only other Hilltop bank robbery had occured just 20 years prior to the 1938 holdups. At that time Hilltop office of the Ohio National Bank was located at the corner of S. Wayne-av and W. Broad-st.

The first Federal robbery took place at the noon hour and was carried out by three smooth-working bandits. In the office at the time were H. G. Deems, still manager of the local office, Miss Helen Tannehill and Margaret Fletcher Fox.

The bank robbery was executed at 9:30 a. m. Curtis G. Wilcox manager of the local office until the first of the year, was forced at the point of a gun to help the bandits carry bags of coin to the waiting car outside.

Rev. Faust pointed out that the only alternative to increased effort and greater cooperation as a "way out" is that of more stringent government controls. He called attention to the fact that the latter theory was expounded by Mussolini and other dictators.

Factors that tend to tear down our American way of life, he said, include (1) refusal of many people to read their papers or otherwise inform themselves on what is going on; (2) lack of concern for the rights of others; and (3) selfishness and failure to give full value for what we receive.

"We are going to have controls or cooperation," the speaker stated.

Cowboys Trample Logan Chieftains By 56-26 Count; To Meet Linden Tonight

The Logan Chieftains were no match for the West High Cowboys Tuesday night as the Williams-coached five trampled the visitors 56 to 26 on the local hardwood.

The Cowboys renew City League hostilities tonight as they trek to Linden McKinley to meet the Panthers. Marion Harding comes to the Hilltop tomorrow night for a non-league contest. West followers will have an opportunity to see Jack Thrush in action for the last time as he closes his scholastic athletic career at that time.

Big Chuck Weeks set the scoring tempo Tuesday as he connected for 18 points, including eight buckets from in close. A definite height advantage plus a spirited local five made it tough going for the hard-fighting Chieftains as they were held to seven baskets during the entire evening. Twelve of their tallies came via the free-throw route.

Jack Thrush played only the first quarter and then gave way, along with some of the other regulars, to the second team and some of the boys who have been on the Reserve squad.

The Cowboys enjoyed a 32-10 half time advantage and then pulled on to a 30-point lead at the end of the third canto as the score stood 48-18.

Theisen Set Up Shots

Paul Theisen, working out of the circle, was responsible for setting up many of the West shots and he personally picked up 11 tallies for the evening.

Jim Rudolph led the Reserves to a 32-28 win over the West Junior five in the preliminary as he chalked up 17 markers.

Mother of Teacher Here Buried Today

Funeral services will be conducted today at the St. Agatha Church for Mrs. Mark K. Carrothers, 72, mother of Mrs. Mansel F. Davis, a teacher at John Burroughs School. Death followed an extended illness.

Also surviving are a son, Donald Kenny Carrothers, Des Moines, Iowa, and a grandson.

Junior Broncs Defeat Panthers

By Dave Miller

Dave Caton, a beautiful ball handler and a serious threat on any ball court, led West Junior's basketball team, coached by Red Lehman, to a 30 to 26 decision over Linden McKinley Junior on the West court last Thursday.

Caton, one of the graduating five 9A's, collected a total of three baskets and four out of five free throws for a 10 point total. He tied Harold Hines, Linden ace forward, for scoring.

Cedeh Lehman, in an effort for a .500 mark at the mid-season, started all of his graduates at the beginning of the game. The five are Caton, Paul Thompson, Paul Ellingsworth, George Crissinger and Earl (Wimpy) Potts. All of these, except Crissinger, who was out because of an injury, were regulars before game time.

Ellingsworth knocked his total to 64 points as he scored nine tallies, all of them in the last half.

The Broncos and the Panthers were knotted up at six-all at the first quarter and with the aid of a long shot in the waning moments of the first half by Roy Wakeman, clinched an 11-10 half lead. Caton and Ellingsworth together scored nine points to aid their team to a 23 to 20 third quarter margin. And in the final canto, the winner out-scored Linden, seven to six.

West attempted 33 goals, making 12, and the losers, nine out of 44.

The graduates this year have scored 143 of the 170 points.

Cowboys Drop "Heartbreaker" At North As Polar Bears Win By By 47-46 Count

There's nothing any more unpredictable than the Columbus City Basketball League now in the second round of play.

Next Tuesday will see the second games of the final round in what promises to be one of the most surprising seasons in years. Only one thing is certain up to now. That is that the Central High Pirates are going to be the team to knock out of first place. Just where West will figure in the final round is the $64 question. The Cowboys, minus the services of their leading point getter, Jack Thrush, will have an opportunity to square accounts with the Pirates on the West court Tuesday night. There are few followers of the sport, however, who rate George William's boys any more than an outside chance to pull the trick.

Still on the basketball menu for this week is a league encounter with Linden McKinley on the President's court tonight and a visit from Marion tomorrow night. Basketball fans are advised that the chances of getting seats for this game are very good since the northern club is not expected to bring along very many followers.

The Cowbays lost a "heartbreaker" to the North Polar Bears Friday night.

Close Contest

It was another of those "nip and tuck" affairs with neither team able to pick up more than four or five points on the other. West seemingly had victory in its grasp when, trailing by a score of 46 to 47, Don Hutchinson dumped in a two-pointer to put the Cowboys in the lead with something like 30 seconds of time remaining. But luck was not with the Cowboys that night. Lloyd Maddy took the ball following a jump ball and sank another shot from close in to make the score 49 to 48 in favor of the Polar Bears.

Paul Theisen got one more shot t the West basket but the gun boomed before a followup shot could be attempted.

The Cowboys defensive set up as not effective against the elusive Clark brothers who in addition to being excellent ball handlers are better than average shots. Jack Thrush took scoring honors with 18 points to 17 for Maddy. Chuck Weeks and Theisen each got 10.

As this is being whitten, the Cowboys have won 10 and lost six out of 16 games played. (For an acount of the Logan-West contest played on Tuesday night, see Section A of today's Hilltop Record).

The North defeat Friday was the third setback in league play with a like number of wins. The Hilltoppers have bowed to South Central and North while defeating Aquinas, East and Linden.

Jim Rudolph sparked the West Reserves to a 41-34 win in the Friday night preliminary. Jim connected for 18 points to carry off scoring honors.

Losing games by one and two-point margins is getting to be a habit with the Cowboys. Of the defeats suffered, only one has been by more than four points. Early in the season West dropped a 43-41 decision to Springfield. The next night they lost by a 44-43 count to Portsmouth. Central downed the Hilltoppers by a score of 45-39, while Huntington eked out a 51-49 edge. South pulled the trick with a 65-61 tally and then the Polar Bears by the single point. West won its game from Aquinas by a slim two-point margin of 38-36.

How the Cowboys will fare without the services of Thrush, now a graduate but eligible for play through tomorrow night's game, is an uncertain matter. As this is being written, Jack has piled up 225 points in 16 contests for an average of a little better than 14 points per game. That this number of points is a significant factor, goes without saying. However, should Walter Hicks, Chuck Weeks or Paul Theisen come through as any one of the three are capable of doing, West may stay up in the race for the city loop title.

Time alone will reveal the answer to this now-puzzling problem.

Knights of Columbus League

One of the closest leagues this year is the Knights of Columbus League, which rolls Friday evenings at 8:30. The league is composed of Knights of Columbus members. It is run on a handicap basis and at this time there are only five games separating the first seven teams.

Dick Ardle

Only Westgate Roofing and White are below the 500 mark. All the teams average, with their handicaps, better than 900, with Moraine Florists and Finneran and Fischer holding the highest averages of 954. Murphy's Service Station and Finneran and Fischer are in first place tie with a record of 34 and 26. Sayer's Realtors and Howard's Opticians are tied for third place with 31 wins and 29 losses while Sheehan's Insurance and Moraine, owning 500 records, are only one game behind them with 30 wins and 30 losses.

Individual honors (which contain their handicaps) are held by Joe Skufa with a high single game of 281 and Bob Fischer with the high three game honors of 740. Bob's series, without handicap, was 680, which is the highest series to be rolled to date.

Team honors (also including handicaps) are held by Howard's Opticians, who hold the high team game of 1079 and high series of 3149.

The two top averages in the league are W. Finneran and Bob Fischer, each holding a 177 average.

Team records and averages so far this year are as follows:

Kenny bowls on Monday and Wednesday, besides bowling on the early shift at Broad Olympic on Wednesday evening. On Monday evening he rolls for David Davies and is the second highest averager with 186. On Wednesdayshe rolls in the last-off position for the Hilltop Van and Storage team and is the highest averager in the league with 184. Olentangy Seeks 4th Win Friday In Glenwood Loop

By Bob Humphrey

Undefeated Olentangy Post No. 1615 will seek its fourth victory in a clash against Mellman Corner Friday at 7 p. m., headlining the fourth set of Glenwood Independent Basketball League games at Glenwood Park gym.

In other games on the program, Hilltop Kiwanis Club engages Hilltop Van and Storage at 7:30, Spears Funeral Home faces Standard Oil at 8 o'clock and South-East A. C. meets High-Buttles at 8:30.

Olentangy Post gained undisputed possession of first place in the league standing, with three wins and no losses, by handing High-Buttles its initial defeat of the season, 39 to 27, last Friday.

The closest game last Friday was Spears Funeral Home's 25 to 24 victory over Hilltop Van and Storage. In one-sided games, Hilltop Kiwanis trampled Standard Oil, 52 to 20, and Mellman Corner trounced South-East A. C., 34 to 16.

Olentangy Post enjoyed a 19 to 10 lead over High-Buttles at the half and enlarged the margin during the third and fourth quarters. Bob Tracy and Joe Bennett topped the league leaders in scoring, with 13 and 12 points, respectively, while Harvey Eader registered nine points for the losers.

Tom Arnold connected with a field goal and a free throw in the final moment of play to account for Spears Funeral Home's winning margin over Hilltop Van and Storage. 'Joe" Gordon scored seven points for Hilltop Van.

Borror Scores 15

Dick Layne, former West High star, turned in a stellar defensive performance for Hilltop Kiwanis Club, holding Standard Oil's high scoring Ray Stinson, also a Hilltop athlete, to six points. Don Borror romped in with 15 points for Kiwanis for high scoring honors of the game and also of the evening.

Don Ijams, another Hilltopper, racked up 10 points to lead Mellman Corner to an easy victory.

The first protest of the season was filed with the City Recreation Department last week when Spears Funeral Home protested its recent 36 to 34 loss to Hilltop Kiwanis Club in a recent Glenwood Independent League game. The Spears management claimed misinterpretations by an official. The protest was scheduled to be decided some time this week at a meeting at the City Recreation Department.

Harvey Eader of High-Buttles and Joe Bennett of Olentangy Post are tied for the Glenwood League's individual scoring leadership, being credited with 39 points each. They are followed by Don Borror of Hilltop Kiwanis with 35 points; Ray Stinson of Standard Oil, 30; Clark, Olentangy Post, 29; Bob Tracy, Olentangy Post, 29; Don Ijams, Mellman Corner, 27; Ray Grable, Hilltop Van and Storage, 27; Tom Arnold, Spears Funeral Home, 23; Dick Layne, Hilltop Kiwanis, 23; Jack Hammett, Hilltop Kiwanis, 21, and Allmen, Mellman Corner, 19.

Baby Review Features '48 Derby Winner

(All photos courtesy J. Curtis Allen)

This week's Hilltop baby review includes the winner of the 1948 Hilltop Stork Derby, tiny Sharron Elizabeth Finneran (center), who, incidentally, is the youngest of some 150 babies photographed for The Hilltop Record thus far. Sharron was born on New Year's Day.

In the upper left hand corner is Sharron's older sister, Eileen Mary, 21 months. The two are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Finneran, 211 S. Eureka-av. Eileen was born in England, her mother's native land. She came to this country with her mother to join her father in March, 1947. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Finneran of the S. Eureka-av address.

Twenty-month-old Sally Ellen Dellinger is the young lady with the wistful expression (holding her teddy bear). Sally has an older brother, Rodger, 6, a pupil at John Burroughs School. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dellinger, 3086 Sullivant-av. Mrs. Dellinger is the former Fern Homer. Mr. Dellinger is office manager of the Tellings Ice Cream Company.

Garry Howard Leeka (upper right) is 4 years old. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Leeka, 204 S. Richardson-av. They have another son, Wayne Ellis, 8. Mr. Leeka is an electrical engineer with the Ohio Bell Telephone Company. Mrs. Leeka is the former Augretta Jarrell.

Six-month-old Diane Rawlins (second row, left) is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Rawlins of 445 S. Eureka-av. Diane was born June 24, 1947. Her mother is the former Phyllis Wood.

Another six-month-old is Steven Wayne Snider (center row, right). His parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. Snider, 288 N. Sylvan-av. His father drives for the C. D. Kenny Company. Steven's birthday is June 21.

Polly Ann Williams (lower row, left) is the young lady with the engaging smile. She was just 2 years old on Nov. 3. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Keith Williams, 481 N. Powell-av. Her mother is the former Pauline Neff. Her father is a plasterer by trade.

John Richard Underwood (lower center) would not give with a smile for the cameraman. He is the youngest of four children in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Underwood, 446 S. Harris-av. Other brothers and sisters are Charlotte Louise, 8, Sharon Lee, 14, and Edgar, Jr., 17. Underwood is a superintendent for the John A. Johnston & Son Construction Company. Mrs. Underwood is the former Mary Yarger.

Another six-month-old is Diane Kay Ogle (lower right). Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack F. Ogle, live at 193 N. Eureka-av. Her father is a brakeman for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Mrs. Ogle is the former Betty Miller.

Appointments Are Again Available For Publication Of Baby Pictures

Subscribers to The Hilltop Record are again invited to phone the office and have arrangements made for running a photograph of their young child. There is no cost or obligation on the part of the parents for this service.

Pictures will be used in approximately the order taken but exact date of publication cannot be given in advance. Children of preschool age are preferred and it is suggested that only one child in a family be photographed so that more families can thus be represented. (In the case of twins, both children will be included.)

To date well over 100 pictures have been taken. Orders were pouring in so rapidly it became necessary temporarily to discontinue taking appointments until publication could catch up with those photographed.

J. Curtis Allen, 221 N. Ogden-av, is taking all pictures in the present series. Just call RA. 1125 to list the name of your baby for a setting. If you are not already a subscriber to the Record, the matter can be remedied very simply by sending in $1.50. The paper will be mailed to your home every week for an entire year.

Nothing IS FREE!

You Pay THE BILL Regardless.

COMPULSORY HEALTH INSURANCE, under the guise of broadening Social Security, would make wage earners more and more subservient to an already top-heavy Federal bureaucracy. Every individual would pay the full price of his medical care, through deductions and additional taxes—and would further pay in lowered quality, less freedom of choice, and snarls of red tape.

In a nation-wide survey by Opinion Research Corporation, three-fourths of the people stated their Doctor's bills were fair and reasonable. For large and unexpected medical and hospital bills, 87½% preferred VOLUNTARY pre-payment plans.

NOTHING is free about a COMPULSORY Health Tax . . . don't allow it to become a compulsory tax burden. Tell your Congressmen and Senators you do not want it, and have your clubs act.

Martin Luther Downs Grove City

By Dave Miller

Martin Luther went on to its fourth victory by beating a stubborn Grove City five, 42 to 32, in a Senior Church League game of the Lutherans at John Burroughs Monday evening.

Although the ultimate winners trailed at half time by a 17 to 12 margin, the Luthers came out with 30 points for their win. Bob Shuerl, one of the senior league's leading scorers, topped the individuals with six goals and three free throws for a 15-point total. Teammate O'Connor came second to Shuerl with 11 tallies. Bob Ford led the losers with 10 points.

Center Intermediate defeated St. John E. in a rough and tumble game. The southerns, led by Bob Cloud, who got five buckets and a free throw for 11 points, held a 13 to 5 lead when the half ended. The final score was 30 to 22. With the score at 20-all, three quick bunnies by Cloud, Mahior, and Dellanbach put the game on ice for the winners. Larry Oliver, Ted Fladt and Dick Briggs scored eight, seven and five points respectively to lead a loser's cause. Harry Bradley of the losers, top scorer of the Intermediate Loop was held scoreless by the tight guarding of Sam Wright.

In the third game, St. Matthews turned the heat on Hope No. 2 both on the defense and offense. In the second half as the St. Matthew five came from the dressing room at the half, the score was in their favor, 14 to 12. They scored 28 points and held their opponents to zero as they won 42 to 12. Bill Ott took scoring honors as he scored 10.

The fourth contest saw Bethlehem Intermediate beat a weak St. John No. 2 team by a 30 to 14 count. Larry Sass of the winners copped scoring honors with 10 points. The winners held a 12 to 8 half-time lead.

827,000 Veterans To Get Ohio Bonus

By I. Voldness

An estimated population of 827,000 Ohio World War II veterans is being used as a basis for planning the distribution of the Ohio bonus, Chester W. Goble, director of the World War II Compensation Fund, announced.

Beneficiary claims expected are being based on 16,800 casualties for the navy, marines and coast guard.

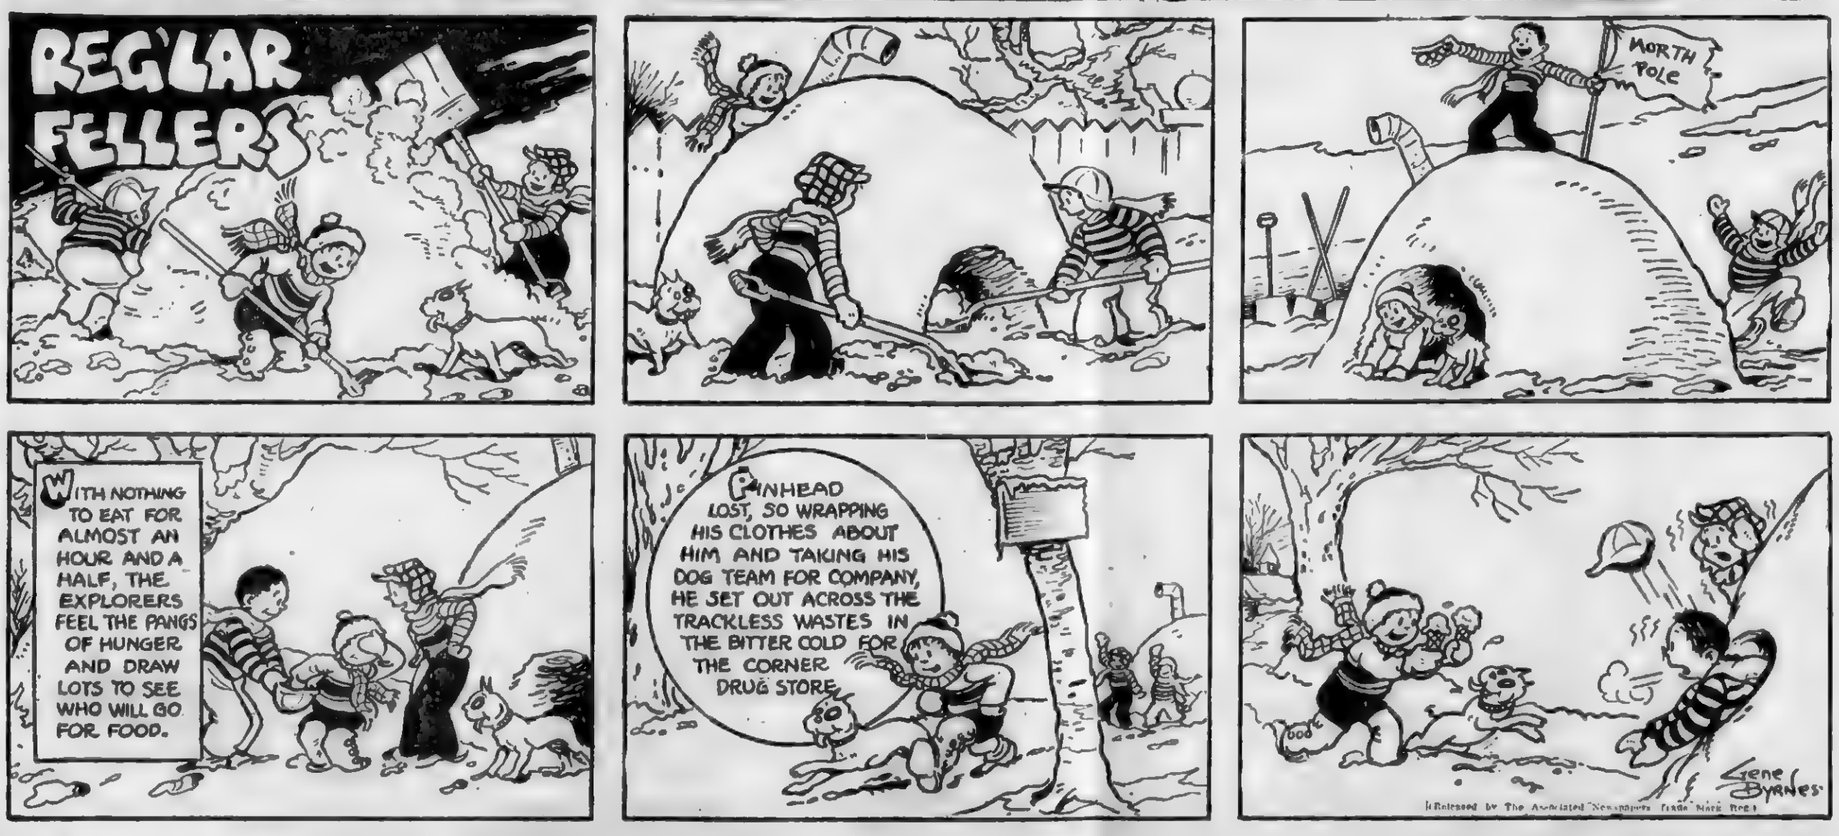
Plans are now being made to carry out an accurate, economical and expedited payment of the Ohio bonus based upon the estimated veterans population in each county. Application forms for the bonus will be distributed in each of the 88 counties simultaneously. Veterans organizations in the counties are expected to aid in the preparation of the applications, which are expected to be ready in February.

It will be a case of "first come, first served," so far as bonus payments are concerned. Applications will be numbered in the order in which they are received at the Columbus office and payment will be made accordingly. While no definite date has been set for payments to go out, it has been estimated that it will probably be June before all the arrangements can be made to distribute the $300,000,000 bonus to veterans.

Director Goble said 94 tons of paper will be used for application forms and envelopes. He said 42 tons would be required for forms for living veterans, two tons for application forms for deceased veterans and 50 tons for envelopes.

Members of the State Sinking Fund Commission have jurisdiction over the bonus set-up. They are State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson, president; Secretary of State Edward J. Hummell, secretary, Governor Thomas J. Herbert, Attorney General Hugh S. Jenkins and State Treasurer Don H. Ebright.

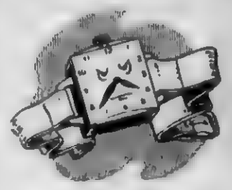
Auditor Ferguson said he is working on a plan to expedite the bonus payment before June—possibly in April. He said everything possible would be done to start the payments as soon as possible.



Birds Need Food, Shelter Now

It's time again for that annual reminder for the general public to provide a winter dinner-table for the birds.

The recent snow and ice has gradually sent man's feathered friends scurrying for new sources of food and therefore any assistance from a little effort on the part of someone who takes the trouble to provide a few scraps of bread or other bird edibles will "keep 'em singing" all through the winter.



Suggestions have been made that the discarded Christmas tree be set up in the back yard decorated with crusts of bread, meat scraps and fruit. The suggestion is a good one provided the food is tied directly to the twigs or limbs and not left dangling on a piece of string as a glass ball on Christmas Eve. Most birds are not of an acrobatic nature to the extent of wrapping their toe-nails around the string while dining, and only the humming bird is equipped with the wing mechanism that allows him to take a bite in flight; therefore it is advisable to tie the food directly to the branches.

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

I'm back again with the regular gossip of the things going on at the Canteen.

I guess there is one thing to be straightened out. A certain person by the name of Gene Jacques seems to think that by saying semi-formal we are keeping some of the kids away from the super dance to be held Saturday, Jan. 31. We hope this is not true, so to satisfy him and all the others who are so easily frightened YOU MAY COME AS YOU USUALLY DRESS. That means girls can wear their sweaters and skirts, and the boys can even wear their oldest pair of overalls. No matter what you wear I'm sure you're in for a wonderful time, with the music by ZIGGY COYLE how could it be anything but "wonderful"! By the way, have you seen the invitations for the dance? They're a Mel Griggs original, and you can get yours from any officer or board member or by stopping in at the Canteen. There are only about 150 invitations so you had better get busy right away if you haven't already gotten yours.

We now have new officers at the Canteen. Well, we do have a new president, Guy Celli. The vice-president is Bob Oldfield and the secretary is Marilyn Bonnet. Good luck to them.

Did you know that the membership has been greatly increased over last month's membership? Let's keep up the fine work

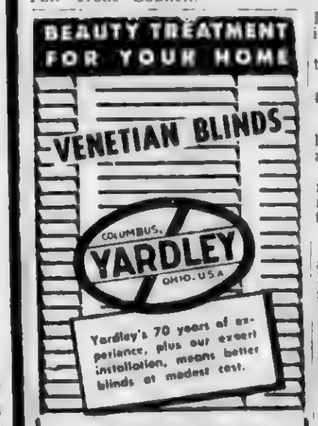
I found Guy Celli keeping his eye on a cute little blonde Friday night. She's pretty mella, isn't she, Guy?

Ronnie Booth with that bright smile of his was seen recently at the Canteen

Have you heard that the pool table now has a new cover and is in working condition again? From the looks of the gangs that crowd around it must be pretty mella

Roger Giest and Joe Six are really fine dancers (ballet, that is). You should see them do all those wonderful turns and leaps. Ho! Ha!

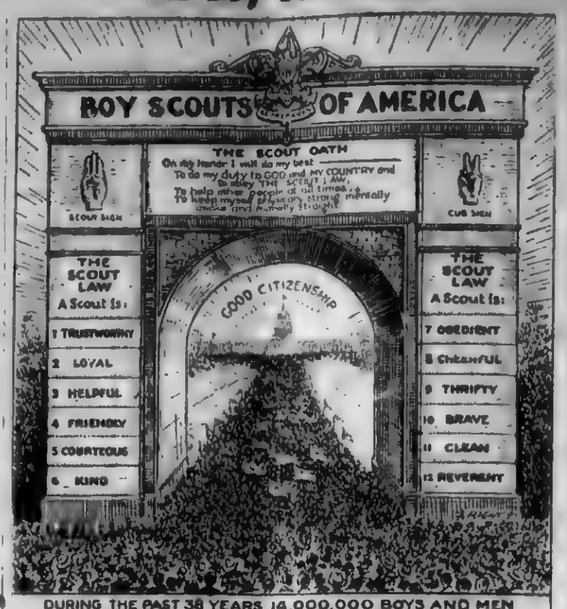
There have been some new additions to the records at the Canteen, and they are really good. I wonder who the generous person is who buys all the records and then leaves them for us to play.



Well, kids, remember that mella dance is this Saturday, and I hope to see all of you there. It's well worth your time as you will see if you come. Get your tickets from any officer or board member.

Jan. 31 Deadline To Pay Unemployment Compensation Tax

Frank J. Collopy, Bureau of Unemployment Compensation administrator, today warned employers subject to the Ohio Unemployment Compensation Law that they have until midnight, Jan. 31, to turn in both their tax (contribution) reports and payments for the fourth quarter of 1947. Such payments and reports must be postmarked Jan. 31 or earlier to avoid penalties as provided by the Ohio law



Collopy pointed out that employers subject to the Federal Unemployment Tax Act also had to meet the Jan. 31 deadline if they desired to avoid additional penalties. Employers with three or more employes are subject to the State Unemployment Compensation Law while those with eight or more employes are covered by the federal law

Any assault against Fair Trade laws, if successful, would depress wages and give the wage earner less in value for his harder-to-get dollar, according to John W. Anderson, president of American Fair Trade Council.

The Boy Scout Goal

DURING THE PAST 38 YEARS 14,000,000 BOYS AND MEN MARCHED THROUGH THIS ARCH OF HONOR.

Er' Excuse Me

As a nation and as a world, we've lost something these last few troubled months. Maybe it's our sense of values, and maybe it's just our sense of humor. At any rate, something is wrong. And I've got a unique if not too intelligent theory about it. What we need is a new and better understanding of the BURP! Consider this: What do you know for certain about every man, woman, and child in the world today? That each and every one of them burps after a good meal, that each and every one of them is human . . . as much so as you and I. Of course, there are different types of burps, just as there are different types of people. Some burps are nothing more than little squeaks. These are quite popular with the ladies. Some burps have a dramatic quality. These are introduced by the fanfare of a sudden, inhaled gasp. Often, these are mistaken for distemper fits. I remember that Grandpa once gave all of us heirs a whale of a scare with a burp like this. We all jumped up and ran over to rub his hands and loosen his collar, but he just smiled and asked for a toothpick. Then there's the anticipated burp. This one can be most enjoyable if you just let yourself go. It's the kind you can feel rumbling up from your stomach, and you have time to sort of leisurely guess at what it's going to taste like.

Wilson

There are hundreds of variations on these three basic types, but they're not so important. The main point is that we appreciate the burp for what it really is: a tradition as old as time itself, and a pretty reliable basis for judging people. A person who tries to camouflage a burp, or tries to give the impression that he doesn't burp at all, is dishonest. A person who eats a good meal and then tells you about it in this international language is the right sort. He makes a true friend and a good companion (provided he doesn't eat onions).

Yes, it's time we recognized the social significance of the BURP! er, excuse me.

A Hollywood producer received a story entitled "The Optimist." He called his staff together and said: "Gentlemen, this title must be changed to something simpler. We're intelligent and know what an optimist is, but how many of those morons who'll see the picture will know he's an eye doctor?"

An elderly man had become hard-of-hearing and was constantly worried lest the affliction progress to total deafness. Seated one day on a park bench he noted that another man on the same bench was talking rapidly but he could not hear a sound. He groaned aloud, "I'm deaf at last! I can see you've been talking all along, but I haven't heard a word you said." But the other just grinned and said, "Ain't been talkin', just achawin."

"Have some more pudding," said an East Side hostess to a guest.

"Just a mouthful, please," cautioned the guest.

"Fill her plate again," said the hostess to the maid.

SCRIPTURE: Isaiah 53:4-6; Matthew 1:21; 5:17; 20:25-28; Luke 19:1-10, Hebrews 4:15, 16.

DEVOTIONAL READING: Isaiah 53: 1-12.

His Work of Salvation

Lesson for February 1, 1948

PROFESSOR WILLIAM JAMES was once asked to give a definition of Christianity. He replied, "I doubt if there is a satisfactory definition of Christianity, but I can give you an example of it — Dr. Phillips Brooks."

Dr. Newton

Our lesson for Sunday tells us many things about Jesus, his work of salvation chiefly. But before we can understand what he does, we must look again at who he was and is. We begin with Isaiah 53:1-12. Who can read those majestic words without tears? And then we come to Matthew 1:21, "And thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins." Then go on to read Matthew 5:17-28, Luke 19:1-10, and Hebrews 4:15, 16.

The key verse, it seems to me, in Sunday's lesson is Luke 19:10, "The Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost." Hold to this key, and every door will open in this lesson.

JESUS HELPS ZACCHAEUS

IN THE first ten verses of the 19th chapter of Luke we have the fascinating story of Jesus calling Zacchaeus down from the tree, forgiving his sins, and entering into his house. The disciples complained that Jesus had gone to lunch with a man that was a sinner. It was then that the Master declared, "The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

Zacchaeus is but an illustration of what Jesus seeks to do for every man. He has not come to save a few, but "whosoever will." He will not force himself upon any man, but he waits in hope of saving every man.

The "worst" boy in your community may be saved — will be saved — if only he will do as Zacchaeus did, come to Jesus, just as he is, confessing his sin and believing on the Lord Jesus Christ.

HOW JESUS CHANGES PEOPLE

JESUS saved Zacchaeus by forgiving his sins and putting a new attitude in his heart. He had harmed many people, or at least they thought he had. They would not forgive him.

He may not have asked them to forgive him, but when he met Jesus and was changed by the redeeming grace of the Saviour, he proposed to restore fourfold wherever he may have wronged anyone. More than that, Zacchaeus offered to give the half of his goods to the poor. He gave convincing evidence that he was a changed man. So will every man who believes in Jesus.

But we must remember this, Zacchaeus bared his soul to the Saviour in repentance of his sins and believed on him as the Son of God before he manifested a changed attitude.

THE PURPOSE OF JESUS

RECALL again the words of the angel to Joseph, "Thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins." It was to save sinners like Zacchaeus that Jesus came down from heaven and died on the cross. That was and is his purpose.

"He went about doing good, for God was with him," Acts 10:38.

We shall never understand the work of Jesus until we come to see him at work in every age and amongst all mankind to do the will of the Father in saving any and all who will come unto him in faith believing.

"SO SEND I YOU"

JESUS calls upon you and upon me and upon every follower of his to accept as the central purpose of our lives this mission of winning lost souls unto him. "As the Father hath sent me, so send I you."

I sat in a boat with two prominent business men, fishing in a private lake one afternoon last November. Mr. Asa G. Candler of Atlanta and I were guests of Mr. Carl F. Collins of Dallas. We were at his Wild Briar farm, a few miles from Dallas. We were talking about the plight of the world. Mr. Collins said: "What is money worth if we think of it apart from the purpose of God? Until we come back to the words of Jesus, 'Send I you,' we cannot hope to improve the sorrowful plight of our frightened day and generation. All men are lost until they come to know him as Saviour."

Let this testimony of one of God's gentlemen be heard and heeded by laymen and preachers alike, and fear will give way to faith, and the kingdoms of this earth will become the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Hilltop Parents Have Full Program

A program prepared by Mrs. Lillie Mae Smith, Irene Madden and Rose Brown was presented before the January meeting of the Hilltop Parents' Association at the Wheatland Methodist Church.

Reports were received on the membership campaign, extended through the month of January. The St. Nicholas tea, climaxing the fall program of the kindergarten, was well attended.

All children enrolled in the kindergarten are expected to be vaccinated and immunized by Feb. 2. Any parents objecting must sign a card that will be kept on file. Children between the ages of 2½ and 6 years are invited to enroll.

Members of the kindergarter who will start in the first grade of school are Della Gentry, Vivian Deberry, Victor Jackson, Wanda Cock and Melissa Cheeck.

The group piano class meets regularly twice each week on Monday and Wednesday from 5 to 5:45 p. m. There are still two openings.

The dramatic group was entertained with a party last month given by Irene Madden and Rose Ann Brown. The sewing, knitting and crocheting class meets every Wednesday at 8 p. m. A display and style show is being planned by this group.

The Parents' Association is sponsoring a team in the Godman Guild Saturday afternoon league. These girls, known as the Hilltoppers, have won three out of four games in the first round of play. They were defeated by Beatty Center but won games from Neighborhood House, Godman Guild and the YMCA Cotties.

The Spectator By C.C. Hartley

We introduce as guest columnist for The Spectator this week Dr. H. C. Shetrone, 3038 Crescent-dr, director emeritus of the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society, and a Hilltopper for the past 40 years. Dr. Shetrone, a former newspaper man, is widely recognized in university circles for his outstanding work in the field of archaeology. He is the author of "The Mound Builders" and a couple of dosen shorter published articles.

The Editor

No more heavy gambling with Carlton Hartley! We flipped a penny to decide which of us should go to Florida. He's too good for me!

Speaking of penny flipping P. W. sprang a hot one on this same theme in this column last week. We recall an earlier version which carries back to Columbus horse-drawn street car days. Tickets and fare registers had not as yet been installed, and the Company was entirely dependent on the conductor's honesty. So, you paid your nickel and the conductor, 'twas said, flipped the coin at the bell cord, if it stuck to the cord it belonged to the Company. Otherwise

And speaking of jokes: They say there really are only a few original ones, and that most of these we hear nowadays are just warmed-over old ones. Like a lot of modern tunes, eh? Fortunately a good joke, like a good tune, will stand repeating.

A joke is something humorous, and something humorous is something that tickles your funny bone, which is located in your humerus. You've heard this one before, but we insist on nominating, as the joke-of-the month, the story of the two ambitious fleas, who saved their money—and bought their own dog!

THE HILLTOP is a Big Town now, virtually independent, but proud to be a part of Greater Columbus; a city of homes, and of religious, educational, professional and industrial assets designed to serve those homes. We have in prospect a branch "Y", a Veterans' Memorial, and an appreciable increase in population. Post-war recovery for the most part is all that might be expected. Even such essentials as medical service, inadequate during the war are greatly improved, with additional physicians available to share the burden of those who served so faithfully during the crisis.

Looking forward, can we envision a hospital for the Hilltop?

JAYBIRDS, redbirds, woodpeckers, robins, mockingbirds—and innumerable sparrows and starlings all these have visited this reporter's feeding station this winter. How cheerless it would be to glance out the window at the wintry landscape without seeing a bird!

Few people are aware of the large number of these feathered friends that winter over on the Hilltop. Crumbs are scarce in these inflationary times, but there always are a few. Scratch feed, an ear of corn for the cardinals, a bit of suet for many kinds of birds, are helpful suggestions. Many birds die each winter, not so much from cold as from lack of food.

Let's give the birdies a lift! Even the sparrows are good Hilltoppers; they stick with us through thick and thin, always cheerful. They can take it!

We were privileged recently to attend a lecture by one of Columbus' able newspaper editors, which gives cause for thought and action. The address dealt with world acceleration and the problem of food supply for the unprecedented increase of population made possible by the machine age and mass production.

The speaker recalled the fact that all life, human or otherwise, is directly dependent on food resources and that these are becoming perilously depleted, with under-nourishment and even starvation threatening millions of human beings. The problem resolves itself into the question as to whether or not the production of food from natural resources and synthetically can keep pace with population increase and, if so, for how long.

Discussion which followed the lecture brought out two distinct reactions. One was the belief that science would find means of food production indefinitely. Another view was that population will continue to exceed production and that eventually, perhaps periodically, the laws of nature will have to restore the natural balance. These less optimistic opinions refer to the current world-wide chaos as evidence that this process already is under way. Man they believe, cannot—or will not—avert the calamity of over-population, and that nature, as always, will do so.

SHORTIES: Add Newcomers: Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bigelow, their daughter, Joan, and son, John, Jr., recently became residents of the Hilltop. They reside at 53 S. Huron-av, in the home recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Zelkoff, who now live in Upper Arlington.

Attendance Increases For This Term

When the new term of classes opened on the Hilltop Monday morning, teachers in all schools found that the enrollment figures were slightly higher than in the previous semester. However an over-all comparison between this semester and that of last year shows a decrease of 37 pupils.

D. W. Stephenson, 125 N. Harris-av, was elected president of the Hilltop Conservation Club at a meeting held on Monday evening.

Plans for the club's fox drive to be held on Feb. 21 were perfected. Those participating will meet at the 10-Mile Inn at 9:30 a.m. Shotguns will be used with pellet ammunition. Luncheon will be at the 10-Mile Inn and the Buckeye Club. A second group of hunters will start about 1 p.m. No license is required to get in the hunt.

Other officers elected Monday night include Walter Pharis, Galloway, first vice president; Lew Mutsh, 223 Binns-blvd, second vice president; Robert Postle of the Hilltop Sporting Goods Co., treasurer; E. J. Colebeck, Sr., 361 S. Richardson-av, secretary.

W. B. Saint, 194 N. Hague-av, and A. J. Sims, 2425 Dartmoor-av, were each elected to three-year terms on the trustee board.

Family Left Homeless By Devastating Fire

Fire last week destroyed all of the possessions, except the family car, of one family living near the Hilltop.

While Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Thompson, 1823 Little-av, were doing their grocery shopping, fire broke out in their residence and completely destroyed the building and its contents including a new electric range. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and their daughter, Anna Lou, 7, were left with nothing more than the clothing they were wearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Boggs, 1796 Little-av, are sharing their home with the Thompsons until a building next door to the Thompson home, intended for a store, can be outfitted for a temporary home.

Mr. Thompson, a railroader, has been working only two days per week recently. Anything in the way of clothing or home furnishings would be very much appreciated by the family. A sewing machine would be particularly useful since Mrs. Thompson made most of the clothes for the family.

The little girl wears a size 8 or 9 dress and a size 1 shoe. Mrs. Thompson wears a size 20 dress and a 7½ shoe while Mr. Thompson is a size 38.

Any Record reader who may desire to help this unfortunate family is invited to call RA. 7107 for further information.

Two Girls Are "Capped"

Two Hilltop girls were among the 39 who received their caps in traditional ceremonies at Mt. Carmel Hospital Tuesday evening.

They are Ruth Kreuz, 403 S. Wayne-av, and Jeanne Murnane, 364 Binns-blvd.

Boosters To Pick Up Paper Sun.

What to do with the winter's accumulation of old newspapers and magazines? That question explains the perturbed expression on the face of Mrs. Paul Wichterman, 1640 Beaver-ln, upper left.

At right Danny Miles, 27 S. Terrace-av, shows Mrs. Wichterman how to tie the papers up in neat bundles to be picked up in the big paper drive being put on by the West High Boosters Club Sunday afternoon. Miles, a likely prospect for the 1948 Cowboy football team, is only one of scores of West students who will help Boosters collect the paper. All proceeds will be used to further athletics at West High School. (Photos are by J. Curtis Allen.)

Football Coach Cites Benefits Of Booster Club

"The West High Boosters Club has certainly made the Hilltop West High conscious—particularly along athletic lines."

That in essence sums up the feelings of A. M. (Mack) Pemberton, coach of last year's undefeated football team. The grid coach, always a participant in the big Booster paper drives, will again be behind the wheel of one of the fleet of 15 trucks that will scour the Hilltop for waste paper Sunday afternoon.

"Speaking for the football players, I can say that the boys take pride in the fine athletic plant we have here at West. I know that they play just a little better ball then they might otherwise because of it," Coach Pemberton continued.

"I look for the enthusiasm that reached an all-time high last fall to continue for at least another year, even though we may not have as strong a team as in '47. We're already looking forward to next year.

"From the standpoint of the school as a whole, I am glad that the Boosters are planning to spend some of this money for enlargement of athletic facilities for the girls," the Cowboy grid mentor commented.

"I particularly urge all football candidates (and other athletes) to come out and help with the drive Sunday. I know we can make it a success if we get enough help to ring the doorbells. The girls, too, can be of invaluable help in going ahead of the trucks and letting people know we are picking up the paper," he concluded.

Here's How To Help

Here's how you can help the West High Boosters Club if you have scrap paper, magazines, cardboard or old rags:

1. Tie each type of material in separate bundles (not too large to handle conveniently).
2. Place papers, etc., on your front porch or at the curb before 11 a.m. Sunday.
3. If you will not be at home on Sunday, a call to RA. 0725 will bring some one to get your contribution on Saturday afternoon.

County's Last Civil War Vet Succumbs Here

Funeral services for Byre B. Stith, 103, Franklin County's last known surviving veteran of the Civil War, were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the Wylie S. Shroyer Funeral Home, 1278 W. Broad-st. Burial was in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Stith, a veteran of three years' service with Co. I, 3rd Regiment of the Kentucky Mounted Infantry, died early Saturday at the home of a niece, Mrs. Mary Kelley Smith of 264 West Park-av.

After enlisting in the Union Army at 17, Stith became a corporal and served under Generals Sherman, Grant and Sheridan.

He moved here 15 years ago. Mr. Stith had been bedridden for years, but remained mentally alert and in comparatively good health until two weeks ago.

Surviving also are several nieces and nephews in Kentucky. His wife and only daughter died several years ago.

Next Columbus Police Chief Likely To Be Hilltopper; 5 From Here Eligible

There's a good possibility that Columbus' next police chief will be from the Hilltop or West Side.

Of the seven men eligible to take the examination to fill the position to be vacated by Chief Lester W. Merica on Feb. 29, five of them are from this section of the city.

According to civil service regulations the appointment must go to the man scoring the highest mark in the test to be given on Feb. 18. In the case of a first-place tie, the man filing first at the civil service office will be awarded the job.

First on the list of eligibles to take the examination is Inspector Thomas A. Scully, 60, of 2101 Sullivant-av. Now in his 31st year of service in the department, Inspector Scully was instrumental in obtaining a conviction in the first case in which fingerprints were submitted as evidence in Ohio. He was promoted to captain in 1938, deputy inspector (a position now abolished) in 1940, and was made inspector a year later.

Captain Glenn Hoffman, 53, of 1940 W. Mound-st, was made chief of detectives in 1945. He has had long experience in the detective bureau, having joined the department in 1920. He received his captaincy in 1943.

Another Hilltopper, Captain Frank L. Harrison, 56, of 2984 Wicklow-rd, is considered an expert in traffic problems and now heads up the traffic bureau. He entered the department in June, 1925. He became a captain in 1945. He is the only chief candidate to see service in World War II. He was a member of the U. S. Navy, a branch in which he also served during World War I.

Captain Howard B. Hinton, 49, of 109 N. Dakota-av, joined the department in 1925. He was promoted to sergeant in 1940, lieutenant in 1943 and to captain in 1946. At present he is in charge of headquarters.

Known to thousands of Columbus youth is Capt. Charles W. Berry, 54, of 407 Midland-av. At present he is chief of the Juvenile and Missing Persons Bureau and has served as organizer and counselor for the Junior Police Department, the Girls' Choir and is currently in the process of organizing a band for youngsters in the city. He became a member of the department in 1923 and has held many assignments. He was night chief of detectives for a time and has been both sergeant and lieutenant in charge of precincts. He became a captain in 1944.

Paper Drive To Aid In Athletics At West High

The West High Boosters Club assisted by scores of high school students and at least 15 large trucks, will canvass the Hilltop to collect magazines or old newspapers next Sunday afternoon.

Richard (Dick) Francis, 370 S. Richardson-av, said this week that an effort will be made to cover every street on the Hilltop with the fleet of trucks during the day starting at 11 a.m. Workers are asked to report at the school at 10:30 a.m. for assignments.

"If every housewife on the Hilltop would put out even just a small bundle of scrap paper, magazines or rags, the drive will be a success," he said.

All proceeds will be used in a program to further athletics for both boys and girls at West High School. Faculty members, the students at West are cooperating to make the drive a success.

Booster Meeting Tonight

Gilbert Buckingham, 171 S. Terrace-av, president of the Boosters, has called a meeting of all members to be held at Room 101 at West High School tonight. Last minute details of the drive will be worked out at that time.

Students To Help

M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, 335 Guernsey-av, addressed an assembly at the school this week and was given the promise of help by scores of students. He will handle the back counter at which all students who work on the drive will be fed.

In charge of dispatching the large fleet of trucks to the various sections of the Hilltop will be Robert (Bob) Case, 87 N. Westmoreland-av, and David Randolf, 85 Midland-av, a member of the coaching staff. Leroy (Lee) Weigand, 3101 W. Broad-st will supervise the unloading and weighing of paper at the plant of the Indianapolis Paper Co.

Any firms or individuals having trucks to donate for the drive are asked to contact any member of the committee before Sunday. Food contributions from local grocers and confectioners would also be welcomed by the Boosters to prepare for the free lunch for the workers.

At the last report the following trucks had been donated with some drivers assigned:

Ohio Cartage (donated by Art Bishop) Perry Fay Motors (donated by K. M. (Slim) Elder); Krause and Pagura (truck and driver), Indianapolis Paper Co. (2) to be driven by Jack Buckingham and Phil O'Hara; David Davies (3) Robert Chrisman will be one of the drivers. (Mack) Pemberton; C. F. & I. Truck Lines (donated by L. H. Gossett); Powell Transfer donated and driven by Harry Yank).

8 Local Candidates File In May Primary Election

Williams To Seek Committee Post In 11th Ward

Earl Williams, 133 N. Wheatland-av, will be a candidate for Democratic 11th Ward committeeman in the May primary election. He is endorsed by the Democratic County Central Committee headed by Walter Heer.

Last week an insurgent Democratic group headed by County Engineer Allan Slade announced that Richard DeShetler, 266 Algonquin-av, would seek the 11th ward post.

Williams' candidacy seems to have been promoted by a group of "Old Line" Democrats interested in restoring harmony to the large Hilltop ward. The Heer organization lost out in that area two years ago when Henry Fagan defeated Grover Amuine.

Williams has lived on the Hilltop most of the time since 1911 and has a long record of primary election voting to his credit. He is a machinist at the Jeffrey Manufacturing Co., an enthusiastic bowler and past master of the West Gate Lodge.

Signers of his petition were Sam Willis, William Palmer, Harvey Carter, Raymond Sidwell and Woodrow Summers.

In the 10th ward Oscar Dildine, 31 S. Wheatland-av, the organization-backed incumbent, will be again opposed by G. Arlowe Bryant, 2139 Sullivant-av. Bryant is endorsed by the Slade forces.

There seemed to be no evidence of competition in either the 10th or 11th ward Republican committee post elections. George Sinclair, 108 Powhatan-av, will again be a candidate in the 11th Ward while Councilman Henry Koontz, 485 Hilltonia-av, will seek the 10th Ward job.

Fire Victim's Condition Is Still Critical

Mrs. Donald L. Lowe, 23, of the rear of 359 N. Sylvan-av, who suffered first and second degree burns over her entire body when her clothing caught fire early Tuesday morning, was reported to be in very critical condition at Mt. Carmel Hospital as the Record went to press yesterday evening.

The young mother of two children was firing a coal stove when her clothing became ignited in the garage apartment. Her screams attracted neighbors, who carried Mrs. Lowe from the apartment and rescued her children, Daniel Leroy, 2, and Delane Louise, five weeks.

Hilltop Library Is Still Closed Here

The Hilltop Branch Library remained closed at Record press time this week with no definite word as to when it would re-open. The library was closed on Jan. 27 because of the critical gas shortage.

Mildred Phalor told the Record Wednesday noon:

"We will re-open just as soon as the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. declares the 'gas emergency' at an end."

In the meantime any books falling due while the library is closed will not be considered as delinquent. Fines will not be levied for keeping them past the due date, Miss Phalor said.

Books can be obtained from the main library downtown during this emergency, she said.

Marshall Plan Is Insurance Against Red Menace, Sheriff Paul Believes

"The Marshall plan is the best form of insurance against the menace from the East," Sheriff Ralph Paul told the Hilltop Kiwanis Club at the Thursday luncheon meeting last week.

"Take my word for it, we'll have to get them (the Germans) back on their feet—there's a far greater menace facing us," the speaker emphasized in concluding an interesting talk about his experiences with the military government in Germany during and following World War II.

Major Edward T. Fogo, recently appointed registrar of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, will be the speaker at today's luncheon meeting at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st.

Lake Sheriff Paul, today's speaker is also a veteran of both World Wars I and II. He holds the Distinguished Service Cross, Purple Heart and the British Military Cross for his services in the first great conflict. He was awarded the Army Commendation Ribbon for his work with Ohio Selective Service during World War II.

Many Problems To Be Solved

Sheriff Paul said that he sees little danger of the Germans going Communistic but that serious problems face that country today. A shortage of food, the problem of displaced persons and a badly disrupted economy are among the major headaches of the defeated nation, he believes.

The veteran of two major wars pointed out that the Germans as a people are not "free thinking" in the sense that Americans are. It's difficult for them to give up the idea of worshiping a uniform.

Cologne, a city of 900,000 persons before the war, was 90 per cent destroyed and when the Americans moved in there were only 15,000 residents remaining, Paul related.

Wives of Hilltop Kiwanis Club officers will be in charge of the Feb. 12 meeting of the local club, it was announced this week. The dinner meeting will be held at 6:30 o'clock at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st.

Hilltop Will Share In City Improvements

The Hilltop will share materially in proposed city-wide civic improvements estimated to cost five and one half million dollars.

Draper To Run For Congress

Hilltoppers promise to be very much in evidence in the May 4 primary election.

After what at first seemed like only mild interest on the part of local candidates, the Wednesday filing deadline saw at least eight Hilltoppers throwing their hats in the ring.

Latest to officially enter the field is Robert M. Draper, a Democrat and a member of the Columbus School Board, who will be a candidate for congress from this district.

Draper, an attorney, who lives at 75 N. Roys-av, has been successful in the three times he has been a candidate for the school board post. He was re-elected to a third term in the election last fall after having been president of the board on two occasions.

Commenting on his decision to submit his name as a candidate for the congressional post, Draper said:

"The domestic issues are in such confusion today that it's time we straightened out our own house. We have not given sufficient consideration to our problems here at home."

After making the decision to enter the race only Monday noon, Draper said his petitions would be filed Tuesday or Wednesday.

Other candidates known to have circulated petitions for county offices as The Hilltop Record went to press this week are Joseph C. Nailor, Ohio General Assembly; George Matson, county commissioner; Newton Thatcher, county treasurer; Emile Reiss, sheriff; George Trabue, a candidate for county commissioner, Dr. E. W. Arnold for county coroner; and Joseph R. Hague for Ohio General Assembly.

Joseph R. Hague, a newcomer to Hilltop politics announced this week that he will be a candidate on the Republican ticket for the general assembly. An attorney, he is the son-in-law of the late Ray G. Hauntz, for many years a prominent figure in GOP circles.

Hague said his candidacy was urged by a number of prominent Republicans on the Hilltop. He married Dorothy Hauntz and moved to the Hilltop in 1941. They make their home at 44 Binns-blvd. Hague is a veteran of three years' naval service in World War II.

The candidacy of Nailor, 169 N. Burgess-av, promises to be an interesting one since he had been requested not to run by the Republican County Central Committee. Nailor has had organization backing in all of his previous campaigns. He has served 12 years in the legislature.

Thatcher, 2966 Crescent-dr, a former county auditor, was an unsuccessful candidate for that office in the 1946 election. A prominent Democrat, he is at present employed in the office of State Auditor Joseph Ferguson.

Matson, a Republican, lives at 87 N. Warren-av. Both he and his running mate, C. P. Lauferbaugh, will be seeking third terms in that county office.

Emile Reiss, another Hilltop Republican, announced his intention to run for the office of Franklin County Sheriff in May of 1947. He is an attorney and has had considerable experience in penal work.

George Trabue, 2771 McKinley-av, a Democrat, will again be a candidate for the office of county commissioner.

Dr. E. W. Arnold, 1975 Sullivant-av, said this week that he would be a Republican candidate for the office of county coroner. Dr. Arnold, a resident of the Hilltop for 17 years, has never sought a public office before. He served four and one-half years in the armed services during World War II.

Adult Scouters Are Badly Needed In This District

As Boy Scouts in troops of the Southwest District prepare to take part in the 38th birthday celebration of scouting, an urgent appeal for adult leaders was sounded by M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, chairman of the district.

"We need 20 adults to serve as neighborhood commissioners immediately and could use 40 or 50 in all," Sensenbrenner said.

Scout officials will meet at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st, Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. for a district meeting. Reservations for the dinner meeting should be made with Sensenbrenner at once.

An Eagle Court of Honor is to be held in Central High School auditorium on the afternoon of Feb. 15 starting at 2:30 o'clock.

Cowboys Bow To Central To Meet Bulldogs Tomorrow

The Pirates of Central High School tightened their hold on first place in the City League Tuesday night as they turned back the Cowboys, 49-36, in the West gym. It was the second defeat the downtowners administered to the Hilltoppers, who were beaten by an almost identical score during the first round. The early season score was 48-39.

Coach George Williams takes his boys to South High tomorrow night for the second game with the Bulldogs. South handed West a 65-61 defeat in the first-round game.

The Cowboys just never got rolling as the rangy Pirates controlled the rebounds a good portion of the evening and did a good job of ball handling. The visitors' shooting eye was not at its best and West consistently had difficulty making shots stick.

Cowboys Trail

Trailing at the end of the first period by a 13-10 score, the Cowboys dropped behind further during the second canto as the count went to 26-18. The third period saw the Hilltoppers score 11 points to 10 for the visitors and then tally 12 to nine points in the final period, but the margin could not be cut down.

Rules of Central set the scoring pace as he sank six buckets and two free throws for 14 points. Paul Theisen and Walter Hicks shared scoring honors for West with 11 tallies each.

Phil Young, scoring 10 points, sparked the Baby Buckaroos to a 31-19 victory over the visiting Central Reserves.

Glenwood Downs Westgate Monday; Burgess Remains Undefeated In Int.

By Dave Miller

In Glenwood West Church Senior League games played Monday evening, the feature game saw Westgate eke out a 22 to 21 victory over Holy Family in one of the most see-saw, bang-up games this season at Glenwood. Westgate jumped ahead in the opening moments and kept a nice lead throughout until the losers' started to click.

Close scores were the results of many of the other three. Only one, the Avondale-Indianola C. of C. game, was lop-sided. The former was the winner, totaling 43 to Indianola's 15. The winners, at one time, held a 38 point lead. In the "close ones", Hoge No. 1 was edged by Hoge No. 2, 27 to 24, and West Park downed a fighting Glenwood quintet, 31 to 28, in the opener of the night.

In the West Church Intermediate League, which played Tuesday night at the same gym, Hoge Memorial defeated Salvation Army in one of the biggest upsets of the season. Hoge walked off with a 27 to 13 triumph.

In other games, the only undefeated team in the league, Burgess EUB, defeated Westgate Evangelical rather easily, 37 to 22. Glenwood took its fourth win in five outings by defeating St. Aloysius, 27 to 23. Another major upset saw Riverside win its first game in five, by beating once-beaten West Park, 28 to 21.

Intermediate Standings

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Burgess EUB	5	0	1.000
Glenwood	4	1	.800
Hoge Memorial	4	1	.800
Salvation Army	3	2	.600
West Park Methodist	3	2	.600
Riverside	1	4	.200
St. Aloysius	1	4	.200
Westgate EUB	0	5	.000

The Intermediate pairings for next Tuesday night are as follows:

Salvation Army vs. West Park
Riverside vs. Hoge Memorial
Glenwood vs. Burgess EUB
Westgate EUB vs. St. Aloysius.

The Senior League schedule for Monday is as follows:

Glenwood vs. Hoge No. 2
Hoge No. 1 vs. West Park
Westgate EUB vs. Indianola
Avondale EUB vs. Holy Family

BOY SCOUTS IN THE Southwest District

TROOP 147

Troop 147 of Highland Avenue Friends Church had a week-end trip to Camp Lazarus Friday, Jan. 23, and returned Sunday, Jan. 25.

Those who attended were Scoutmaster Tom Faust and his assistant, Russell Street, and Boy Scouts Bob Reed, Dick Brown, John Brown, Herb Brown, Carmine DeMatteo, David Bill and Byron Bell.

During the activities each boy cooked his own dinner in the woods during the snow storm. Saturday night all the troops got together and had a fox hunt. Sunday morning church services were held at Clark Village, and after church the boys went skiing and ice skating. Everything wound up Sunday afternoon with a rabbit dinner. Fun was had by everyone.

Troop 79

Members of Troop 79 will have a place on the program of the morning worship service at the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church next Sunday. At that time the church, sponsor of the troop, will recognize the boys and their leaders. Richard (Mack) McFadden is the scoutmaster.

Stolen Bikes Recovered

Two bicycles stolen from in front of the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church Monday night were recovered by police within a few minutes after the thefts were reported. The bicycles belonged to two members of Troop 79—Bob Montenaro, 693 S. Terrace-av, and Don Robertson, 1053 Brownrd.

The boys were attending a troop meeting when the bikes were stolen.

tics in the way of additional playgrounds, more personnel and modernization of present equipment; and $1,100,00 to be used for extending the sanitary sewer network. Eighty-five new policemen are scheduled to go on duty soon.

While part of this program is being revealed for the first time, a considerable portion of this same plan has been released as "news" by city officials at least two or three times in recent months. However, the action of council in giving the "go ahead" to legislation making much of it possible, indicates action on at least part of the program should not be long in materializing.

Street Improvements

Included in the street improvement plans are paving of Binns-blvd from Vandenberg-av south to the corporation line; repair of Mound-st from Wayne-av west and the repaving of Sullivant-av west of Hague-av; resurfacing of Hague-av; repaving of Central-av from Broad-st to Town-st and W. Broad-st from Southampton-av, west to the corporation line.

The Hilltop's share of the increased fire protection is to be in the form of another fire house at a location yet to be determined. Several sites in the vicinity of Westgate Park have been suggested. Additional manpower would also increase existing facilities at House No. 17.

Details on the sanitary sewer improvements were not outlined in detail but it is understood that this area will also share in that program.

The recreation improvements include installation of some hard-surface tennis courts at Glenwood Park, rehabilitation of shelter house facilities at all local parks, modernization of toilet facilities, construction and repair of wading pools and a fieldhouse at McKinley Park.

Another new phase of that program is to include creation of a playground area in the city-owned Columbian-av tract of a little more than five acres between Co[illegible] Innisbrook and Woodbury avs south of Sullivant-av. At the start, only a portion of that tract will be graded and equipped for playground use.

Here Is The Reason Why Hoover Sells Meat For Less!

By Pictures We Are Endeavoring To Bring To Our Customers The Reason Why We Can Sell You Good Fresh Meat At Lower Prices!!

Leroy and Robert Hoover skinning a beef.

With but one exception, you will note that all of the operations shown on this page are being done by members of the immediate Hoover family, who have been engaged in the meat business during most of their entire lives.

All meat is killed in the Hoover's own modern slaughter house and is handled only once, thus eliminating entirely the packer's and wholesaler's commission. This plant was built and put into operation for the people of the Hilltop and vicinity.

During the last meat shortage, 90% of the meat we were allowed to kill went to Hilltop residents and we pledge that should there be another shortage, we will again let the people of the Hilltop area have our available supply of meat.

Mr. Hoover, who served in World War I, and his three sons, all former GI's, one son still serves in Japan, have made the meat industry their lifework, having operated a slaughterhouse in Ashville for 20 years before coming to the Hilltop area. They also have in operation a deep freeze room where four to five cattle can be frozen at once. Many persons buy a quarter of beef, have it cut, wrapped and frozen, and save a nice sum on their purchase.

Hoover's also do their own curing and smoking of hams and bacon, handle a variety of frozen foods, the everyday needs in the grocery line, and fresh fruits and vegetables.

City Basketball League Goes Into "Home Stretch"

Five Tough League Opponents Remain

The torrid City Leauge enters the "home stretch" stage this week as three teams battle it out for second place on the top rung of the ladder.

The Cowboys go to South tomorrow night and then prepare to face a return engagement from East on the home court the following Friday night.

For an account of the West-Central clash scheduled for the Hilltop court Tuesday night of this week, see section A of today's Hilltop Record.

The Cowboys boosted their percentage materially last week with three wins, two of them against non-league opponents. On Thursday night they played good ball to down Linden McKinley 59 to 53. On the home court the following night they handed Marion Harding a 63-45 defeat, the second time the Hilltoppers had turned that trick this season. Earlier in the week they had defeated Logan 52 to 28.

Nine-letter-winner Jack Thrush completed his scholastic career with West High last week and as friends of the star might have expected, there was nothing spectacular about it. In the Logan game last Tuesday he played only one quarter, scoring 4 points. Against the Panthers he marked up 9 tallies and secred exactly the same number against Marion Harding.

Coach George Williams did some experimenting with his lineup in an effort to find the right replacement for Thrush. Against the two non-league opponents he had a good opportunity to try different combinations with the city's leading point maker on the bench.

Theisen Scores 24

Two other West players came to the fore with Thrush either on the bench or helping to set up the shots for other teammates. Paul Theisen ran roughshod over the Presidents Friday night as he poured in 24 points, including nine buckets, most of them from the pivot position.

In the Linden tilt speedy Walter Hicks led the scoring with 18 points, followed closely by Theisen with 17. It set new scoring records for both players for the season and will boost their standings in the city loop scorjng column.

The Hilltoppers had little trouble with any of last week's opponents but it will be a different story from here on in. There's little sign of a "breather" in any of the five remaining league contests. The season closes on the Hilltop with a non-league game with Bexley on Feb. 27.

Dick Culbertson and Don Speakman saw considerable action during the past week and it's altogether possible that the former may be called upon to play the guard position left vacant by Thrush. Both Speakman and Culbertson have shown steady improvement in most departments of the game.

Fred Heischman's Reserves won and lost in last week's play. The Cowboys lost to Linden McKinley by a 34-30 score and then came back to defeat Marion in a low-scoring 24-20 contest on the home court.

Thrush Leads In Scoring Column

Jack Thrush, now one of West High School's outstanding three-sport athletic greats, again led the City League in the individual scoring column as he played his final game last week. This is the second year he has topped the city's list of basketball scorers.

In seven league games he has scored a total of 102 points for an average of 14.57 per game. His next closest contender is Earl Marshall of South with 92 tallies.

Three other West players rate high in the scoring column. Walter Hicks and Paul Theisen share sixth place honors with Eddie Zoog of Linden with 73 points while Chuck Weeks rates the 10th position with 64 points. (The above standings do not include the Central-West game scheduled to be played on Tuesday night.)

Thrush averaged 13 points per game in the total of 19 games played thus far this season. It's a foregone conclusion that this total could have been much higher had individual glory been the objective of Thrush and his coach, George Williams. Against weaker opponents Thrush frequently gave way to an understudy so that playing experience could be gained against the day that his position would have to be filled.

The Logan game here recently is a good example. Thrush is credited with only four points in that game, his lowest score of the season. He could probably have scored 30 or 40 had scoring honors been the goal.

UNIVERSITY TANKERS SUBMERGED BY WEST

University High's swimming team finished on the short end of a 43-23 score with West Friday in the Ohio State Natatorium. John Adams of University was high scorer with eight points, although he was nosed out in his specialty, the 100-yard free style, by Wolfe of West. Three Hilltoppers, Mowery, Wolfe and Sherman, scored seven points each.

Grove City Downs Rome In Senior Lutheran Loop

By Dave Miller

Grove City defeated Rome in the feature pairing of the Lutheran League at John Burroughs last Monday evening.

The ultimate winners held a 20 to 10 margin at the end of the half, and then went on to win by a 40 to 27 count. They were paced by Grassley, who got six goals for 12 points, and Kennedy, who hit for five fielders and one free throw for 11. Bill Klise of Rome helped the losers' cause in the first half when he came to the middle of the hardwood and sank three straight long tries. He collected a total of 10 points, followed by teammate Weber who hit for four fielders and eight points.

A much stronger and better team-playing five, Center, defeated a weak Hilltop team by a 42 to 12 score in the opening game of the evening. Ralph Wright collected nine fielders and one free toss to cop honors of all games with 19 points. Dellanbach, also of Center, came second with 10 markers. The South enders settled back with a 15 to 3 halftime lead.

St. Matthew Wins Again

In the other two games St. Matthew, led by its scoring ace, Bill Ott, who got six goals for 12 points, beat a very much outclassed St. John No. 2 team, 54 to 15. Jones of the Matthews went two better as he collected seven goals and topped Ott. Johnny Mcservary and Bill Garber collected 11 of their team's 15 markers. St. Matthew scored 24 points to the Juniors' seven in the second half of the contest.

Bethlehem relaxed from a 22 to 5 half-time lead to down a hard fighting little Hope No. 2 team 34 to 12. Jim Ealy tallied seven buckets and Roger Morgan four to aid the winner's cause. However, Ronnie James and Norm Ealy played stellar roles for Bethlehem. Bill Bentz of Hope tool his team's scoring honors with seven points.

Hilltop Van To Tangle With Undefeated Olentangy Post

By Bob Humphrey

Undefeated Olentangy Post No. 4615 is favored to win its fifth victory in as many starts in the Glenwood Independent Basketball League when it takes on Hilltop Van and Storage in the feature attraction of the fifth set of league games Friday at 9:15 p. m. at Glenwood Park gym.

The program opens at 7 o'clock, with South-East A. C. battling Standard Oil, followed at 7:30 with Hilltop Kiwanis Club engaging Mellman's Corner. In the third game of the evening at 8 o'clock, Jerry Spears Funeral Home tangles with High-Buttles.

In games last Friday, Olentangy Post walloped Mellman's Corner, 44 to 20; Hilltop Kiwanis laced Hilltop Van and Storage, 37 to 24; Spears Funeral Home trimmed Standard Oil, 38 to 30, and South-East A. C. eased out High-Buttles, 29 to 16.

Olentangy Post held a 19 to 13 lead over Mellman Corner at the half and then held the Corner boys to seven points in the last half to win an overwhelming victory. Gene Clark, former Central High and Otterbein College athlete, of Olentangy Post, scored 13 points, followed by his teammate, Ernie Plank, with 10. Don Ijams topped the losers with eight points.

Layne Scores 18

Dick Layne, former West High star, ran wild to score 19 points to lead Hilltop Kiwanis to a win and was ably assisted by Don Borror, another ex-Cowboy ace, who connected for 10 points. Bill Link accounted for 11 points for Mellman's Corner.

Tom "Dutch" Thum's 16-point scoring featured Jerry Spears Funeral Home's closely contested victory over Standard Oil. Harry Hopwood turned in eight points for the Oilmen.

Last Friday's win over High-Buttles was South-East A.C.'s first league victory of the season. Bill Lewis tossed in the winning field goal in the final moment of the fray and scored 10 points during the game. Harvey Eader was high for High-Buttles, with seven points. South-East held a slender 6 to 5 lead at the intermission.

Eader Leads League

The veteran Harvey Eader, rated as one of Columbus' outstanding all around athletes, is topping the league in individual scoring, having recorded a total of 46 points for High-Buttles, but is closely pressed by Joe Bennett of Olentangy Post and Don Borror of Hilltop Kiwanis, with 45 points each.

The 13 high scorers of the league follows: Harvey Eader, High-Buttles, 46 points; Joe Bennett, Olentangy Post, 45; Don Borror, Hilltop Kiwanis, 45; Dick Layne, Hilltop Kiwanis, 42; Gene Clark, Olentangy Post, 40; Ray Stinson, Standard Oil, 38; Bob Tracy, Olentangy Post, 37; Don Ijams, Mellman Corner, 35; Ray Grable, Hilltop Van and Storage, 35; Tom Arnold, Spears Funeral Home, 32; Bill Allman, Mellman Corner, 25; Tom "Dutch" Thum, Spears Funeral Home, 24; Jack Hammett, Hilltop Kiwanis, 23.

Spears Funeral Home's protest of its recent 36 to 34 loss to Hilltop Kiwanis in a league game was disallowed at a meeting of the city protest board at the City Recreation Department last week. The board ruled that the protest was based on decisions by officials and in all cases involving decisions the judgement of the officials is final.

PRODIGAL'S RETURN

I heard a knocking at my door,
And when I went to see,
I found it was my, fickle heart
Come home to be with me.

I took it in, and brushed it off
As good as new, once more;
Sent it to you! It soon will be Back knocking at my door.

Junior Loop Will Resume Action Friday

By Dave Miller

The Junior High Loop will resume play Friday when Franklin visits the Hilltop. Barrett will be at Indianola, McKinley at Mound, Champion at Roosevelt, and Starling plays host to Crestview.

Ellingsworth of West leads the League scoring with 64 points, followed by Harold Hines of Linden with 61, and Chester Jones of Franklin with 57. However, Jones and Ellingsworth both graduate, leaving Hines a swell chance to win the scoring honors for the city.

Franklin and Barrett both lead the League following victories last week. Frankin downing Indianola, 38-32 and Barrett beating a tough Crestview five, 36 to 18. Franklin, however, will lose four out of their starting lineup. All except Emunel Davidson will go on to East High.

At mid-season last year the same squads were leading the loop. Franklin lost all five of their starters. But the players that are now graduating took over in fine fashion last year to send the Red Tomkins-coached five on to a successful season.

The standings at mid-season are:

Team	W.	L.	Pts.	OP.
Barrett	6	0	171	109
Franklin	5	0	158	120
Crestview	4	2	159	147
Roosevelt	3	2	130	137
Champion	3	2	117	99
Everett	3	3	146	161
WEST JR.	3	3	170	161
Mound	1	4	139	139
Indianola	0	4	134	145
Linden Jr.	1	5	145	187
Starling	0	5	76	169

4 Scouts Seen At West High Game

Collegiate talent scouts were much in evidence at the West-Marion basketball game on the Hilltop Friday night. Seen among the spectators were Harold Wise (accompanied by the Mrs.) football mentor at Ohio University. The former West High coach had conferences with a number of the members of the 1947 championship team.

Apparently sizing up basketball talent were the Ohio State University basketball coach, Tippie Dye, Jack Graff and Dr. Jimmie Hall, former OSU cage star.

Seniors reportedly contacted by Coach Wise were Bill Buckingham, Jerry Chinn, Fred Thumberg, Starling Hutt, Curt Westerman, Jim Slager and Jack Thrush.

It is understood that Bill Buckingham is already enrolled at OU and will enter school at the mid-year. His brother, Jack, is said to be transferring from Capital University to OU.

At least two other '47 Cowboy gridstars are said to be giving serious consideration to going to Athens. They are Fred Thumberg and Curt Westerman, both guards. Bill Buckingham played an end position last fall.

"Did you know, Mike, that boys and girls matriculate together at the university?—that they use the same curriculum, and must show their theses to each other?"

Six Of The Younger Set

This week we introduce six newcomers to the Hilltop, ranging in age from five to 15 months. (All photos are by J. Curtis Allen.)

In the upper left corner is Karen Jo Bennett, known to many of her friends as Baby Bennett. She is the eight-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bennett, 239 Belvidere-av. It's her daddy who directs that snappy West High School band. Her mother, the former Helen Downey, is also a musician and former teacher of music.

Upper right—Peter Charles Trefz was just 15 months old when this picture was taken. He is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trefz, 307 N. Ogden-av. The family is formerly from New York. Mr. Trefz is state agent for an insurance firm.

Center left—Bonnie Marie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Berry, 134 S. Eureka-av. Bonnie will celebrate her first birthday Feb. 18. Her father is a clerk for the Denison Engineering Company. Her mother was formerly Pauline Eberhard.

Center right—Charlene Kay Maxwell was just eight months old when this picture was taken. The dress she is wearing was hand-made by a French family whom her father knew while serving overseas. Mr. Maxwell is a salesman for the Rex Fence Co. Mrs. Maxwell is the former Jeanne Lewis. They live at 269 S. Burgess-av.

Lower right—Orval Lee Minniear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Minniear, 3350 Wicklow-rd. is just a little past five months of age. He has a sister, Kay Christine, 2. Mr. Minniear is a machinist for the Jeffrey Manufacturing Co. Mrs. Minniear is the former Lucille Koerner.

Lower right—The Record cameraman happened by just as Lucinda Marie Strickler was playing hostess to 10 of her little friends at her first birthday party, which was held Jan. 22. But she wasn't too busy to pose for the cameraman in the midst of her birthday cake, candles, etc. The thumb in her mouth might have contained some of the frosting off the cake in the foreground. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Strickler, 675 S. Burgess-av. Her grandmother, Mrs. Doras Arehart, also lives at that address.

HUNGER

All men are beggars to themselves
As well as minor kings,

Words of respect from men—
The famished ego eats its fill
And he is king again!

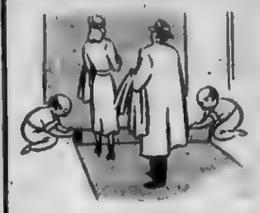
Food Handlers Are Offered Free Course

The Columbus Health Department is offering a series of food handlers classes for the general public with a special invitation to attend extended to church women and other groups which prepare food served at church suppers, benefits, and other social functions.

The classes are held every Tuesday at 3 and 8 p. m. in the Council Chamber at City Hall.

In the classes, the dangers of food poisoning from germs and bacteria are illustrated, along with a demonstration of how to avoid these dangers through proper methods of preparation and preservation of food and the best methods of sanitation in handling dishes and utensils.

Dr. Ollie M. Goodloe, Columbus health commissioner, points out that the dangers of food poisoning and the spread of disease in the handling of food is just as great in the home and in small dinners of private organizations as in the large restaurants.



"I am sure that women who prepare food for such private dinners will want to do everything possible to avoid endangering the health of their friends," Dr. Goodloe said. "Therefore we are inviting these women to attend the Food Handlers classes."

There is no charge for attendance. Further information may be obtained by calling the Columbus Health Department, Ma. 2211, Ext. 270.

Telephone Company Applies For First Rate Increase In More Than 20 Years

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. late Monday filed in Columbus with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio an application for authority to increase charges for telephone service. This is the first general increase that the company has requested in more than 20 years.

The new charges would increase the company's total revenue by about $8,500,000 per year or nine per cent. The adjustments in rates would affect in varying amounts most of the services offered by the company.

In commenting on the application, Randolph Eide, president of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., said:

"The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. is responsible for a substantial part of the telephone service in the state of Ohio. Through its 170 telephone exchanges, it furnishes local service to many communities. Its long distance lines are connected with the telephone systems of more than 200 other telephone companies in Ohio and with the long distance lines of the Bell system.

"Since its formation in 1921, the company has moved steadfastly at all times toward its objective of furnishing the best possible telephone service at the least possible cost consistent with financial safety. During and since the war, we have witnessed with deep concern a growing threat to our progress in the attainment of our service goals. Before the war, in the territory served by the company, anyone could have obtained telephone service anywhere at any time and in any amount when and as it was required, because there were available plants and facilities to do the job. The quality of the service was good and improvements were continuous.

The increase of $8,500,000 now being requested restores only a part of the loss of revenue to the company resulting from reductions made in the past 10 years.

Long distance rate changes include a reduction in night and Sunday discounts and increases in person-to-person rates for certain distances. No changes are proposed in initial period rates for station-to-station day service, which accounts for 57 per cent of the total intrastate messages, however, the initial time allowed on a 15-cent message is reduced from five to four minutes and on 20 and 25 cent messages from five to three minutes.

The application further proposes to increase charges for service connections, moves and changes from $1 to $2.50. This is not a monthly recurring charge but is applied only to those subscribers who cause the expense.

"Since the war, the company has added facilities faster than at any other time in its history. Even so, the plant has been loaded beyond its capacity. Despite these facts, we regret that the public has been unable to obtain all of the service that it wants when it wants it. For every new telephone added today, a permanent investment at least 50 per cent higher than before the war is necessary. At the same time, expenses for each telephone have gone up much faster than the revenues. As a result, earnings per telephone have shrunk sharply and are at a level lower than during the worst year of the depression of the '30's.

"In the face of this situation, the company again has gone ahead expanding its plant and making improvements and betterments. It is expected that more than $125,000,000 in capital additions will be necessary to meet telephone service requirements during the next three years. Unless the company's earnings are improved it cannot be expected that this amount of capital will be attracted from investors. This capital addition is essential to the expansion and improvement of telephone service. Nowhere is there a better system than that serving the customers of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. About 90 per cent of the local service is dial-operated. Included in the company's program is the conversion of the remaining 10 per cent of telephones to dial operation, and the extension and improvement of service both in urban and rural areas.

"We regret that any increase in our rates is necessary. The proposed adjustments are small and are essential to good service. Telephone rates have not been increased in over 20 years. On the contrary, rates have been reduced. If the 1936 rates for local and long distance service were in effect today our customers would be paying at least $12,000,000 more for service.

Congratulations Fraternal Order of Eagles on your Golden Jubilee

To the 1600 Aerie units and more than 1,250,000 members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles throughout the United States, Insular Possessions and Canada, we extend our compliments for the splendid and inspiring record of achievement by your Order in the half-century since its organization on February 6th, 1898.

While everyone is familiar with the contributions of the F. O. E. to community life through social programs and entertainments, your 50th Anniversary is an appropriate occasion to review your record of leadership in civic and welfare activities.

True to your motto—"the fighting fraternity with more than a million members," you led the battle for passage of Workmen's Compensation, Mothers' Pensions, Old Age Pensions and similar humanitarian measures in a majority of the states. You are recognized as primarily responsible for passage of the U. S. Social Security Law and are working now to extend Social Security to millions of wage earners not now protected, to assist returned servicemen in becoming re-established, and to stimulate employment so that every able-bodied wage earner in America will have a job. Through such activities as your gift of a quarter of a million dollar model dormitory to Boys' Town, Nebraska, nationally known home for underprivileged children, your sponsorship of maternal care and child health welfare, the establishment of the three million dollar Eagle Memorial Foundation commemorating the loyalty and bravery of Eagles who lost their lives or were disabled in the last war, and your encouragement of international understanding and good-will, you have helped and are helping make our nation and the world a better place in which to live. We hope your 350 new Aeries and 160 Auxiliaries instituted in the last two years will be increased by many times their number in the years to come, and wish you success in the attainment of your future goals.

Letters To The Editor

Notes From a Campfire Guardian

Dear Editor:

Little did I realize juct what I was doing when two years ago I called the Camp Fire office to find a group for my daughter. There wasn't a group at Starling Junior High so I was persuaded to start a new one. Numerous times since I have felt inadequate in my knowledge of the things I should show my girls to do. I have had to learn along with them and they really seem to like it better that way. In fact, they liked sometimes to be able to show me how to do things.

When I started the group, I had practically no outside interests. Suddenly, there were all kinds of things to do—outdoor trips, parties and council fires, to name a few. We fixed up a corner of our basement for a meeting room. I get as much fun out of it as the girls do. In fact sometimes I find myself saying "we girls" as though I were no older than they.

My girls are a normal, noisy bunch of teen-agers but I suppose like a proud mother, I think they are a little better than average. There are never any serious arguments between them. They are all so nice. I couldn't possibly have a favorite.

The interesting little things that happen compensate me for all the time I give them. Like the overnight trip we had in my side yard. In the absence of a tent, which one of the girls forgot to bring, we put bed covers on the clothes line and pinned them on with numerous clothespins as a substitute. Of course there wasn't much sleeping done but we had a lot of fun.

On our first overnight trip, one girl had never been away from home at night before. She was so homesick but she was determined to "stick it out." The next time we slept out, she didn't mind at all. She had overcome her fear.

Another girl heard of an elderly lady who had been sick for some time and took her a flower. Now they are great friends. The lady said it is seldom that young people will take time to visit those who aren't well.

These are just a few of my interesting experience in Camp Fire. If more mothers could find time for genuine interest in their daughter's activities, they would find it pays big dividends. It is impossible to do good for others without doing good for one's self.

A busy life, full of varied interests such as Camp Fire work offers, is a happy life.

Sincerely,
Mrs. J. B. Coriell

What is your dog's I.Q.

"Most bird dogs are NOT as brainy as Professor Einstein. Fact is, in many ways they're pretty dumb!" writes Mabry Anderson, veteran sportsman and dog-lover, in the current OUTDOORSMAN magazine.

The average hunter places too much confidence in his dog, according to Anderson, whose article tells hunters how to help their dogs by doing some of the "head work."

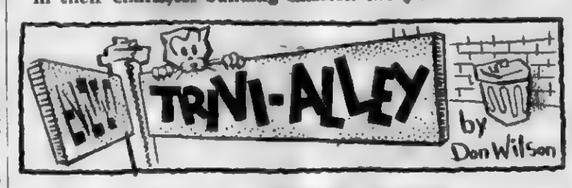
February's "Big Three"

Are We Interested?

This is rather blunt. We hope, however, that you will take it in the spirit intended.

The Boy Scouts of America will be 38 years old on February 8th—a date to remember. The boys, their parents and leaders will celebrate Boy Scout Week with them.



Will we?

If, as so many of us do, we take the Boy Scouts for granted, they'll mark the occasion by themselves. For nearly four decades we have seen the Scouts quietly performing worthwhile service. Have we really watched—and appreciated?

Certainly, the boys themselves ask for no specific recognition — their "Daily Good Turns" have always been without any reimbursement . . . "A Scout is Helpful." Nevertheless, do they not merit more than a friendly, distant approval — or a casual acceptance of their efforts to be better citizens, a model for all?

Their theme this year is: "The Scout Citizen at Work. In His Home, His Community, His Nation, and His World."

Let's focus our thoughts on them now — give them our whole-hearted support now — and help them succeed in their character-building mission the year 'round.

GOD IN LITTLE DOSES

Wilson

It was back when my wife and I lived in a suburb of Chicago. Ours was a small community numbering only 650. But we weren't typical small towners. Our speech was as clipped as a tourist in a souvenir shop, and we had no patience with those who couldn't keep verbal pace with us. It was for this reason that our new minister spent his first few Sundays in near solitude. A young man of 23, with his first parish to conquer, he was, by our standards, a bit overly conscientious. His sermons lasted an average two and a half hours while our interest died in its infancy.

It was only after he installed a "Suggestion Box" in the church foyer that he discovered why he didn't click. Almost every note read "Shorten your sermons; get to the point!" And this he did. His first cut was to an hour and a half. But, though this slowed our estrangement from God, it wasn't a full solution. The suggestions continued. "Be brief!" "Get to the point!" And he sincerely tried. He went over his every written word, dropping phrases here and pauses there. At last he arrived at his saturation point: 12 minutes and 51 seconds of "Do's" and "Don'ts". When even this brought criticism, he knew total frustration.

The next Sunday he advanced to the pulpit, looked his small group over, smiled pityingly, and said:

"I pray that God can save you. He'll have to do it with a hypodermic needle."

Business After Hours

Art Miller tells this story about one of the first football events played under the Magly Field lights last fall.

The game was one of those "standing-room only" affairs and people kept right on buying tickets as the game progressed. Ticket takers and salesmen were busily counting up their cash and kept on handing out the ducats as long as there was a taker.

Art swears they sold three tickets after the gun sounded ending the game.

Cold Weather Hint

If you have trouble getting your car started on cold mornings you might profit from this trick. Mrs. Harry Downing, Record correspondent in the Briggsdale-Brown Road sector, says her husband hasn't applied for a patent yet.

The Downings (along with hundreds of other Hilltoppers) were having trouble getting their car started during the extremely cold weather last week. It seemed a little hot water poured over the starter mechanism made the starter crank the engine more readily.

After heating the kettle of water several mornings, the ingenious Mr. D. devised a new plan for accomplishing the same end. Why not lay the hot water bottle (piping hot) over the starter? It worked.

So if you have trouble getting the old family bus going some cold morning, just rush to your medicine cabinet or to the corner drug store and give it a try.

Good Ole Liz!

Car starting problems bring to mind the 1916 model Ford less self starter) that a classmate and I used to drive to high school. Ole' Liz', as she was known by all the family, didn't wait for cold weather to create a starting problem.

At that time the faithful Lizzie had seen the passing of 12 summers but was still going strong (when you could get her started). But a more temperamental old pile of tin was never assembled. If it rained too hard the coils got wet and it took a bit of baking in the oven to dry them out. (That often happened while the family was attending a country picnic several miles from home.) If you started up a steep hill with less than three-fourths of a tank of gas, the chances were that you couldn't get gas into the carburetor. (Liz' was never burdened down with such extra baggage as fuel pumps, self starters, etc.)

Her crowning achievement came in her declining years when there were times when it was next to impossible to crank her. There were only two sure ways to get her going when she got into one of those moods.

You could start her by coasting down hill in gear or you could apply treatment No. 2—jack up a rear wheel and crank her in "high" gear. The latter method could best be accomplished with two operators—one to crank and the other to haul back on the emergency brake as soon as the engine started. Of course it was best to put a chock of some kind in front of the other rear wheel to prevent a premature takeoff once she decided to go. Around home we had plenty of hills but there are places in Monroe County (believe it or not) where a hill is not always convenient as a starting device. It was then that the wheel-jacking technique had to be employed.

One day when I was alone I proceeded to apply treatment No. 2 but carelessly forgot to "chock" the other rear wheel. No sooner had I given the crank a twist than Ole Liz' decided to take off. I jumped sidewise and none too soon as she took off down the main street of Clarington with me in hot pursuit. I overtook her about a block away just seconds before a turn in the street was to be negotiated.

You really earned your ride in Ole Liz'.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

For the benefit of the Galloway School cafeteria; the PTA of the school held a dance Thursday night in the town hall. As usual a good crowd was on hand for the frolic. During the evening there were four cake-walks. Mrs. W. G. Lamb was the first one to get the first prize which was a most delicious home-made fudge cake. She was really thrilled, as it was the first time she had ever received a prize in this way. The PTA of the school was delighted with the amount received.

Mrs. Ray Caldwell of Ogdenav spent Thursday visiting at the home of Mrs. R. G. Barnecut, Maple-dr.

Mrs. M. A. Howell, Pasadena-av, who spent several days in Mt. Carmel Hospital, is now home and getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warner, Pasadena-av, enjoyed a delightful drive among the hills in the southern part of the state last Sunday.

The Ruth Circle (Ladies' Sunday School Class of the Columbia Heights Church) met for its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Suver, Buena Vista-av. As this meeting fell on her birthday, she received many nice gifts. The guests enjoyed the refreshments in the form of a real birthday supper. After games and a general good time, the class adjourned to have its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Shaner, Rome-Hilliards-rd.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKenzie, Darbydale, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Grimm, Lennox-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Hughes, Jr., formerly of Pasadena-av, now living on W. Weber-rd, announce the birth of a son in Doctors' Hospital, Feb. 2.

Last September a Dreft contest closed. Mrs. H. C. Anderson, Pasadena-av, had forgotten she had entered until the day after Christmas, when she received word that she had won a prize. Last week she received her gift, which was a table model record player.

Under the direction of Malcolm Pennel and Keith Montague, 13 members of Rome Boy Scout Troop 131 camped the week-end at Camp Lazarus. Those who made up the party were Billjean Lamb, Darrel Armstrong, Malcolm Pennel, Jr., Bob Thompson, Owen Irwin, Bob Burns, Eddie Eberhard, Ralph Vencill, Herbert Weisenberger and a few others. They left Saturday afternoon and came home Sunday afternoon.

In spite of the cold weather Saturday night, the Men's Forum was held in the basement of Columbia Heights Church. A good attendance was on hand to hear of the activities of the Prairie Township Fire Department. The basement was heated with many electric stoves. The Italian supper was really enjoyed by the men. When it came time to go home, instead of saying "Take up your bed and be on your way," it was "Be sure and take your stove home." The next meeting will be school board night.

Mrs. Alfred Running of Hilliards-Rome-rd is visiting in Detroit to attend the graduation of her daughter, Joyce, from Southwestern High School. As soon as all the school festivities are over, the Runnings are looking forward to having their daughter home.

The ladies of the Monitor Class held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Miller, Maple-dr. Those who were in attendance were Mrs. Kent Richey, Mrs. Ernest Schroeder, Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Mrs. Roe Moore, Mrs. Robert Denman, Mrs. James Whalen, Mrs. Frank Calland, Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Russell, and the hostess, Mrs. R. O. Miller. Mrs. Barbara Denman is group leader.

In spite of the severe winter weather no teachers have been out on account of illness during this period. Although the attendance has been above 90 per cent, a pressure drive is being planned against parents who needlessly keep children home from school.

Bronson Farmer, principal, reports $53.50 was turned into the March of Dimes fund last Friday. All grades from the first to eighth participated. Congratulations to all of them.

Lunch is being served to 170 to 200 pupils each day.

A carmel corn sale will be held by the school next week. Children will take orders during the week and corn will be delivered Friday. Let's make this sale a big success.

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

The Invitational Dance was a great success. Talk about wonderful times, it was really grand. For once at a dance there were more boys than girls and everyone joined in on the dancing. The band played from 8:30 till 11:30, and after that records and radio were used.

Everyone was really sharped up for the dance. Ruth Platt wore a mella red suit. Pat LaValle came with that new look and she looks fine in it.

Sweaters and skirts are still the old stand-by for dances. This was in evidence when we saw some of the girls last night. Marilyn Bonnet, Mary Snoke, Norma Canter and many of the other girls looked sharp in their sweaters and skirts.

Janie Prior and Don Edwards were dancing and enjoying it. I do believe they had a fine time.

We had quite a few non-members at the dance. We would like to see more of them at the Canteen. I hope they all had a wonderful time.

Did everyone see Bob Freshcorn dancing? He does a good job of it, and after the dance he actually admitted he was tired. Hope you're rested up by now, Bob.

We had an old college man around at the dance. I guess most of you know who he is. Joe Briggs.

Wes Dennis took quite a few pictures, and we're hoping they turn out good, but with him taking them we know they will.

Has anyone been in the photography room lately? There are some new additions now. They surely are fine pictures, especially those of Pat Horn, "Shorty" Williams and Janet Webb.

Don't forget the pool contest is going to be held in the near future, so if you want to get in on it sign up with Mel Griggs.

There is a rumor that there is going to be another dance in the near future. If you're interested, keep watching for the news.

Kindergarten Pupils Have Graduation

The Hilltop Parents Association Kindergarten conducted its first commencement exercise on Jan. 28, at 11 a. m., at the Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church. Five graduates were honored. Their parents and friends were guests at the services.

A program was held, including a motion picture, presentation of grade cards by Mrs. Ruth Perkins, and a review of the history of the association which is still in its first year, by Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw.

A kindergarten mothers club will be begun at the school soon. A meeting for mothers and others interested will be held Feb. 4 at 1:30 p. m.

Those graduating were Vivian Deberry, Victor Jackson, Melissa Cheeck, Wanda Cook and Della Gentry. Mrs. Elizabeth O'Neil Reid, the teacher, led the entire group in a closing song.

Children enrolled at the school were Victor Jackson, Alice Jackson, William Nelson, Leo Devlin, Carolyn Patterson, Margaret Jordon, Sylvia Elaine Pruit, Francis Bell, Sharon and Dwight Newman, Joyce Rose, Robert Greer, Janice Froe, Carmen and Andrea Reid, Wanda Cook, Linda and Clyde Carroll, Mary Mebane, Della Gentry, John Bennett, Jr., Janie Roberts, Jack Joiner, Mary Goodman, Melissa Cheeck, Loretta Rose, Michael Prater, Vivian Deberry, Cleve Foster, Muriel Jordon, La Donna Prillerman, Trudud Beatty, John Rose, Charlene and Charles Lee.

Anyone wishing to donate toys or a piano to the school is asked to call Mrs. Shaw at RA. 05832.

Any child between the ages of 2½ and 6 years is invited to enroll at the kindergarten.

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

By LOUIE D. NEWTON, D. D.

SCRIPTURE: John 6:35-40; 13:3-17; Colossians 1:9-20.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Philippians 2:5-11.

The Nature of Jesus

Lesson for February 8, 1948

ONE of the most discerning comments on the nature of Jesus I have ever heard came from an aged Indian in one of the western states a few years ago when I chanced to be waiting for a friend at the entrance of the reservation. This old gentleman was sitting on a large rock. I tried to speak with him, but he did not seem to understand what I said. Then my friend drove up, and introduced me to the Indian. "This man knows our Jesus," my friend said to the Indian. His face brightened, and he held out his hand to me. "Jesus help Indian love white man," he said. Just so, Jesus helps white man love white man, too.

Dr. Newton

The lesson for Sunday is found in John 6:35-40; 13:3-17; and Colossians 1:9-20, with Philippians 2:5-11 as the devotional reading.

TEACHER AND LORD

TAKE the opening passage, John 13:3-17, where Jesus is pictured as taking a basin of water and towel, kneeling at the disciples' feet, washing their feet, and drying them. Do you not feel the blessed Saviour's very nature flooding the scene?

It requires true love, true humility, to serve in that role. Suppose someone came to render this service to you? And suppose that One was the Son of God?

Why did Jesus wash the disciples' feet? Because he loved them, and he wanted them to love other people enough to do for them anything that would convince them of the love which they had in their hearts for them. Here we see him as the great teacher.

"AS I HAVE LOVED YOU"

BUT Peter draws back. He cannot conceive of Jesus washing his feet. Why? Because Peter did not yet understand the nature of Jesus. The memory verse for Sunday is helpful just here. Jesus said, "Love one another; even as I have loved you," John 13:34.

Peter acted very naturally, even if we may be tempted to say that he acted foolishly. In fact, he acted just about like any of us would have acted under similar circumstances.

But when Jesus explained to Peter what he was about, Peter then asked that Jesus wash not only his feet, but also his hands and head.

THIS IS JESUS

INTERMEDIATES, young people and adults, having carefully read the passage in the 13th chapter of John, where Jesus washes the disciples' feet, will now turn to John 6:35-40, and Colossians 1:9-20, and see the expansion of this great truth over into the expressed will of God for his followers.

A true understanding of this section will lead us to ponder prayerfully the nature of Jesus in the various titles accorded him in the Scriptures — Son of Man, Son of God, Master, Rabbi, Teacher, Physician, Vine, Light, Good Shepherd, Bread of Life, Comforter, Friend and Saviour.

All of these titles he bore, and yet we see him kneeling to wash the feet of everyday people. "Thy gentleness hath made me great." Intermediates and young people will wisely set themselves to the task of identifying the nature of Jesus in the people of their community. Such study will lead you to earnestly seek to walk in his blessed example, loving as he loved.

"WHAT THINK YE OF CHRIST?"

AND now we are ready for the climax of the lesson, when Peter declares, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God," Matthew 16:16.

We cannot long stand in the presence of the story of this lesson and fail to conclude with Peter that none save the Son of God can do such wondrous things—can love as he loved.

Beginning with the Incarnation, we follow through the sweeping claims of Jesus, and we know of a truth that he was very God. Convinced, then, that we are in the presence of God when we contemplate the nature of Jesus, what are we to say? Does not Isaac Watts suggest the answer?

When I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down,
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all!

Saving On Printing Costs

One big item of expense in both federal and state government is that of unnecessary printing.

In the course of a week an average of several thousand sheets of printed copy is delivered to our desk by the mail men, by free mail. Over 99.44% of such materials go directly to the waste basket.

If everyone receiving this material would take time to advise bureaus to cease firing, that it is not wanted and is of no value, SOME bureau heads might possibly get the idea that their stuff isn't so hot that it should be preserved in print for posterity.

13 Club Donates $100

The 13 Club Sunday afternoon voted to give a $100 check to the March of Dimes for the aid of polio victims in Franklin County.

The club regularly subscribes to a number of local charities. Members regularly place a substantial bid for the first Charity Newsie paper sold. They have been the successful bidder the last two years. This year the club also purchased the first paper in the Kiwanis Christmas paper sale.

Defies Friday, 13th Jinx

Alan Coon

The commonly accepted Friday the 13th misfortune holds no terror to young Alan Coon (above) who calmly poses for the photographer seated under an opened umbrella. Alan will celebrate his eighth birthday tomorrow with eight of his close friends.

This is the second time Alan's birthday has fallen on a Friday. The other occasion was his second anniversary. Invited guests this year are Ralph Elliott, Donald Hessler, Ronnie Ishmael, Larry McDermott, Jerry Calton, Donnie Policaro and Charles Wise.

A 2A pupil at John Burroughs School, Alan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Coon, 350 S. Ogden-av.

Food Costs Affected Slightly in Most Groceries; Predict Downward Trend

Don't expect your grocery dollar to make possible drastic savings in the cost of food this week.

That is the keynote of most local independent food dealers contacted by the Record this week. While reductions had already gone into effect on some meat cuts and flour as a result of a general break in commodity prices last week, many items are as yet unaffected.

There was an optimistic tone in the voices of most Hilltop grocers contacted, however. They expect that a gradual drop-off in prices is on the way as a result of the market break and the old law of supply and demand.

"Don't look for it to come too fast," they say, "but lower food prices are on the way."

While one local grocer said he had already marked down flour by 21c on the 25-pound bag, others had made no reduction as yet because the wholesale price markdown had been negligible. This same merchant said that lard and pork prices were down about 5c on the pound with lesser reductions on beef cuts.

One food dealer said his price was down on hams and bacon but that beef was still the same. As the check was being made, bread prices remained the same but some grocers predicted a drop of one cent per loaf in a few days because of the decline in grain prices.

Most local independents have been buying "light" so that any reductions in price would not catch them with shelves full of higher priced merchandise. Thus they are in a position to reflect savings almost immediately without taking a loss on large inventories.

Day Of Prayer To Be Observed

World Day of Prayer will be observed on the Hilltop tomorrow with a special service at the St. Paul's Evangelical Congregational Church, 22 S. Warren-av. A number of local churches are cooperating in this service, scheduled for 2 p. m.

Presidents of various ladies' church groups are aiding in this local aspect of a world-wide movement.

Many Volunteers Willing To Help Fire Victims

People of the Hilltop have not turned a deaf ear on a call for help issued through The Hilltop Record last week.

No less than 12 calls from persons offering to give worthwhile household and personal items to the Thompson family were received up through this week. These ranged from a pair of shoes to complete beds to help refurnish the home.

The Curtis Thompson family, 1823 Little-av, was burned out two weeks ago. Only the clothing they were wearing was saved. This week they are looking forward to setting up their home again in a store building next door, thanks to the generosity of friends and neighbors who came to the rescue.

The Wilson School PTA carried an appeal into all of the homes of children to bring small household items. At least a dozen calls from the Hilltop area offered to help.

At the present time rugs and a sewing machine are the only household furnishings that are needed. Mrs. Thompson is a seamstress and could make many of the clothes for herself, her husband and their small daughter.

Among those from the Hilltop who volunteered to help in some way were Mrs Frances Trosenrider, 97 N. Powell-av, Mrs. R. A. Maxwell, 269 S. Burgess-av, Mrs. C. S. Barnes, 587 Wiltshire-rd, Mrs. E. J. Braithwait, 160 S. Richardson-av, Mrs. Jacob Fladt, 155 Powhatan-av, Mrs. Fred Vashaw, 77 N. Harris-av. Mrs Louis Caeliff, 184 N. Roys-av, Mrs. H. S. Miller, 104 N. Westmoor-av, Rev. Denver Smoot, 2394 Pamola-av, and Mrs. C. A. Wiseman, 83 Powhatan-av.

Incidentally, Rev. Smoot and his family are very badly in need of a home. Anyone knowing of such a source item could well continue the "good neighbor" policy.

TO PRESENT PLAY

"No Way Out," a melodrama by Owen Davis, will be the opening play of the 1948 season of the Glenwood Players Guild. It will be presented the evening of Friday, Feb 20, in Motter Hall.

Tickets are obtainable at the church study and at several Hilltop locations, at 50c.

Ice Removal Planned For Local Streets

Removal of the snow from main Hilltop streets as soon as the thaw starts has been promised by city officials, it was pointed out by Ed. McIvin, chairman of the safety committee of the Hilltop Business Association, at the meeting of the association Tuesday evening at Westgate Methodist Church. Some snow has already been removed and ice has been removed from around catch basins.

County Commissioner George Matson outlined plans for sewers west of the city, pointing out that the commissioners will vote for the Rome sewer projects as soon as an amicable agreement can be made with Judge Edward R. Turner.

He pointed out that the lake in Westgate Park will no longer be polluted by raw sewage from the area around Josephine-av as soon as that project has been completed.

H. G. Deems spoke briefly in an appeal for support of the coming Red Cross drive.

Membership was voted to Joe Cleaver of First National Cleaners.

Paper Drive Brings $592

Despite sub-freezing temperatures that slid gradually downward all day Sunday, the West High Boosters' paper drive grossed $592.60.

Officials of the group were of the opinion that had the weather been milder this figure could have been increased materially.

This week plans were being drawn by the club to conduct a scrap iron drive in the community at a date to be announced very shortly. A meeting of all Booster members has been called at Room 101 at West High School for 7:30 tonight, to develop the plan further.

K. M. (Slim) Elder, 110 S. Southampton-av, has been named chairman of the scrap metal drive. It is part of a nation-wide effort to put scrap metal back in the channels of trade so that it will get back to the steel mills where it is badly needed in the production of more steel.

Fisher Body Cooperating

The Fisher Body-Tegnstedt plant just west of the city is cooperating with the Boosters Club in helping to get it launched in the community. Notices were being sent out to all employees this week for them to bring in their scrap metal and cooperate with the Boosters in every way possible.

All proceeds from the scrap metal will go to the local organization for furthering athletic facilities at West High School. At a meeting of the Boosters held last week, a check for $150 was ordered written to buy uniforms and other equipment for the swimming team. Several other improvements are also under consideration at this time in the way of school facilities.

Sunday's paper drive produced 62,630 pounds of newspapers 13,990 pounds of magazines, 870 pounds of corrugated paper and 785 pounds of rags.

In addition to the many trucks and drivers that were donated for the paper drives, the Boosters Club was grateful this week to Fox Food Shop, Chubby Distelhorst Market and the Sparks-Kent Market for items of food donated to feed those who worked on the drive.

New School Site Purchased Near Rome Village

The new consolidated elementary school for Prairie Township will be located on the west side of Norton-rd, one-half block south of Rome.

Frank L. Wilcox, Galloway, president of the Prairie Township Board of Education, said that acquisition of the 20-acre tract of land was just recently completed. Legal proceedings were necessary to acquire title to part of the land, made up of three different parcels of property.

At an undetermined future date plans call for the erection of a new central grade school building and the elimination of the present Rome, Alton and Galloway schools. Wilcox said that it would probably be some time before a building program will be launched although an architect is already working on plans for the new structure.

Levy Provides $231,000

A special school levy passed in the fall of 1946 makes possible $231,000 for the new school building, including cost of the site. Approximately $13,000 of this amount was required to purchase the land needed.

The new school site is made up of 12½ acres formerly belonging to Richard Glass, two acres owned by Mrs. Irland Davis, and 5½ acres purchased from Harry Distelhorst.

The interest Prairie Township residents have in the new centralized school can be seen in the fact that the school levy passed in 1946 increased taxes to the maximum permitted by law.

It is felt by board members that more building can be purchased for the money if they wait until the peak in building is past, Wilcox said. At today's costs the type of school building could not be put up with the money available.

The three present school buildings are being used to capacity, with basement classrooms already in use at Rome and Alton. There is some basement space available at Galloway and this may be pressed into service by next year, the board president said. However, it is felt that present facilities can be made to serve until the new building can be gotten under way.

Other members of the Prairie Township school board are Lawrence Karns, Rome, clerk, Floyd Armstrong, Rome, William Lamb, Rome, and Harold Hyland, Galloway.

Tax Consultant For City Will Be Here On Friday

A representative of the new city income tax department will be at Engine House No. 17, Wheatland and Broad-st, all day Friday to assist local business firms in making out their declaration of Columbus income tax for the year 1948.

The service will be free of charge to all business firms, R. P. Barthalow, city auditor, explained this week. The man will be on duty from 8:30 to 4:30 p. m.

The declaration forms must be filed with the city by March 15. Payments of the tax can be made on a quarterly basis.

Record Is Prize Winner

The Hilltop Record won more prizes in the Osman C. Hooper Newspaper Show, held at the Deshler Wallick Hotel last week than any other weekly newspaper in the State of Ohio.

Winner of first place in two classes of competition last year, the Record picked up one first, two seconds and a third-place award in this year's show held in connection with the annual state newspaper convention.

First place was won by the Record this year in the special editions class for the 64-page 30th anniversary edition published last April. Second place awards were received in the field of community service and in general newspaper makeup. The third place recognition was for the number and quality of local feature stories published. In the latter competition, special recognition was given to a story entitled "Mammy Yokum Could Stock Up On Shoes (Dogpatch Style) at Local Shop." The story was written by Bob Wisner, former Record employe, now with the Huntington, W. Va., bureau of Associated Press. Other feature stories cited were written by Rhoma Van De Mark, Libby Downing and Paul Wichterman, editor of the Record.

A total of eight awards has been won by the paper in recent years.

Local Musicians Will Appear With Civic Concert Orchestra

Dorothy Hingst

Dorothy Hingst, 314 S. Terrace-av, is one of several Hilltop musicians who will appear with the Columbus Civic Concert Orchestra in a concert to be given at West High School Feb. 26.

The affair is being sponsored by the civic committee of the Hilltop Business Association. All proceeds will be used to help launch a YMCA program on the Hilltop. Tickets are on sale at many Hilltop business places, at schools and with members of the orchestra. Admission is $1.00 for adults and 50c for children up through high school age. Joseph Briggs is serving as chairman of ticket sales.

The orchestra is made up of 75 musicians under the direction of Victor Voeller. It is a non-profit organization.

Miss Hingst is first violinist. A brother, Carl Hingst, also of the S. Terrace-av address, is a cello player. Other local people connected with the orchestra include the following:

Earl Dennis, 318 Columbian-av, French horn player and property manager; his daughter, Helen Dennis, French horn; Austin Hutt, 23 N. Warren-av, violin; Raymond Sohn, 20 Princeton-av, violin; James Hastings, 75 S. Ogden-av, co-manager; Irene Green, 3046 Crescent-dr, personnel secretary, and Robert M. Draper, 74 N. Roys-av, trustee.

Red Cross Workers Will Meet Tuesday

Women volunteers in Hilltop and Valley Units for the 1948 Red Cross campaign will meet for final instructions Tuesday, Feb. 17, at 2 p. m., in Glenwood Methodist Church, 64 S. Highland-av. Also present at the meeting will be Alfred L. Baron, executive director of the Franklin County chapter; Mrs. Raymond E. Metzger, chairman of the women's division; Mrs. Charles Nelson, vice-chairman, and Virginia Bonnet, who, as secretary, will explain necessary instructions to the solicitors.

The annual Red Cross drive will be conducted from Feb. 26 through March 16 in the county. Goal this year is $298,000.

VFW Plans 11th Anniversary Party

Plans are being made for the celebration of the 11th anniversary of the local post. The event will be marked by a dinner at the K of P Hall, 697 S High-st, on the evening of Feb. 20.

Chairman in charge of arrangements is R. M. Hartman, 420 S. Harris-av. The cost will be $2 per plate. All members of the post and auxiliary and other veterans and their families are invited. Further information can be had by calling RA. 4549.

The dinner is scheduled for 7 o'clock.

A ritualistic degree team is being formed by Westway Post, No. 3441, composed of the past commanders and officers of the post, under the leadership of R. M. (The Old Sarge) Hartman.

All past and present officers are requested to be present at the first meeting of this team, which will be held at VFW post headquarters, this evening (Thursday) at 8 o'clock. The services of this team will be made available to all posts in the VFW Franklin County Council.

"Gold Rush" Is On As Eagles Mark 50th Anniversary

To Be Honored

Leighninger

In its second award in as many months, Aguila Aerie of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles will present the civic award for meritorious service to Paul E. Leighninger, co-owner of Seiller's, Inc., 2404 W. Broad-st. In connection with the order's work in youth guidance on a nation-wide scale, the local Aerie was of the opinion that Leighninger's work with the teen-agers of the Hilltop was deserving of notice and recognition.

The award will be made Sunday, Feb. 22, at the special golden jubilee meeting of the Aerie. The presentation will be made by District Director Richard E. Wolfe at the Aerie Hall, 2358 W. Broad-st.

Following the presentation, Leighninger will be the guest of honor at a banquet to be held in the Aerie social rooms for Eagle members and their families.

The golden anniversary year of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will be commemorated by Aguila Aerie by the launching of a "gold rush" campaign, it was announced this week by James A. Stockdale, Aerie president. The campaign will spotlight the 50-year history of the organization, which is now the nation's largest benefit paying organization, with a membership of approximately 1,400,000. An effort will be made to increase the strength of the Eagles "for continuance of its record in behalf of social legislation and human welfare," Mr. Stockdale said.

A campaign slogan, "Hats Off to the Past," and "Coats Off to the Future," has been adopted.

Every member in the Aerie will be enlisted in the drive, which will be featured by the formation of four "Gold Rush" campaign teams.

Wolfe is Chairman

Heinie Wolfe, 150 S. Warren-av, has been appointed general chairman of the campaign committee of the "Gold Rush" campaign to be sponsored by Aguila Aerie. Chairman Wolfe appointed the following team captains: Dr. Guy Hulett, 2413 W. Broad-st, Klondikers team; Leo Clark, 47 N. Oakley, Prospectors; Louis Smith, 2835 Sullivant-av, Panners; Don Burgoon, 84 S. Roys-av, Claim Stakers.

Wolfe has been active as trustee of the Aerie from 1942 to 1946 and chairman of various committees, master of the degree team and chef of most of the banquets held in the Aerie home.

The campaign to build up the membership of the Aerie will continue until June 1, 1948, the completion of the current Eagle fiscal year.

"The campaign will pay tribute to the achievements of the Eagles since their organization in Seattle, Feb. 6, 1898," Mr. Stockdale said. "The order was formed by only six men, who dedicated themselves to 'making life better and happier'," Mr. Stockdale added.

The "gold rush" campaign is derived from the fact that about the time the Fraternal Order of Eagles was started the Yukon and Klondike gold-seeking days were at their height.

Mr. Stockdale said that the order is determined to make its Golden Anniversary Year the most outstanding one in its history and add 350,000 new members for the current fiscal year.

"During the first 50 years, the Eagles have devoted their energies and resources for the benefit of all the people," Mr. Stockdale said. "The Eagles first proposed the national Social Security Act, and spent more than a million dollars back in 1921 to popularize the need for such legislation. The Eagles backed the first state old-age pension law, and were instrumental in obtaining such laws in practically all states.

"The Eagles obtained the first mothers' pension and workmen's compensation laws. They campaigned for a Mother's Day, after the idea was first suggested by Frank Hering, late editor of the Eagle Magazine. They have been active in youth guidance work, and donated a $160,000 dormitory to Father Flanigan's Boys Town. These are some of the achievements in the first 50 years of history, which will be commemorated with the Gold Rush campaign.

"The campaign will serve to further current objectives of the Eagles, which include extension of social security, child health programs, aid for returning service men, aid for the handicapped, and the conquest of juvenile delinquency. By building up the membership of the Eagles through this campaign, the organization will intensify its activities in these fields."

YMCA Board Honors Cramer

A tribute to the work of the late Dr. C. O. Cramer for his untiring efforts to bring a branch YMCA to the Hilltop was paid by the general YMCA board at a recent meeting of that group.

The Cramer Memorial YMCA fund here on the Hilltop this week showed a balance of $778, according to H. G. Deems, treasurer of the fund. This fund was started more or less spontaneously by friends of the doctor by some who felt that such a contribution would be more fitting than a floral tribute. The fund is being kept open indefinitely. All money will go toward the maintenance and operation of Hilltop YMCA. Any person desiring to contribute may do so by contacting Mr. Deems at the First Federal Savings & Loan Association, 2369 W. Broad-st—RA. 0832.

The resolution passed by the general board at its January meeting follows:

RESOLVED, That the General Board express to Mrs. Chester O. Cramer its sincere sympathy at the death of her husband.

The Board is deeply appreciative of the interest which Dr. Cramer took in the work of of the YMCA both as a former member of the Y's Men's Club and, more recently, as a leader of the group sponsoring a YMCA Branch for the Hilltop. The enthusiasm and energy which he gave to this project are in no small part responsible for the fact that it is now an accomplished undertaking. The Board feels a distinct sense of loss at his passing, for it had looked forward to the benefit of his leadership and counsel in the formative years of the Hilltop Branch.

No finer tribute could have been paid to Dr. Cramer than the establishment by his friends of a memorial to be used for this new YMCA Branch. The community has lost a splendid citizen, and the YMCA has lost a valued friend—but both are the richer for the work which he undertook on their behalf.

RESOLVED FURTHER, That copies of this Resolution be sent to Mrs. Cramer and to the Chairman of the Board of the Hilltop Branch of the YMCA.

D-5 Application May Be Opposed By Petitions

There were indications this week that petitions would be circulated opposing the granting of a D-5 night club permit to the Biltmore Restaurant, 2414 W. Broad-st, operated by James Phillips of 142 S. Southampton-av.

The application has been on file at the Liquor Control Department for several weeks. No action has been taken in the case to date. W. R. Morris, assistant chief of that department, said this week that letters of protest had been filed by the pastors of three churches, all within a radius of 500 feet of the restaurant. Several other letters of protest were also attached to the file.

The proposal to circulate the petitions was said to arise from the fact that the State Liquor Control Board last week reversed the ruling of the Liquor Control Department in granting a liquor permit to the Maramor Restaurant in the downtown area after it had been protested by the Trinity Church, located next door to the restaurant. The Liquor Control Department had turned down the application twice because of the proximity to the church.

It was also revealed by Mr. Morris this week that a D-4 permit has been held in escrow for the Biltmore Restaurant for "many months." The permit was issued at some time in the past and could be used for the legal sale of six per cent beer and wine at any time Mr. Phillips decided to use it, Mr. Morris said.

HCC To Consider Fire House Site

Indignant Westatge Park residents and representatives of several organizations on the Hilltop will attend the monthly meeting of the Hilltop Community Council, to be held Thursday, Feb 19, at the canteen, 2585 W. Broad-st, to join with the council in protest against City Council's consideration of Westgate Park as a prospective site for a fire house, an official of the group said.

The Community Council expects to have an answer by that time to their letter to City Council, calling attention to the fact that on June 3, 1946, City Council instructed Chief Ed Welsh to find an alternate location.

Cyrus Rawlings, president of the council, will appoint his committees for the coming year, and a tentative program for the year will be discussed.

Minstrel Talent Hunt Is Extended

A further call for talent for the Hilltop Minstrel Show is being sent out this week by C. C. Hartley, director of the show.

Anyone desiring a part in the show is invited to contact Hartley at The Hilltop Record office or mail in the application blank printed below. All prospective candidates for parts in the show will be given an opportunity to show what they can do in tryouts to be scheduled at a later date.

"Anything Goes" As Token Of Love On Valentine's Day

By Libby Downing

When Cupid starts shooting his arrows this year and the fellows (old and young alike) have a chance to send "that particular girl" a very special sentiment, the candy, hose and hanky counters of local stores will probably be as bare as Mother Hubbard's cupboard.

After a talk with local clerks on the most popular Valentine gift, we discover that although candy sales have increased tremendously over the last 10 years, so has the sale of personal gift items.

"Anything goes this year," say the clerks.

Penny valentines, some sweet, and others which you would feel guilty sending to anyone, are still the rage for the school children. The sale of valentines, especially the one and two cent ones always hit about the 2000 mark at the Goodwin and Campbell's Pharmacies. Valentines rate third place in the sale of cards during the year.

Georgiton's, the candy store, rate valentine season as their third largest. The 'swains' and husbands usually prefer the fancy boxed goodies which sell for $2 and $3, but a large portion of the sales is to elementary and high school students. One particular heart-shaped box retails for $8. (That would be a sign of true love, indeed!)

At Seiller's the gift wrappers are kept busy by Valentine Day. The gentlemen usually are the ones who require their services, because men don't appreciate the privilege of wrapping presents. They usually choose lingerie, jewelry or hankies for their "better halves." However, Pyrex-ware and Rever Ware (copper bottom pans) are very popular too.

Papas usually receive a tie, hanky or shirt for "sweetheart day." Seiller's are featuring a tie at present with the "To My Valentine" greeting printed in the cloth. There's always something new and different!

Little girls and boys are the recipients, quite often, of a blouse, skirt, anklets or a toy. (For kids who need an inexpensive gift for Mom, here's a tip. A valentine folder containing hankies should please her, no end.)

In an overall picture, St. Valentine's Day seems to have risen to about the third most popular time in the year when cards and gresents are exchanged. Christmas comes first and Mother's Day is second. It doesn't take much of that "green stuff" to send a few cards to your friends, or remember your family at Valentine Day, and it's such a nice feeling to know that someone thinks of you "every now and then."

Shopping Center Is Progressing West Of City

Work is progressing on the shopping center now under construction on W. Broad-st, just west of the city.

Leo Yassenoff of the F & Y Building Service, 328 E. Town-st, reported this week that the theater is now under roof with flooring and plastering to proceed at once. Five store rooms are ready for plastering and finishing.

The theater, a permanent year-round house, will be known as the Old Trail Theater. It is designed to seat 1500 persons. The store rooms are expected to house a super market and other community service centers.

The shopping center is located on the north side of W. Broad-st, just west of Dwight-av. The center is a part of the general development that also includes the National Auto Theater, a drive-in type of outdoor movie house.

Glenwood Defeats Hoge In Senior Loop; Burgess EUB Is Undefeatd

By Dave Miller

In Senior Church League games that were played at Glenwood Monday evening, the feature game saw Glenwood defeat Hoge Memorial No 2 by a 42 to 25 count and the losers were the favored team to win.

The game was Glenwood's all the way after they pulled from an early lead onto the latter stages of the contest.

In other games Monday, West Park downed Hoge No. 2, 31 to 21. Westgate trounced Indianola Church of Christ by a 31 to 22 score and the final, which turned out to be more of a runaway than an expected close game, with Avondale downing Hoge Family, 33 to 24.

In the West Intermediate games Tuesday evening, Burgess Avenue downed one of its closest competitors for first place, in defeating Glenwood by a 29 to 19 count in what was the main classic of the day. It was the winners' sixth victory in as many outings. Hoge Memorial moved into second place with a 5-1 record by defeating Riverside Methodist, 35 to 17, in what turned out to be a slight runaway.

In other pairings of the evening, St. Aloysius took a 38 to 14 victory over Westgate U. B., and West Park easily won over Salvation Army, 34 to 16.

The standings in the Intermediate League are:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Burgess EUB	6	0	1.000
Hoge Memorial	5	1	.833
Glenwood	4	2	.667
West Park Methodist	4	2	.667
Salvation Army	3	3	.500
St. Aloysius	2	4	.333
Riverside Methodist	1	5	.167
Westgate EUB	0	6	.000

Body Of Lt. Price To Be Returned Here

Another of the Hilltop's war dead arrived back in this country this week.

The body of Lt. Raymond W. Price was among 137 from Ohio scheduled to arrive in San Francisco Wednesday aboard the army transport O'Connell. Funeral arrangements will be completed by the Noble L. Allen Funeral Home.

Lt. Price, 25, an air force pilot, crashed in bad weather near Guadalcanal following a bombing mission July 10, 1943. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Price, 2438 W. Broad-st; his mother, Mrs. Florence Kennell, Ft. Bayard, N. M., and his father in New York.

Kiwanians' Wives To Have Program

Members of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club are looking forward to a surprise program under the supervision of their wives at an evening meeting today in Schmelzer's Restaurant.

The women have been busy the past several weeks planning a program which they say will compare favorably with any that their more experienced husbands can arrange.

Members of local wartime draft boards were on hand at last week's meeting to honor Major Edward T. Fogo, the speaker, who worked with Ohio Selective Service during World War II after a brilliant career with combat troops in the first world war.

Major Fogo gave a very enlightening talk on the workings of the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles, which he now heads. He quoted many interesting statistics and made several suggestions toward improving laws covering the Ohio motorist.

He praised the work of the local club in the sale of automobile plates as well as drivers licenses, and announced that after March 1 all types of permits and license plates including transfer of plates could be handled by Russell Henry, deputy registrar, at the Robinson Electric Store, Wayne and Broad-st.

The Feb. 19 meeting will be conducted by the Business Standards committee. Chairman Joe Goodwin has announced that Rosemary Hays, acting director of the Industrial Department, Chamber of Commerce, will speak on "The Economic Aspects of Present Day Business."

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Frazier have opened a new shop, the Treasure Chest, in the Parrott Beauty Salon, 2451 Sullivant-av. The beauty shop is operated by Ruth Hindall and Edith Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazier were formerly connected with the Novelty Shack. Their new store features many beautiful gifts of glassware, pottery, etc.

BOY SCOUTS IN THE Southwest District

Cub Pack 86

The cub scouts of Den 2, Pack 86, will entertain Friday evening with a blue and gold party at the home of their den mother, Mrs. Charles Meddles, 507 Binns-blvd. The parents of the cubs are invited, and will be shown the activities of a den meeting. There will be games and refreshments. M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner and Richard Lloyd will be the honored guests.

Sensenbrenner is southwest district chairman and Lloyd is chairman of Pack 86.

Cub Pack 214

On Jan. 30, Cub Pack 214 presented a magic show for the pleasure of the cubs, their parents and friends.

Attendance records were broken, when the cubs were hosts to more than 250 guests.

The Den Mothers of Pack 214 helped the boys put on the show and make it a success.

Cubmaster Tom Howell entertained the cubs between acts with his magic "Simon Says Thumbs Up, and Simon Says Thumbs Down."

A short business meeting preceded the show, at which time C. O. Wintle, of the Wintle Delivery and Moving Co., presented the pack with a flag.

Troop 78

Fathers of members of Troop 78 at Burgess Evangelical United Brethren Church were guests of their sons at the Monday night troop meeting. Stunts and other entertainment were presented by the boys and refreshments were served following the program.

Members of the troop attended church in a group Sunday morning and had a place on the morning worship program in observance of National Boy Scout Week.

Scouts To Honor Thomas E. Wilson

One Hilltop boy will be elevated to the rank of Eagle Scout and 54 boys from the Southwest District will receive advancements in the Eagle Court of Honor to be held at Central High School Sunday at 2:30 o'clock.

Wilson

Thomas E. Wilson, 145 N. Eureka-av, is the only local boy in the 26 who will receive their Eagle badges in the special ceremony. He is a member of Troop 100, not a part of the Southwest District.

Scout Officials Have Dinner Meeting Here

Approximately 50 scouters from the Southwest District attended a quarterly dinner meeting at Schmelzer's Restaurant Tuesday night.

M E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, 335 Guernsey-av, chairman of the district, presided at the meeting and called for reports from various committee chairmen. Cliff Matthews, scout executive for the district, explained the status of scouting in this area.

The next quarterly meeting will be held May 12.

Dr. Bateman Exceeds Philharmonic Quota

Dr. J. F. Bateman, superintendent of the Columbus State Hospital, exceeded his individual quota of $500 in the Philharmonic Orchestra campaign last week by $200 it was learned from drive headquarters.

A Hilltop woman, Mrs. James Burke, 243 S. Wayne-av, indicated her interest in the project by volunteering to do a full day's housework for anyone who will donate $5 to the orchestra fund.

The committee in charge of the drive hopes to raise $125,000 to finance next year's operation and pay off current operating deficits.

Cowboys Prepare To Meet East Tomorrow Night After 63-52 Win Over South

Second Half Rally Brings Victory

With only four games remaining on the regular schedule, the chips will be down for the West High Cowboys as they battle it out for the No. 3 spot in the City Basketball League.

Fresh from a 63-52 triumph over the South Bulldogs Friday night, George Williams is preparing for another "do or die" struggle with East on the Hilltop court tomorrow night. A capacity crowd is expected to pack the gym.

Other games remaining on the schedule include a visit to Aquinas Feb. 17 and a visit from North Feb. 20. The regular season will close with a game with Bexley on the Hilltop court Feb. 27.

Local sports fans are wondering just what Coach Williams told his cage squad between the halves of that South-West game Friday night. The Cowboys, badly outclassed at that point, were trailing 41-19. The fact is George didn't tell them anything. There was little conversation in the West dressing room during that rest period. As the team prepared to go out on the court to start the second half, Coach Williams merely said:

"The score is South 41, West 19."

That was all. During that third period the Hilltoppers started doing things right. They tallied 26 points while holding the host team to two points. In the closing period they went even stronger, tallying 24 markers against 9 for Coach Hood's boys.

Burton Clicks

Duffy Burton began to click in the Friday night upset and accounted for 18 of his team's points. That was twice the number of tallies ever turned in by him for a single game this season. Dick Culbertson, playing the guard position vacated by Jack Thrush at mid-year, showed improved form as he added 15 points. Walter Hicks added 12 while Paul Theisen was held to 8 markers for the evening.

During that unfortunate (for West) first half, the Bulldogs could seemingly do no wrong. Only one rule infraction was called on the team during those two quarters.

In the preliminary, the South Reserves topped the Hilltoppers by a 32 to 22 score.

As of this writing, West occupies third place in the torrid City League with North having won one more game than the Cowboys. The two teams meet here Feb. 20. Central, once defeated, seems safely lodged in the No. 1 spot at this time. Only a major series of upsets could change that situation at this late date. West does have an opportunity to latch on to second place if the team plays the kind of ball it played in that last half of the South game.

Bruckelmeyer Hits 660

Howard Bruckelmeyer had one of those few and far between nights as he scored 660 on games of 213, 240 and 207. He was bowling with the White Chef team on Friday evening.

Howard, in his three big games, compiled a total of 20 strikes, 9 spares, 1 split, and 2 misses. His two misses came in the 1st game in the 1st and 3rd frames and his split came in the 5th frame of the third game. In the first game, he spared between the two misses, then threw five strikes in a row. In the ninth he spared and then concluded his 213 game with a strike and a spare. In his second game, Howard started off as if he meant business as he threw five strikes, then spared in the 6th and struck again in the 7th and 9th and ended his 240 game with two spares.

Dick Ardis

Howard slowed down in the final game and as he entered the 9th frame had only 147, and it looked as if he would miss his third 200 game but he was not to be denied as he struck in the 9th and then struck out in the 10th for a 207 game and a grand 660 total.

Complete Satisfaction

In Your ESQUIRE Suit, Sport Coat Slacks or Topcoat

For MEN and WOMEN

100% PERFECT FIT

The information shown by the 1" line chart in each of the four pictures, is the reason we can guarantee "100% Perfection of Fit." After tape measurements are taken for your new Esquire custom tailored suit, sport coat, slacks or topcoat, four pictures, as illustrated, are taken against the line chart. These pictures are included with your order when it is sent to the factory.

This feature, exclusive with the Esquire, enables us to give the tailor additional information over and above the ordinary measurements needed.

Our tailors can read these photographs to within ¼" in determining how much the shoulders "slope," how much lower one shoulder is than the other, how much "incline" there is in the angle your neck and head joins the shoulders.

Another important problem is the amount you may protrude in the front and rear. This cannot be shown by ordinary measurements, however the pictures tell the story to the tailors with extreme accuracy.

This added finesse in customing service was conceived and designed by "Bud" Worley and will not be found in any store in Columbus or anywhere else to our knowledge. "Bud," who is co-owner of the store, posed for the photos which illustrate the advantages of the chart.

Grove City Downs Hilltop Lutheran Here Monday

By Dave Miller

Grove City again went into the spotlight as the main feature of the Lutheran League at John Burroughs on Monday evening by defeating favored Hilltop, 37 to 31, in the only senior game of the night.

This bit of action Monday started the sixth week of play for the Lutherans.

The win for Grove City brought its season's total to three wins and as many losses for an even average. For the second straight week, they were led by the big, alert center, Grassley, who collected six buckets and a free throw for 13 points. He was followed by teammate Kennedy with seven and Jim Davis and Stan Dichley of Hilltop, each collecting three goals a free attempt. To aid the winners' cause they held a 14 to 12 halftime lead.

The other games were very uninteresting, and only the peeps of the officials' whistles kept the few gathered spectators from falling asleep.

The opening game saw undefeated St. Matthew ring up its sixth victory by downing an easy-to-beat St. John five by a 29 to 4 wallopping score. Bill Ott again led the winners as he plunked through five buckets for 10 points. Tod Fladt and Harry Bradley scored the only baskets for their losing quintet. The ultimate winners held a 13 to 2 easy lead when the half ended.

The second contest was "just another runaway" as Bethlehem Intermediate defeated Hilltop by a 20 to 6 count. Dave Lazenby copped three points for Hilltop while James Ealy was collecting seven and Bob Andrews, both of the winners, collected six.

Ott of St. Matthew leads the loop in scoring, with 67 points.

Dick Layne, Former West Athlete To Try For Role In Flicker Land Soon

By Bob Humphrey

Dick Layne

Our section of the city (the Hilltop) may have a future motion picture star as Dick Layne, former West High athletic great has an opportunity of trying out for the movies in California. It was revealed to this reporter last Saturday. It is a very high honor for Dick and will attract a lot of attention to the Hilltop section of Columbus.

Layne says that he plans to go to Hollywood for a test and probably to a motion picture school early in March after his mother undergoes a major operation. He plans to take his mother with him to California.

Dick also plans to enroll as a student at the University of Southern California if he stays in California. He was majoring in commercial art at Ohio State University, but dropped out of school following the death of his father last fall.

At the present time, Layne is busily engaged in basketball, being one of the stars of the Hilltop Kiwanis team in the Glenwood Independent Basketball League and also with Layne Service in the Central YMCA Class A League.

Dick is an all around athlete, participating in basketball, baseball, football, track and softball.

In addition, he has also done some coaching, having served as head line coach of the Capital University football team in 1946.

Played At West

The prominent Hilltop boy, who resides at 639 S. Eureka-av, was one of West High's best athletes in 1942, 1943, and 1944, playing center on the school's basketball team, a tackle on the football team, first base and left field on the baseball team and specialized in the shot put on the track team.

Following his graduation from West High in February, 1945, he enrolled at Ohio State University and gained a letter as a member of the Buckeye freshman football team the next fall.

Among the basketball teams of which he has been a member are Clevenger and Redifer in the Columbus League during the 1946-1947 campaign, G. W. Holmes, Layne Service and Hilltop Kiwanis.

Last summer, Layne starred for the Hoge Memorial softball team in the West Church League.

Junior Broncos Get Practice Between Games

By Dave Miller

Coach Red Lehman, in an effort to give his new boys some badly needed experience, has whipped up some games for the West Junior boys who took over the duties of the five graduating players this mid-season.

On Jan. 27 the little Cowboys played the West Senior reserve squad in a prelim to the Logan-West game that evening. The seniors downed the Junior five, 32 to 28, in a very fashionable comeback. Coach Lehman was absent and the Senior High football coach, Mack Pemberton, took over his duties for the losers. George Crissinger and Paul Ellingsworth each tallied eight points to top the Broncos' scoring. Jim Rudolph, last year a squad member for West Junior, took scoring honors with 17 markers. The ultimate losers held leads at the second and third quarters end.

In an annual 9B-9A grades basketball game of the graduating class played against the remainder of the squad, the 9A's were out on top, 33 to 19. Ellingsworth and Paul Thompson both tallied six buckets to lead the graduates to victory. Eugene (Tommy) Thompson led the 9B squad with seven points.

St. John Lutheran Intermediate, made up of boys mostly of West Junior, played Feb. 4 against the West Junior varsity. The Junior Cowboys were out on top, 30 to 15, with Ray Wakeman tallying 15 of the winners' points.

On February 6 the Broncos visited Grandview Junior High and played them in a prelim to the Grandview-Upper Arlington game. The host team was out on top in this one, 20 to 18. Ray Wakeman collected 10 for the losers.

Sport Notes

By Bob Humphrey

George Hardy, a former West High athlete and a Hilltop resident, is serving in a new role as official scorer of the Glenwood Independent Basketball League games at Glenwood Park gym on Friday evening. Hardy usually referees basketball games and is rated as one of Columbus' top ranking cage officials, but consented to "pinch hit" as official scorer when the regular scorer, Wes Yates, became sick a few weeks ago.

Woody Wills, an athletic star at West High several years ago, is serving as coach of the Gahanna Lincoln High School team.

Four prominent Hilltop cagers are starring for Ace's Service Station in the Linden Independent Tuesday Basketball League. They are Doug "Shug" Haines, who is under contract to the Pittsburgh Pirates' National League baseball team; Verne Luttimer, Joe Davis and Frank Marshall. Another Hilltopper, the veteran Monty "Red" Dunlap, is coach of the Ace's team which is tied with another team for first place in the Linden loop, being undefeated in four games.

Another Hilltop cage star, Ray Stinson, is playing a sterling game for American Legion No. 249, also a member of the Linden Independent Tuesday League.

The Glenwood Gym basketball team is undefeated in the City Recreation Center League, having won its first two games, scoring a total of 44 points to a total of 29 for opposing teams.

Although tied for last place in the Glenwood Independent Basketball League, Hilltop Van and Storage is making a good showing in the Central YMCA Class B League, being in second place in the league standing, with four wins and one loss.

Layne Service, a Hilltop team, sparked by Dick Layne, the former Cowboy star, is tied with Greene's Clothiers for second place in the Central YMCA Class AA League, with four victories against one defeat.

Parents Group To Have Valentine Tea

The Hilltop Parents Association will have a Valentine Tea Sunday, Feb. 15, from 3 to 6 p. m. at the Oakley Avenue Baptist Church. The public is invited.

The regular monthly meeting of the association will be held this evening at the Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church at 7:30.

Graduates and members of the kindergarten were entertained with a party Saturday, Jan. 31, from 2 to 4 p. m. by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Biggs, 247 S. Oakley-av. Games were played and refreshments were served.

The girls' basketball team has won six out of seven games in the Saturday afternoon Godman Guild League.

Girls who practice regularly and play in the league are Beverly Bell, Roweta Shaw, Norma Jean Muriel, Carol Vaiden, Shirley Zimmerman, Margaret Brunson, Effi Cousar, Regina Shaw, Betty Williams, Lois Roberts, Nancy Penn, Pearlie Halsell, Marion Goolsby, Lois Cousar, Joyce Goolsby, Evelyn Brown, Minnie Childs, Thelma Roberts and Thelma Lowery. The coach is Faith Holliday, assisting coach is Jo-Ann Toler. Elizabeth Shaw is the supervisor.

Standard Oil To Oppose Undefeated Olentangy Post

By Bob Humphrey

Undefeated Olentangy Post No. 4615 will seek its sixth victory in the Glenwood Independent Basketball League in a clash against Standard Oil at 7:30 p. m., headlining the sixth set of league games at Glenwood Park gym. The Olentangy boys will be faced with the problem of stopping Standard's high scoring Ray Stinson, a former West High star.

In other games on Friday's program, South-East A. C. meets Hilltop Van and Storage at 7 p. m., Hilltop Kiwanis Club engages High-Buttles at 8 and Spears Funeral Home faces Mellman Corner at 9:30.

The Olentangy Post team has compiled a fine record in league competition to date this season. In the five league games, the first placers have scored a total of 301 points, an average of 60 points per game, while limiting opposing teams to a total of 124, an average of 25 per game.

Olentangy Post coasted to an easy 48 to 23 victory over Hilltop Van and Storage last Friday. Standard Oil downed South-East A. C., 34 to 24; Hilltop Kiwanis Club trimmed Mellman Corner, 31 to 28, and High-Buttles nosed out Spears Funeral Home, 26 to 21.

The Olentangy boys enjoyed a 21 to 11 lead over Hilltop Van and Storage at the half. Joe Bennett and Dick McQuade scored 12 points each for the winners, while Bill Link hung up 11 points for the Hilltoppers.

Close Finish

Dick Layne, former West High star, connected with a field goal and Jack Hemmett with a free throw in the last 32 seconds, to account for Hilltop Kiwanis' winning margin over Mellman Corner. The Kiwanis quintet staged an uphill fight after trailing at the half, 14 to 12. Layne scored eight points for Kiwanis and Bill Allman hit the pet for 12 points for Mellman Corner.

The High Buttles-Spears Funeral Home clash developed into a hard fought battle, with High-Buttles holding a slender 12 to 9 lead at the intermission. Dick Anderson of High-Buttles, with 11 points, and Tom "Dutch" Thum of Spears Funeral, with 11, were the scoring leaders of the game.

Standard Wins

Standard Oil piled up a halftime 16 to 9 lead over South-East A. C. and retained the margin during the remainder of the game. Ray Stinson registered 12 points for Standard and "Moe" Lewis racked up 10 for South-East.

Joe Bennett of Olentangy Post continues to top the league in individual scoring, being credited with 57 points in five games.

The 13 leading scorers of the league are Joe Bennett, Olentangy Post, 57 points; Don Borror, Hilltop Kiwanis, 52; Harvey Ender, High-Buttles, 50; Dick Layne, Hilltop Kiwanis, 50; Ray Stinson, Standard Oil, 50; Gene Clark, Olentangy Post, 49; Bob Tracy, Olentangy Post, 44; Don Ijams, Mellman Corner, 41; Bill Allman, Mellman Corner, 37; Ray Grable, Hilltop Van and Storage, 37; Tom Arnold, Spears Funeral Home, 36; Tom "Dutch" Thum, Spears Funeral Home, 34; Jack Hammett, Hilltop Kiwanis, 30.

Thrush Signs With Detroit Farm Team

Another of West High School's fine athletes has entered the ranks of organized baseball.

He is Jack Thrush, a mid-year graduate, who probably gained wider acclaim among the state's sports writers than any other Cowboy athlete. Jack signed a one-year player contract with the Seattle Pacific Coast League club last Friday. The club has a triple A rating and is affiliated with the Detroit Tigers.

The 18-year-old athlete told The Hilltop Record that he would be notified to report to one of the system's training camps early next month. Salary terms were not made public but a sizeable bonus for signing the contract is understood to be a part of the agreement.

In going professional, Jack joins a list of more than a dozen Hilltop boys who have entered or been tendered contracts by organized baseball in recent years.

Included in this list are the names of Sug Haines, Robert Cline, Dick Hoover, Bow Howison, Carl Hosler, Bill Richards, Bob Phelps, Jake Richards, Dick Gilmore, Don Gilmore, Duke Simpson and Diz Wilson. (There are probably others not known to the writer at this time.)

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Mrs. Jessie Gatley of West Chapel-st, mother of Mrs. Alfred Sheets, 201 Pasadena-av, has been in the hospital for several weeks. She fell as she was boarding a streetcar during one of the recent icy days. She is improving slowly.

Two Rome girls were represented at the style show in Lazarus Assembly Center Jan. 26. They were Reva Jean Nichols daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earl Nichols, 5041 W. Broad-st, and Irene Breckler, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Victor Breckler, 5171 W. Broad-st. Reva modeled a pink summer formal. She had been selected from Hilliards High School. Irene modeled a two-piece wine velvet dress. She was selected from Holy Family. The handiwork they show is the result of their training under efficient leaders in 4-H Club work.

Diane Kasler, Marylin Snyder and Jim Lamb accompanied Rev. and Mrs. Elwood Rose to the winter institute held in King Avenue Church.

Marylyn West, 5193 W. Broad-st, Elizabeth French, 5461 W. Broad-st, and Sally Owens, Rome-Hilliards-rd, have been chosen by their student council as cheerleaders for Hilliards High School for the next three years.

Diane Kasler of Pasadena-av was the house guest last weekend of Marjorie Crompton, 179 N. Powell-av.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sampson had dinner with Mrs. Sampson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coulter, Sunday. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coulter went to Reynoldsburg to see Mr. Coulter's brother, who has been sick for several months. Two other brothers, Jim and John Coulter, accompanied them. It had been quite some time since the four sons had visited together.

Floyd Grimm, who has been sick quite often the past year, had an operation for sinus trouble and it is believed his general good health will return.

Mrs. I. A. Thompson, Laurence-av, who has been out of town several days due to the illness of her sister, Mary Laird of Dayton, is now home.

A Valentine buffet supper will be held this Saturday night by the Monitors of Columbia Heights Church. Hamburgers, pie and salad will be served at the price of 10 cents a serving. Proceeds will be used for church school supplies.

Rev. W. D. Kuenzli, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Galloway and Grove City, told of his experience as chaplain in World War II and had two of his films to show the true European condition, in Wesley Chapel, of which Rev. Elwood Rose is pastor. The service was held Sunday night and was attended by the Junior Youth Fellowship of Columbia Heights, after the regular meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krehn, Maple-dr, announce the birth of a son. They have named him Edmund.

Mrs. and Mrs. Howard Breckenridge visited Mrs. Breckenridge's mother, Mrs. Effie Hedrick, in Derby, yesterday. Mrs. Hedrick has been sick for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Calland, Pasadena-av, were hosts to the Rome Card Club Saturday night.

A beautiful "snow lady" graced the lawn of the Stormont house, Pasadena-av. It was the work of Mrs. Stormont. The snow lady was about 10 feet high, with beautiful red lips and black eyebrows, and a graceful sweeping train. She had a smile for every one who passed, because every one smiled at her.

Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Phillips of Canal Winchester spent Sunday afternoon with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Richey, Pasadena-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Richey are leaving Saturday for Wassau, Wis. It will be a business trip for him and a pleasure trip for Mrs. Richey, who has a school friend living in that city.

Mrs. E. T. English of Pasadena-av, is home after visiting several days in Detroit. While there she was maid-of-honor for the wedding of her cousin, who was married at 11 o'clock in the morning. Then at 7:30 of the same day she attended another wedding, at which her brother was best man.

Mrs. Dick Rarey (Marion Howell), who had been spending several days with her mother after her return from the hospital, has returned to her home, 2095 W. Broad-st.

Mrs. Lumbus called Sunday at the Howell home.

Mrs. George Terry, Maple-dr, entertained several neighbors with a Stanley party Thursday evening.

LEARN TECHNICALITIES

Become familiar with the terms used to refer to weave and pattern placement on the fabric.

The selvage is the closely woven strip that runs the length of woven fabrics. Lengthwise threads always run parallel to the selvage.

Grain means nothing more than the thread of the material. For example, a crosswise grain means those threads which run at right angles to the selvage.

Hilltop Audience Is Enthusiastic Over Program Of Columbus Boychoir Wed.

"One of the finest things to hit the Hilltop in many a year."

That's what people were saying out at West High School last Wednesday night following the first local appearance of the famed Columbus Boy Choir, directed by Herbert Huffman.

To put it mildly, the 700 people who turned out on that blustery winter night were enthusiastic about the performance even down to the smallest child who sat spellbound by the beauty of the pageantry and music.

Making no pretense at reviewing the program as a music critic, I could not help but succumb to the charm and excellent quality of the work presented. I am convinced that too few of us living here in Columbus appreciate the caliber of the work being done with these boys, many of them our own friends and neighbors.

Already some of the members of the Fidelis Class of the Hoge Memorial Church are talking about making this concert an annual event for the Hilltop. Assuming that Mr. Huffman would consider such a proposition, I can personally think of no finer contribution that could be made to the cultural life of the community.

Along with many other Hilltoppers, it was my first look at this unique organization. I had heard the Boy Choir on the radio but you can't truly appreciate such a group without seeing it in person. There's something about the tonal quality of their singing and the enthusiasm with which the boys work that puts them in a class all their own.

I have heard Schubert's beautiful "Ave Maria" sung by many groups and as solo by many artists, but none of them pleased me any more than last week's rendition. There was something almost celestial about their tonal quality in this number and "The Lord's Prayer," the third and final encore.

On the lighter side, the boys sang Mozart's comic opera, "Bastien and Bastienne," complete with costumes and minuets.

Other choral selections included "Virgines Prudentes" by Jacob Handl; "Kyrie", by Antonio Lotti; "Alleluja," also by Mozart; an arrangement by Lowell Riley of "Adeste Fidelis"; "Hora," a modern Palestinian dance, by Julius Chajes; the popular "Summertime" from "Porgy and Bess," by George Gershwin in an arrangement by Lowell Riley.

Other encores included the boys' own lyrics to "The Whiffenpoof Song" and "The Echo."

The enthusiastic audience would have continued asking for encores had not Mr. Huffman brought the program to a tactful close when, after the second curtain call, he announced:

"For their closing number the boys will sing 'The Lord's Prayer' and they request that there be no applause."

The youthful Mr. Cohen demonstrated his own artistry in the piano accompaniments played throughout the evening's program.

The Fidelis Class, its teacher and its officers are to be commended for bringing this excellent program to the Hilltop.—p.w.

$2 Worth of Culture

Many Hilltop and Columbus residents are not aware of the wide-spread recognition that has been achieved by OUR Columbus Philharmonic Orchestra in the few short years that it has required to grow to maturity. Music critics far and wide have acclaimed the splendid work of this group and particularly the versatility of its director, Izler Solomon.

For as little as $2 per year, you may become a member of the Columbus Philharmonic Association and enjoy a small share in the support of this cultural enterprise. Many persons will want to give more, but emphasis in this fund-raising campaign is on number of gifts, rather than size of gifts.

Some cities and some states with symphonies no better than the Columbus Philharmonic, support their orchestras by municipal and state appropriations. That automatically makes every citizen a contributor to the orchestra fund. No orchestra of this kind can expect to support itself from its own sources of revenue, however, the local organization requires only about $75,000 in additional support per year. There is at present a $50,000 accumulated deficit so this year the association is asking for a total of $125,000.

It's a small price to ask from a city of more than 300,000 residents when such a reputation is at stake. The Philharmonic has done much to bring good music into the homes of Columbus. Its numerous "pop" concerts at nominal prices and the weekly broadcasts make the concerts available to every one.

The Columbus Philharmonic is YOUR orchestra, makes YOUR city a better place to live in, surrounds YOU and YOUR family with wholesome influences of many kinds. The Philharmonic is one of those community enterprises Columbus CAN afford, and CAN'T afford to be without.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

The Record is arriving on fine schedule and we enjoy its contents very much. From its pages it would seem the home town is going through a lot of changes these past few years.

Thanks for all the news and your consideration for this address change.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Richard W. Johnston

Sharp Park, Calif.

Gentlemen:

Many thanks for the flowers and the honor you recently gave me.

I hope I can live up to all the many nice things said about me in The Hilltop Record and as you already know I will be in there fighting for anything good for the Hilltop.

Again, many thanks.

M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner

Mr. Editor:

As a community news outlet, I feel quite sure that you will be interested in the following observations and announcement.

After World War No. 1 we noted the fact that the veterans of that war made the same identical mistakes that the veterans of World War No. 2 are now making and we write this in the hope that the veterans of this community will read it and profit by the mistakes made by all veterans.

We came home from that war with a firm resolve that we would band together, as the Spanish American War veterans had done and through this organization would promote legislation that would head off any future wars.

However, we became so concerned with securing jobs, homes, making a living, raising a family, etc., that we lost sight of our goal, with the result that today only one-third of all such veterans, of all wars, are members of any veteran organization.

Two things have resulted from the failure of two-thirds of our comrades to join us in an organized effort. First of all, World War No. 2 "could have been avoided" if you and I had, by an organized effort, furnished the numerical strength to be heard down in Washington, on war-like acts that led up to that war, "that war could have been avoided."

Next, if this two-thirds will, even now, join the ranks of the organized veterans, World War No. 3 can be avoided and through a united effort we can elect the type of national officers so necessary to the peace of the world. Our own comrades in the congress of the United States is a real peace insurance.

Here is an invitation: I invite every eligible veteran of the Hilltop to attend the birthday party of our own community Veterans of Foreign Wars Post, known as Westway Post No. 3441, on Friday evening, Feb. 20, 7 p. m., at the K of P Hall, 697 S. High-st. If you are a veteran and are interested, call either RA. 4549 or RA. 7195 for full and complete information.

I personally would like to meet my old school-mates of the Hilltop, who are veterans, or the sons of such men who are the veterans of this last war, and here is a chance to do just that. Come out and meet with your veteran neighbors of the Hilltop.

Your Comrade,
THE OLD SARGE.

VALENTINE

These words have all been said,
time out of mind;
These pictures memorize eternal art.
Each one with subtle care has been designed
To reproduce the symbol of the heart.
Time out of mind, this is the day for lovers
To sing the secret of the heart's desire;
This is the magic day when each discovers
His love replenished like a living fire.

And so, my dear, this valentine is token
Of something more than lace and hearts and flowers;
Though it is simply phrased and lightly spoken,
It speaks of something dear, forever ours;
For love, compressed into this tightened rhyme,
Will yet outlive the platitudes of time.

Mae Winkler Goodman,
in her book,
THE SINGLE FLAME.

Where is the fellow who's always lamenting the fact that we don't have the old fashioned winters any more?

Being still in that class for whom life has not yet begun (Life is said to begin at 40.) I can't remember the old variety but certainly this year must be a reasonably good facsimile of the same.

Record Mgr. Joe Agee had the tables turned on him a few days ago. After razzing me about confusing his Chev with one belonging to Chas. Reichelderfer a few weeks back, Joe had the following experience:

It was one of those days when snow fell in abundance and Joe had not moved his car from in back of the plant all day. That evening after dark he went out to get his car to go home and walked past it several times before discovering that it was half buried in the freshly-fallen snow.

About Words and Music

As one of their encore numbers in last week's Hilltop concert put on by the Columbus Boy Choir, the singers used the currently popular "Whiffenpoof Song." I was glad to see that Director Herbert Huffman used his own version on the vocals rather than the one usually heard on the radio, etc.

In this writer's humble opinion the words are not suitable for any self-respecting adult to sing—not to mention a boys' choir. It's another case of trashy lyrics being used with a beautiful musical score—a situation that is not justifiable in my mind.

I recall an incident concerning that same song that took place a year ago when the Hilltop Male Chorus was preparing its music for the annual Hilltop Minstrel. Leo Phillips had consented to direct the chorus for that occasion and as one of the chorus numbers he had suggested "The Whiffenpoof Song," then just starting on its rise to popularity on a national scale. Leo had been careful to point out that the lyrics were not entirely suitable for a church audience.

After three or four rehearsals the number was not going so well. Leo stopped the group in the middle of the number and asked what the trouble was.

"Don't you like this number?" he queried.

One of the singers voiced the sentiments of many of the group when he replied:

"The music is very lovely but the words are sacrilegious."

"That's all I wanted to know," Leo said solemnly as he closed up his score.

A substitute number was in its place the following week.

As listeners, most of us are not so discriminating. We will accept any trash that some "little tin god" in "tin pan alley" dreams up in a drunken stupor to peddle to the great and gullible American public. We as listeners should register our protests in no uncertain terms to the networks and radio stations that persist in broadcasting material into our homes that is more suitable for bar room audiences.

Wrong Bus

Our Rome correspondent passes along the story of the case of the wrong bus.

It seems that when a minister and his family moved to the community, they were having difficulty in figuring out the bus schedule for transportation into town. A friend suggested that various colors marked the buses and that time schedules were not always exact.

One morning the pastor's wife was waiting on transportation into Columbus. She saw an unusual-looking black car approaching and hailed it, thinking it was one of the public carriers. It wasn't until it stopped that she noticed the beautiful emblem on the side identifying it as part of the Columbus Police Department.

The officers politely opened the door and smilingly drove towards the city while their passenger took her seat crimsoned-faced, imagining that the whole village had been watching the incident.

On street corners, in drug-stores, wherever youthful masculinity congregates, you may be sure that the topic of conversation is youthful femininity. Usually these get-togethers narrow down to mere verbal contests between two or more members whose braggings of past romantic-adventures leave the others in a spell of boredom. But I recall one such shicks-tale that proved rather entertaining.

Wilson

One date-barren evening (back in my youth) at the local hangout, a young pup with a watered-down mustache was telling our little group how he wowed a chance acquaintance with his slick routine. It seems the incident occurred when he was a G. I. on pass over in London. He was on a subway train, seated beside a cute blonde.

"She was in some kinda uniform," he said. "I didn't notice at the time just what it was, but I wasn't interested in the uniform, it was the way she fit it. Like a Sherman tank in a shelter-half. And she kept givin' me a USO look so I moved in, cautious: 'You and me could make beautiful music, baby,' I said, figurin' she might like a little long-hair stuff."

"What did she say?" one of the guys asked.

"She laughed. Then I followed through with: 'These are troubled times, honey, leave us live for the moment.' She laughed, and I could see I was makin' progress, so I stopped stallin'. 'Wat say we blitz this barracks on wheels and ring doorbells?' And then she laughed and I knew I was safe on first. It was beginnin' to bog down, though, so I turned my cards up. 'Listen, Cindy,' I said, 'before ya know it, this chariot's gonna turn back into a punkin'. Let's step off this formal pivot and get lost together."

"What did she say then?" one of the listeners cut in.

"Nothin'," our Romeo admitted. "That's just it. I had her goin' and I knew it, but she seemed scared to talk. Then I Noticed her shoulder patch. CZECHOSLOVAKIA, it read.

'Look,' I said, 'why the Harpo Marx act? Can't you make with the Webster?'"

"What did she say then?" another listener panted.

The story-teller shrugged, sipped his phosphate, and calmly replied: "She laughed."

SCRIPTURE: John 14:23, 26; Acts 2: 1-4; 3:1 to 4:31; Galatians 5:22-26. DEVOTIONAL READING: Ephesians 6:10-20.

Power of Holy Spirit

Lesson for February 15, 1948

TWO decades ago, the famous preacher, Rev. Reginald J. Campbell, declared, "The 18th Century may be characterized as the Century of God the Father; the 19th Century as the Century of God the Son; and we are praying that the 20th Century may be experienced as the Century of the Holy Spirit." That was a brave and hopeful prayer. May we claim the same hope.

Dr. Newton

"These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you," John 14:25, 26. Go on to read Acts 2:1-4; 3:1 to 4:31; Galatians 5: 22-26 and you will have the Scripture passages for Sunday's lesson, with Ephesians 6:10-20 as the devotional reading.

PETER ACTS BRAVELY

IN THE passage in Acts we have the picture of Peter and John about to enter the temple on the Sabbath, when suddenly they find themselves confronted by a sick beggar. What could they do with him and for him? He was asking for money.

Peter said, "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I thee, in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk!"

The lame man stood up, leaping and walking and rejoicing, and went into the temple with Peter and John. Only the power of God can do such mighty works. Peter was not afraid to tackle the man's needs, since he relied upon God's wisdom and strength.

WHY PETER WAS BRAVE

PETER is often pictured as a very quick-tempered person. He was usually the first to speak in every situation. He was the leader of the group—a natural leader of men. But Peter did not assume to meet the poor man's need in his strength. Only "in the Name of Jesus."

When we forget self and rely upon the Holy Spirit for direction, we are enabled to meet and master any situation. Juniors will do well to remember these words, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts," Zechariah 4:6.

Junior boys and girls can meet life's tasks in the same assurance in which Peter dealt with the lame man, if we rely upon the Holy Spirit.

SECRET OF CHRISTIAN POWER

"YOU shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you." Acts 1:8. That is the secret of the Christian's power. It does not originate elsewhere. It is God's gift to those who implicitly trust in him.

This great truth is particularly appealing to intermediates and seniors. Young people are keenly sensitive to the times in which they live. We live today in an hour of unprecedented power — atomic energy! But all of the marvels of modern science have not been able to give young people the sense of mastery. Rather, we are afraid. The scientists themselves tell us that this is history's most precarious age.

Only when the Holy Spirit is regnant in our hearts can we possess the power of which Paul is writing in Galatians, when he says, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance."

WHEN WE HAVE THAT POWER

WHY, then, should we ever be weak, when we may always possess that power? This is the most searching question for any Christian. The answer will lead us to certain inevitable admissions. We become weak spiritually when we forget to pray, when we forget to read God's word, when we allow the interests of this world to blind our eyes and deafen our ears to the reality of God's presence.

The Holy Spirit will dwell within us, if only we will welcome him. He will not come unbidden; he will not remain unwanted. He cannot be made secondary. Either he guides or surrenders the reins to us.

Our lives are spiritually strong and healthy when the Holy Spirit governs. Our work is effective, our words are compelling. We speak not our wisdom, but the wisdom of God. We go not in our strength, but in his strength.

Church Makes Practical Application Of Parable Of The Talents From Bible

The Biblical "Parable of the Talents" is the unusual method being used by the Westgate Methodist Church to stimulate interest in and obtain funds for plastering and decorating the sanctuary of the church before Easter.

A short time ago a friend of the church donated 30 new one dollar bills to the church. The bills, considered as "talents," are given out one by one to members of the Married Methodists Class, which is taught by the pastor, Rev. James F. Lorenz. Each person receiving a bill circulates throughout the community telling the Bible story and asking help in increasing his "talent."

As the money is given out, the recipient is asked to increase his lot ten-fold. Earlier in the week one member of the congregation had increase his amount to $30.

At present the members of the church are using the ground floor of the structure for worship. The congregation moved into the partially completed building in December, five years after beginning a project for a new house of worship. They plan to pay for each part of the building as it is completed. For five years members of the church held services in West High School. When the building was begun, an approximate figure of $200,000 was estimated for the entire cost.

If the men and women of the Married Methodists Class are able to increase their "talents" ten-fold, or more, the congregation of Westgate Methodist Church should have a lovely sanctuary in which to worship on Easter Sunday.

Easter Seal Sale Drive To Open

The 15th annual Easter Seal sale for crippled children will open Feb. 28 and close Easter Sunday, March 28, it was announced this week by Dr. Walter A. Zaugg, president of the Ohio Society for Crippled Children.

Mission Group Is Ready For Action

Harold Fox, president of the Men With Missions, announced recently that several steps have been taken toward making that movement a "going concern."

Men With Missions is the newly formed group, including all men 18 years of age and older, of Highland Avenue Friends Church. This is an outgrowth of a weekly Saturday night prayer service conducted by the men for the past year.

Fox further stated that a constitution has been drawn up and is to be recommended for adoption at the next meeting. This constitution establishes the fundamental purposes and policies of the organization.

The purpose of Men With Missions is really two-fold: to awaken and inform men on the problems of the church and the needs of the community, and to intelligently present the work of foreign missions.

Already plans are being laid for a full around-the-year program featuring special meetings open to the public, information concerning the mission work in India and China, community work, scouting, athletics, musical and educational projects. Activity with younger men and boys will be one of the important projects.

A charter membership list has still been left open to interested spiritual men who realize that a progressive program backed by prayer in a church is a contributing factor toward promoting the general welfare of a community.

Men With Missions has held one meeting, that for organization. Dr. Ezra DeVol Friends medical missionary to China and former Hilltop physician, highlighted the meeting with an inspiring address on "Christian Men Are Expendible."

It was at this meeting that Harold Fox was elected president. Chosen to serve along with him were Franklin LeRoy vice-president; Floyd Clark, secretary, and Herbert Rector, treasurer.

Baptist Workers To Meet Sunday

The worship service will be led by Mrs. Richard DeWitt and the balance of the session will be turned over to Miss Marion Stanley, who will represent the Granville office of the convention in presenting the suggestions and plans for the Easter theme.

The service will be concluded with a fellowship tea in the ladies' parlor, served by the Missionary Society, Mrs. Ralph Bieber in charge. All church school teachers and workers are urged to attend this meeting.

Ash Wednesday Ushers In Lent

Ash Wednesday yesterday ushered in the Lenten season, a sacred season of the year for churches of the community. Special observances will be held in churches leading up to Easter on Mar. 28.

Palm Sunday, Mar. 21, this year, falls on the first day of Spring.

This year, Easter comes eight days earlier than it did in 1947 and two weeks earlier than it will next year, according to the Almanac.

Because of the means used to compute the Easter date, the Holy holiday can vary between Mar. 22 and April 25.

Last year Ash Wednesday fell on February 19 and Easter on April 6. In 1949—next year—Ash Wednesday comes on Mar. 2, and Easter on April 17.

According to the Almanac, listing the dates of Easter from 1901 to 2000, inclusive, the extremes turned up only three times. In 1818 Easter came on Mar. 22, and in 1886 and in 1943 Easter fell on April 25.

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

Here it is time again to read all the gossip and talk around the Canteen.

At present the pool contest seems to be the talk of the Canteen. So far Hutt, Zigler, Geist, Balthazer, Cherup and Henderson have played in the pool contest, and the winners are Zigler, Balthazer and Henderson.

There are quite a few kids who haven't paid their membership this month so you had better get right up to the Canteen and pay it today. Our members for this month with their dues paid are John Cherup, Don Edwards, Don McGarvey, Pat Horn, Jean Morgan, Betty Westkamp, Jack Apel, Larry Betsch, Mary Crompton, Bob Hetterscheidt, Gene Jacques, Virginia Jones, Van Johnston, Bob Pike, Pinky Thompson, Joretta Kline, Tanny Prior, Charles Huey, John Shrum, Eddie Adams, Pete King, Larry Raush, Ronnie Bryant, Mary Neff, John Fauth, Dave Cockfield and Don Henderson. So if the rest of you kids want to add your names to this list you had better make your way down to the Canteen and pay your dues.

The ping-pong contest will begin the first of next month. All of you experts had better start practicing right away, because it is going to be quite a contest and many have started practicing already.

Has everyone seen the pictures on the billboard from the last dance? They're really something if you can tell who the people in the pictures are.

I just got wind that there is going to be another Camera Club party about Feb. 29, with models and all. Pat Horn will be one of the models, and if you haven't seen her latest pictures you just don't get around. They really are mela.

How are the chess games making out? Well, you had better ask Eddie Adams or Roy Zigler; for some reason or other their games always seem to come out in a tie.

I'll be back next week with more doings from around the Canteen, but in the meantime I'll see you at the Teen Club.

Rea-Bow Residents Opposed To Plan Of City Annexation

A poll to determine the feeling of residents of the Rea-Bow Community on being taken into the City of Columbus was taken last week with only a small number of the people voting.

Of the 41 who expressed a preference, only 18 favored becoming a part of the city. Of those voting, 23 wanted the community to remain as it is. These figures were given by George Wolfe, president of the Rea-Bow Improvement Association.

Meanwhile a final hearing on the controversial storm sewer issue is set by Franklin County Commissioners for Feb. 17. It is expected that at this time a definite decision will be made on the drainage problem.

The organization announced it has purchased the lot just south of the playground for larger playground facilities. Pledges of one dollar per person are being made.

George W. Wolfe, chairman of the association, announces the following appointees: Clara Mae Kidd, corresponding secretary; Elenora M. Wolfe secretary and treasurer; Paul Walters, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Pearl Dixon, Jo Ann Kidd, "Sunshine Girls," to send cards to the sick.

Two Out Of Three Persons Killed In Columbus Traffic Are Pedestrians

It's unhealthy to be a pedestrian.

During the past 10 years in Columbus, two out of every three persons killed in traffic accidents were pedestrians. These and other figures on the traffic accident situation were made public recently by D. K. Finley, 733 S. Hague-av, director of the Safety Council of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

Here are some more facts that place a strong indictment on the man or woman who walks.

Of the 15,991 persons injured in traffic during the past 10 years, four out of every 11 were pedestrians. Of the 330 pedestrians killed during this period, 61 per cent contributed to their own mishap by crossing between intersections, darting into the street from behind parked cars, playing in the street, disobeying traffic signals or carelessly crossing at intersections with no signals.

The carelessness of the small child (up to nine years of age) is more than equalled by adults 45 years of age and over. Of the pedestrians killed, two out of every three were 45 years of age or older. Of the 5,732 pedestrians injured during this 10-year period, one out of every three was beyond 45.

46 Killed in 1947

The year 1947 with 46 persons killed in traffic in the city, shows that 61 of these deaths were pedestrians. This represents a percentage of 67.4 of the total. Of this group, 27, or 97 per cent of the total were persons over 45 years.

Weekly Traffic Toll Appears

Attention is again called to the box in the lower right hand corner of Page 1 of today's Hilltop Record.

Each week the Record will report the total of persons killed in traffic in Franklin County, together with a comparative figure on the number of deaths for the same period in 1947.

This feature was followed with considerable interest all through 1947. Information is supplied by D K. Finley, manager of the Columbus Safety Council.

The year 1947 did show some improvement over 1946 in the number of traffic accidents and fatalities although the number of persons killed or injured from all causes was on the increase.

On the traffic side, there were three fewer deaths and 81 fewer injuries in 1947 than during the preceding year. A total of 151 persons met death in Columbus in 1946 from all accidental causes as compared to 171 in 1947. The largest increase in this upward trend is in accidents around the home.

The year 1946 saw 10,510 persons injured from all causes while 14,800 reported injuries from various accidental causes during the past year.

Of all causes contributing to the death or injury of pedestrians during the first six months of 1947, crossing between intersections was the most disastrous. Six persons were killed and 105 were injured in this way. Crossing at intersections where there are no traffic signals accounted for five of the 14 deaths during that six-month period.

Again the age of pedestrians involved in Columbus traffic accidents is interesting. The five to nine age group claimed the largest number of victims although only one was fatal. In the age group from 35 to 44, there were four deaths and 35 injuries. Four of the fatalities were between 65 and 74.

This heavy toll of pedestrian life and limb does not, however, relieve the motorist of all responsibility in the case. Mental alertness and top mechanical performance of the car could have avoided some of these in spite of pedestrian carelessness. As Mr. Finley has pointed out in the past, there is a moral responsibility on the part of the driver of any vehicle that goes beyond the letter of the law.

Bus Riders Register Complaint

A complaint has been registered with us by some Hilltop bus riders who are irate over the type of service they are getting on the Broad Street bus line.

There are those local citizens who claim they board a bus downtown or even in the business section of the Hilltop that is plainly marked "West Broad." When they get to Hague-av the driver rolls back the sign and makes it "To Powell Avenue," and advises his customers they will have to wait at Hague until another bus comes along if they want to ride farther west. Their story is that the driver says he is behind schedule and takes the liberty to cut his route short.

We have always believed that the West Broad line had perhaps the finest drivers available. Many of them are Hilltop residents. Bus company officials advise us that a driver has no authority to dump his passengers under such circumstances unless there is another through bus immediately behind him.

In any event if such treatment is a common procedure we believe the customer will get some immediate courteous attention from the company if he or she will merely take the number of the bus and time of day and advise the company what happened.

Rea-Bow Group To Enter Politics, Leader Asserts

Members of the Rea-Bow Improvement Association will cease working for community improvements temporarily and will go "all out" in politics in an attempt to defeat some county office holders.

That decision was reached at a meeting of that group Tuesday evening following a third defeat on the controversial storm sewer project, thrown out by the county commissioners at a hearing Tuesday morning.

"People in our community have lost faith with our local government," George Wolfe, chairman of the improvement group, told The Hilltop Record following Tuesday's hearing before the commissioners.

"I have recommended that we drop our fight for community improvements and devote our time to politics," he said.

Wolfe explained that his group would amend the constitution of its organization to permit active participation in politics.

"We will not affiliate ourselves with any party," he explained, "but we will organize to defeat the prosecutor, the engineer and the commissioners."

The petitions to install storm sewers in the Rea and Rainbow Additions, south of W. Mound-st, were dismissed by the commissioners Tuesday upon recommendation from the county engineer's office when it was said that the petition was improperly drawn. Wolfe contends that the petition was drawn as instructed by the prosecutor's office. It was the third time during the past year that backers of the storm sewer project faced defeat.

The storm sewer has been opposed by residents in the area who favored the installation of a sanitary sewer rather than surface drainage. Streets in the area are frequently flooded by heavy rains and some wells are said to fill with surface water that is not adequately drained away.

A large crowd of residents of the area, some favoring and some opposing the storm sewer, was present at the Tuesday hearing.

Boosters Club To Expand Play Area For West Girls

Improvements to a recreational area for the use of girls' athletics at West High School will be financed by the West High Boosters Club at a cost expected to be approximately $1,000, it was learned this week

The project will involve moving a section of fence on the northwest side of Magly Field, north to the cafeteria entrance on the west side of the school building, a distance of approximately 90 feet. A new section will be erected along the alley from the present northwest corner, to connect with the relocated section.

This will enclose an area suitable for two softball diamonds and provide space for other athletic activities in connection with the girls' physicial education program. The gravel surface is to be scraped off and new topsoil added so that the area can be seeded down.

While the Boosters' Club has made several substantial contributions for improvements in athletic facilities at West, this will be the first large project undertaken for the girls of the school.

Other Improvements

Two other improvements to Magly Field expected to cost in excess of $500 are being planned by the school itself.

The south section of the football stadium, south of the present dressing rooms, is to be enclosed with woven wire to provide a safe storage space for the band stand, bleachers and other field equipment. The other change involves putting in a gate at the south end of the cinder track large enough to permit entrance of trucks and other vehicles. The present narrow gate will be kept where its is on the west side of the south fence as an admission gate at athletic affairs. The new gate would be directly in front of the south end of the 100-yard dash track.

Hurt When Oven Explodes

Mrs. Helen Snouffer, 41, of 280 S. Powell-av, narrowly escaped serious burns last week when the oven of her stove exploded. She suffered minor burns about the face and arms and was treated by the emergency squad of the Fire Department.

Reibels To Build Implement Center

Work will be started soon on a new building on W. Broad-st to house the farm implement business of Reibel's now located on the Rome-Hilliards-rd.

The 70 by 108-foot store room and service center will be erected at 5580 W. Broad-st, just west of the Village of New Rome. George Stegmiller is the architect for the building.

Lt. Westerman Killed In Plane Crash Monday

A former Hilltopper and father of a month old daughter was killed Monday when a Navy Corsair fighter plane he was piloting crashed into the ocean off Oahu Island, Hawaii.

He is 26-year-old Marine Lt. George F. Westerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Westerman, 212 N. Warren-av.

Navy officials said that his plane failed to pull out of a dive while flying in routine training maneuvers. The plane plunged into the sea but the body was recovered.

Besides his parents, Lt. Westerman leaves his wife and month-old daughter, of Honolulu and a brother, Curtis, a senior and outstanding football player at West High School this year.

His wife was a native of Amsterdam, N. Y., and formerly served as a stewardess for Pan American Airways. They met in Miami, Fla., while Lt. Westerman was in training and were married almost two years ago.

The Marine fighter pilot first went overseas as a navigator-bombardier in 1943, where he was assigned to the night fighter group. This group carried out "night heckling" operations over a wide area. His group saw action at Munda, Kahili, the eastern shore of Bouganville, the Short Lands, Choiseul, Rabaul, Kaving and Santos.

Awarded Air Medal

His outfit, known as VMB 413, was given the Presidential Citation. Lt. Westerman was awarded the Air Medal. After serving overseas for several months, he returned to the States and became a fighter pilot. His second assignment in the Pacific Theater took him to Eewa Field, 20 miles from Pearl Harbor, where he was first stationed. He flew to Honolulu last May to take up his latest assignment after visiting his family here on the Hilltop.

A graduate of West High School, he attended Ohio State University two years before entering the service. He was a member of the Columbus Federation of Musicians and played trumpet with several local bands while a student here.

The Westerman family requested that their son's body be sent home by plane. Funeral arrangements will await definite word as to its arrival.

Sensenbrenner To Head Cast In 19th Minstrel

Work on the 19th annual Hilltop Minstrel sponsored by the Hilltop Business Association went into high gear this week with announcement that Jack Sensenbrenner will act as interlocutor in this year's show. This will be Jack's first year to take part in this big community project.

A full evening of outstanding fun and frolic is promised for all, according to C. C. Hartley, director. Proof of this statement is contained in the announcement of the six end men selected to hold down the front stage seats.

That premier end man of all Hilltop shows, Leo Phillips, will be back from getting a Florida sun tan and will appear in his regular role. Lee Koontz, a prominent comedian of most of the recent Hilltop Minstrels, will also be an end. Then too there will be Billy Southworth, Bill Coon, George Hardy and Duke Reynolds throwing out the best collection of wit and humor that has struck the Hilltop in many years.

Applicants for parts in the show will be called for an audition Sunday afternoon at West High School

West Cagers To Battle North Here Tomorrow

"Y" Canvass Is Planned For April

An "every family" canvass of the entire Hilltop to secure members and finances for the new Hilltop YMCA was announced this week by the Hilltop "Y" Board.

Date of the campaign has not been set but will probably be about the first Sunday afternoon in April. Present plans call for the calls to be made in a period of a very short time during one afternoon with cleanup calls being made during evenings later in the week but by different solicitors.

Each of the 12 members of the local board has pledged himself to secure 20 voting members who will also agree to assist in the drive. Additional workers will be solicited from various groups on the Hilltop that have signified that they will support the "Y" program.

C. H. Campbell, president of the Glenwood Methodist Brotherhood, announced this week that his organization has voted support of the Hilltop "Y" as one of three major projects for the year and that the men will definitely assist in the membership drive.

Headquarters for the "Y" campaign are being established in the Claggett Realty building, W. Broad-st at Ogden-av, the room being furnished rent free by Ira Claggett. Mrs. Don Cathers has been employed on a part-time basis to assist the board in office duties.

Residents of the community will be called on for three types of support. Children 19 years of age and under may secure purpose memberships in the Hilltop "Y" for $1.00. Voting membership will be available to all persons over 16 years of age who pay $5.00. All contributions over $5.00 will go into the building fund. It is anticipated that numerous families will desire to assist in the building program. Further details may be had by calling Board Chairman, C. Carlton Hartley, at RA. 1125 or RA. 2866.

Actual start of a "Y" program in the community is anticipated about May 1 but will of necessity be postponed until sufficient money has been raised to provide the budget for a full year of operation.

A three weeks all-expense trip in the hills of Hocking County will be awarded to outstanding boys in the 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th grades at West High School this summer by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Details of this program were explained to students last week by Donald F. Smith, 2405½ W. Broad-st, chairman of the youth service committee of the local Kiwanis Club. These free camping periods in the Kiwanis camp near Old Man's Cave are in addition to two $300 scholarships to be awarded annually to an outstanding girl or boy in the senior class. The two scholarships were announced recently by local Kiwanians.

Pupils selected for these awards will be graded on scholastic ability, service rendered to the school, moral standing, attitude in character and athletic achievements. A committee of faculty members will recommend names of pupils to the Kiwanis Club.

James W. Miles, 2586 W. Broad-st, also addressed the school assembly and explained a plan for a Key Club, which Kiwanis hopes to form in the school. Plans of this program will be explained at a later date.

Red Cross Campaign To Open Thurs.

Plans for launching the annual Red Cross campaign on the Hilltop and West Side were outlined Tuesday afternoon at an instruction meeting in the Glenwood Methodist Church. The appeal for $298,000 for Franklin County this year will get under way Feb. 26.

Heading the work in this area will be Mrs. James D. Arnold, 267 S. Sylvan-av, as colonel, and Mrs. C. W. Vance, 3023 Palmetto-st, as co-colonel. Mrs. Harold C. Kay, 91 Schultz-av, is colonel for the Valley unit.

"The Franklin County Red Cross, during 1948, will extend more services to more county residents than ever before," Henry L. Wagner, chairman of the annual fund drive, announced this week.

Explaining the need for the county-wide quota of $298,000 this year, Mr. Wagner reviewed services of the chapter and sketched the current year's program.

"Existing services of the Red Cross will continue unabated," he said, "particularly the continuous program of aid to veterans and service men and their dependents. For this program alone, 50 per cent of the chapter's 1948 budget has been allotted."

Blood Center Planned

Entirely new, he continued, will be the Red Cross blood center, one of the first six in the country, to be established in Columbus soon. "Free blood and blood products, donated by the county residents, will be available from that time on," Mr. Wagner explained, "to any sick or injured person who needs it. It will be one of the finest services the Red Cross has ever been able to offer."

Volunteer services, the chairman added, will continue and, in many cases, will be expanded. Nurses' aides will work in hospitals Gray Ladies will perform their valuable tasks in entertaining veterans at Chillicothe Hospital and other hospital patients. First aid, water safety and acci-

Second Place Honor At Stake

A fitting climax to the 1947-48 City Basketball League will take place at West High gym Friday night when North and West battle for second place honors.

The two teams are at present deadlocked for the No. 2 spot. Both won their Tuesday night games and both teams need tomorrow's win to clinch the runner up position behind the Central Pirates, who won the league title last week after suffering only one defeat in league play all season.

The Cowboys came from behind to defeat a tough Aquinas five on the latter's court Tuesday night. The final count was 40 to 35 with Tom Policeno setting the scoring pace with 19 tallies for the Irish.

Trailing by a 23 to 18 score at the halftime, it looked bad for the Hilltoppers as their best defensive efforts had succeeded only in holding the high-scoring Policeno to 11 points. But similar to the South-West game a few evenings back, the Cowboys played a better brand of ball during the second half, controlling the rebounds off both backboards and shooting with greater precision.

Burton Leeds Scoring

Walter Hicks, held to a single free throw during the first half, waited until the fourth period before he began to hit the nets effectively. He ended the game with 16 points, two behind Duffy Burton and one ahead of Paul Thelsen. Chuck Weeks contributed seven points while Dick Culbertson was held to a single bucket.

Vic Boehm's boys played a stellar defensive game throughout but seemed to lose scoring punch after the first half. Aquinas scored only five points in each of the last two quarters. The Terriers jumped out in front early in the first period and at one point led 10 to 3. The first quarter ended 12 to 10 in favor of the home team. West trailed by a 28-27 count at the end of the third period but soon forged ahead as Hicks tallied seven points, Burton added two baskets and Thelsen a pair of free throws.

In the preliminary, the West reserves downed the Terrier reserves by a score of 33 to 26. The Cowboys led all the way with advantages of 7 to 6 at the end of the first period; 18 to 11 at the half, and 24 to 16 as the third canto ended.

Mrs. Joseph Bingham, as matron of honor, wore a rose taffeta gown, and carried deep pink roses. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Howard R. Zirkle, Troy, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marilyn Jones, were gowned in peacock blue taffeta and carried pink roses. Nancy Lee Miller of Youngstown, cousin of the bride, wore gold taffeta and carried yellow roses, as junior bridesmaid. All wore matching mitts and head-bands.

Married At Glenwood

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gump (Journal Photo)

Ferns and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar of the Glenwood Methodist Church on Dec. 14, when Miss Dorothy Eileen Dean became the bride of Mr. James Edward Gump, with Rev. Joseph B. Shellhaas officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Dean, 99 Clarendon-av, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Gump, Casstown.

A half-hour program of nuptial music preceded the wedding service. Miss Alice Jean Remington, as soloist, was accompanied by Miss Janice Judy, at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white duchess satin with a yoke of net, edged with an off-the-shoulder drape. The full skirt, caught up with rosettes, terminated in a long train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms, and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Joseph Bingham, as matron of honor, wore a rose taffeta gown, and carried deep pink roses. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Howard R. Zirkle, Troy, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marilyn Jones, were gowned in peacock blue taffeta and carried pink roses. Nancy Lee Miller of Youngstown, cousin of the bride, wore gold taffeta and carried yellow roses, as junior bridesmaid. All wore matching mitts and head-bands.

Mr. Robert Gump, Troy, was his brother's best man and seating the guests were Mr. Howard Zirkle, and Mr. Charles Hyde of Troy, Mr. Robert Bewley and Mr. Harold Mott of Casstown.

Hostesses at the ensuing reception were Miss Irene Green, Mrs. John Ginsler, Mrs. Fred Rucker and Mrs. Richard F. Colburn of Edgerton, O.

Before leaving for a 10-day trip to Florida, the bride changed to a dusky rose gabardine suit with brown accessories, and pinned white carnations at her shoulder.

She is a graduate of West High School and Ohio State University, where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega. She is employed as secretary at the Gummed Products Company in Troy.

Band Variety Show Is Announced

By M. Smith

It's coming, have you heard? Yes, it's the Annual Band Variety Show to be given three nights, April 22, 23, and 24th.

First on the program will be the Junior and Senior Orchestra combined and including 55 boys and girls.

Second is none other than the Senior High Concert Band, which will give a twenty minute concert and is composed of 60 students.

Last but not least is the Junior High Band with 75 strong. This part of the program will last about 45 minutes.

The Variety Show part will then follow, with the show centering around the theme of "SPRING."

All the acts for the Variety Show have been selected and will be announced in our next issue.

Show Theme As "Spring"

C. W. Bennett, Director of the Show, stated that the competition this year was very great, and especially hard was the choosing of the Master of Ceremonies. This year the Master of Ceremonies will be none other than "Bill" Hawes, a senior registering in Aud. B.

Plenty of new music will be used and a variety of new dances are now in practice. The dance band will also have new lights and new racks. Rehearsals are now under way, so you can see that it is going to be the best Band Variety Show that has ever been put on in West High School.

CAN YOU BEAR TO MISS IT! Remember, kids, three nights—April 22nd - 23rd - 24th—so let's reserve one of these for the Band Variety Show.

Aguila Aerie Dance Was Well Attended; Plan For "Gold Rush"

Aguila Aerie F. O. E. annual valentine party and dance was held Feb. 14 in the social rooms at the home, 2358 W. Broad-st, with a capacity house attending. A large box trimmed with red crepe paper and valentines pasted around the outside, was placed in the center of the room and the valentines which were dropped in the box for the past two weeks were given out during the dance intermission.

Norman Diehl, acting emcee, assisted by several ushers, called out the names and made a hit with the crowd by reading the comic ones addressed to himself. This brought a roar of laughter. This week-end will bring dancing to Paul O'Brien's orchestra Friday night with a good floor show featuring Saturday night.

On Sunday, Feb. 22, at 3 p. m., the civic award will be presented to Paul Leighninger, followed by a short address by a well known Hilltopper. Following the meeting the usual dinner will be served.

Plans for the gold rush campaign sponsored by Aguila Aerie as a feature of the order's 50th anniversary year were made Feb. 16 at a "pep" session in the Aerie home. Heinie Wolfe, chairman of the campaign committee, outlined phases of the activities, which will provide for competition between four teams in obtaining new members, a "million dollar" night at the end of the first three months, and a golden anniversary banquet at the conclusion of the contest.

"We hope through the gold rush campaign to build our Aerie to its greatest strength, and help our order toward its objective of making the golden anniversary year the most successful of its entire history," Mr. Wolfe said.

"Jinny" Casey Wins $15 In T. B. Contest

By Wolfendale

Virginia Casey, senior at West High School, received first prize, $15, for her prize winning news feature on TB, it was announced at a meeting recently. The winners also had their pictures taken at the same meeting.

It all started around Christmas time, when different schools were asked to participate in the contest. You could write a feature, editorial, cartoon, or misc. on TB. The TB Society, 603 Oak Street, handed out pamphlets giving the students the information they needed. Miss Sally Bray was in charge of this.

The stories were judged by three judges. After the city contest, the entries go to the state, which has a prize of $50, and then to the National Contest.

Among the participants from West High were Betty Wertkamp, who submitted a news story and a news feature, Pat Barry, who submitted a cartoon, and Ruth Platt, who submitted a news feature.

They each received a book titled "Huber the Tuber," and a certificate of merit for entering.

Highland Avenue

The boys and girls of Room 1 have given $2.50 of their sales tax money to the polio drive. They also sent Valentines to George Griffen, who is in Children's Hospital as a result of an accident.

Mrs. Eagleson's and Mrs. Zimmer's classes visited the Ohio State University Museum last Thursday. Their topic of study was "The History of Ohio."

Mr. Wing Takes Over New Post

Mr. George Wing since the beginning of the semester, has been put in charge of the boys attendance. Mr. Wing has been a teacher at West Junior for 10 years. During that time he has taught math and has had charge of text book distribution.

Mr. Wing says that Worthington is the garden spot of the world. Maybe his being mayor of Worthington has something to do with that opinion. Pupils, who know Mr. Wing well, can testify that although he is chief attendance taker, math teacher, father, mayor, main school photographer and book checker he can always be depended upon to keep his grand sense of humor.

Americanism Is School Theme

Americanism Week is being observed in the junior and senior high schools of the community this week in cooperation with Columbus Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Special assemblies are planned along patriotic lines to emphasize the American heritage. Falling as it does between the birthdays of two great Americans, Abraham Lincoln and George Washington, Gov. Thomas J. Herbert has proclaimed the week of Feb. 12 to 22 as American Week.

Principal Irvin F. Young said that West High School will have a special assembly at 8:45 a. m. Friday.

Dr. Homer Cotterman, a professor at Capital University, will be the speaker in the West Senior assembly.

West Junior High will have an assembly at the same hour today with James Savert, assistant chairman of the Americanism Week Committee of the Junior Chamber, as the speaker.

Adolph Kittel, counselor, said that John Meservey, a Boy Scout, and Adele Ziegfeld, a Girl Scout, will appear on the program. John Whalen will give some of the background of the American Creed and Jacci Neff will read a poem entitled "America," written by Marguerite Weed. The entire program will be presented by Ronald McElwee, president of the student council. The West Junior Band will play.

At Starling Junior High Principal L. W. Huber said that two assemblies will be held tomorrow to carry out the program to all of the student body. A choir from Central High School will sing patriotic numbers. The occasion will be used to present perfect attendance awards to 141 students who were present every day during the first semester of the year.

The school will recognize both Lincoln and Washington in the program. A Starling pupil will lead the assembly in the pledge of allegiance.

Community Council Will Meet Tonight

The Hilltop Community Council has invited all residents of the Westgate Park district and all organizations interested to attend their regular monthly meeting tonight, to be held at the Teen Canteen, 2585 W. Broad-st, at 8 o'clock.

Main item of business will be City Council's plans for building a fire house in that section of the Hilltop. A city official stated a few weeks ago that Westgate Park is still being considered as a possible site.

The Community Council has asked City Council to send a representative to its meeting, pointing out that on June 3, 1946, Council had made the statement that Westgate Park would not be considered and had instructed Chief Ed Welsh to find an alternate location.

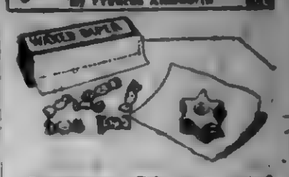
The coming year's program will be discussed, with President Cyrus Rawlings announcing his committees.

Poor man's Pudding

(Submitted by W. A. Cartmell, 635 S. Oakley-av.)

Over the bottom of a baking dish or pan, scatter
½ cup of well washed rice
½ cup of sugar
One pinch of salt
Sprinkle cinnamon or nutmeg according to one's taste. Pour in 1 quart of milk
Bake in medium (about 275 degrees) oven about one and one-half hours. DO NOT STIR AT ANY TIME.
Bake until rice shows above the milk, then it is done. Raisins may be put in above if desired. Serves 8 to 10 people.

AH ME!



I remembered the hints in your voice,
The very turn of your hair,
The little ridge around your mouth,
With deep laughter sleeping there.

I remembered the shadow in your eyes
And all things else the same—
Brief words and songs and little sighs
And you forget my name.

Brownie Hull Myers,

Your Home

By Frances Ainsworth

Planning a February party? Well, whatever the occasion, the refreshments always seem to be the major concern. I've discovered that I can save myself last minute worry and work and really enjoy my parties by carefully planning ahead of time. In fact, I always fix my special candies and sandwiches early in the morning, then wrap each one carefully in waxed paper, and they're just as fresh at night as if I had just made them! Waxed paper, you know, holds the moisture of your bread and insures the freshness for hours.

I thought you might like a few suggestions for those February party menus and decorations:

For a Washington's Birthday Party, fix patriotic sandwiches in red, white and blue. Fill them with minced ham for the red, cream cheese for the white, and green jelly for the blue. Wrap individual packets of three in waxed paper and serve them that way—you won't even need plates!

For real fun for young or old — make horoscope cakes — individual servings cut in stars or zodiac signs. When baked, sift the top of each and insert little waxed paper envelopes containing good luck charms and fortune rhymes.

For a Valentine Party make special place mats of red cardboard cut like hearts. Outline each with a lace doily, cover with waxed paper, and you've a clever, disposable mat!

Try these ideas with other party motifs. You'll find it's worlds of fun and easy, too—and that handy roll of waxed paper goes to a party just as conveniently as it works in your kitchen!

How To Estimate For New Bedspread

In estimating material for a bedspread, be sure to take the following measurements: Length of bed from headboard to footboard, width of bed from edge to edge, length from top of mattress to floor, width of fabric, length of ruffle from floor to heading, length of band above ruffle, and width of tuck-in at foot. Remember to make allowance in the length of the bedspread for pillows.

Count the complete length of the bed measurements, including width of tuck-in at the footboard for the fabric length. To estimate how many lengths of fabric, check the width measurement with the width of your fabric. Add hem measurements for ruffles or pleated skirts.

Community Council Will Meet Tonight

The Hilltop Community Council has invited all residents of the Westgate Park district and all organizations interested to attend their regular monthly meeting tonight, to be held at the Teen Canteen, 2585 W. Broad-st, at 8 o'clock.

Main item of business will be City Council's plans for building a fire house in that section of the Hilltop. A city official stated a few weeks ago that Westgate Park is still being considered as a possible site.

The Community Council has asked City Council to send a representative to its meeting, pointing out that on June 3, 1946, Council had made the statement that Westgate Park would not be considered and had instructed Chief Ed Welsh to find an alternate location.

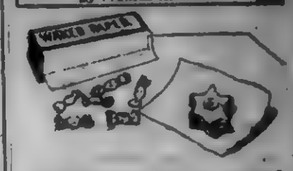
The coming year's program will be discussed, with President Cyrus Rawlings announcing his committees.

Poor - man's Pudding

(Submitted by W. A. Cartmell, 635 S. Oakley-av.)

Over the bottom of a baking dish or pan, scatter
½ cup of well washed rice
½ cup of sugar
One pinch of salt
Sprinkle cinnamon or nutmeg according to one's taste. Pour in 1 quart of milk
Bake in medium (about 275 degrees) oven about one and one-half hours. DO NOT STIR AT ANY TIME.
Bake until rice shows above the milk, then it is done. Raisins may be put in above if desired. Serves 8 to 10 people.

AH ME!



I remembered the hints in your voice,
The very turn of your hair,
The little ridge around your mouth,
With deep laughter sleeping there.

I remembered the shadow in your eyes
And all things else the same—
Brief words and songs and little sighs
And you forgot my name.

Brownie Hull Myers,
In ADVENTURES IN POETRY.

Your Home

By Frances Ainsworth

Planning a February party? Well, whatever the occasion, the refreshments always seem to be the major concern. I've discovered that I can save myself last minute worry and work and really enjoy my parties by carefully planning ahead of time. In fact, I always fix my special candies and sandwiches early in the morning, then wrap each one carefully in waxed paper, and they're just as fresh at night as if I had just made them! Waxed paper, you know, holds the moisture of your bread and insures the freshness for hours.

I thought you might like a few suggestions for those February party menus and decorations:

For a Washington's Birthday Party, fix patriotic sandwiches in red, white and blue. Fill them with minced ham for the red, cream cheese for the white, and grape jelly for the blue. Wrap individual packets of three in waxed paper and serve them (that way—you won't even need plates!

For real fun for young or old — make horoscope cakes — individual servings cut in stars or zodiac signs. When baked, slit the top of each and insert little waxed paper envelopes containing good luck charms and fortune rhymes.

For a Valentine Party make special place mats of red cardboard cut like hearts. Outline each with a lace doily, cover with waxed paper, and you've a clever, disposable mat!

Try these ideas with other party motifs. You'll find it's worlds of fun and easy, too—and that handy roll of waxed paper goes to a party just as conveniently as it works in your kitchen!

How To Estimate For New Bedspread

In estimating material for a bedspread, be sure to take the following measurements: Length of bed from headboard to footboard, width of bed from edge to edge, length from top of mattress to floor, width of fabric, length of ruffle from floor to heading, length of band above ruffle, and width of tuck-in at foot. Remember to make allowance in the length of the bedspread for pillows.

Count the complete length of the bed measurements, including width of tuck-in at the footboard for the fabric length. To estimate how many lengths of fabric, check the width measurement with the width of your fabric. Add hem measurements for ruffles or pleated skirts.

Plans Being Made For Model Air Meet Here In August

Preliminary plans for a three-day model air meet to be put on by senior scouting units of three states were discussed at a meeting held at the Jones Flying Service offices Saturday afternoon. Thirty-five persons attended.

The event will be held some time in August and will be attended by more than 500 senior scouts from West Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio. The governors of all three states are expected to attend.

The army and coast guard will cooperate with senior scout officials in the big air show to be held at the Sullivant Avenue Airport. Last year a somewhat similar affair was held at Carrollton, Ky. The previous year Urbana played host to the event.

Next Police Chief Will Be Local Man

Columbus' next police chief will be from the Hilltop or West Side.

Only four of seven eligible men filed applications to take the examination for police chief held yesterday morning at 9. All four are from west of the Scioto River.

The men who took the exam in the order in which they filed are Capt. Howard B. Hinton, 109 N. Dakota-av, now in charge of headquarters; Capt. Frank L. Harrison, 2964 Wicklow-rd, head of the traffic enforcement bureau; Capt. Charles M. Berry, 401 Midland-av, chief of the juvenile and missing persons bureau; and Capt. Glenn C. Hoffman, 1940 W Mound-st, chief of the detective bureau.

The order of the filing would be important in the event of a tie grade in the competitive civil service examination. According to the law, the man making the highest grade must be appointed chief of the police force.

Chief Lester W. Merica's resignation will be effective March 1. In the meantime, Inspector Thomas A. Scully is serving as acting chief from Monday on through the month of February since Chief Merica had vacation time coming to him.

No Room In Heaven For Dogs?

We are in receipt of an article by Will Judy, at one time editor of Dog World Magazine, brought in by A. C. Skipper, and we pass it on to dog lovers of the community. It is the answer to a letter from a 12-year-old boy asking for information:

I am sorry that your Sunday School teacher told you "there is no room in heaven for dogs." I can understand that this statement has disturbed you considerably.

Heaven is a big place because heaven is God and God stretches from the sun to the moon, to the stars, and back to earth.

Heaven must be a big place to hold all the good people who have died in the many years since the world began. As angels have wings, heaven must give them plenty of space in which to spread these wings and fly from one shining cloud to another.

The millions upon millions of folks who have owned dogs and gone on to their heavenly home surely would feel lonely without their dogs. And as there is no loneliness in heaven, God has made provision for man's best friend to dwell therein. We are certain of this, for it was God who named the dog by spelling His own name backwards.

Yes, heaven is a big place, with lots of shady spots, long lanes banked with flowers, fountains bubbling up out of the earth, good little rabbits munching on golden carrots, and by their side good dogs, big and little, dozing in the pure sunshine of celestial spaces.

It would be surprisingly strange, were there no dogs in heaven, for I believe that Christ had a little dog which followed him back and forth from Nazareth to Judea, through the streets of Jerusalem, and cuddled trustingly in the boat when He crossed the stormy Sea of Galilee.

It seems to me I can see, on that tragic afternoon on Calvary, as Christ cried out "Why hast Thou forsaken me?", a little dog whining vainly at the foot of the cross to lick His bleeding hands. I believe that today this same little dog can be no other place than in heaven with Christ his master, lying contentedly at the foot of the throne of God.

I am sorry indeed that someone gave you the misinformation that "there is no room in heaven for dogs."

Nippert Brothers Make Commutators In Modern New W. Mound-st Factory

By Bob Wiener

One of the newest and most attractive looking factories in Columbus is located on the Hilltop and it makes a product that is vital to the electric household appliances that are found in every home, such as vacuum cleaners, hand tools, mixers, refrigerators, fans, and the like.

This factory houses the Nippert Electric Products Co. and is located at 1796 W. Mound-st. It is owned by two Hilltop brothers, Paul W. Nippert, 263 S. Roys-av, and John E. Nippert, 632 S. Roys-av. They are engaged soley in the manufacture of commutators for electric motors and generators.

A commutator is a device which changes the direction of an electric current in a motor or generator. It is an attachment for the armature of a dynamo used to rectify the induced currents in the armature conductors, or in a motor for conveying the current to the conductors. It is the spinning part of a motor upon which the "brushes" ride.

In short, a commutator is a very vital part of the small motors or generators that are found in household appliances as well as in larger motors and generators.

In appearance a commutator consists of a ring of copper segments insulated from one another by thin mica strips. The whole assembly is mounted on a steel core. The Nippert Electric Products Co. makes over 100 different kinds of commutators, ranging in size from three-quarters of an inch in diameter to six inches in diameter.

In a three-quarter inch commutator that the firm made recently there was a total of 83 parts. These included 39 pieces of copper, 39 mica insulating strips, 1 lock ring, 2 mica insulation V-rings, 1 mica sleeve, and a steel core. This particular commutator had the most parts of any commutator of its size that the firm has made, primarily because the copper segments were very thin. The average vacuum cleaner commutator is somewhat larger than this and has about 57 parts.

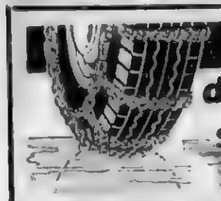
Started In 1942

The Nippert brothers got started in the commutator manufacturing business in 1942, during the war. Paul was conducting an automobile electric parts business at the time and experiencing great difficulty in getting commutators from manufacturers so he decided to make his own. Copper and other metals were available on an allocation basis only, but if a firm could show it had an order for commutators it could get the materials. There was a great demand for aircraft motor commutators and this was one of the first types that the Nippert Co. made.

Today the firm still makes commutators for aircraft motors, having a contract to supply the Bendix Aviation Corp. Among the other manufacturers it supplies are the Airway Electric Co., Electrolux Corp., and the Eureka Co., all manufacturers of vacuum sweepers; the Harley-Davidson Motorcycle Co.; Burroughs Adding Machine Co., and the Leece-Neville Corp., makers of heavy cranes and diesel engines. In addition, a wide variety of commutators for hand tools is made for the Black and Becker Co.

The copper used in commutators is a silver-bearing copper which makes it an excellent conductor for electricity. It comes in long wedge-shaped rods which must be cut accurately to within one ten-thousandth of an inch by the manufacturer. Because they frequently did not meet the size specifications that the company required, Paul developed his own gauge for measuring the angles and the thickness of the rods. This gauge has proven itself better than any previously employed and Paul has applied for a patent on his invention. There are now two of them in use, one at the W. Mound-st factory and one at the factory which manufactures the copper rods.

Must Fit Tightly



Because a commutator revolves at a terrific speed all the parts must fit tightly so it will hold together under the pressures of centrifugal force. Some commutators revolve at 40,000 revolutions per minute. That is why tolerances of one ten-thousandth of an inch are the maximum permitted for the copper bars. The mica segments used for insulation must be ground to within one-quarter of one-thousandth of an inch. The inside of the steel core, which holds all the pieces around it, is allowed a tolerance of not more than one-half of one-thousandth of an inch.

The largest machines in use at the Nippert Electric Products Co. are those which make the steel cores. One of these makes cores up to one inch in diameter, while the others can make cores up to two and five-eighths inches. Each machine makes six cores at a time in progressive stages. Streams of oil are played continuously on the steel to keep heat and friction to a minimum as it is being ground and bored.

At present there is much wastage of oil which clings to the iron filings as they are ground away. A new oil reclaiming machine will soon make it possible to use 90 per cent of this oil again, and a new "pasteurization" machine will eliminate the danger of skin rashes appearing on those men who work near this oil on the core boring machines. Both these new machines are expected to be in operation shortly.

The manufacture of commutators is a very exacting process. The tolerances allowed in the size of each part are small, and occasionally, after the whole assembly is completed, a commutator is found to be electrically deficient in which case it must be thrown away. This occurs, sometimes, because of flaws in the mica insulating material as it is received from the factory.

Just as your household appliances are "vital" to you, so is the commutator vital to the motor in that appliance. Your electric sweeper, your mixer, your fan or even the starters in your automobile may well have a commutator that has been made by the Nipper Electric Products Co. right here on the Hilltop.

Friday The 13th Sees Cowboys Defeat Tigers; Polar Bears To Play Here Friday

Reserves Defeat East By 23-21 Score

The West High Cowboys defied the old Friday, the 13th, jinx and won two basketball games from the East Tigers on the Hilltop court here last week. Both games were won on two-point margins, the varsity going 48 to 46, while the reserve game ended 23 to 21.

It was the second win over the Tigers this season for the varsity. The same night Central trounced North 83 to 69 to cinch the City League title. The Polar Bear defeat helped the Cowboy chances of latching onto the second place spot.

West ends its league play tomorrow night when North comes to the Hilltop. For an account of the Aquinas-West game on Tuesday, see Section A of today's Hilltop Record. The season comes to a close Feb. 27 when Bexley pays a visit to the West gym.

While Chuck Weeks led the Cowboy scoring with 14 points, it was a team victory for Coach George Williams' boys. The scoring was pretty well distributed among the five starting members.

In the first quarter Duffy Burton sank three shots for six of his eight tallies. Dick Culbertson dominated the second period with three buckets and a couple of free throws for part of his 10 points. Paul Theisen collected a basket and a pair of charity tosses in the third canto to make part of his nine points. The fourth period was Weeks' turn. He made two close-in shots and made good on all three free throw attempts.

Fenneken Is High

Fenneken of East took individual scoring honors with 15 points, followed closely by Towers with 13. Mediocre work at the free-throw line cost the Bengals the game. Coach Ralph Webster's boys made only four out of 11 tries.

Duffy Burton started the scoring early in the first period when he dumped in three buckets. After missing three fouls in a row, the Tigers began to hit and tied up the score at nine all a couple of minutes before the end of the first period. Culbertson broke the tie and West led 11 to 9 at the end of the first quarter.

The Cowboys led all the way from that point but the visitors gave the Hilltoppers some bad moments as they pulled to within two points in the middle of the final period. West picked up a 44-39 lead as the automatic time was called with two minutes and 59 seconds to play. Again the West lead was cut down to two points and the Tigers elected to take the ball out of bounds twice in a desperate effort to tie up the score with a bucket.

A couple of the East players mistook the 48 posted on the electric score board for a 46 and thought an overtime was due them. A couple of bulbs in the figure "8" were burned out, thus causing the confusion. Coach Webster and Captain Fenneken both were aware of the two-point lead, however, as evidenced by their decision to take the ball out of bounds rather than shoot the two fouls.

The reserve contest was only slightly less thrilling than the featured game as both teams played at a terrific tempo all through the ball game. It was Jim Rudolph who came through for the Cowboy reserves as he sank a shot with only seconds remaining to play. While the win did not change the standings, the Tiger reserve downfall was a big event for the Hilltoppers since it evened an earlier defeat suffered earlier in the season. The East reserves had already clinched the city league title.

Two oldtimers from backwoods regions were making their first trip on a train. An onlooker kindly treated each to a banana. Neither had ever eaten one before. Just as one got up courage enough to take a bit of his, the train whizzed into a tunnel. "Zeke," said he, "did you eat that thing?"

"Nope, not yet," said Zeke.

Independent League To Split For Second Round Playoffs

By Bob Humphrey

Following the playing of the seventh set of Glenwood Independent Basketball League games Friday at Glenwood Park gym, the league will be divided into two divisions for an abbreviated second round. The teams finishing in first, second, third and fourth places in the league standing will go into the Class A division, while the other four teams will be placed in the Class B group.

Undefeated Olentangy Post No 4015 will go after its seventh victory when it takes on Jerry Spears Funeral Home Friday at 7:30 p. m.

In other games on the card, High-Buttles faces Mellman's Corner at 7 o'clock, Hilltop Van and Storage meets Standard Oil at 8 o'clock and Hilltop Kiwanis Club tackles South-East A. C. at 8:30.

In games last Friday, Olentangy Post romped in with a convincing 59 to 33 victory over Standard Oil, Hilltop Kiwanis nosed out High-Buttles, 29 to 27, in an overtime period and Mellman Corner walloped Spears Funeral Home, 42 to 16.

Clark Hits For 22

Gene Clark, former Otterbein College athlete, ran wild to score 22 points to lead Olentangy Post to its easy win. Ray Stinson scored 17 points for Standard Oil. The Olentangy boys piled up a 26 to 17 lead at the half and increased the margin during the remainder of the game.

The first forfeit in the league this season took place Friday n 9 to 5 advantage at the half, but High-Buttles came back in the closing moments to tie up the score, 27 to 27, at the end of regulation time. Dick Layne of Kiwanis and Dick Anderson of High-Buttles registered 11 points each.

Don Sweeney and Don Ijams teamed together to score 12 and 11 points, respectively, to feature Mellman's victory over Spears Funeral Directors. Mellmans were out in front, 21 to 8, at the intermission

Breaks 2 Fingers

The victory was costly to Mellman Corner, however as one of the stars of the team, Bill Allman, suffered two broken fingers and may be out of action for the remainder of the season

Gene Clark's scoring orgy last Friday enabled the Olentangy Post high scorer to go into a tie with his teammate, Joe Bennett, for first place in the league's individual scoring race, with 71 points each, followed by Ray Stinson of Standard Oil with 67

The 12 leading scorers in the league follow. Joe Bennett, Olentangy Post, 71 points, Gene Clark, Olentangy Post, 71; Ray Stinson, Standard Oil, 67; Dick Layne, Hilltop Kiwanis, 61; Don Borror, Hilltop Kiwanis, 59, Harvey Eadet, High-Buttles, 56, Don Ijams, Mellman Corner, 52; Bob Tracey, Olentangy Post, 50; Bill Allman, Mellman Corner, 38; Tom Arnold, Spears Funeral Home, 38; Tom "Dutch" Thum, Spears Funeral Home, 37; Ray Grabill, Hilltop Van and Storage, 37.

St. Matthew, Hope No. 2 Top Church Leagues As Regular Season Is Ended

In the featured game in the final set of Lutheran Church League basketball games at John Burroughs on Monday evenings, a fighting St. John No. 2 won its initial victory by beating much favored Hilltop Intermediate, 15 to 13, in a thrilling overtime battle.

With the score knotted at 13-all, the same as it was at the end of the regulation time, Kenny Garber sank a mid-court one-hand push shot with 17 seconds remaining. Garber led the scorers in this contest by racking three buckets and a free throw for seven points. Dave Lazenby, who hadn't played the whole first quarter, led Hilltop's fighting cause as he collected five markers. The ultimate winners held a surprising 9-0 halftime lead.

St. Mathew won its seventh victory in as many outings and clinched first place in the loop by defeating a smooth-working Center five, 25 to 16. After holding a 9-7 half-time lead, the Mathews began to click and aided by their ace, Bill Ott, who collected four goals for eight points and Orin Buckley seven markers, they went on to win. Dellanbach with seven and Harris with four, led the losers' cause.

St. John is Winner

St. John Intermediate defeated a weak Hope No. 2 team by a 49 to 10 count in the second contest of the evening. Little "Whitey" Dean of the losers got eight of his team's points, Bill Valahos tallying the other bucket. Archie Turner got 11, Harry Bradley, eight, and Jimmy Vinsent, six, to aid St. John's cause. The West Broad church goers held a 20 to 3 halftime lead.

In the senior game of the evening, Rome won its first game in six outings by defeating a fighting Hilltop five, 39 to 22. Dick Kulfourd tallied 11 and "Red" Price 10 points to lead the winners onward. Stan Dichley got 10 of Hilltop's points and played one of the most excellent games of any player to touch any basketball hardwood.

West Juniors Are Defeated By Champion Junior

By Dave Miller

Champion Junior High, and its surroundings, was just too much for West Junior's Basketball five as the host team defeated West 39 to 16 Friday afternoon.

The game was started after a long wait for the official, Carlton Smith, to arrive after being reminded he was to officiate the contest.

Throughout the game Champion sank only one long shot, this by Bernie Hayes in the third canto. All the other 15 goals were tallied around under the bucket. Summing it all up, Champion was just too fast for the visiting Broncos.

The Orange and Black scored a total of 10 to West's one point in the insulting first quarter. The score at halftime read: Champion, 22; West, 5. All the points for West in the opening half were scored on free throws. Bill South scored a layup and a beautiful hook for the only scoring in the third quarter for the Junior Cowboys as Champion was racking up a 10 point total. Both teams scored an equal amount of points in the finale.

Ray Wakeman, stellar guard for the Broncos, was held scoreless by the tight guarding of Manuel Cobb and Bob Granger. Bill South and Jerry Johnson each scored five points to top the visitors while Romeo Watkins and Malcolm Napper were getting 11 apiece for Champion.

This gave the Broncos a won three and lost five rating in the league standings. The best they can do at the end of the season will be a 5-5 standing as there are only two more games remaining.

West sank five out of 34 goal attempts and the winners got 16 of 47 tries. The East Siders were better on foul shots, with a .500 point average to West's .400.

BUBBLE GUM IS FOUND HARMFUL

CHICAGO — Dr Edward A. Piszczek, Cook county health director, says about this time of year many people contract colds. If your youngster is getting a cold, take away his bubble gum, the medical expert advises.

It appears that when pressure is applied such as blowing a bubble, it forces the infection into the middle ear, and may cause all sorts of complications. In one township school, the doctor found nine youngsters in one day complained of earaches. Investigation developed all had been chewing and blowing — bubble gum.

Critical Need For Scrap Metal Told By Conlon In Letter To GM Employes

The critical need for more scrap iron and steel to keep existing steel mills running full blast was pointed out last week in a letter written by James L. Conlon, resident manager of the Fisher Body-Tornstedt Plant, to the firm's more than 2000 local employes.

General Motors Corporation factories (of which the Georgesville plant is one) all over the country are joining in a campaign to make every resident conscious of this need for scrap metal. Here on the Hilltop the West High Booster Club is planning an intensive drive to pick up scrap iron in the community.

"Lack of steel forced many General Motors plants to reduce schedules and employes to lose time last year," the local GM executive said in making his appeal for cooperation.

He pointed out that 40 tons of purchased scrap are required to make 100 tons of finished steel. If more scrap had been recovered in 1947, steel production would have been higher, he explained.

Conlon said that such things as bed-posts, old stoves, radiators, pipe, and hundreds of other items can be used to keep the steel industry running at capacity. A self-addressed and stamped postal card was enclosed with the letter to give each employe an opportunity to indicate whether he had scrap metal to contribute. Workers were urged to sell to scrap dealers direct or give their scrap to some charitable organization so that it can be gotten into the channels of trade.

Baby Photo Contest To Be Announced

Appointments for pictures of local babies to be published in The Hilltop Record will be taken only through Saturday, Feb. 21, but plans are being made for launching a baby photo contest at a later date. Complete details of this plan will be revealed in a few weeks.

In the meantime it will require three or four more weeks to run all pictures taken for publication in this series.

The baby photo contest will be open to any Hilltop youngster between the ages of one day and six years.

An article in GM Folks, a General Motors house organ, for the month of February, points out the fact that scrap inventories at the steel mills are alarmingly low right now and that there is concern over whether or not mills will be able to run at capacity until the early summer when stock piles are normally built up.

The article also points out that using more pig iron and less scrap increases the amount of coal required per ton of finished steel. Exports to Europe have reduced the supply of coal suitable for use in steel making, the article continued.

Red Cross Blood Center

A badly needed service will be placed in operation soon when the Franklin County Red Cross establishes a blood center in Columbus. One of the first six to be set up as peace-time operations in the country, the center will make available free blood and blood products for all.

Only an emergency where a given type blood is desperately needed to save life brings home the need for such a center. Most of us will never have to fall back on this service but in a few cases lives may be saved by having on hand rare types of blood and blood plasma that are difficult to locate in time of emergency.

During World War II the local Red Cross blood center rendered a valuable contribution to the war effort. Many who were not called upon to don a uniform made repeated trips to the blood bank and had the satisfaction of knowing that they were helping save lives in a positive way. The same opportunity will be open for blood donors to save lives in time of peace.

The annual Red Cross roll call opens next Thursday. The goal for Franklin County is $298,000 for the next year. Increased giving is needed to support increased Red Cross service. We all have an opportunity to help.

Modern Poetry

By Esther Weakley

THE WOOD-FIRE

My back to the wood fire
I heard a faint and far-off trill—
Was it the call of bird who'd sung before
In these now burning boughs?
And have you seen the flames
Like golden oak leaves about the
Of logs leap up, waving and breaking
Into sharp points? This is the tree, incarnate.
Come to give its last great gift of warmth
To man. Spring, a leafy home,
Summer, a round of coolness; and in the fall
Flame-colored joy, like clashing of cymbals
Mid keen-soaring violins, at ending
Of the symphony. Then, lingering tranquility,
And this—appearing on the andirons there—
Piled high, to give through the long snow-blue winter,
Rosy warmth, with ascending leaves of cheer,
And whistle of bird spirit, till Spring itself
Shall reappear with joy again.

RIVER WINDS

The east wind makes the river sound
With news of storms at sea.
The bell buoy clamors, and around
The gulls call mournfully.

The waves beat out a stern refrain,
All wild and dark the sky;
Manhattan's lights are blurred in rain,
And ships go by.

While crimson clouds of sunset throng
The arches of the sky
The billows chant their evensong,
And ships go by.

Historic Ohio

Lovers of history of the Buckeye state will find much of interest in the latest publication of the Ohio Development and Publicity Commission entitled "Historic Ohio." Copies of this well-illustrated magazine can be had by telephoning Ma. 1265, Ext. 91.

Here are a few interesting facts about Historic Ohio:

During 1947 a total of 1,300,000 persons visited 50 historical spots administered by the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society . . . Prehistoric Indians, usually referred to as Mound Builders, left 10,000 mounds and earthworks scattered throughout the state . . . Schoenbrunn, Ohio's earliest settlement, was so named by the Moravian missionaries. It means "beautiful spring" . . . General (Mad) Anthony Wayne defeated the Indians at Fallen Timbers in the Maumee Valley Aug. 20, 1794 . . . Eight Ohioans have been honored by being elected to the presidency of the United States . . . There are more than 100 historic buildings scattered throughout the state . . . Famous stagecoach taverns still dot the Ohio landscape.

What with push-buttons, Dictaphones and vitamin pills, I felt sure that life had already been made as simple and painless as Congress would allow.

But the other evening at the cinema I discovered another possible refinement.

A short feature called "Public Relations" gave an account of a day with a busy business executive. This one-man fire sale was so crowded for time that he called on his secretary to write a ten-page outline of a book.

Wilson

"If it's any good," he said, "I'll read it myself."

This little incident, fictional though it was, gave me qualms about the future of the American reading habit.

Granted, we've had pocket book editions and magazine digests for some time now, and we've suffered no social collapse. But, imagine the outcome if this sort of thing were to develop. Who knows? This "condensation" idea might mature to the point where a full novel would be reduced to almost nothing.

Let me give you a case in point.

An author shows his latest manuscript to a publisher. It's a tragic tale about family life on a southern plantation. With a background of mint juleps, barbecues, "You alls," and magnolias, it tells, in 500 pages, how Jefferson Lee and his sister, heirs to a proud Dixie estate, fall into mental and economic ruin. It literally reeks of emotional pathos, and the publisher buys it. But, as he tells the author, it's MUCH too long. He calls in his "story barbers," and orders them to "cut it down to its barest essentials." They take the manuscript into their office and start to work.

After three days and nights of dropping adjectives, and pinching prepositions, they return to the publisher with their streamlined version of the story.

"Boss!" they chorus, "We've done it. This is our best job to date. First, we cut it down to ten pages, then to a paragraph, and then to four short phrases. Listen: SISTER CLUBS HUBBY. NEPHEW INVALID. TAXES ZOOM. ESTATE LOST. What do you think of it, boss?"

"Men," the publisher blurts, "you're fired! I said 'BAREST essentials', and you failed me. Look, we don't even need to print one page. It can be done in ONE word, on a calling card. Just use the initials of the words you gave me, and we've got the whole thing: SCHNITZEL!"

Ancestry Of Lincoln Is Reviewed

By W. F. Merry

The following original story on the life of Abraham Lincoln was written by W. F. Merry, 223 S. Warren-av, a student of that subject for many years. Mr. Merry has an extensive library of Lincoln books and while recovering from an illness a few years ago, he had considerable time to spend in research.

Mr. Merry is a plumbing inspector for the City of Columbus. He has lived on the Hilltop since 1930.

(Space limitations in last week's Record were responsible for its late appearance.)

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S ANCESTRY

Between the years 1635 and 1646 there came to the town of Hingham, Massachusetts, 3 brothers, Samuel, Thomas and Daniel Lincoln, from the western part of England. They were God-fearing men who worshiped in the true Quaker faith.

Thomas and Daniel died without heirs; but Samuel left a large family. Among the descendants of Samuel Lincoln sons were many good citizens and prominent public officers. One was a member of the Boston Tea Party, and served as Captain of Artillery in the War for Independence.

Levi Lincoln, a great-grandson of Samuel, was born in Hingham, Massachusetts, in 1749, and graduated from Harvard, was one of the minute-men at Cambridge, served in the Colonial army: He was later a delegate to the convention in Cambridge for forming a state constitution in 1781. He was elected to the Continental Congress, but declined to serve, was appointed Attorney General of the United States by Jefferson in 1807, was elected Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts in 1811. He was appointed associate justice of the United States Supreme Court under Madison, an office which he declined.

The fourth and youngest son of Samuel was called Mordecai. Mordecai was a blacksmith, as an ironmaster was called in those days. Besides setting up a smelter where he made iron and forge with a trip hammer, nails, bolts, shovels, sickles, scythes, tongs and many other tools made of iron was used in those days. His business prospered, and when he died in 1727 he left an estate valued at more than 3,000 pounds (roughly $15,000 in American money as of today). Two of his children, Mordecai the 2nd, and Abraham the 1st, did not remain in Massachusetts, but moved to New Jersey and then to Pennsylvania.

One of the sons of Mordecai the 2nd, John, received from his father 300 acres of land, "lying in the Jerseys." But evidently he did not care to cultivate his inheritance, for about the year of 1768 he moved to Virginia. He had 5 children. The 3rd son, named Abraham the 2nd, was 24 years old when his father moved to Shenandoah Valley. Two years later he married into a prominent Virginia family, the Herrings. In 1773 his father gave him a tract of 210 acres of land of what is now Rockingham County, Virginia. Although he prospered and added to his acres, he was not satisfied and did not remain in Virginia very long. It was not strange.

The farm on which he lived lay close to a track of one of the earliest of those wonderful western explorers. Rumors began to be circulated there of the rich western land called Kentucky. Those rumors rapidly developed into facts, as journeys were made into the new land by Daniel Boone and other adventure-loving men.

Settlers began to move from Pennsylvania, Virginia and North Carolina. There were then only 2 roads by which Kentucky could be reached. The National Highway from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh and then by the Ohio River. And the highway from Philadelphia southwest through the Virginia Valley to Cumberland Gap and then by a trail called the Wilderness Road, northwest to the Ohio at Louisville. The latter road was considered less dangerous and more practical than the former and by it the greater part of the emigrants journeyed. This road lay through Rockingham County, Virginia. Abraham Lincoln was there directly under the influence of a moving procession of seekers after new lands and unknown treasures. The spell come upon him and, selling 240 acres of land in Rockingham County for 5000 pounds of the current money of Virginia, a sum worth at that time not more than 125 pounds sterling ($725 as of today), he joined a party of travelers to the wilderness. Returning a few months later, he moved his whole family, consisting of a wife and 5 children, into Kentucky.

Abraham Lincoln the 2nd was ambitious to become a land proprietor in the new county, and he entered a generous amount of land, 400 acres on long run, in Jefferson County 800 acres on Green River, near Green River

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Shook

The Columbia Heights Methodist Church will have special Lenten services every Sunday night until Easter.

Fog, rain and snow on the outside were soon forgotten after entering the Hilliards High School Friday night. It was the homecoming basketball game between Grove City and Hilliards. It was also the night to crown the queen. Charles Link served as master of ceremonies. Priscilla Warner, Pasadena-av, who was queen in 1947, was on hand to crown Beverly Wright, the queen of 1948. Priscilla, who is attending Otterbein College, brought several college friends home with her to enjoy the festivities and the dance that was held after the game. Her friends were Esther Kinsey of Dayton, Lee Mitchell of New Rome, Beverly Rock of Windham, Pa., and Stan Morris, Westerville and Charles Donnelly of Grove City. The girls were entertained at the home of the Warners, and the boys enjoyed the hospitality in the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Mitchell, W. Broad-st.

This was the first appearance of the new cheer-leaders for Hilliards. They are Elizabeth French, Sally Owen and Marilyn West. The ability displayed by little five-year-old Cookie Shaner as cheer-leader made one think she will be a cheer-leader for Hilliards High before she enters Rome Grade School. The queen's escort was Jim Frazzine. Ethel Sagraves was senior attendant for the queen and her escort was Jack Price; Julia Franchirie, first junior attendant, and her escort was Jack Winkler; Shirley Schatz, second attendant, and her escort was Tom Lamb; Camille Hoover, sophomore attendant, and her escort was Don Leppert. Although Hilliards lost the game it seemed the gay evening made up for the defeat.

The choir of Columbia Heights Church entertained themselves with a party Wednesday night, after practice. The younger members, Marylin Snyder, Lois Moore, Georgeann Terry and Elizabeth French, looked after the table decorations and the Valentine spirit was carried out, as well as in the games they had planned. The refreshments had been prepared by the wives and the serving and kitchen work were taken over by the husbands. Those present included Marjorie Lamb, church pianist, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colland, Mrs. Roy Suver, Martha Suver, Betty Garretson, Mrs. Marshall Hall, Barbara Denman, Clarice Schroeder, Opal Williams, Henry Warner and Jim Snyder. The choir is working on Easter music and will welcome new voices.

The Rome Study Club had a very pleasant evening at the home of Mrs. Growdon, Fisher-rd. As it was an evening of discussion on old table setting and old dishes, it proved very interesting. Some of the dishes were more than a hundred years old and the stories that accompanied the various pieces of queens-ware displayed made the evening very entertaining. Mrs. Montgomery, who has an antique shop on W. Broad-st, was the guest of the evening. In spite of the very bad evening, about 30 persons were on hand to enjoy the delicious refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Growdon, and her assistants. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Schroeder.

Mrs. Moreley and daughter, Mrs. Fahrbacht, and two children, Jimmy and Caroline, spent Thursday afternoon visiting with Mrs. M. A. Howell.

Friday afternoon D. C. Warner, Pasadena-av, became ill at his office in the State House. His son, Henry, and daughter, Helen, were contacted and they brought him to Dr. Mitchell for treatment. He is getting along alright now.

Mrs. Oscar Baker, who has been on the sick list for several days, is still unable to be among us.

Glen Barnecut was confined to his home, Maple-dr, several days on account of sickness.

Defective wiring is thought to have been the cause of a fire which broke out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riechert, Maple-dr, Sunday afternoon. Smoke seemed to be coming out through all the shingles, until it broke into blaze. Soon after the arrival of the Prairie Township firemen, the blaze was gone and then they had to fight smoke. The firemen, who had attended fire school of instruction for several months, went to work with experience and understanding that soon put the fire out.

Elton Kaderly, Fairacres, Galloway, is confined to his home with a bad case of flu.

Glenwood Players To Present Melodrama Tomorrow

This is part of the cast of "No Way Out," a melodrama to be presented by the Glenwood Players Guild at Motter Hall in the Glenwood Methodist Church tomorrow night. Tickets will be available at the door at 50c each.

Seated in the same order are Betty Moon, Merle Earle, Ethel Galloway and Ann Remington.

Glenwood Players To Have Play Tomorrow

"No Way Out," a melodrama by Owen Davis, will be the opening play of the 1948 season of the Glenwood Players Guild. It will be presented tomorrow, Feb. 20, in Motter Hall, the annex of the Glenwood Methodist Church.

This Pulitzer prize - winning playwright has here presented a play that will reach out and hold on to any audience as it watches in helpless fascination the efforts of Dr. Enid Karley to convince Barbara that Dr. Hilliard, her step-father, is murdering her. It is a play that will be long remembered by all who see it. It is all fairly credible, subdued and polite, yet the suspense is maintained from beginning to end and will keep you on the edge of your seat.

The Glenwood Players have undertaken to present a play that requires expert handling. The cast is composed of Cora Hilliard, played by Merle Earle; Dr. Enid Kurley, Betty Moon; Bob Karley, Emerson Harlow; Barbara Trent, Ethel Galloway; Napoleon, Gene Gildersleeve; Molly Levensaller, Ann Remington; Dr. Walter Levensaller, Tom Bohanan; Hester Darrow, Marion Bohanan; Dr. Niles Hilliard, Howard Moon, and Jim Slade, Jack Galloway. The direction is taken care of by Miss Annis Turner. As an added attraction, musical interludes will be presented by the Blue Star Mothers Chorus.

Curtain time is 8:15 and tickets are 50 cents, obtainable at the church study or several locations on the Hilltop.

This little house, typical in America, may foster the spiritual strength and character which will send forth its family members to help set the standard of American life in the years that lie ahead. The home is where man's finest ideals are born and nurtured.

Whether a man is born in a castle or a little country shack, it is not its size or beauty that determines the kind of life its residents will achieve. Abraham Lincoln was born in a log cabin, even less pretentious than the one pictured here, yet Lincoln shaped the destiny of America.

If God is in the home—and He will be if invited—the lives of those who dwell there will be enriched and inspired. A home without God becomes a house, a material thing. The family may choose the kind of influence it shall exert in shaping spiritual and economic progress.

God's presence makes a home happy. Its members will love each other and serve their community. He has said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you."

If a family will seek God, they will find strength for the problems that beset them. The happiest homes are those into which God has been invited and is an ever-present companion.

Christian Fellowship

Lesson for February 22, 1948

GEORGE WASHINGTON was a splendid example of Christian fellowship. If you will travel through the older portion of the United States, particularly in Virginia, you will come upon numerous instances of church pews marked as follows, "George Washington worshipped in this pew on blank date." Evidently, it was his custom to attend public worship in whatever community he spent the Lord's day. Thus he entered into Christian fellowship, gaining a blessing and rendering a blessing.

Dr. Newton

The lesson passage for Sunday is found in Acts 2:37-47 and Ephesians 4:1-6, with several other passages which will be quoted before we finish the column for this week.

A HAPPY TIME IN CHURCH

READ Acts 2:41-47, and you will find a picture of a group of very happy people. Think of it, three thousand people professing faith in Jesus and receiving baptism in one day! But read on—they were not only happy at church, but they were happy because they were in the church. They continued steadfastly in the apostles' teachings and fellowship and breaking of bread and prayer.

They praised God and had favor with all the people. By their daily living they were convincing the world that fellowship in Christ is not only good on Sunday while we are at the meeting house, but good every day.

The happy homes are the homes where Christian fellowship abounds, and it is equally true in every area of life.

AT CHURCH WITH FRIENDS

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go unto the house of the Lord." Psalm 122:1.

THAT is poetry, you will agree, but it is live, actual testimony not only of the Psalmist, but of countless juniors, boys and girls throughout our land who eagerly hear the sound of the church bells. Boys and girls delight to go to Sunday school and worship when the life of the church is pervaded with Christian fellowship. There they meet the finest boys and girls in the community.

BELONGING TO THE CHURCH

THE passage in Acts 2:37-47 tells us how certain people, after hearing the great sermon by Peter, asked how they might be saved. He told them:

"Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

When we invite intermediate friends to attend Sunday school and worship services with us, and they come to know of the love of God, they, too, will want to be saved. It is then the high privilege of Christian boys and girls to lead their friends to accept Jesus Christ as Saviour, and come into the church.

In Ephesians 4:4-6, we read these words: "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and in all."

ALL ONE IN CHRIST

THE above passage from Ephesians teaches clearly that there is a brotherhood of man, real and abiding, when we accept the Fatherhood of God, through Jesus Christ. This is the meaning of the church. No amount of man-made creeds can save us. No amount of ritual and ceremony can save us. We are saved by grace through faith, and that is the gift of God. When we repent of our sins and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, we are saved, and not until then.

The one adequate solvent for the crying needs of this frightened world is the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. Just as thousands were saved on Pentecost and again on the Lord's Day when Peter preached in Solomon's porch, so today many may be saved where the Gospel is proclaimed in its simplicity and power.

We are one in Christ, of every race and every tongue. The fellowship of Christian faith transcends every barrier — racial, economic, geographic, political, religious. We have but to proclaim the universality of this good news—proclaim it in our words and proclaim it in our daily lives.

Lick; 500 acres in Campbell County. He settled near the first tract, where he undertook to clear a farm.

It was a dangerous adventure, for the Indians were still troublesome and for protection the settlers were forced to live in or near forts. According to tradition in the Lincoln family, Abraham Lincoln lived at Hughes Station on Floyd Creek in Jefferson County.

All went well with him and his family at the start. Then one day while he and his three sons were at work in the clearing, an Indian shot and killed the father. His death was a terrible blow to the family. The large tracts of land he had entered were still unclaimed. Abraham Lincoln was probably as well provided with personal property as most of his neighbors. The inventory of his estate is still to be seen in the court-house at Bardstown, Kentucky, formerly the county seat of Washington County. The value of his estate as recorded by the appraisers on March 10, 1789, was 468-16S and 6D, roughly $340.

Soon after the death of Abraham Lincoln, his widow moved from Jefferson County to Washington County. Here the eldest son, Mordecai, who is supposed to have inherited nearly all of the large estate, became a well-to-do and popular citizen. The deedbook of Washington County contains a number of lands sold by him At one time he was sheriff of Washington County, and a member of the Kentucky Legislature. Late in life he moved to Hancock County, Illinois.

Of Josiah, the second son, very little is known. He left Kentucky early in life and settled on the Blue River, in Harrison County, Indiana, and there he died.

The death of Abraham Lincoln was the saddest for the youngest of the children. Thomas, a lad of 8 years at the time. Two years later his mother died. Fate turned him adrift early to become a wandering orphan boy. If Thomas inherited any of his father's estate, which is believed probable, he did not receive it until he was of age. That meant that at the start he was obliged to shift for himself. For several years he supported himself by farm work, learning in the meantime the trade of carpenter and cabinet maker.

Tom Lincoln was a good carpenter for those days, when a cabin was built mainly with the axe. Not a nail or bolt-hinge in it only leather and pins in the door and no glass. Although a skilled craftsman for his day, he never became a thrifty or ambitious man. He would work energetically enough when a job was brought to him, but he would never seek a job.

Even though Tom Lincoln applied himself spasmodically to the trade of his choice, he shared a pioneer's love for land. In 1803, when only 23 years of age and still without the responsibility of a family, he bought a farm in Hardin County, Kentucky.

This fact is important, proving as it does that Thomas Lincoln was not altogether the shiftless man he has been pictured. Certainly he must have had considerable energy and ambition to learn a trade and secure a farm through his own effort by the time he was 23 years old. He was illiterate, never doing more in the way of writing than bunglingly writing his name. He was a moral man, religious and a faithful Baptist.

In 1806 Thomas Lincoln was married to a young woman of the neighborhood, Nancy Hanks. The genealogy of the Hanks family in America has never been satisfactorily completed. It is certain, however, that they have been almost as long in America as the Lincolns.

Members of the family certainly came early into Kentucky among them being one Joseph Hanks, who settled in Nelson County. The will of this Joseph Hanks, still to be seen in the court house in Bardstown, shows him to have left a large family as well as some property.

The earliest reliable traditions that we have of Nancy Hanks place her in the family of one Richard Berry who owned a farm in Washington County, near Springfield. It was probably at the home of Richard Berry that Thomas Lincoln met Nancy Hanks, for he doubtless spent more or less time nearby with his eldest brother, Mordecai Lincoln, who was a resident of Washington County and a friend and neighbor of the Berrys. He may have seen her at the home of her brother, Joseph Hanks, in Elizabethtown. This Joseph Hanks was a carpenter and it was from him that Thomas Lincoln learned the carpenter trade.

At any event the two young people became engaged and on June 10, 1806, their marriage bond was issued, complying with the law of the time. Two days later, June 12, 1806, according to the marriage returns of the Reverend Jesse Head, they were married, a fact duly recorded, also by the marriage certificate made out by the officiating minister.

The marriage took place at the home of Richard Berry, near Beechland in Washington County, Kentucky. It was celebrated in the traditional style of 142 years ago and was followed by an infair (or house warming) given by the bride's guardian, John H. Parrott.

We are indebted to a Kentucky centenarian at the time these facts were recorded, 1895, Dr. Christopher Columbus Graham, who attended the party, for the following description: "I saw Nancy Lincoln at her wedding, a fresh looking girl, I should say over twenty. I was at the infair, too, given by John H. Parrott, her guardian, and only girls with money had guardians appointed by the court. We had bear meat, venison, wild turkey and ducks, eggs, wild and tame, so common that you could buy them at two bits a bushel; maple sugar swung on a string, to bite off for coffee or whiskey, syrup in big gourds, peaches and honey, a sheep the two families barbecued whole over coals of wood burned in a pit and covered with green boughs to keep the juice in, and a race for the whiskey bottle."

After his marriage Thomas Lincoln settled in Elizabethtown. Here he established credit with the local merchants. He not only enjoyed credit with the people of Elizabethtown, he was sufficiently respected by the public authorities to be appointed road supervisor, Monday, May 18, 1816. Indeed all of the many documents mentioning Thom Lincoln show him to have had a much better position in Hardin County than he has been credited with.

It was at Elizabethtown that the first child of the Lincolns, a daughter, was born. Soon after this event Thomas Lincoln moved to a farm on the Big South fork of Nolin Creek, in Hardin County, now LaRue County, three miles from Hodgensville and about 14 miles from Elizabethtown. Here he was living when, on February 12, 1809, a baby boy was born. The little newcomer was called Abraham, after his grandfather, a name which had persisted through many preceding generations in the Lincoln family.

In closing, permit me to make the following observations. The facts in this manuscript (and they have been verified) establish clearly that Abraham Lincoln's mother was not the nameless girl that she has been so generally believed, and that Thomas Lincoln and Nancy Hanks were united in Holy Matrimony. The writer of this paper has in his possession a facsimile of the marriage bond issued to Thomas Lincoln and Nancy Hanks according to the law of the time.

Those of us who are students of history written of or by Abraham Lincoln are thoroughly convinced of the nobility of his character and that the majesty of his intellect was far superior to that of any other man.

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

Here we are again with the usual goings on of the Canteen fun! The Photography Club is holding a meeting at the Canteen Sunday, Feb. 29. Everyone interested in photography is invited. I'm sure there is a good time in store for everyone, because the meetings are always interesting and full of fun. (Models and all.) In case you're wondering who they are, I'll let you know next week.

The Table Tennis Contest starts March 1. A ping-pong table is going to be placed in the ballroom to give you more room to practice in. We recommend that you wear tennis shoes or rubber soled shoes, because we know how slippery the ballroom floor is, and if you don't you'll probably find out too.

There are still those little rumors going arcund about the dance they're having some time in April. You were right when you said Ziggy Coyle made a big hit, as he will be asked to play in April also.

Sometimes we wonder why the boys get so excited over a pool tournament, but the one now going on sure is a wow! Maybe it's that grand prize!

If any of you have wondered why Vancil Johnston is so up in the air the past week, ask him about his new car!

Due to the scarcity of news, I guess that is about all for this week. If any of you hear any real gossip, as I know so many of you do, please let me know.

Tax Collections Are Lagging At Treasurer's Office

Real estate tax collections for the first half 1947 in Franklin County are lagging behind previous collections in percentage of totals to be collected, County Treasurer C. B. Norris announced today.

With half the collection period reached only a little more than $2,000,000.00 of the anticipated $5,225,000.00 has passed through the tellers' windows.

Tax books will close February 20, the legal date as set by the state tax commission. No extension will be asked, Mr. Norris states, as he promised to put the collection of real estate collections back on legal schedule. Having accomplished this, it is the duty of the office to see that the schedule is maintained.

The treasurer urges tax payers to use the mails when possible in remitting taxes thus avoiding the lines at the cashiers' windows. However, he strongly warns against the practice of sending cash through the mails. Personal checks and money orders are acceptable.

Wilson Road Flasher Now In Operation

The new flasher signal light at the Pennsylvania Railroad on Wilson road was placed in operation this past week.

The thousands of people who use this road regularly are grateful to railroad officials for this safety measure. This spot has been the scene of numerous fatal accidents in recent years.

With the opening of the Fisher Body plant this road is used extensively by people living north and in Grandview and Arlington. Drivers of these cars will be pleased to know of the new flasher light.

City Needs To Adopt Some Business Methods

When the East Market burned last year the city suffered a big financial loss due to the fact that there was no insurance on the property.

Just recently another big loss occurred with the burning of the North Market and again the city had no fire insurance covering the property.

If fire insurance is good for private property it most certainly should be good for the city. Private business firms would never be caught short in case of a fire. The fact that the city property is our property and you and I will help pay to replace these fire losses behooves us to insist that city council adopt more business-like methods in the future operation of the city and investigate the city's fire insurance needs and do something about them.

Forget The Hand That Feeds Them

To find a member of a union who will stand up and fight against increased wages is about as rare as the man who makes news by biting the dog.

On the other hand it is a very common practice of many of the stronger union men to refuse to pay a slightly higher price for his union made goods.

We witnessed a fine example of that spirit this past week in a discussion between two members of a Columbus lodge. The lodge has a large percentage of men who belong to unions and derive their livelihood from union shops. But when it came to the ordering of the lodge publication the worthy members saw fit to save some money for the lodge by patronizing a non-union shop.

Prices that are high today have most certainly been brought on by increased wages. Unions are demanding further increases. Certainly the least they could do is to support their stand by backing the employers of union labor when it comes to making their own purchases.

Co-manager Of Orchestra

Saw Five Years Service In U. S. Navy

James Hastings

Co-manager of the Columbus Civic Concert Orchestra to be heard at West High School Auditorium tonight is James Hastings, 75 S. Ogden-av. The other manager is Glenn Grabill, Jr., of Worthington.

While he admits he used to play the violin "a little," he never played with the orchestra he has helped manage since last May. A graduate of West High School in 1937, Hastings worked in the Hilltop office of the Ohio National Bank for two years before being called to active duty as a naval reserve.

He left the Hilltop in October of 1940 and was in uniform until September of 1945, being discharged with the rank of ensign. He still maintains his naval reserve status.

Hastings spent much of his service time at sea with the 7th Fleet in the Pacific Ocean. He took part in the assault landings at Lae, Salamau, Finschafen, the Admiralties and Hollandea. He was aboard the Kane at the time Commander Irvin H. Cammarn (now a teacher at West High School) was its executive officer. One of the few Hilltoppers he met while in service was classmate Bob Ucker, whom he met quite by accident in Australia.

For eight months he was shore based at Honolulu and spent some time in Alaska. Part of the time at sea he served as the captain's "talker," relaying orders to battle stations throughout the ship.

He was married to the former Wanetta Kent of Marysville 13 days before being called to sea duty. The couple are now proud parents of twins—James Kent and Pamela K.—born January 23, 1948. Hastings is a printer's apprentice at the Ohio State Journal.

"March To Church In March" To Be Kiwanis Theme Next Month

Another "go to church" campaign will be launched on the Hilltop next month through the cooperation of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and Hilltop Ministerial Association.

"March to Church in March" is the theme adopted by the support to local churches committee planning the drive. Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, pastor of Hillcrest Baptist Church and head of the Kiwanis committee, is in charge of the 1948 program aimed at increasing attendance in all local churches.

Rev. Goewey is being assisted by Rev. A. J. Wold, pastor of the Hoge Memorial Presoyterian Church, Rev. Harold Dutt, pastor of the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church, Rev. W. Howard Schoof, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, Dr. C. O. Miller, Dr. Howard Whitehead, and Darrell Jacques.

The campaign will have wide publicity through the news and advertising columns of The Hilltop Record, by posters and through announcements in local churches.

Last year the Kiwanis Club in cooperation with local ministers put on a "go to church" campaign that received wide recognition not only on the Hilltop but on a city-wide basis. Inquiries have come in from a number of cities throughout the state asking for information on how the program was carried out.

The program is pointed at developing interest in the work of local churches particularly through the Lenten season. Most churches are planning special services throughout the month of March.

BOOSTERS TO MEET TUES.

An important meeting of the West High Booster Club has been called for 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in Room 101 at West High School. Lawrence Barry of the Fisher Body-Ternstedt Plant will be present to discuss plans for a steel drive to be conducted soon.

Death Claims Local Retired Contractor

On Sunday death claimed Hugh Hamilton Carr, 96, a resident of the community for the past 40 years.

Mr. Carr had been in poor health for a long time. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon with interment in Green Lawn Cemetery.

He had no close relatives. He made his home at 2582 W. Broad-st, a house he built in 1908. Following his retirement 26 years ago he had spent many of the winters in Florida until ill health made the trip impossible.

Mr. Carr was a familiar figure around the Burgess-Broad corner and was one of the outstanding community boosters.

"The Hilltop is made up of middle class Americans," he once told a Record reporter in an interview. "There are few who are in the 'poor' class and few who could be classed as 'rich'. That's why I like to live here."

A resident of Columbus since 1875, he was born and raised in Pennsylvania. Prior to his retirement, he was associated with the Nichol & Carr Contractors and helped to build numerous Hilltop homes. He was a charter member of the Builders Exchange.

Body Of Lt. Price To Arrive Friday

The body of Lt. Raymond W. Price is to be received at the Allen Funeral Home tomorrow preparatory to burial in Columbus. He was among 127 Ohio war dead that arrived from the South Pacific two weeks ago.

Burial arrangements were not complete as the Record went to press Wednesday.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Price, 2438 W. Broad-st; his mother, Mrs. Florence Kennell, Ft. Bayard, N. M., and his father of New York. Lt. Price, an Army Air Force pilot, died when his plane crashed on Guadalcanal following a bombing mission July 10, 1943.

Bonus Forms Are Available At Legion

Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion, will distribute bonus applications and assists World War II veterans in filling out their applications for the state bonus to be paid in the near future.

The application blanks will be available at headquarters, 10 S. Burgess-av, at the following times:

Monday, Mar. 1, 7 to 11 p. m.
Wednesday, Mar. 3, 7 to 11 p. m.
Thursday, Mar. 4, 7 to 11 p. m.
Friday, Mar. 5, 7 to 8 p. m. and following post meeting.
Saturday, Mar. 6, 1 to 5 p. m.

On Tuesday, Mar. 3, the service will be available at the Teen Club, just across the street, between the hours of 7 and 11 p. m. If additional time is needed to complete the distribution to local veterans, further dates and times will be announced in the Hilltop Record.

An applicant can prepare his or her application form at the post headquarters or take it home. Several members of the post will be on hand to assist whenever applicants want help. A notary service will be maintained without charge.

West Side Is Well Policed

With the recent addition of new men to the Columbus Police Department, police protection on the Hilltop and West Side is at the highest level ever, it was learned this week.

Starting Monday night two full-time cruisers and seven district men are assigned to the area west of the Scioto River. The cruisers are staffed by two police officers and operate 24 hours per day. The district men are on duty on staggered shifts from 6 p. m. to 7 a. m. These men are on foot and are assigned to patrol business areas primarily.

In addition to these regular men, three to four motorcycle officers are usually on duty in this area watching for traffic violators during the evening hours.

Capt. Frank Harrison, in charge of traffic enforcement, said that the department has ordered a three-wheeler to be assigned to this area during daylight hours. The duties of this officer would be to check for improper parking, break up double parking and any other violations that tend to retard traffic. Five of these three-wheelers are now on order for use in various sections of the city but it is not known just when they will be delivered.

Two D-5 Permits Are Issued Here

Two D-5 night club permits were issued to restaurant and cafe operators on the Hilltop during the past week. A third liquor permit was granted to a West Side firm.

Night club permits were issued to Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st, and the Mecca Cafe, 2453 Sullivant-av. The permits allow the sale of liquor by the glass until 2:30 a. m. on week days and until 1 a. m. on Sundays. Both places previously had permits to sell wine and beer.

Ralph Schmelzer, operator of the restaurant, said that some alterations would be necessary before he started using the night club license. He explained that the sale of liquor would not interfere with the sale of food in the dining room.

The West Side permit was issued to Michael M. Melfi at 801 W. Broad-st.

Action on an application for a D-5 permit for the Biltmore Restaurant, 2414 W. Broad-st, has been deferred by the State Liquor Control Department, it was learned this week. This application has been protested by three churches within a 500-foot radius of the restaurant and by two local temperance groups.

Rea-Bow People Denounce George Wolfe's Statement

Resentment on the part of persons living in the Rea and Rainbow Additions to statement made in The Hilltop Record last week by George Wolfe was voiced this week.

Wolfe, who is chairman of the Rea-Bow Improvement Association, bitterly condemned local officials for failure of a storm sewer project for the community and said that his group would actively campaign to defeat county officials up for re-election this year.

The following statement, signed by 69 residents of the community was submitted to the Record this week:

"We have read an article in your issue of Feb. 19, 1948, about Rea-Bow group entering politics.

"This is not the opinion of all of the people of the Rainbow Community. This community HAS NOT lost faith in our local government, as stated by the chairman of the Rea-Bow Improvement Association. George Wolfe. His group, comprising only a very small percentage of our entire community, does not necessarily express the views of our community. We still believe in the integrity and honesty of our elected officials."

The statement was signed by the following persons:

E. W. Browning, William H. Smith, Lula Smith, Minnie Stanton, T. A. Stanton, David A. Angel, Dolly Angel, Howard S. Westway VFW Post Will Meet March 5

The regular monthly meeting of Westway Post 3441, VFW, will be held at post headquarters Friday evening, March 5. A report will be heard from the nominating committee at that time.

A good time was reported by all who attended the 12th birthday party held last Friday evening. Past commanders and past presidents of the Auxiliary were the speakers.

George Chambers, the post's first commander, appeared on the program first. Other past commanders present were Boord, Zulauf and Swigert. Commander Charles Geddes and Madge Weimer, president of the Auxiliary, spoke on the present organization and its varied problems.

Two mind readers met on the street. Said one to the other: "You're fine. How am I?"

Local Eagles Celebrate Two Events This Week

The Golden Jubilee celebration and the observance of Washington's Birthday this week was the occasion for a big dance and floor show held at the social rooms of Aguila Aerie, No. 2290, FOE, 2356 W. Broad-st, Saturday night. This was followed by the presentation of a civic award to Paul Leighninger Sunday afternoon.

The Saturday night party featured the Tweedy's of radio fame. Marv Mann rope and high-hat dance routines. Paul O'Brien's orchestra has been playing for capacity dance crowds on Friday and Saturday nights.

Leighninger was honored by the Eagles for his work of promoting bowling among high school-age boys and girls. Richard E. Wolfe, district director, made the award and praised Leighninger's work with the youth of the community.

Prior to the presentation of the award, a large class of candidates was initiated in what is known as the Golden Anniversary Class. The work was exemplified by Guy Peden, past worthy president.

Also on the Sunday afternoon program was an address by Leslie G. Scrimger, past president of the Ohio Elks Association and a past exalted ruler of Columbus Elks. Mr. Scrimger spoke of the fine work being done among the needy families all over the country and the many worth-while projects that have been backed by the FOE.

Following the address a banquet was served. It was planned and prepared by the following: Mrs. Mary Benedetto, 43 S. Brinker-av, Mrs. Emil Schuchardt, 214 S. Eureka-av, Mrs. Helen Jones, 217 S. Princeton-av, Mrs. Mae Adamson, 67 S. Terrace-av, and Mrs. Virginia Ogden, 43 N. Chase-av.

"Puttsy" Is Home Thanks To Want Ad

"Puttsy" is back home and happy again.

And "Puttsy" owes his return to the good judgment of said owner, who inserted a want ad in last Thursday's Hilltop Record stating that "Puttsy" was missing and that she would pay a reward for his return.

Mrs. Donald Novak, 122½ N. Eureka-av, reports it was but a very short time after the Record came out that she had a call saying "Puttsy" had been found.

This is just one of the many fine results obtainable through Record classified ads.

You too can have the satisfaction of quick results and at a very low price if you will remember to call RA. 1125 and ask for the classified department when you have something to sell, rent, exchange, want to buy, etc.

Recruit: "What time do we go to work in the morning?"

Chief: "Listen, matey, in the navy you don't ever 'go to work'—you wake up surrounded up by it!"

Is Milk Fattening? No Says Council

Are your food choices guided by heresay notions? To clear up some mistaken ideas about milk, the Columbus Milk Council answers a few commonly asked questions.

Isn't milk terribly fattening? No, milk is not fattening. It is relatively low in calories and unusually high in vitamins and minerals. In fact, doctors recommend it for reducing. Milk is a food, and when used to replace other less important foods, keeps the user well and fit.

But milk is constipating, isn't it? No, it is a liquid, quickly and easily digested. When milk is a regular part of a diet containing ample fruits and vegetables, it has no constipating effect.

May fish and milk or ice cream be eaten safely at the same meal? Of course. There is no reason why these two common foods should not be eaten together. Actually many common dishes are made of fish and milk, such as oyster stew, fish chowders and creamed fish dishes.

But isn't milk just for babies? Indeed not. From infancy to old age, milk plays an important part of diet. Children need large quantities because it is the best food for promoting growth and health. Adults need milk to maintain sound health—and to stay youthful.

Sailor: "Did you know that tunnel we just came through is two miles long and cost twelve million dollars?"

Wave: (fixing hair): "Well, it was worth it."

Bendix Washer Most Effective Test Shows

Scientific tests made by the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory show conclusively that the Bendix automatic washer removes more soil and bacteria than three leading non-automatic washers, according to information received here by Westgate Electric Co. dealer in Bendix automatic washers.

Four washing machines, three non-automatic and a Bendix automatic washer, were purchased in the open market by Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory for the tests, which were carried on for two months. Announcing the results, Don Rice of Westgate Electric Co. said: "The Bendix washer removed 23.3 per cent more soil than the best of the other three makes tested. The Bendix did more than 10 times as good a job of germ removal as the other washers tested. The Bendix used 40 per cent less soap than the average of the other washers tested. The Bendix averaged 10 gallons less water than the other machines tested in washing a single load of clothes."

Chief Electrician's Mate: "Hey, put your hand on one of these wires. Feel anything?"

IN MEMORIAM

DAVID H. JACQUES. 2-26-36

Our Star in the East shines brighter with each passing day
Since you went away to stay.
Our hearts are still lonely after twelve long years
And remembering always brings tears.
Time passes on, but those of us left recall...so well.
Your cheerful smile, your friendliness,
Your kindliness, your thoughtfulness, of all.
Oh, to turn back the clock to yesteryears—
But God knows best—
And we must face the test.
Mother, Dad and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

ARMSTRONG—In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, Marion B. Armstrong, who passed away March 1, 1946.

This day brings back sad memories of our loved one gone to rest
And those who think of him each day are the ones who loved him best.
Nobody knew the pain he bore
Beneath the smile he always wore
He never complained, he was not that kind,
Just one of those persons so hard to find.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
This world can never fill.

Sadly missed by wife Lydia and sons Earl and Milton and their families.

Directs Sale Of Easter Seals

Miss Sharp

Fern Sharp, popular Columbus radio personality, has been selected to head the 1948 Easter Seal Sale conducted by the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children.

The drive is scheduled to open officially on Saturday and will continue through Easter Sunday. Proceeds, as in previous years, will continue the society's work, not duplicated by any other social or welfare agency, with the county's crippled children. Thousands of the Easter seals will be mailed to residents of Franklin County.

Miss Sharp, who operates an advertising service at 42 E. Gay-st, is heard daily at 3:45 p. m. with her Round Robin broadcast over Station WBNS.

HCC Opposed To Park Site For Fire House

Chief Clarence W. Ogborn, of the Columbus Fire Department, addressed the monthly meeting of the Hilltop Community Council last Thursday evening, and presented all of the reasons why the City Fire Department is considering Westgate Park as a location for the new Hilltop fire station. The department's present proposed site is in the park opposite Algonquin and Brinker Avenues —the park entrance to the shelter house.

Numerous objections were raised by representatives of several organizations to this site — the main ones being the matter of safety and the conflict with future plans of the City Recreation Department, which has this area already plotted as a children's recreation center.

Alternate sites were suggested, with a unanimous agreement that the fire department's second choice—on Sullivant-av at Roys-av—would be the more suitable, not only from the standpoint of safety but of availability. The streets in and around Westgate Park are too narrow and would present a problem to fire engines going to a fire in the more congested area of the Hilltop east of Hague-av, community leaders believe. It was pointed out that the engines would have to go either to Sullivant-av or Broad-st to get through to the congested area.

The matter of further action was left in the hands of the executive commtitee, headed by Cyrus Rawlings, the council's president.

Many Opposed Storm Sewer

Charles C. Beckwith, who contacted the Record to ask that the above statement be published, said many people in the community opposed the storm sewer because "it is not the answer to the drainage problem." He pointed out that a storm sewer system would not solve the drainage problem but that adequate street drainage would do the job.

Road ditches would carry off the water, he said.

Sections of Clarendon-av, Midland-av, Whitethorne-av, Whitehead-rd and Dartmoor-rd make up the street system of the community.

Petitions to install a system of storm sewers were thrown out by county commissioners last week when it was discovered that they were drawn up under the wrong legal statute, a spokesman in the county commissioner's office said.

Wolfe contended that this group had presented petitions three separate times and that they had followed advice of the county prosecutor's office each time.

The first American made rifles were manufactured in Pennsylvania in 1834. Like the axe and the plow, the other two tools with which this country was won, rifles were made by local smiths out of local iron.

What Do You Want?

We who work on The Hilltop Record week after week are constantly concerned over what YOU readers like to find in your weekly paper. The old saying, "You can't see the forest for the trees," pretty well describes our position at times. Our only way of determining the thing YOU readers want is to have YOU express YOUR preference.

The following questionnaire is printed for just that reason. Won't you take a minute to check your reader preference for us? After doing this, clip it out and bring or mail it to the Record office, 2465 W. Broad-st, Columbus 4, Ohio.

You need not sign your name to the questionnarie unless you like. We're more interested in knowing what you want than who you are. The results of this survey will be carefully checked and an honest attempt will be made to give you the things you prefer in future issues of the paper. Last year the Record won more prizes in state-wide weekly newspaper competition than any other paper in the state. We're anxious to make the editorial content of the paper reflect the interests of the community and its inhabitants. You can help.

Burgess Continues Winning Ways; West Park Defeats Hoge In Thriller

By Dave Miller

In Class "A" and Class "B" eliminations at Glenwood Tuesday evening of the West Church Intermediate League, league winner, Burgess, took a thrilling 24 to 19 verdict from third place Glenwood.

Burgess took an early lead and was not threatened except in the waning moments.

In the other Class "A" game of the evening, West Park Methodist took a thrilling 26 to 25 decision from Hoge Memorial. It was a moral triumph for the winners as the West Park five took victory on the shoulder the other time the two met.

In the Class "B" outings that night, Salvation Army took an amazing 22 to 20 victory from St. Aloysius in a triple overtime, and Riverside Methodist swamped Westgate EUB, 36 to 6.

Burgess currently is leading the loop with seven victories and one setback, this a 24 to 16 loss to St. Aloysius last week. Both the second-place teams, Glenwood and Hoge Memorial, lost their encounters yesterday, leaving Burgess two games ahead of the two losers.

An old lady living in the country had a son in the navy. On one of her rare visits to a neighboring town, she saw a sailor. Excited and quite flustered, she asked the sailor if he knew her son.

"Well," said the sailor, "what's ship is he on?"

"What ship!" exclaimed the old lady, "are there two?"

West Cowboys Win Second Place In City Cage League By Defeating North 45-33

The rough-and-tumble triumph (the score was 46 to 33) gave Coach George Williams his second consecutive share of the No. 2 honors. Last year the Cowboys ended in a three-way tie for second place. Central won the city championship with a near perfect season, losing but a single league contest.

Drawings for the district tournament will be held next Saturday with the play to get under way at the Coliseum on March 3. Saturday night Coach Williams took some of his varsity team members to Athens to watch Ohio University in action.

The Friday night win gave West a record of 16 wins and eight losses in the 24 games played for the season. The Cowboys bring the season to a close with a non-league tilt with Bexley coming to the home court Friday night in a game scheduled to start at 8:15 o'clock.

In only three of the eight games lost during the season was the margin of victory more than three points. Central was West's toughest opponent according to the score. The Pirates defeated the Cowboys 45 to 39 in the first meeting and then edged the local team 45 to 38 in the second round of play. South downed the Hilltoppers 65 to 61 in the first meeting but bowed to West 63 to 52 in the return bout. All other losses were by one or two-point margins.

The Cowboys were definitely out to revenge the 49-48 defeat suffered on the Polar Bear court earlier in the season. Both teams were playing aggressive ball and as a result were off in their shooting. During the first half, West repeatedly missed on "bunny" and "layup" shots that the boys seldom missed in other contests.

Theisen Hits For 20

Paul Theisen took scoring honors for the evening as he sank five buckets and added 10 charity tosses for a total of 20 points. The aggressive type of game he played is shown in the fact that of the 14 fouls committed by North, all except three were against Theisen.

Chuck Weeks made five baskets and did a god job on the rebounds. Dick Culbertson played a scrappy game, so much so in fact that he left the game via the personal foul route in the fourth quarter.

The Polar Bears lacked height but fought a valiant battle all the way. The Brothers Clark (Sammy and Eddie) spearheaded the North offensive with eight tallies each, closely followed by Maddy with seven.

The Cowboys lost an early first period lead that they never regained until late in the third period when they evened the count at 25 all. From that point on they pulled ahead, leading 29 to 25 at the start of the fourth canto. By the time the automatic time was called they had extended their lead to 38-28. The visitors were leading 19 to 17 at the half.

In the preliminary, the visitors took a 46 to 42 victory from Coach Fred Heischman's boys in a well played contest.

Ex-Cowboy Athlete

Don Borror Stars On Three Quintets While Attending State University

By Bob Humphrey

Don Borror

Don Borror, a former West High athletic star, has an ambition to become a doctor and to gain a commission in the medical corps of the U. S. Army. And it appears almost certain that the prominent Hilltop athlete will reach his objective.

At the present time Don is a first quarter sophomore at Ohio State University, majoring in chemistry and physics. He plans to enroll in the Ohio State medical school in the fall of 1949.

Don is making quite a name for himself this season in Columbus basketball circles, being a member of three teams. He is with Hoge Memorial in the West Church Senior League, with Wellnitz Block in the West Market Thursday League and with Hilltop Kiwanis Club in the Glenwood Independent League.

He is among the leading scorers in each of the three leagues, having scored a total of 70 points for Hoge Memorial, 65 points for Wellnitz Block and 59 points for Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Borror starred in athletics at West High in 1945, 1946 and 1947, playing a line position on the Cowboys' football team, center field on the baseball team and forward and center on the basketball team.

All-High Honors

In 1947 he was honored with a position on the honorary all-city high baseball team selected by the Columbus newspapers and also received honorable mention on the all-city basketball and football teams.

In 1946 Don was awarded the Ray G. Hauntz trophy, being chosen as the outstanding athlete in the West High junior class, and in 1947 he received the Agonis Club award as the outstanding athlete in the senior class. He was also elected president of the senior class.

Borror was taught the fundamentals of athletics at West Junior High, starring in basketball, baseball and track. In the latter sport he specialized in the half mile and the high jump.

Don is a native of this section of the city, having been born on the Hilltop, on S. Eureka-av, 18 years ago. He is six feet tall, weighs 175 pounds and resides at 104 S. Westgate-av.

Playing with the Green Cabs baseball team, the subject of this sketch led the American Legion League in batting in 1946. The same year he was also a member of the Arlington Motors team in the Knothole League.

Borror played softball only one year. It was for only a short period while he was spending a vacation at Estes Park in Colorado.

In addition to his many athletic activities, Don is also active in rifle shooting at Ohio State University.

His brother, Dick Borror, is a student at West High School and is one of the stars of the school's track team, specializing in the broad jump.

To Meet Bexley In Game Friday

A determined West High basketball team captured second place in the 1947-48 hectic City High League by defeating the arch rival, North High, on the Hilltop court Friday night before a capacity crowd.

Fox Drive Nets Five Kills Sat.

A bag of five foxes was the result of the drive conducted west of town last Saturday. It was sponsored by the Hilltop Conservation Club.

Under the leadership of H. T. Bishop and Walter Phillips, more than 75 sportsmen participated in the drive, which covered a five square mile area east of Big Darby to Koebel-rd and south of Rt. 40 to Alkire-rd.

Credited with killing the foxes were Curt Roberts, 303 Belvidere-av; Arthur J. Sims, 2425 W. Mound-st; Walter Schultz, Lewis Center, and Allan Ball and Cecil Conley, employes of Darby Dan Farms.

Those participating in the hunt gathered at 9:30 a. m. at the Ten Mile Inn, where they were met by Charles Sheely and Barney Tway, game protectors of Franklin and Madison Counties. According to Sheely and Tway, the drive was very successful and was well organized and conducted considering that it was the initial effort for the local club.

The hunters were distributed over the area by means of trucks furnished by Darby Dan Farms, which was the center of the hunting area.

West Swimmers Eye District Meet March 1

Members of the West High School swimming team have their eyes on the district meet to be held at the Natatorium on March 1 with more than casual interest. The Cowboy swimmers have better than an outside possibility of placing near the top of the list.

Thus far the boys have won all four of their meets and have tied North so far 34-34. In four meets they have collected 211 points to 171 for their opponents.

Louis Wolfe is only 3.1 seconds off the state record and has scored 34¼ points while remaining undefeated so far this season. He recently bested Johnny Adams of University High, last year's district champion.

The West High team will soon be decked out in appropriate suits and robes, a gift of the West High Booster Club.

Members of the team, coached by Jody Gram, are:

Glenwood Independent League To Open Playoffs At Glenwood Friday

By Bob Humphrey

Undefeated Olentangy Post No. 4615 had a very narrow escape while winning its seventh victory in the Glenwood Independent Basketball League last Friday, being extended to the limit before nosing out Jerry Spears Funeral Home, 30 to 27, at Glenwood Park gym.

In other games, Standard Oil swamped Hilltop Van and Storage, 36 to 17; Hilltop Kiwanis Club smothered South-East A. C., 53 to 18, and Mellman Corner gained a forfeit over the non-appearing High-Buttles quintet.

Last Friday's games completed the league's first round. The league's abbreviated second round will open Friday night.

The league was scheduled to be divided into two divisions following last Friday's games, with the four top teams being placed in the Class A division and the bottom four in Class B.

According to a report, managers of several teams in the league claimed that High-Buttles intentionally forfeited its game last Friday in an attempt to get into the Class B division for the second round.

Gerber Investigates

Walter Gerber of the City Recreation Department, who is managing the Glenwood League, decided to make an investigation of the High-Buttles forfeit before making the second round opening pairings and the classifications.

Mr. Gerber made the investigation of the High-Buttles forfeit and discovered that it was really impossible for High-Buttles to put a team on the floor last Friday. As a result the league standing will remain. Pairings for the second round were to have been made Tuesday, too late for this section of the Record.

Olentangy Post enjoyed a 23 to 16 lead over Spears Funeral Home at the half, but the Spears boys came back in the third and fourth quarters to close the gap. Gene Clark, former Otterbein athlete, connected with a field goal in the last 27 seconds to clinch the decision for the league leaders. Clark and his teammate, Bob Tracy, scored nine points each.

One of the finest individual performances of the season was turned in by Don Borror, former West High star, who ran wild to score 29 points for Hilltop Kiwanis Club. The Hilltoppers piled up a half time lead of 25 to 7 and enlarged the margin during the remainder of the game. Borror recorded 12 field goals and five free throws.

Stinson Stars

Ray Stinson, another former West High athlete, also turned in a stellar performance, racking up 18 points for Standard Oil. The Oilmen were out in front, 13 to 6, at the intermission.

Don Borror's scoring orgy last Friday enabled the prominent Hilltop athlete to go into first place in the league's individual scoring race, being credited with a total of 88 points.

The 13 leading scorers of the league are Don Borror, Hilltop Kiwanis, 88 points; Ray Stinson, Standard Oil, 85; Gene Clark, Olentangy Post, 80; Joe Bennett, Olentangy Post, 78; Dick Layne, Hilltop Kiwanis, 61; Bob Tracy, Olentangy Post, 59; Harvey Eader, High-Buttles, 56; Ijams, Mellman Corner, 54; Tom Arnold, Spears Funeral Home, 43; Ray Grabill, Hilltop Van and Storage, 42; Tom "Dutch" Thum, Spears Funeral Home, 39; Harry Hopwood, Standard Oil, 39; Bill Allman, Mellman Corner, 38.

Sport Notes

By Bob Humphrey

The Hilltop's two representatives in the Central District AAU basketball tournament did not do very well, being eliminated in first round games at Aquinas High School gym. Hilltop Kiwanis Club lost to Peace Lutheran of Gahanna, 41 to 29, and Mellman Corner was swamped, 48 to 19, by Phi Kappa Psi.

Dorothy McLain, a Hilltop girl, is a member of the Dickerson Jaunties cage squad, Columbus' top ranking girls' basketball team. At the present time, the Jaunties are competing in the Central District Girls' AAU Tournament.

Hilltop Van and Storage finished in second place in the Central YMCA Class B Basketball League's first round, with five wins against two defeats, losing a 23 to 15 decision to Spartans last week. Managed by Sam Morgan, a Hilltop athlete, the Hilltop Van team is made up of Jerry McDaniel, Bill Aguila, Bob Moore, "Red" Gordon and Alvin Hallas.

Carl's A. C., a Hilltop girls' team, turned in a 16 to 9 victory over Reynoldsburn in a Girls' Intermediate Independent Basketball League game at Eleventh Avenue School gym last week.

Two other Hilltop girls' teams went down in defeat last week in the Girls' South-West Church Basketball League. Hoge Memorial was laced, 33 to 14, by South Congregational and Hilltonia EUB lost a 20 to 11 verdict to Kahn Jewelers.

With Jack Lavelle romping in with 15 points, undefeated Glenwood won its fourth victory, downing West Market, 34 to 23, last week at Greenwood Armory to take undisputed possession of first place in the City Recreation Center Basketball League.

West Junior To Close Season With Game Fri.

By Dave Miller

In final Junior High Basketball League games this Friday, West Junior will be host to a tough Mound five while in other games Barrett Junior, undefeated in league play and sure of at least a tie for the loop championship, will play host to a "hot and cold" Roosevelt five.

In the other pairings, once-beaten Franklin will play a very tough Champion five at Franklin, Crestview visits Indianola and Everett travels to Starling.

Franklin Junior High, undefeated in their first eight outings, went down in defeat to Barrett at Barrett, 36 to 29, last Friday afternoon. The Chuck Koterba-coached five from the South End held a good lead throughout the contest to take the victory from the defending champs.

Harold Hines, Linden Junior ace, is currently leading the Junior High Loop in scoring, Hines has totaled 102 points in nine games, an average of 11.6 a contest. Last week against Champion he was held to seven markers by the tight guarding of Bernie Hayes.

Leading West Junior's scoring parade is still the mid-graduate star, Paul Ellingsworth, with 64 points. He is pressed closely by Rav Wakeman with 56 tallies.

The standings are:

Team	W.	L.	Pts.	OP.
Barrett	9	0	260	178

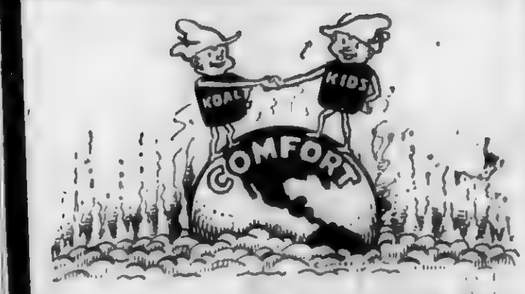
KEEP THE "Taproots" STRONG!

AMERICAN DOCTORS EXCEL because great effort is made by accredited Medical Schools to keep Medicine "strong at the taproots." Those accepted for entrance must have a high rating in academic and premedical preparation.



Earnest and searching inquiry is made into emotional stability, character, integrity and fitness for the practice of medicine, or medical research. Often as few as one out of six is acceptable.

For many years, the American Medical Association and the Association of American Medical Colleges have insisted on strict scrutiny of qualifications, in order to keep the "roots" of American Medicine strong and vital.

During the war, there was Governmental pressure to remove some of the strict requirements and speed up preparation, because of emergency need of more Doctors.

Your Doctor and his colleagues believe implicitly in "strength at the taproots" of Medicine. Keep supervision of medical schools in non-political medical hands.

With the season nearing the two-thirds mark, I thought some of the readers who can't get to the bowling alley would like to know how the leagues are coming along.

On Monday afternoon in the Seiller's Teen Agers League we find Martha Maid with a record of 45 wins and 15 losses, on top, while Kayser and Bobbie Brooks are tied for second with 37 and 23 records. In the early league on Monday night it is Kent's Builders and Wahl's Builders with records of 44-31 and 42-33 leading the Commercial League. Later in the same night in the Recreation League we find Esquire with 54 wins and 18 losses and Allen Milk with 47 and 25 as the leading contenders.

Dick Ardle

Tuesday night we find another strong league in the Ladies' Pastime League, which has the early shift. Hilltop Sporting Goods and Craft Real Estate hold top spots with 45-30 and 43 32 records. On the men's side Tuesday night it is Home Bakery with 51 wins and 24 losses and Hilltop Sporting Goods with a record of 48 wins and 27 losses.

West Hill Furniture leads the Friendship League with 46-26, while General Hotel Supply and Hilltop Van and Storage are tied for the runner-up place with records of 44 and 28. In the latter league it is Ohio State Construction with 51 wins and 20 losses and First National Cleaners with a record of 50 and 22.

One of the strongest ladies' teams in the city rolls Thursday night. It is the Stewart Black Toppers, who have compiled a record of 58 wins while suffering only 14 setbacks. The other strong team in this league is Seiller's Department Store, who has a record of 50 and 22. The Business Men's League on the same evening has Shank and Saunders in first place with 46 and 26 while Tim's Cafe holds second place with 43 and 29.

Taweo Products and White Chef Lunch have registered won and lost records of 45. 27 and 44-28 in the Friday Nighters League and in the K of C League it is Murphy's Service Station and Finneran's and Fischer with records of 44-28 and 40-32.

In the other two leagues it is Pure Oil and Cowley Roofing leading the St. Aloysius Mothers League while Curlee (39-21) and Rainfair (36-24) lead the Seiller's Boys' Teen Age League.

Bowling Gem

Our bowling gem goes to John Ryan who, while bowling with Howard Opticians last Friday night, turned in the 7-10 split. He turned in the feat in the 10th frame of his third game. Nice going, John.

Glenwood Edges West Park In Featured West Senior Loop Race

By Dave Miller

Glenwood Methodist nosed out a determined West Park five, 40 to 39, in an overtime game, in the feature contest of the West Church Senior League played at Glenwood Monday evening. Thirty-two fouls were called in this one game.

Glenwood started out very fast, at a much faster rate than their opponents, and held a 20-17 margin at half-time intermission. At one time in the opening half, the ultimate winners held a 17-9 lead over West Park but the lead whittled down shortly, and started changing hands. With the count in favor of Glenwood in the overtime, 38-37, Keim, West Park's guard, popped in a bucket to give the losers a lead. But Joe Davis, the winners' center, connected for a goal and the margin of victory. Davis totaled six goals and two free throws for 14 points while Dick Smith of the losers had four goals and eight foul shots for a 16-point total.

Westgate FUB trounced over Avondale by a 44 to 30 count in the second pairing. The winners settled back with a substantial 18-11 lead at halftime intermission. Williams, Fette and Watts scored 10, 11 and nine respectively for the winners' cause. Cliff Voss took scoring honors for the losers with five goals and four free throws for 14 points.

With Duke Borror scoring 12 points and Bob Fulton 10, Hoge No. 1 defeated a smooth-working Holy Family five by a 33 to 25 score. The winners held a three-point margin at the half.

In the final tussle of the evening, Bob Jenkins and Jim Fendice led Hoge No. 2 to their first victory of the season by downing Indianola C. of C., 33 to 29.

The regular round of play is finished, but now the eight league teams are forming a "Class A" and a "Class B", with the first four teams in the standings being the "Class A", and the bottom division the "Class B" bracket. These games will add onto the standings and the winners of each classification will meet in a tournament downtown. The standings to date are:

Leap Year! The season when, if a woman looks at a man, he leaps—out of sight.

Little is actually known about the origin of the term, Leap Year. There are many theories based upon historical happenings and others which are legendary.

"As St. Patrick was strolling the shores of Lough Neagh, after having driven the frogs out of the bogs, and the snakes out of the grass, Bridget. She told him with he was stopped short by St. many tears and lamentations that dissension had arisen among the ladies in her nunnery over the fact that they were disbarred the privilege of "popping the question." Now in St. Bridget's day, the clergy was not forced to remain in an unmarried state, unless a private vow of celibacy had been taken.

St. Patrick, although he was a single man, was so impressed by the distressed countenance of his visitor that he conceded the ladies the privilege of proposing one year out of every seven.

However he and St. Bridget had different thoughts, and flinging her arms about his neck, she exclaimed, "Arrah! Patrick, jewel, I dauren't go back to the gurls wid such a proposal. Mek it wan year in four.'

Now St. Patrick was only human and so—he replied, 'Biddy, acushla, squeeze me that way again, and I'll give you leap-year, the longest one of the lot!'

St. Bridget, all the while thinking of her own husbandless condition, accordingly upped and popped the question to St. Patrick herself. Ah! but fate stepped in, he had taken the vow of celibacy, and had to patch up the difficulty with a silk gown and a kiss.

And ever since then, concludes the legend, if a man refuses a leap year proposal, he must pay the penalty of a silk gown and a kiss. (There must be an easier way to find a gown, not to mention the kiss!)

According to historical facts, a law is said to have been passed in Scotland in the year 1288 to the effect that during the year known as leap year, a maiden lady of both high and low state would have the liberty to ask the man of her choice for his hand. However—if he refused to make her his lawful wife, he would be made to pay a monetary fine, that is, unless he could prove that he was betrothed to another, in which case he could go free.

A few years later, a similar law was passed in France, and it is said that the maids in Genoa and Florence were granted a similar privilege about the time of Columbus' voyage.

There's a curious little book published in England about 1606, called "Love, Courtship, and Matrimony." This gem says that the women's liberty to "pop the question," became a part of the unwritten law in that country, providing that it was leap year.

In some parts of the New England States, a strange leap year superstition still remains, that is that the "beans grow on the wrong side of the pod."

Julius Caesar, while Pontifex Maximus, had the power to do what he pleased with the calendar, and since this year he was in a confused condition, he changed a few rules here and there. Thus there is one day which (poor thing) is a misfit.

For instance February was to have 29 days once every four years, instead of 28. Basing his calculations on assumptions that a year is 365 days and six hours long, he provided three years containing 365 days followed by the one with 366 in order to absorb the extra hours.

There are several ideas on how leap year received its name. The most worthy supposition on the subject, is that first, the extra day in the fourth year, and the on before it, were one, in the eye of the law Therefore, the regular day was considered as itself and the extra one, though civilly held, was not legally recognized. Thus it was missed or leaped over altogether

Side Streets Hazardous

Most Hilltoppers drive north and south streets of the community as though they were through streets. As a matter of fact many of them are surprised to learn that east and west traffic has the same privilege at any unmarked intersection.

The traffic code is clear in placing responsibility at unmarked corners. Traffic to your right has right of way — traffic to your left should yield the right of way.

There are only four thoroughfares on the Hilltop proper. They are W. Broad Street, Sullivant Avenue, W. Mound Street and Hague Avenue. Only on these streets is the driver in the position of having clear sailing without worry of traffic from intersecting streets.

Many accidents happen on local streets every year because drivers on non-thoroughfares fail to give right of way to approaching vehicles. There is only one way to drive side streets safely. That is to reduce speed to a point where the driver can make sure he is in the clear at each intersection. With the approach of spring — bringing as it does hundreds of children into the streets to play—this is the only sensible thing to do anyway. The life of a child, even though he has no business being in the street, does not justify the few minutes gained by reckless driving on side streets of the Hilltop.

From The Record Files

15 Years Ago

Chester C. Cook, 61 N Warren-av, was appointed as receiver in the Franklin County Court for the Carroll-Thompson Co., auto dealer.

Dale Jenkins, 38 N. Chase-av, a ninth grade student at West High School, has the hobby of collecting bugs, studying flowers and "crawling creatures."

West High realized a total of $77, which will be used for the moving picture machine fund, from the variety show which was presented in the auditorium, Feb. 14.

The idle rumor of the "itch" infesting West High School, last week, set many Hilltop mothers agog with fright and frenzy, until the "truth came out."

10 Years Ago

Mrs. Demas Hoover, 581 Binns-blvd, whose hobby is studying the cacti plants of the southwest, recently returned from Texas, where she collected her own specimens.

Under the direction of H. E. Hutchinson, a swing band is being organized at West High School.

The West High Bucs beat the Central Pirates recently but lost to the South Bulldogs, thus missing out on the city title race. However, the team is still fighting for second place.

Karl Glick and Floyd Welker, two Hilltop automobile salesmen, opened the Welker-Glick Motor Company at 1390 W. Broad-st, last week.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Hilltop Record:

To the veteran who contends that he is self-sustaining, self-supporting, needs no help from his former comrades, who refuses to join any veteran organization, finds all kinds of excuses for not joining, let me say this.

Having joined all of the major organizations, to which I was eligible and having formed several such organizations in Ohio, I know of my own experience: No one of us is self-sufficient and just as we depended on each other to do our part in the armed forces, we now depend on each veteran to realize his responsibility of citizenship and comradeship, by joining "some veteran organization."

You may do as I did, join all of them you are eligible to join and out of that experience, you will find the one that best fits your own personal ideas of organization.

Through these organizations, one-third of all veterans of this nation, has sponsored and supported all veteran legislation and each of you has a moral obligation to support some one of these organizations, by active paid-up membership in it.

Long before this last war, your forefathers, in veterans organizations, had laid the plans for veteran legislation and this fight was carried on, even up to the present time.

You comrades going to school, on the job training, receiving each and every benefit, under the veteran preference laws, did not just happen; they were not a gift from the government that recognized its debt to you; they came through the legislative efforts of the organized veterans and were introduced by members of congress who were members of these selfsame veteran organizations.

Comrades like our president, state governor, lt. governor, and Franklin County sheriff, didn't just happen to be elected; each of them was first a veteran, next he realized his duty to the nation and to his comrades, in war and in peace. They were active in veteran affairs and it pays dividends.

Now, to each of you, from our editor comrade on down to people like me, who work with their hands, who are veterans: Your duty to the nation and to your comrades "did NOT cease when war ended" and if we don't wake up and organize, World War III can become a reality; it's up to you—"Peace or War."

THE OLD SARGE

Hilltop Record
2465 W. Broad Street

We wish to thank you for the nice write-up given our company in the current issue of The Hilltop Record. We feel that Bob Weiner did an excellent job.

There is one thing in the article that we think bears correction in that it stated that Paul Nippert and the writer are owners of the Nippert Electric Products Company. Our company is a corporation, with Paul Nippert as president and the writer vice-president and treasurer. There are quite a few other stockholders, including several employees of the organization and to show Paul and myself as owners is not correct or fair to the other stockholders.

Again thanking you and Mr. Weiner for the excellent way this was handled, and best personal regards, I remain

Yours very truly,
The Nippert Electric Products Co.
J. E. Nippert
Vice-President

Signs of Spring.

I don't know how long they will last but these signs of spring were in evidence around the Hilltop last week:

A marble game in progress down on Eureka Ave. . . . Real estate men out showing their clients' property now that the snow is gone . . . A group of boys and girls playing in the street on Southampton Ave. . . . A hop scotch game under way a couple of streets east of there . . . The huge chunk of ice in Westgate Park Lake losing ground daily to the rays of the sun . . . A West High youth stalls his Model T sedan at the corner of Hague and Sullivant. Three giggling girl companions look self-conscious as the driver nonchalantly gets out to crank the stalled vehicle amidst tooting of horns from autos that were behind . . . Then you could not mistake the chirping of a robin somewhere in the neighborhood just as dusk begins to settle over the Hilltop, and the pussywillow already beginning to bud.

Yes, spring is in the air (or was a week ago when this was written).

Good Entertainment

The spring theme will be carried out in the forthcoming Band Variety Show to be put on at West High April 22-24. Those who have seen the band shows of other years know that there are always plenty of pleasant surprises in store. The show this year will be put on three nights.

Then, too, there is the 19th annual Hilltop Minstrel show that will play a three-night stand at the West Auditorium March 31 and April 1 and 2 Spring would not be complete for local minstrel fans until this annual event came around. It is no stretch of the imagination to say that this has become an institution on the Hilltop. For dozens of amateur entertainers, a spot in the show means success. It's unfortunate that all applicants cannot be seen or heard for many good dancers and singers must be turned down because variety and balance are needed to make up a good minstrel show. Many local youngsters spend years in preparing themselves for a place on the program only to find that dancers are a dime a dozen and only something really outstanding can rate the show.

It would be interesting to know how many professional entertainers got their start in these Hilltop Minstrels. We know of several who have gone to the top in their line after first appearing in the local show.

Magic of Radio

Thanks to the thoughtfulness of S. F. Burch, 224 S. Hague-av, I heard the voice of an old friend up in Newfoundland Saturday morning. While we could not converse directly, I could hear his voice coming over short wave station W8WEQ.

Working at my desk Saturday morning, I received a telephone call from the local short wave radio fan.

"I'm talking short wave to a Harvey Bannister in Newfoundland," Burch told me over the wire. "He says to tell you 'Hello' and wants to know if you have any message to send back."

"Tell him it's time he was getting back to Texas," I told him, "and have him call me if he comes through Columbus."

I could hear the message going out and seconds later, Bannister's reply. Harvey and I worked together at Surface Combustion here in Columbus a couple of years ago. He has been working on a special service assignment for the Army Air Forces on aircraft heaters made by Surface. His home is in Texas.

Like the chicken and the egg proposition, no one is sure which came first—big cities or bad manners. At any rate, Chicago is a classic example of both.

The spot where Fort Dearborn stood — the railroad hub of the nation —the largest metropolis in in the Midwest, is also the home of the infamous "Chicago Style."

Wilson

Drive down its swanky Michigan Boulevard. Before you've passed three intersections, you've been honked, cussed, crowded, and banged. Report this to a native of the city and he simply replies: "Chicago Style."

Ride its "peoplefumed" Elevated. Before you tag a seat, you've been bumped, rushed, stepped on, and hanged. And it's ten-to-one that while you're easing into your earned reward, somebody will sneak in under you. Dare to complain, and the culprit will grin and gloat: "Chicago Style."

Walk into any of its short-changing restaurants, and, until you've drunk five glasses of water and start gnawing on your napkin, you won't get the slightest recognition from the waitress. When you do get your breakfast, and discover that your egg has been "cured" eight days in axle grease, you might as well warm it over your coffee and eat it. If you argue, the waitress will only label it: "Chicago Style."

Walking, riding, shopping, or just being in Chicago is guaranteed to net you some sort of a bruise. But, after living a year and a half in this beach-head-with-time-cards, I've begun to fall in with the spirit of the thing. My "EXCUSE MEe" and "BEG YOUR PARDONs" are coming less, and less often. In their place, I've substituted, wherever possible, a little defense campaign.

Whenever a fellow pedestrian cuts in front of me, I stick out my left foot.

Whenever another person nudges into my place in a movie queue, I stand firm (on top of him).

Whenever some lunch-counterfeiter hands me last week's coffee, I hand it back to him—upside down.

And, if I get any back-talk, I have my answer ready. With a tip of my earmuffs, I say: "Columbus Style."

P.S. The nurse says the bandages can come off Saturday.

ADMONITION

When this, my very dear, goes strangely by,
And you recall a whisper or a look,
Or what one recollects of such as I,
Go quickly, as you skim a trivial book;

Then, having read, put back upon the shelf
And disregard, as it is wise to do.
Light reading matter like my empty self
Is idle pastime for a man like you.
Frances Boal Mehlek,
in her book,
A SINNER CONTEMPLATES.

CAPITULATION

Think not that I prefer to be
An unimpassioned laurel tree.
I cannot stay Diana-chaste
With unslaked ardor in my breast.
If I had never heard his lute,
Nor felt his god-breath in pursuit,
I had not then been made aware
Of that young grace, that wealth of hair,
And might have been content to lend
Slim leafy arms to crown a friend.
Mabel Posegate,
in her book,
BURNING GOLD.

MIRACLE

How can we, the timid,
Ever hope to share
Courage with another?
We have none to spare,
We, who cringe at shadows,
How can we appear
Brave, who are tormented,
By the ghost of fear?
Yet a crumb of courage,
Shared, is magnified.
Five loaves and two fishes
Fed a countryside.
Dorothy P. Albaugh,
in her book,

CITIES

Cities are but adolescent boys with feet and hands too big and pockets small, with pants legs much too short
Cities are bullies—brazen, chest-thrusting, belching hulks that stomp, stiff-legged through a peaceful countryside . . .
Cities are strong weavers—
using you and you and you as warp and woof. They laugh and throw the shuttle back and forth, changing patterns with the moments,
colors with the thought.
Jean Comeans Long,
in her book,
EARTH WOMAN.

ELEGY UNDER THE STARS

I here; you there—
But under those eyes, space is all-where,

I alive; you dead—
But under those eyes, all-time is spread.

I alone—
But under those eyes, all things are joined;

All sorrow, and all beauty, and all spirit,
Are one.
Anne Morrow Lindbergh,
in THE POETRY SOCIETY OF AMERICA ANTHOLOGY.

SMILES

The trials that beset our local bus drivers was well exemplified recently when an elderly lady asked the operator of a trolley coach if he would be so kind as to drive two blocks off his route for her convenience.

"Sure, lady, I'll be very glad to accommodate you," was his polite reply. "But first I must ask a favor of you."

"What is it?" she inquired curiously.

"You'll have to string a new set of trolley wires for me," he stipulated.

"Oh," said the rider, somewhat taken aback, "Do you run on trolleys?"

"Well, no lady. As a matter of fact I run on the ground. The trolleys are on top."

A friend of mine owned a pet parrot which frequently repeated the former's name, which is Stuart.

One day a delivery truck from the Stewart Furniture Company drove up in front of his house. The company's name was painted in large letters on the side of the vehicle.

As the driver mounted the porch steps the parrot screamed, "Stuart! Stuart!"

The delivery man was heard to say, as he scratched his head bewilderingly, "Well, I'll be damned. I knew parrots could talk, but that's the first one I've seen that could read!"

Stopping a passer-by outside a police station, a constable said: "Can you spare a minute to come inside, sir?"

"What for?" was the suspicious answer.

"To take part in an identity parade," the constable explained. "You won't be kept five minutes."

"Humph!" snorted the passer-by. "They told me that yarn last time and I was kept three months."

Pep up your weather talk! Don't reply lamely: "Yeh, it's great for ducks, but who wants to be a duck?"

Bowl 'em right off their feet with this comeback:

"Oh, what a blamed uncertain thing
This peaky weather is!
It blew and snew and then it thew
And now, by jing, it's friz!"

Wakeman, South Spark W. Junior To 33-31 Win

By Dave Miller

Led by the alert ball-handling and timely sharp shooting of Ray Wakeman and Bill South, the West Junior High basketball five went back into winning ways by defeating a stubborn Roosevelt quintet, 33 to 31, on the losers' court Friday.

With the score in favor of the host five, 31 to 30, Ray Wakeman sank a one-hand-push shot from the side to send the Junior Cowboys ahead for the first time since South's goal in the earlier part of the game gave the Broncos their first lead. Wakeman, later, with 25 seconds remaining, sank a free throw for the deciding margins of victory. He sank his goal with 1:45 remaining.

The Broncos trailed throughout most of the contest and at one time were behind 13-4, the biggest margin ever held by the ultimate losers. The score favored Roosevelt at each quarter's rest, 8-4, 19-15, and 27-26 leads, respectively, at all intermissions.

The Roosevelt side was almost sure of victory as the fourth and final period began. Ralph Oeffler of the losers clicked for a bucket, the only goal scored in the canto by the Gray and Blue. The others were free throws by Louie Wright and Bill Culbert. Ron McElwee knocked in a beautiful long shot and Bill South a goal, while Wakeman was counting four in this period.

Ray Wakeman took high scoring honors with 14 points, counting five goals and four out of five free throws. Bill South had four buckets and a free throw for nine points. For Roosevelt, Wright had 10 points, followed by Stanley Keller with eight.

Playing one of the finest games in this season's competition was Jerry Johnson, a 9B at the Bronco school. Although counting only two free throws in the game, Jerry is a fine and alert player. He has played 27 quarters in the nine games he has participated in this season.

Coach Red Lehman of the Junior Cowboys is doing a lot of experimenting on his lower graded players. Up and coming players are Walt Meredith, Dick Hutchinson, Jerry Trabue and Bill Haire. Lehman is trying to whip up a reserve team schedule for these boys to play. Hutchinson, mentioned above, is the brother of West's senior, Don.

The Bronco varsity has one more league try. This is with Mound Junior High on the West floor this Friday afternoon.

DEVOTIONAL READING: Romans 10:8-15.

World Mission of Church

Lesson for February 29, 1948

JOHN WESLEY said, "The world is my parish." Many another Christian has entertained this great concept, and that is precisely what Jesus wants us to understand concerning the sweep and scope of his Kingdom.

Dr. Newton

Sunday's lesson brings us to consider three great passages — Acts 13:9, 10; Romans 10:8-15; Ephesians 3:8-12. Read these carefully, and you will feel the winds of God lifting up the flaps of the tent of your small habitation until you will catch glimpses of the far horizon.

CHURCH AROUND THE WORLD

"GO YE into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation," said Jesus, Mark 16:15. There is no backyard definition of the mission of the church in these great words of Jesus. Just as Paul was summoned to cross over into Europe with the Gospel, so are we commanded to make Christ known to all lands. He loves everybody.

"Jesus loves the little children,
All the children of the world;
Yellow, brown, or black, or white,
They are precious in his sight,
Jesus loves the little children of the world."

REACHING THE WORLD

JUST as Paul went from one land to another, so may every Christian boy and girl do. Each church can reach out hands of blessing to all the world.

How? Through our gifts. Our gifts for missions, joined with the gifts of all the other members of our local church, joined with the gifts of many other churches, go out in multiplied blessing through the missionaries to make Christ known around the world.

How? Through our prayers. As we pray for the redemption of the world, we fortify the missionaries — teachers, doctors, preachers — in all the parts of the world.

How? Through our sympathetic understanding of the conditions under which people live in other lands. Just now we are giving clothes and food to help the stricken peoples of the war-ravaged lands. These gifts of material things bear their message of our Christian concern for all who suffer. Thus we are extending the reach of our individual lives and the reach of our churches to the ends of the earth.

PUBLISHING SALVATION

"HOW beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth glad tidings, that publisheth peace . . . that publisheth salvation," Isaiah 52:7.

The world mission of the church is here pictured in the exquisite language of the ancient prophet, with which words we may link the declaration of the great apostle, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved," Romans 8:13.

Publishing salvation is the chief task of the church of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the objects of this universal message are the souls of all men. There is universal need, and here is the adequate and available answer.

See how this conception of the world mission of the church brings into focus the one hope for civilization. The only voice that carries across the barriers of this troubled world is the voice of salvation through Jesus Christ. Let that word be sounded in any spot on this earth, and some waiting heart will be lifted up.

THE UNSEARCHABLE RICHES

AND what are we to say about the message we have to publish? Paul puts it well in Ephesians 3:8-12, when he declares:

"Unto me, who am less than the least of all the saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. . . ."

In another place we read about the "unspeakable gift of God," II Corinthians 9:15. The message, then, is one of unsearchable riches, and unspeakable gift.

In this message is healing for the peoples of the earth. If the true mission of the church is understood and voiced in all of the ways by which the Gospel may today be given to the world, we shall see the fulfillment of the dreams of the prophets, and the angels about the throne of God will shout for joy.

As Paul changed his course in the long ago, heeding the Macedonian call, so may we today find ourselves turning about in our response to the Holy Spirit's leading; but let us not be afraid so long as we are sincerely seeking to publish glad tidings to all men.

GRADE SCHOOL DRAMATIZES HISTORIC EVENT

West Broad Pupils Depict Colonial Life In George Washington Drama

Historical episodes of George Washington's day were dramatically presented by the 4A class of West Broad Street School under the direction of the teacher, Ruth A. Michaelis, at the school's assembly program Friday, Feb. 20.

One of the outstanding scenes was a reception at George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, where the guests danced the minuet. The colorful colonial costumes worn by the children depicting this scene added beauty and grace to the portrayal of the social life of Washington's day.

Other scenes showed King George III of England consulting with Benjamin Franklin about taxation of the colonies and on the advice of Lord Townshend he decides to send a cargo of tea to Boston and compel the Colonists to pay a tax on it by force of arms; rebellious Colonists planning and carrying out the Boston Tea Party; excerpts from Longfellow's poem, "Paul Revere's Ride" given by Judy Jeckel as an introduction to the scene of the ride of Paul Revere; a group of girls dressed in colonial costumes sang the song, "How Betsy Ross Made the Flag," preceded the scene which showed George Washington accompanied by Colonel Ross and Robert Morris visiting the home of Betsy Ross to receive the original 13-starred flag which Washington had asked her to make.

Children participating were Margie Abram, Shirley Barnhill, Catherine Christeff, Virginia Cross, Barbara Dolder, Sandra Francisco, Patricia Grosh, Barbara Hanne, Valerie Hegenberger, Judy Jeckel, Patricia Mussie, Karen Paul, Sally Riztman, Sharon Rohr.

Richard Baesman, Garold Burlew, Richard D'Amico, James Detamore, Richard Eagen, William Grant, James Heinzelman, Jerry Hoffman, John Kelly, Kail Linebrink, Tom Maish, Leon Meacham, Tony Minor, Edward Richardson, John Scholl, Ronald Slabaugh and James Topping.

"Mother, what does D. D. stand for?" asked the small child.

"Doctor of Divinity," my dear," replied mother. "Don't they teach you such things in school?"

"Oh, yes, but it doesn't sound right here."

"Read it out then."

"The witness said he heard the defendant say, "I'll make you suffer for this, I'll be Doctor of Divinity if I don't!" "

"Talk about persistance. Three times he asked me to kiss him and three time I refused."

"Then what happened?"

"Oh, well—one can't go on like that!"

Events Point To Certain Needs

Two events in city government in the past week point out dramatically what we have contended for a long time, namely that we need to pay our city council members more money so we can expect a better job from them and that the city needs better supervision of its finances.

Last week it was announced that on Monday night council would have legislation to start work on a much needed Hilltop fire house to be located in Westgate Park. In the past it had been pointed out that such a location would not be desirable but council was ready to proceed.

When a large delegation of Hilltoppers went to council Monday night on the very night of the delegation convinced council that it was too tough a matter to argue over and so without further ado they threw out their plans for the park site. All of which resolves itself into one of two things: Council had either failed to make a proper study of the matter in the first place or they didn't have the backbone to stand or their previous decision when faced by a crowd.

This week one of the daily papers is pointing out the facts of the much discussed city water line department and among other things has revealed that so-called "trust funds" were used for various and sundry jobs including extra pay for the city recreation director all of which points to the need of a finance director with complete authority to handle all the city finances.

Both of the above problems can be solved by the adoption of the Citizens Research proposal to make certain changes in the city charter to provide more money for councilmen and to put the city finances in the hands of a finance director.

Let's Not Forget The Lights Around West High

In anticipation of the receipt of considerable money from the new city income tax the city is making plans in almost every department for expenditure of this money.

For a long time the Hilltop has been told it was impossible to spend money to provide lights around the dark streets adjacent to West High School. Just this week when Ed Melvin of the HBA called on the light plant superintendent he got the same old story.

But the Hilltop will not continue to be satisfied with this stall. They want some action and fast. This community will not be satisfied with less than top priority for this program.

Just last fall the city service director, attending a political meeting at West, was knocked down by a boy on a bicycle who failed to see the director because of the darkness. The service director paid a hospital bill of something more than $60. He certainly should be convinced that lights are needed there.

Flowers of the Week

A bouquet from Rosebud Floral this week to Victor Voelker, conductor of the Columbus Civic Concert Orchestra on the fine program presented at West High School as a YMCA benefit last Thursday. The affair was sponsored by the Hilltop Business Association and the proceeds was about half of $1,000. Net proceeds will not be determined until all ticket money is turned in but it is anticipated that nearly $150 will be realized for the YMCA. The association deserves the thanks of the entire community.

Give More Youngsters A Chance To Perform

Every year from 40 to 80 youngsters of the community come out for tryouts for the Hilltop Minstrel Show. In order to provide a well rounded variety program that the Hilltop has come to expect, only a small few of these people can be selected for parts in the show.

Many of these same youngsters come out for the tryouts year after year and they are encouraged to do so. Many of them finally make the show. Many of them go on to even higher spots in the entertainment world.

It has for some time seemed to us that more than one such opportunity should be given the young people to get into a well rounded show in the community and so we have suggested that some Hilltop group come up with a planned program for the presentation of a fall variety show or similar production in which some of the better talent could be used.

The Hilltop Kiwanis Club is going to investigate the feasibility of such a plan. We hope they can see fit to develop the idea. We think a number of talented young people will appreciate the opportunity to of- their services.

Short, Short News Notes: Lt. Stuskey passing out little cigars to all his friends this week since becoming papa of a pound 2 oz. Nancy Ann last Tuesday at White Cross Hospital. Small baby, small cigars.

Chief Ogborn To Suggest Site On Sullivant Avenue

Fire Chief Clarence W. Ogborn is expected to recommend to City Council Monday night that the new Hilltop fire house be located on the northwest corner of Brinkley and Sullivant-avs.

That decision was reached after a delegation of Westgate residents appeared at Monday night's council session to block efforts to have the new building erected in Westgate Park. City Council voted unanimously to turn down the park location after it was seen that opposition to the site was pronounced.

Opposition to the park site was spearheaded by the Hilltop Community Council. Quick action followed an announcement last week that Mayor James A. Rhodes had ordered city officials to proceed with plans to start work on the new fire house as soon as possible.

A special meeting of the HCC was called Saturday night with several property owners in the park area and officials of the Westgate Methodist Church attending. The proposed site would have been directly south of the new church.

The Sullivant Avenue location would provide three lots measuring 156 by 140 feet with a 16-foot alley in the rear.

Show Ducats Ready Mar. 17

Tickets for the Hilltop Minstrel will go on sale at 12 noon on Wednesday, March 17, at the Lowell Sullivan Insurance Office, 2211 W. Broad-st.

Tickets will be limited again this year to 20 per person at one standing in line. Tickets will continue to be sold at the Sullivan office until the supply is exhausted.

An innovation has been provided by the committee this year in allowing each member of the minstrel cast to purchase six reserved seats before the tickets are offered to the public.

The committee also announced this week that a party will be held for the entire cast following the last performance on Friday, April 2.

License Plate Sale Brisk On Hilltop

A steady stream of 1948 license plate purchasers has been pouring through Robinson's Electric Store, 2403 W. Broad-st, since the sale opened Monday. Already, scores of the bright lemon plates with the black numerals have put in their appearance on the Hilltop.

A year round agency has been set up in the local store with Russel Henry, store manager, in charge. All proceeds from the sale of tags and drivers' permits go to support the work of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Henry pointed out this week that any person without a regular driver's license in his possession by April 1 will be forced to take an examination before the permit will be granted. This would necessitate obtaining a temporary permit, an examination and the ultimate issuance of the regular driver's permit.

Hilltop YMCA Drive To Be Held April 18

169 Memberships Are Reported

It is hoped that the committee that will conduct the drive will be made up of about 500 individuals who have already become voting members. Voting membership costs $5.00.

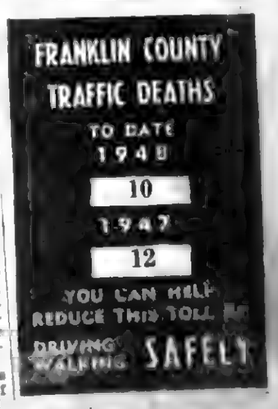
Storm Sewer Issue Is Still Live Topic

The controversial storm sewer question continued to be a live issue in the Rea and Rainbow Additions this week as George Wolfe, chairman of the Rea-Bow Improvement Association, Inc., explained the stand of his group in "centering politics."

Last week, Wolfe's statement that "people of the community have lost faith in our local government" brought a denial from Charles Beckwith that he was in a position to speak for the community as a whole. His statement was endorsed by 69 persons who claimed an interest in the issue.

This week Wolfe explains the stand of his organization. His statement is endorsed by 103 persons, said to be residents of the community. He summed up the case in the following words:



"In the spring of 1946, this Association (Rea Bow Improvement Association) passed a resolution instructing the chairman to do all he could to get drainage for our community.

"The Franklin County engineers and commissioners were contacted. Mr. Jimmie Johnston of the engineer's office advised this chairman to file under Sec. 6444 of the drainage and ditch laws of Ohio. This was done. The first time Judge Gessaman ruled that the township trustees, who signed the petition, had no right to sign, because they owned no property in the Rainbow Addition.

"The Association filed all new petitions, under Sec. 6444, as instructed by the county engineer's office, and for the second time after weeks of delay, these petitions were thrown out by Judge King because only one county commissioner viewed the project. But never was the question brought up about Sec. 6444 being the wrong section. For the third time, members of the Association in the spirit of co-operation, went from door to door and filed their petitions. This time, so that no mistakes would be made, the chairman worked under the legal advice of the assistant county prosecutor, Mr. Bob Barnhardt, and just before filing, the petitions were checked over and given the official "O.K." by Mr. Barnhardt.

"The people of our community waited while streets, basements, back yards and wells would flood with surface water. All three commissioners viewed the proposed site. Notices were sent out again, we were sure this time. Then came delays. People who

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bezold, Jr.

On Saturday morning, Feb. 7, at a Nuptial High Mass Miss Evelyn Maccabee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Maccabee, 576 Hilltonia-av, exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony with Mr. F. Edwin Bezold, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bezold, Sr., 710 S. Champion-av, before an altar of gladiolas, pompoms, and lighted branched candelabra, with the Rev. George F. Schorr officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chiffon with a sheer yoke embroidered in seed pearls. The tight fitting waistline pointed low into the full skirt which opened into a long train. Tiny buttons fastened the back and long sleeves which ended in points over the hands. The fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a tiara of pearlized orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a tiny gold cross, centered with a diamond, belonging to her mother and was worn by her sister at her wedding. The bride carried a white pearl prayer book, topped with a white, purple throated orchid, with streamers of white satin, to which were fastened slips of baby breath.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Norma Theado, was matron of honor and Mr. Dean Covault was best man.

Mrs. Theado wore a gown of yellow chiffon with mitts and a tiara of yellow net and carried a bouquet of roses and mums, with yellow net trimming.

The bridesmaids were Miss Sally Lerch, of Lancaster, Mrs. Helen Reichart, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Kathleen Hengley, cousin of the groom. They wore gowns of net over taffeta, in aqua, pink and blue, with matching mitts and tiaras of net. They all carried bouquets of roses and mums, with net trimming to match their gowns.

Mr. John Hengley, Mr. Ray Berry and Mr. Charles Theado served as ushers.

Joyce McCune, flower girl, wore a long pink taffeta dress and wore mitts and tiara of pink net.

Terry Lee Reichart, was ring bearer, wore a navy blue suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a brown print dress with a sheer yoke, and wore green accessories. She wore a pink corsage of roses and carnations.

The groom's mother wore a black dress trimmed with gold and wore winter white accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses and carnations.

Following the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast at the Southern Hotel, for the bridal party and the families of the bride and groom.

Bethlehem Upset Favored Center 5; St. John No. 2 Downs Hope No. 2 Int.

By Dave Miller

Bethlehem upset a favored Center five, 30 to 21, in the main feature game of the evening at John Burroughs gym Monday night.

Led by their sharp-shooting ace center, Bob Andrews, the ultimate winners came back in the second half and scored 15 points, while holding their competitors to five tallies. The losers played exceptionally good ball in the first half, but faltered badly in the second. Andrews collected seven goals and two free throws for 16 points to top the scorers in this game. For Center, Harris got six and Dellanbach, five to top the losers.

St. John No. 2 defeated a stubborn little Hope No. 2 Intermediate team, 15 to 12. John Merservy and Ken Garber each got six for the winners while "Whitey" Dean got eight for Hope. The score favored Hope, 5-4 to halftime intermission.

St. John Intermediate defeated Hilltop by the runaway score of 28 to 10 in the third game of the night.

Archie Turner and Ted Fladt collected eight points apiece for the winners while George Cline and Bob Alford got three apiece to top the losers' cause. The ultimate winners started out slow but ended by holding a 10-4 lead at half.

Hope No. 2 Senior, undefeated in the league, had an easy time in downing Hilltop Senior, 58 to 20. Holding a 31-10 halftime margin, the victors went through their passing attacks, etc., to beat their opponents. Bob Rector, Tom Bates, and Jack Chambliers scored 12, 15 and eight points respectively for the winners. Bates only played the first half in scoring all these points. Stanley Dichley played his usual bang-up basketball for Hilltop by tossing nine points through the nets.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Charles Schneider, who passed away February 22, 1948.

I cannot say and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you—Oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return.

Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away.
Wife, brothers and sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Tom Killian, who passed away two years ago, Feb. 21, 1946.

Those whom we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts,
Of those they leave behind.
Loving and kind in all His ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days;
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind,
Sadly missed by Mother, Sister, Relatives and Friends.

Detectives Check On Six Burglaries

Detectives were continuing their investigation this week of six Sullivant-av burglaries of business establishments Saturday morning—allegedly the work of a gang.

Loot ranged from small change to several cases of whisky. Entrance was gained by breaking the glass in the front door of each business house. Total merchandise or money taken is expected to exceed $500 in addition to damage to premises.

Capt. Glenn Hoffman, chief of detectives, told The Hilltop Record this week: "We are continuing to check the burglaries. We expect to get something on it pretty soon."

The multiple burglaries came only two days after the Record had reported that police protection on the Hilltop was to be at the greatest strength ever. New men have been assigned to the area both in cruisers and on foot.

Victims of the recent lootings were:

Sharon Market, 2294 Sullivant-av—place ransacked but no merchandise missing.

Frank's Cut Rate Market, 2300 Sullivant-av—$1 in change taken.

The Food Basket, 2329 Sullivant-av — burglars apparently routed before removing any merchandise.

Mayer Market, 2381 Sullivant-av—two cases of wine and $150 in cash. Total valued at $170.

Mecca Grill, 2453 Sullivant-av—25 bottles of whisky, valued at $75; $20 in change; coin boxes and juke box broken with undetermined amount of change taken.

Todd's Drug Store, 2572 Sullivant-av — store ransacked, loss undetermined.

Instruments And Young Musicians Are Needed By Officials

Boys between the ages of 13 and 16 who are interested in learning to play a musical instrument are being sought by city officials for the formation of a Juvenile Band. Instruments, no longer being used by Hilltop families, are also needed to help supply the would-be musicians.

Any persons interested in either phase of this new city-wide juvenile project are invited to call Chief Henzerling, U. S. Navy, Ga. 3392. Capt. Charles Berry, of the juvenile department of the city police force, is heading up the new organization.

Another local booster for the band project is Mrs. Charles Clark, 518 Ryan-av. She will gladly answer inquiries. Her telephone number is RA. 8392.

A meeting of the band group is to be held in the assembly room of the Central Police Station at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

did not have to live in this mud took active part to defeat this project. Tempers flew, but people waited. Then, after almost two years of work under the direction of the county engineer's office, and the O.K by the county prosecuter's office, and the approval time after time by all three commissioners under Sec 6444 of the G. C., the people of the community were told by the engineers, the prosecutor's office and the county commissioners 'You have filed under the wrong section of law', and they suggested we do it all over again. The commissioners can act without any petition whatever and to date 92 post cards have been mailed to the county commissioners asking them to act NOW.

"We have spent $15000.00 for attorney fees and waited for almost two years. Right now basements are flooding. The roads are almost impassable, cars are being pulled out of the mud every hour. Wells are being condemned, yet no elected official is making a move. But, the Rea-Bow Improvement Association, Inc., is making a move, 'Go into politics' and get men in office who will do something about it.

"Now as to the misleading article in The Hilltop Record of Thursday, Feb. 26, under the headlines of 'Rea-Bow People Denounce George Wolfe's Statement'. Only four names out of the 69 published in last week's Record story were members of Rea-Bow Improvement Association. We are filing this petition, bearing 103 names, and every one is from Rea-Bow and lives in the Rea or Rainbow Addition. More names could be gotten, as 61 homes out of about 115 are members of Rea-Bow. This is what Mr. Charles Beckwith calls "A very small percentage."

Grave Of Sgt. Schuh Is Located In France

Word was received recently from the War Department by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schuh of 521 W. Lincoln-st, that the body of their son, the late Tech. Sgt. Jack G. Schuh, killed in action July 16, 1944, over Germany, has been found and identified.

Sgt. Schuh, a radio man on a B-17 Flying Fortress, was on his 23rd mission. His body is buried in the St. Arnold Cemetery near Metz, France. His remains will be brought back to the United States at a later date.

"As to the road ditches which Mr. Beckwith claims will give us proper drainage, he had better talk to Mr. Wallace or Mr. Johnston of the county engineer's office. These men say it cannot be done. But if Mr. Beckwith cares to petition for road ditches the Rea-Bow Improvement Association will not fight him."

West Quintet To Meet Linden McKinley In Tourney

Cowboys Defeat Bexley In Finale

The West High Cowboys, the No. 2 team in the City Basketball League this year, will meet the Panthers of Linden McKinley in the Class A tournament that resumes play at the Fairgrounds Coliseum tomorrow night.

West closed its season with an impressive 62 to 46 win over the Bexley quintet on the home floor Friday night. The win gave the Williams-coached five a record of 17 wins out of 25 outings. The Cowboys have lost only one out of their last nine games played.

Twice winners over Linden in regular season play, Coach Geo. Williams is expecting anything but an easy evening. Although finishing in the lower division of the league, the Panthers are said to have a constantly improving ball club and with a few breaks might have fared much better in the final standings.

There can be no doubt that Linden will be out to avenge the double defeat suffered at the hands of the Hilltoppers this year. In the first fracas West emerged the winner by a 55-47 score and in the return engagement the Lindenites came out on the short end of a 59-53 tally.

Walter Hicks led the scoring parade as the Cowboys roped the Bexley Lions Friday night as he accounted for 15 points. Paul Theisen, a consistent scorer all season, was close behind with 14. Chuck Weeks and Dick Culbertson each contributed nine points while Chuck Frasher was adding eight.

19 In First Period

West came out strong in the opening canto, piling up 19 points to seven for the visitors. The pace was somewhat tempered in the second period but the Cowboys led 25 to 15 at the half. The third period saw Coach Williams' boys stripping the nets again, this time for 24 tallies while Bexley was being held to five points.

With some second string players on the floor most of the final period, the visitors were able to pick up 26 points while West was limited to 13.

Of the eight defeats suffered during the season, three were at the hands of non-league opponents. Only one team (Central) was successful in defeating the Hilltoppers twice. It was Central, incidentally, that defeated the Cowboys with the biggest margin of victory—seven points. Only three of the defeats all season were by more than two points.

Below is a record of all games played this season and the final scores.

The Cowboys piled up a total of 1280 for the 25 games played, giving them an average of 51.2 points per game. Their opponents were held to 1071 points or 42.8 tallies per contest.

Avondale Beats 2nd-place Glenwood In Senior; W. Park Downs Westgate

By Dave Miller

Avondale EUB turned in a major upset Monday night in the West Senior Church League by downing favored second place Glenwood, the team that beat the league-leader last week, by 36 to 33, at Glenwood.

The winners led by their shooting ace, Crawford, who collected 12 points, led at half time, 20 to 17, and pulled away at the most valuable times in the contest into the lead. Grabill paved the way for the losers with 10 markers.

In the other Class "A" contest of the evening, West Park, league champion, defeated a weak Westgate five, 37 to 22. The winners held an 18-8 half time lead. Dick Smith led the way for West Park with 12 points. Ralph Watts collected nine to aid the Westgate losing cause.

Queer things happened in the Class "B" outings of the evening with Holy Family and Hoge No. 1 the final victors.

In the Holy Family-Indianola tilt, the Indianolians were leading 21-20 with less than a half minute to play when Harold, Holy Family's ace guard, connected for the deciding goal to clinch the win for the Holy Family five.

The ultimate losers held the lead throughout the game and held a meager 7-6 half time lead. Hayman of the losers was top scorer with nine tallies.

The final contest was won by Hoge No. 2 winning its second straight game, over Hoge Memorial No. 1, 34 to 32, in a thrilling double overtime. The final bucket in the "sudden death" was scored by Hossler. But the funny thing of it was that Hossler was a Hoge No. 1 regular, and Hoge No. 2 had only four men to start the game, so No. 1 thought it would be generous and lend Hossler to their opponents. Doing so, Hossler later won the game against his own team.

Watkins scored 10 points to top the winners while Duke Borror plunked in 11 for Hoge No. 1.

The score favored No. 2 at half, 14-9. It was 28-all at the regulation time, and 32-up at the first overtime's end.

Theisen Rates All-City Cage Recognition

Paul Theisen, a three-sport athlete at West High School, was named to all three all-city basketball selections announced by the daily newspapers this week.

Second team or honorable mention recognition went to Chuck Weeks, Walter Hicks, Jack Thrush and Duffy Burton.

Theisen, who broke into the starting basketball lineup about midyear last season, has played in every game this season. He is rated as one of the city's top scorers and has averaged almost 12 points per game for all 25 contests.

He is an aggressive type of player, playing both the center and forward positions, depending on the height of the opposing center. He has been responsible for reclaiming the ball off his own and opponents backboard a good part of the time.

Second team recognition was given by both the Citizen and the Dispatch to Hicks and Weeks while the Journal selection rated them only honorable mention. Jack Thrush, who was a mid-year graduate, received honorable mention in the Citizen selection in spite of his only having played half of the season. He was leading the individual scoring column at the time of his graduation and was the city's top point getter last year.

Theisen was the second string quarterback during football season last year and has been a member of the pitching staff on the baseball team.

West Church Leaders In Tourney Tonight

The Burgess Avenue EUB Church basketball team, currently leading the Intermediate West Church League, will play St. Thomas tonight at the K of C Gym in the K of C tournament.

The Burgessites were defeated recently by St. Stephens, but a forfeit victory was finally awarded when it was determined that the victors were playing an ineligible player.

Property Owners To Meet

The Property Owners' Association of Franklin County will meet Friday night at the Neil House at 8 o'clock. Special speaker for the evening will be Attorney John W. King, who will speak on the city income tax for Columbus. The public is invited to attend.

Donald Lowrie To Address "Y" Group

Donald A. Lowrie, world service representative of the Young Men's Christian Associations of North America, will address a meeting of the Columbus Metropolitan YMCA board on March 11, according to Harry A. Spyker, general executive.

The speaker has a wide background of experience in European affairs. He has spearheaded relief work among expatriates and with members of the underground during Nazi occupation.

Mr. Lowrie carried on his refugee work in France as president of the coordinating committee representing all organizations, both French and foreign, at work in the camps. He was one of a small group of men responsible for the general administration of YMCA War Prisoners Aid.

HILL TOPICS —by PW—

Do you need additional cash to increase your social prestige? Is the mortgage on the old home overdue? Has the doctor recommended a vacation in Florida for which you haven't the wherewithal to follow out his instruction?

Then gather around, Gentle Readers, and I'll tell you how you can raise $3,500 without working and still stay out of jail. You won't have to display your second grade mentality on "People Are Ignorant" program. You don't have to send in any box tops or sardine cans. You don't even have to identify the "Walking Man." It's that easy.

It's by working a simple word game. You pick out all of the names of cities on a given map that can be spelled with the letters O G I A C H V R E N D. Rush your answer to The Puritan at La Grange, Ill., and you immediately become eligible for a grand prize of $250 plus $50 extra for promptness.

It all seemed like a legal way to pick up a quarter grand so Mrs. W. and I worked it out and airmailed our answer back to the advertiser whose advice we had decided to follow. Mrs. W. insisted on investing the nickel for the air mail stamp. After all $50 on a 5c investment isn't picked up every day.

For several days we waited breathlessly for the postman to deliver our check. Days passed and no reply from the Puritans. Days rolled up into weeks and still no answer. Were we the victims of a horrible hoax? Then one day after two long weeks our letter was delivered. A big fat official-looking letter.

This must be it, we thought. Now we could start using black ink again in figuring up our bank balance. Our overdue Christmas bills could be paid before Easter and maybe we would have enough left over to go to a movie.

Eagerly we tore open the big envelope and there tumbled out on the table a legal-looking check, not for $250, not for $300, but for $3500. My name was written right on the face of it. Then we started to read the fine print and the larger print in Old English style with all the curliques so you can't be sure just what it does say.

"This certificate will be redeemed for $3500—IF you send the enclosed guarantee blank as directed and are declared the winner of the greatest Grand Prize."

Then we started to read the long two-page letter.

"Dear Friend," it said.

"Congratulations — I believe that you have listed the highest number of towns possible and you are right now in line to win the $250 first grand prize and the promptnes priz $10.5oe and the promptness prize of $50.

"Your answer has passed all the preliminaries and as soon as all the answers are received, it will be handed to the judges for final consideration in awarding the prizes.

"As far as that prize is concerned there is absolutely nothing more for you to do now—the money will be awarded to the winners as soon as possible — Now here's more good news for you. The answer you sent entitles you to receive the official certificate enclosed — it is made out in your name. We now have a great deal of added pleasure in advising you that you now have the opportunity to win $2,500 all in cash and an additional $1,000 in cash if you are prompt (this promptness is really worth money) or a fortune of $3,500 in cash, all according to our plan herewith."

Ten paragraphs further down in the letter we began to get "the pitch" as the county fair barker would say.

"You are to get a greater number of towns from another quite similar map. Enclose your answer wth a $12 contribution to The Chancellor, Puritan Church, LaGrange, Ill."

That was it. Slowly, I folded up the letter, looked longingly at the almost real check for $3,500 and called up the boss to tell him I didn't mean a word of what I said that morning when I told him I was quitting.

"The whole purpose of this campaign is to raise money to erect a big new Puritan Meeting House at LaGrange, Ill. This contest is not for profit . . .", the circular said.

By now, Gentle Reader, you may be wondering why I've wasted all this valuable space with such a yarn. I have all the papers to prove my story and the sooner people know about such rackets the better off for everyone concerned. The wonder of it all is how such bait can be used through the mails. Doubtless thousands of people will send in contributions to a cause they know absolutely nothing about and yet would squawk if their church asked for an extra $5 or if they were asked to contribute to some worthy charity.

If the whole thing isn't a racket, then I never saw one. I'm gullible—up to a certain point—but now I want my air mail stamp back.

GIRLS GO TO OSU MEETING
By Bob Tobin

Twenty-three girls from Starling went to the Ohio State University, Wednesday, February 18, to hear Virginia Kinnaird, of Washington, D. C., talk about opportunty and qualifications for young people who enter the teaching profession, or related fields. Miss Kinnaird had represented the teachers of America at the UNESCO in Paris last summer. She also told of the plans for world education for peace.

NEW PICTURE FOR STARLING
By Bob Howard

The boys and girls of Starling, through their collection of tax stamps, bought some new paintings for the building. Those purchased are DAYS OF YORE, a colonial scene by E. L. Henry A SHACK IN THE WOODS, a winter scene by F. Johnstone; ALLEGRO, portrait of a harpist, by M. Pearson; and THE OREGON TRAIL, the picture of a covered-wagon train, by R. W. Aruitt.

The committee making the selections consisted of Miss Martha King, art teacher, Miss Louise Lincoln, and Miss Marie Lowenstein.

PTA MEETING
By James Graham

The Starling PTA held its regular monthly meeting at the school Feb. 17. Mrs. Chester Corra, president, introduced Starling's past PTA presidents. A representative from the American Red Cross spoke in behalf of the Red Cross and its work. The new instrumental instructor, Glenn Harriman, gave two trombone solos. Later all took part in games led by Mr. Sheatsley, the city supervisor of physical education, and refreshments were served.

The state of Washington is a fast-growing state; it attracts population because of its natural resources, its climate; its timber production is outstanding; its production of apples and wheat is especially large. In it the cities of Seattle and Tacoma are important Pacific trading ports.

Wilson

It's a rather popular belief that children have an innate ability to judge character. If this is true, then I know a man who belongs behind bars. I, personally, find him lacking in no quarter. He excels intellectually, his manner is forthright, and he is most generous of nature. But without qualification, kids just don't like him. It's not because he neglects them, either, for he bends every effort toward winning them over. He reads book after book on child psychology and applies each technique with great sincerity, but try as he will, the little rebels resist.

One day, he was out walking, when he came upon a young mother holding a sack of groceries and trying to help her small son right his upturned tricycle. It was a scene to touch the heart of the least chivalrous of men, and my friend takes special pride in his courtesy. So, tipping his hat with one hand, he reached down with the other to set the velocipede on its wheels. He no sooner touched one handlebar than the youngling grabbed the other and began shrieking to his "Mommy" and several passers-by that this "nasty mans" was stealing his "twycittle." My friend spent the rest of the day calling in character witnesses to convince the police that he was not "Kidslapper Sam."

Even small babies, hardly able to utter a peep, invariably yell their downy heads off at the mere sight of him.

Once, in a desperate attempt to secure the confidence of his three-year-old nephew, he offered to bribe the kid with nearly the entire contents of his wallet. He still carries four tiny tooth marks with which to remember the incident.

Last week, though, the thing reached a climax. I saw him downtown and engaged him in conversation. He had the look of a capitalist in the Kremlin.

"My wife and I are separating," he said.

Knowing what a perfect couple they were, I asked if he weren't just taking some "lovers' spat" a bit too seriously.

"No," he sighed, "it's nothing like that. It's just that my wife is having a baby."

Hilltop Kiwanis Is Victim Of Undefeated Olentangy 5

By Bob Humphrey

Olentangy Post No. 4615 clinched at least a tie for the Class A divisional title in the Glenwood Independent Basketball League last Friday, with eight wins and no losses, following an easy 55 to 31 victory over Hilltop Kiwanis Club at Glenwood Park gym.

The Olentangy boys will be assured of the league title if they turn in a win over Mellman's Corner Friday at 7 p. m.

In other games Friday, Hilltop Kiwanis Club takes on Spears Funeral Director at 7:45. High-Buttles engages Standard Oil at 8:30 and Hilltop Van and Storage meets South-East A. C. at 9:15.

Two more sets of league games remain to be played following Friday's frays. All teams in the league except Olentangy Post have suffered two defeats.

Last Tuesday the eight teams were divided into two divisions for a short second round. Olentangy Post, Hilltop Kiwanis Club, Mellman's Corner and Spears Funeral Home were placed in Class A division and High-Buttles, Standard Oil, Hilltop Van and Storage and South-East A. C. in the Class B group.

In other games last Friday, Mellman's Corner edged Spears Funeral Home, 36 to 34; High-Buttles trounced Hilltop Van and Storage, 37 to 25, and Standard Oil laced South-East A. C., 39 to 21.

Olentangy Post piled up a 27 to 12 lead at the half and continued to score with regularity throughout the third and fourth quarters for an overwhelming victory. Gene Clark, former Otterbein athlete, hit the net for 22 point for the league leaders, while Dick Layne registered 11 points for Hilltop Kiwanis.

Split Second Win

With only one minute of play remaining, Jerry Geroux, coach of the Mellman Corner quintet, thinking that his team had a six point lead, sent in five substitutes. But at that point, Mellman's had only a two point margin and Spears Funeral Home immediately tied up the score, 32 to 32. Geroux then rushed his five first stringers back into the game and Don Ijams connected with a field goal in the last eight seconds for the winning points. Ijams topped the individuals in the game, with 20 points. "Lefty" Johnson and Tom Arnold divided the Spears scoring.

Harvey Eader racked up 16 points to feature High-Buttles' win. The H-B boys were out in front, 21 to 15, at the intermission. Ray Grable turned in 13 points for the losers.

Connecting with shots from all angles and distances and with Ray Stinson running wild to score 20 points, Standard Oil enjoyed a half time margin of 23 to 8 and continued on to a convincing victory.

Stinson Leads Scorers

Ray Stinson of Standard Oil is setting the pace in the league's scoring race, with a total of 105 points, but is closely pressed by Gene Clark of Olentangy Post, with 102 points.

West Reserves Win 13 While Losing 5 Games

The West Reserve quintet coahed by Fred Heischman, closed the basketball season Friday night with a 28-20 victory over the Bexley Reserves. The win gave the team a record of 13 wins and five defeats for the season.

As usual Heischman's boys came through with some thrillers during the season. Two contests were won or lost by single-point margins while two other games were decided on a two-point basis. No team defeated the Cowboy Reserves more than one time.

One of the most thrilling games of the year was played on the West court as a preliminary to the East West fracas. The Hilltoppers won the game 23 to 21 and thus got revenge for an earlier 41-25 defeat suffered at the hands of the Tigers. Against Central, Coach Heischman's five lost by a 27-26 count in the first meeting but the locals came back strong to defeat the downtowners, 31 to 19, in the return engagement.

The record of games played during the season follows:

Junior Broncos Outscored Friday By Mound Junior

By Dave Miller

Mound Junior High threw everything at the West Junior Broncos in the last quarter Friday afternoon and defeated the locals by a 45 to 31 count on the Cowboy court.

The Junior Cowboys went into the last quarter of the contest leading by a 24 to 23 count. However, substitutions on the Bronco team made the going easy for the Mound Blue and Gold. A total of 10 buckets and two free throws was counted in the final canto by the winners.

Coach Lehman started all his 7A's except Jerry Johnson in the final half. There were Tommy Thompson, Dick Wray, Bill South and Ray Wakeman. The latter counted 18 points in the game to lead the ultimate losers. Wakeman staved serious Mound threats throughout the game by intercepting passes, great rebounding, and some other beautiful defensive work.

However, the visitors just ran the Juniors almost to "death" in the final canto. They were held to only three points while the Broncos counted nine in the third quarter.

Bob Elder of Mound collected 20 points to top the visitors' cause. Bill Hairston, an outstanding player, came in second in the game with 17 markers. Hairston won the individual scoring of the league by doing this in his final appearance of the season with 116 points.

The visitors started slow, mainly because it was the first time this year they had played on a big floor such as West's. But then the best offensive team in the loop started clicking and held a 12-7 first quarter margin. And they kept on marking up tallies by holding a 20 to 15 halftime intermission lead.

The season record for the West Junior counters is as follows:

West Junior, 33; Starling, 11.
West Junior, 24; Crestview, 26.
West Junior, 35; Everett, 37.
West Junior, 29; Indianola, 27.
West Junior, 19; Barrett, 34.
West Junior, 30; Linden, 26.
West Junior, 19; Franklin, 26.
West Junior, 16; Champion, 39.
West Junior, 35; Roosevelt, 31.
West Junior, 31; Mound, 45.

Remaining for next year's prospects are Jerry Johnson, Ken Anderson, Walt Meredith, Dick Hutchinson, Jerry Trabue, Douglas Clark, Bill Voss, Dick Orr, Dick McGuire, Bob Hays, Louis Prener. These same boys played at Upper Arlington and were defeated, 33 to 18. Jerry Trabue counted 12 points to lead the Juniors' losing cause.

The final set of games in the Junior High League is completed with Barrett the champion by virtue of a 37 to 26 win over Roosevelt Friday.

The final standings are:

	W.	L.
Barrett	10	0
Franklin	8	2
Champion	8	2
Crestview	7	3
Mound	5	5
Everett	5	5
WEST JUNIOR	4	6
Roosevelt	4	6

"March To Church In March" -- An Invitation

By Rev. J. Herbert Geewey

You are cordially invited to participate in the "March To Church In March Crusade" on the Hilltop by attending the church of your choice every Sunday, particularly through the entire month of March.

The above invitation is extended to you by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, sponsor of the "March To Church In March crusade" which begins Sunday, March 7. The Hilltop Ministerial Association is giving its wholehearted support to this crusade, not just because it is an endeavor to get people to attend church but because it is heartening to find such a crusade springing from the "grass roots," the laymen of the church.

Rev. Geewey

It is fitting that we should be invited to March To Church In March for this year the month of March leads us up to the most important and significant period in the entire church year—Holy Week and Easter Sunday. And we do need to re-emphasize in our own thinking and acting the true significance of this period and to recognize that it is the celebration of a spiritual victory and that through such re-emphasis and recognition be brought to the place in our lives where we will, to use the words of the first objective of the Kiwanis International, "give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than the material values of life."

It is the sincere hope of both the sponsors and the supporters of this crusade that you will make every effort to see that you and your entire family attend the church of your choice every Sunday during this crusade. Will you accept the invitation to "March To Church in March"? If you have no regular church home, see the church notices on the church page of this paper and select the one that appeals to you. You will find a cordial welcome at all of them. We will see you in church. We'll be looking for you.

LENGTHENING Lives
MORE IMPORTANT THAN Politics!

DOCTORS OF AMERICA are actively, scientifically and sincerely interested in lengthening LIVES! They are dedicated to the curing of illness, alleviation of suffering, salvaging of human bodies, and fighting needless death.

Your own family physician, and the great majority of American Doctors, are convinced that the Medical profession itself can do the best job of supervising, extending and improving the distribution of medical care.

Public health measures could well take all of the energies of those seeking "social gains."

Countless such activities cry aloud for more urgent attention — better mosquito control; real food inspection; thorough and adequate policing of water and milk supplies; more health education.

These are a few of the things that come under the head of true national health insurance, that are constructive, and do not create a nation of mendicants, neurotics and hypochondriacs, as do most known compulsory systems of "Sickness Insurance."

The 18th Of April . . . Big Day For Hilltop

Remember those famous lines of poetry . . .

"On the 18th of April, in '75 . . ." the date of the famous Paul Revere ride. This was an important date in the history of this country.

And what we hope turns out to be a very important date for the Hilltop will be the 18th of April . . . this time in 1948.

That is the date set for the every-home canvass of the Hilltop to secure membership for the Hilltop YMCA.

About 450 volunteer workers from the Hilltop are needed for about two hours that Sunday afternoon. If you haven't already been contacted why not offer your services for this good cause right now.

The Hilltop Y board sincerely believes several thousand memberships can be obtained that afternoon . . . enough to finance the first year's operation with a goodly amount left over to be applied to the building fund.

Let's be ready to make a contribution . . . and remember the date . . . the 18th of April . . . Two well known Hilltop men will open a floor covering store about April 1 in the room formerly occupied by Vance's Dept. Store, Terrace and Broad.

Sometimes the fellow who appears to be a man of steel turns out to be just solid brass.

Flowers Of The Week

Rosebud flowers to Cy Rawlings of the Hilltop Community Council for his successful efforts last week in getting enough citizens of the community down to city council to object to the placing of the new fire engine house in Westgate Park.

• • •

Short News Notes: Harley Sapp's new drive-in restaurant west of the city is due to open for business in another week . . . Dr. Nettie Miller, who packs them in nightly down at the revival services at Warren Avenue Church of the Nazarene, had an enthusiastic audience over at West High last week . . . Vernon Frederick is an organist of note . . . And then there was the guy they called Sanka because 99% of the active part of the bean had been removed . . . Bob Postle is a year older . . . It's just like the dawn patrol for Harry Haney . . . Last Monday morning the burglar alarm at his Roys-av store had a short circuit and went off and the same thing happened again in the early morning hours Tuesday . . . Joe Agee is sporting a new green Plymouth . . . The Gilbert Coffmans will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday with open house . . . Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Fox and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Saunders are Florida bound.

West High Boosters Open Scrap Metal Drive Here

Part of a nation-wide scrap metal drive was launched on the Hilltop this week by the West High Boosters Club. It was officially opened on Monday and is to continue through April 4.

Chairman of the drive is K. M. (Slim) Elder, 110 S. Southampton-av.

K. M. (Slim) Elder

Elder said that gasoline filling stations in the community were being asked to serve as depositories for the collection of scrap metal of all kinds. Every station so designated will have a poster advertising that fact. All proceeds from the sale of the metal will go into the treasury of the Boosters Club to be used for the promotion of athletics at West High School.

Metal of almost any type is acceptable in the drive. Persons are asked to bring the scrap to the stations where it will be picked up by trucks.

Elder said that in cases where a resident has no way to get scrap metal to a depository, arrangements could be made to have it picked up later with a truck. He can be reached at RA. 4133. Other Boosters members who may be called include Gilbert Buckingham, president of the club, RA. 3925, M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, RA. 2080, or Richard (Dick) Francis, RA. 0725.

The drive is being conducted as part of a nation-wide drive to get scrap metal back into the steel mills where it is badly needed in the production of more steel.

Hilltop Man Dies Following Crash

Jacob F. Mollencop, 73, of 115 N. Burgess-av, was fatally injured Friday morning when his auto sideswiped a truck in Riverside-dr, just south of Fishinger-rd and crashed into a tree.

Masonic rites were conducted in the Noble L. Allen Funeral Home Sunday night with regular services following on Monday morning. Burial was in Bucyrus.

Sheriff's deputies said that Mollencop lost control of his car after he sideswiped a truck which was also moving south on Riverside-dr. The car left the highway and struck a tree, almost completely demolishing it. He died a short time later in University Hospital.

Mr. Mollencop is survived by a son, Edward, of Charleston, W. Va.; a daughter, Mrs. Ernestine Rice of Zanesville; four grandsons and two sisters, both of Bucyrus.

George Wilson Buys Todd Drug Store

Sale of the Todd Drug Store, 2467 W. Broad-st, to George P. Wilson is being announced this week.

Mr. Wilson, a registered pharmacist, has been associated with Orr, Brown and Price Co., wholesale druggists for several years. Previous to that he was at one time employed at the Wolfe Pharmacy, Burgess and Broad-sts. He is a resident of Clintonville but states he hopes to be able to move his family to the Hilltop in the near future.

The store will be closed during the week of March 15-22 during which time it will be newly decorated and new lights installed.

S. S. Story, 86, is reported in poor condition at the home of a daughter, Mrs. William Rath, at Cincinnati this week. A son, Clarence Story, 208 N. Terrace-av, with whom he had been making his home until a short time ago, visited him Monday.

To Address Cage Followers

Robert L. Finch, director of public relations for the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, will be the speaker at the banquet Tuesday night honoring players and coaches of the West High School basketball team.

Finch

The dinner will be held at the Seneca Hotel, starting at 6:30 p. m. The West High Booster Club is sponsoring the affair. Tickets for the dinner are still available at $2 per plate.

M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, 335 Guernsey-av, is chairman of the event. Le Roy Weigand, 3181 W. Broad-st, will serve as toastmaster.

Mr. Finch is a graduate of Drake University and is a former secretary of the Drake Alumni Association. He at one time lectured on the Chautauqua Lyceum. Other positions which he has filled in the field of athletics include business manager of athletics at St. Louis University; vice-president of the St. Louis Cardinals' minor league system, and assistant to the president of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Legion Post To Dance St. Patrick's Day

A St. Patrick's Day dance will be held at the Camp Chase Post 98, American Legion Hall, W. Broad-st and Burgess-av, Wednesday evening, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

Members and friends of the post are invited to the party. Admission will be 75c per person. An orchestra will play for dancing.

Jack Alkire is chairman of the affair with Tom Lewis serving as co-chairman.

First Prospect Buys All Items

RECORD CLASSIFIED ADS DO GET RESULTS!

This fact was well exemplified recently in the case of Mrs. Ralph Decker, 249 Eureka-av. In the March 4 edition she advertised a baby bed, high chair, play pen and baby buggy. The first prospect, who called in person, was quick to see a bargain, and bought all four items.

Mrs. Decker later received numerous phone calls. You may place your ad by simply dialing Ra. 1125. And remember—the deadline is 9 a. m. Wednesday.

2 Basketball Games Benefit Kiwanis Club

Arrangements are being completed this week for the two basketball games to be put on at West High School Wednesday night for the benefit of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

The program will feature a girls' game between Hilltop's EUB's entry in the South Church League and Carl's AC team, made up of local girls. This team plays in the Independent Intermediate League.

The other game will match the Hilltop Kiwanis entry in the Glenwood Independent League with DS Athletic Club quintet from the Schiller Park Independent League.

Tickets for the affair are now in the hands of all Kiwanians at 50c each.

Laura Steele is captain of Carl's A. C. Team members are Julie Ammon, Rose Byrum, Corrine Taylor, Bonnie Barber, Donna Spring, Laura Steele, Sue Elleman, Mary Jo Dolby, Joan Mason, Barbara Clackio and Janet Patton.

Don Borror is captain of the Kiwanis quintet. Other players are Tom Vincent, Noble Allen, Jr., Dick Layne, Jack Woodruff, Sonny Sahr, Jack Hammett, Bill and Jack Buckingham.

The girls' game will get under way at 7:30 p. m. in the school gym.

Rev. Father Joseph Jerabeck, 348 Hinman-av, who was ordained to the priesthood last Saturday, will take his position as an assistant to Rev. Father Raymond Bauschard of the St. Mary Magdalene Parish today.

Rev. Father Kenneth Wise is also a member of the St. Mary Magdalene staff.

Rev. Father Leo Lawler, 337 S. Warren-av, who was also ordained last week, was assigned to St. Vincent de Paul's Church in Mt. Vernon, as assistant pastor.

HCC Will Plan Easter Egg Hunt

Plans for the annual Easter Egg Hunt will be discussed at a meeting of the Hilltop Community Council tonight at the Teen Club, W. Broad-st and Burgess-av.

This affair, held in Glenwood Park, has annually attracted several hundred boys and girls.

Minstrel Song Bird

JINX JORDAN, popular Hilltop blues singer, will fill one of the featured spots in the 19th Annual Hilltop Minstrels to be held at West High School Auditorium three nights—March 31, April 1 and 2. Reserved seat tickets will go on sale at the Lowell Sullivan Insurance Office, 2211 W. Broad-st, starting Wednesday noon. There will be no general admission seats this year.

Brinker-Sullivant-av Site Proposed For Hilltop's New Fire Station

The northwest corner of Brinker and Sullivant-avs will be recommended as the site for the Hilltop's new fire house, Chief Clarence W. Ogborn told The Hilltop Record Wednesday morning.

The recommendation will go before City Council Monday night and it is expected that favorable action will be taken.

Chief Ogborn stated that he believed that the three adjoining lots there could be purchased for less than was asked for two lots at the previously considered Roys and Sullivant-av site. ($15,000 had been asked for that site.) The Brinker location offers 156 feet of Sullivant-av frontage with a depth of 140 feet plus a 16-foot alley.

"I believe it would make a very desirable location for the new fire house," Chief Ogborn said.

Melvin Marcum Is Found Dead In Car

Melvin Marcum, 280 N. Southampton-av, was found dead in his car early Wednesday in front of the Southampton-av address.

Coroner Mitchell Spyker was to make a report on the case later in the day. It is believed that death was caused by carbon monoxide poisoning.

Funeral arrangements are being completed by the Noble Allen Funeral Home, 2456 W. Broad-st.

Minstrel Ticket Sale Will Open Wednesday Noon

Get your ticket early, folks!

That's the warning of Hilltop Minstrel followers as reserved seat tickets go on sale next Wednesday noon at the office of Lowell Sullivan Insurance Company, 2211 W. Broad-st.

Unlike other years, there will be no general admission ticket sale for the 19th annual show scheduled to play at the West High School Auditorium on March 31 and April 1 and 2. Thus any person buying a ticket will be assured of a seat.

The ducats are 85c each, including tax, with a limit of 20 tickets to any one person in line. The ticket sale is beginning 10 days earlier than in previous years so there will not be that last minute scramble for reserved seats.

Another innovation this year makes it possible for members of the show cast to purchase six reserved seats before the tickets are offered to the public. This makes it possible for those in the show to get seats for their immediately families without standing in line.

Tickets will be kept on sale each day so long as the supply lasts.

Wilson School To Get New Signal System

Wilson School will soon have a new electric clock and signal system. Approval of the school PTA was given this week for the installation expected to cost in the neighborhood of $75.

The clock will be located in the corridor. It will automatically ring dismissal and assembly bells both inside and outside the building. It will be the first such system installed in Franklin Township schools.

Elzie Radcliffe, 1532 W. Broad-st, is principal of the school.

Hilltop Horsebook Is Raided Tuesday

Police vice squad men Tuesday raided a horse book in the basement of 2368 W. Broad-st.

Taken into custody was Frank Matney, 38, who gave his address as 1167 S. High-st. Eight patrons of the establishment were released after a lecture from police officers.

Patrolmen Arthur Barleycorn, Richard Corbin and Louis Hauesen made the arrest. Matney was released on $200 bond pending his later appearance in Police Court.

Hinton Resigns After 9 Days

A Hilltop man took over the office of Chief of the Columbus Police Department Wednesday morning following the resignation of Howard B. Hinton.

He is Charles M. Berry, 401 Midland-av, head of the Juvenile and Social Bureau, and a veteran of 25 years with the department. Chief Berry had scored the second highest grade in civil service examinations given last month.

The resignation of Chief Hinton came as a surprise. He had assumed the duties of chief on March 1 following the retirement of Chief Lester Merica. His sudden decision to return to his captaincy gave the city its third police chief in 10 days.

Chief Berry was one of four applicants for the post. His work in recent years has been with the young people, a field of police work that has gained him national recognition. He joined the force May 16, 1933 and was promoted to sergeant in 1934. He became a lieutenant in 1942 and was made a captain in 1944, achieving the highest grade on the list of each examination.

Red Cross Is Past Halfway Mark Here

Red Cross solicitors on the Hilltop and West Side were doubling their efforts this week to put the drive over the top before March 15.

At the Wednesday noon report this week the Valley Unit, headed by Mrs. Harold C. Kay, 91 Schultz-av, had reached 75 per cent of its goal while the Hilltop workers had made 56 per cent of their goal. The Hilltop solicitation is headed by Mrs. James O. Arnold, 287 S. Sylvan-av, as colonel, and Mrs. C. W. Vance, 3023 Palmetto-st, as co-colonel.

The Valley Unit's report showed $1150 collected on a goal of $1500. On the Hilltop, $1256 was reported on a quota of $2250.

The quota for Franklin County is $298,000. The victory dinner is scheduled to be held next Tuesday.

Additional workers in the Hilltop area were added after the list published in last week's Hilltop Record had been released. They include:

Mesdame Warren C. Leake, 204 S. Richardson-av; Richard Francis, 370 S. Richardson-av; Otto H. Lause, 758 S. Tetrace-av; Lorenzo H. Fyffe, 810 S. Terrace-av; George J. Lamneck, 632 S. Richardson-av; and Fred L. Dinsch, 660 S. Richardson-av.

Accepts Church

Rev. Driscoll

Rev. Carl A. Driscoll, director of Christian Education and Youth Work for the Ohio Synod of the United Lutheran Church for the past three years, has resigned his post in order to become pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Dover, O.

He will not leave Columbus until the middle of June.

Driscoll and his family, who reside at 581 Salisbury-rd, came here from Dayton in January, 1945, to head up the educational program in 277 congregations of the Synod.

In addition to his work with Sunday Schools and Luther Leagues, he had directed the Synod's summer camp near Mansfield and edited a monthly synodical paper.

Mrs. Driscoll is active in the John Burroughs PTA, and leader of the Girl Scout Troop 149. Since January she has been serving as the neighborhood chairman of the Hilltop.

VFW Post, Auxiliary To Have Election

The meeting will start at 8 p. m.

HBA Accepts 5 New Members

Five new members were voted into the Hilltop Business Association at the March meeting held at Westgate Methodist Church Tuesday night.

The new members are Dr. Hugh C. Dorr, Dr. Paul M. Pontius, Hilltop Delivery Service, Modern Printing Company and Robert Milstead.

The association heard an address stressing the need for research and development of the synthetic oil and gas production from coal. The speaker was Oscar Wieckers, a member of the sales staff of the Red Jacket Coal Company, and spokesman for the Bituminous Coal Institute.

His address was followed by a 20-minute movie entitled "The Magic of Coal."

The speaker pointed out that with an abundance of coal, Ohio should have a pilot plant working toward the reduction of coal to synthetic fuels in face of the rapidly dwindling supply of oil and gas reserves.

The Hilltop YMCA - - -

"Of The Hilltop, By The Hilltop, For The Hilltop"

Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of questions and answers to be printed in the Record in order to better acquaint the community with the plan of operation of the Hilltop YMCA, the background, and future of the program. Questions from readers will be welcomed and we will attempt to secure the answers.

Q. Why is a branch YMCA being established here?

A. Over a year ago representatives of 29 organizations were called together to discuss a community recreation program. Out of this group a committee was named and instructed to proceed with an investigation of the need of such a program and what form it should take. The committee reported back after several weeks of investigation and stated clearly there was the need of a supervised recreation program here and that they felt the Hilltop would support it.

Q. Why did the committee decide on the YMCA rather than some other organization or a local organization?

A. The committee felt that the establishment of a branch "Y" here would not only provide the community with the best possible supervised program but would be enlisting the support of an organization with background and history and at the same time would be providing for continuity of the organization once it is established. The thing that has resulted in failure for strictly locally operated programs of this type has been the lack of professional and trained supervision and personnel. The Hilltop YMCA will have the benefit of professional personnel in its operation.

Q. Will the Hilltop YMCA be a Hilltop project or will it be governed by the Central "Y"?

A. The Hilltop "Y" will be "of the Hilltop, by the Hilltop and for the Hilltop." The branch will be affiliated with the Central YMCA but will be governed entirely by the Hilltop "Y" Board, elected from membership of local people.

Q. Will the Central YMCA dictate and control policies of the local branch?

A. No. All policies will be formulated by the Hilltop board insofar as they conform to the principles established by the national "Y" organization.

Q. Will there be headquarters established here to house the office of the Hilltop "Y"?

A. Yes. An exact location for the Hilltop "Y" office and headquarters will be announced in the Record in the next week or so.

Q. Without a building containing club rooms, gym, etc., what can the "Y" do to provide a program for our young people?

A. Until such time as adequate quarters can be provided that will include the above, the Hilltop "Y" executive secretary will conduct a coordinated program of activities using the facilities of local schools, churches, playgrounds, etc. Several offers of these facilities have already been received.

Q. When do you expect to get the program started?

A. As soon as an executive secretary is hired. Several candidates for this position, all men having five years or more experience in "Y" work, are in the process of being interviewed. It is anticipated that the program will actually get under way about the middle of May.

Q. Will the Hilltop YMCA be for boys only?

A. Absolutely not. The program will contain as many activities for girls as it does for boys. Past experience in the South Side branch shows that nearly as many girls participated in the activities as did the boys.

Watch the Record next week for further questions and answers.

Volunteer workers to assist in the fund campaign to be conducted on Sunday, April 18, are needed. If you can help just call Ra. 1125.

As 1948 Auto Tags Go On Sale Here

Those 1948 auto tags are on the "must" list for every motorist during the month of March. In the above Record photo Rev. C. F. Lutz, 2632 Sullivant-av, pastor of the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, is shown holding the first passenger car plates issued at Robinson's Electric Store, 2403 W. Broad-st, on March 1.

Russell Henry, manager of the store and deputy registrar for the year-round sale of license plates and drivers' applications and permits for autos, trucks, trailers, etc., looks on as Mrs. Louise Balser, right, completes the sale.

Henry reports that license plate sales are running 13 per cent ahead of the comparable period last year. All proceeds from the license plate sale go to support the work of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

MEATS

In the past several weeks, we have been told by different customers that we are being imitated and copied after. That makes us feel proud that we have achieved such a prominent place that others want to pattern after us.

As for ourselves, we stand on our own prices and we do not let anyone set the pace and then follow after. Rather, we are glad to be the leader bringing our customers good home-killed meat at lower prices. And be assured, if someone else can sell it a 5c a pound, we will it at 4c.

A February Bride

Mrs. Richard C. Jones

Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church was decorated with greenery and candelabra on the evening of Feb. 6, for the open church wedding of Miss Louise Henery to Mr. Richard C. Jones. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. A. J. Wold at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride made her home with her sister, Mrs. Hugh Dhume, 151 S. Wheatland-av. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jones, 33 N. Hague-av.

For her marriage the bride chose a gown of heavy white satin, with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, a long circular train and long sleeves which came to points over the hands. A halo of seed pearls and flowers held her fingertip veil of illusion in place.

She carried her mother's Bible topped with a bridal bouquet of white roses and carnations. Her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Hugh Dhume was her sister's matron of honor in pink taffeta. She wore mitts and a hat of matching pink net. Her bouquet was of green shattered carnations.

Mr. Charles Jones attended the bridegroom as best man. Seating the guests were Mr. Bill Wilson and Mr. Robert Penn.

Miss Edith Pedrick, at the organ, presented a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of navy blue print, with navy accessories, for the occasion. Her corsage was of pink shattered carnations.

A reception for 50 guests was held immediately following the service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whipple, 2602 Valleyview-dr. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Hugh Dhume, Mrs. Thomas G. Cline and Mrs. Fred Dickendesher.

The new Mrs. Jones changed to a teal blue afternoon dress with grey accessories, and pinned a corsage from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder, before leaving for a short wedding trip.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Jones are graduates of West High School. She is employed as secretary to the manager of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills, while her husband is associated with the Western Electric Co. He served two years with the navy in the South Pacific.

The couple is now at home at 1078 Oak-st.

Hilltop Mother Writes Of Experiences And Conditions She Finds In Italy

EDITOR'S NOTE: The letter published below was written by Mrs. Hazel Butte, formerly of 160 N. Powell-av. She and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Velma Butte, left the Hilltop Oct. 28, 1947, to join her son, Lt. Charles Butte, who is with the United States Army Graves Registration Service in Europe.

Netterno, Italy
Feb. 18, 1948

The Hilltop Record:

Just a few lines to let you know that to date we have received six copies of the Record. The last one was dated in December. I am surely looking forward to the rest of the copies and hope they arrive a little more promptly.

A little about our trip to Italy—we left New York on the General Muir on Nov. 3, at 4:30 p. m. It was a nice sunny but cool day. It took us 11 days on the water but we were delayed on our arrival on account of bad weather our last day and night out at sea. We had about three bad days and the rest were lovely, especially when we arrived in the Mediterrancan waters. It was very warm and we all acquired quite a sun tan as we spent most all our daylight hours in our steamer chairs on deck.

We were fortunate in having just a few of our passengers get seasick. On the last few days they were able to be up and enjoyed the rest of the trip with us. They were all very congenial people and had 17 dependents and a retired General and Mrs. Sunderland on our ship. So we all got to be one happy family before our arrival in Italy. There were four children ranging from one year to 12 years in age.

The General Muir was the ship that brought the Boy Scouts back from their Jamboree in Europe last year. It was going to have quite a passenger list on its return trip as they expected to have about 2200 enlisted men and officers returning to the United States.

We passed the Rock of Gibraltar on a very lovely day and got a nice view of it as it was about noon when we first had a glimpse of it. The sight was very impressive. We arrived in Leghorn, Italy, Nov. 14 at about 4 p. m. and watched almost in awe how so large a ship was able to dock in such a small place. But I guess it only looked so small because we were rather high up on deck.

We had lovely staterooms. My daughter-in-law (Mrs. Velma Butte) and I shared the same room. It had a nice tile bath. Our meals were all very tasty.

It took about an hour and a half after our boat docked before we left the ship. All the passports had to be checked by Italian officers and money had to be changed and then an Italian dignitary handed us each a very lovely corsage of flowers—red carnations and daffodils.

All the officers whose wives were aboard came out in the harbor on a tug to greet their families and to get some snapshots. We stayed at the Terminus Hotel in Leghorn that night and the next day our car was delivered to us as it was on the same ship. We then continued on our trip to Rome—about 200 miles over very narrow and mountainous roads. It was quite an experience to see how these people over here drive as their laws are not very well kept or enforced. Our speed laws of 35 and 50 miles per hour seem to be outdated over here. But you see very few accidents. The way they blow their horns continuously almost deafens a person. Of course their cars all or most all have right hand drives.

We stopped at a restaurant and had our lunch at Grosetto, Italy. We stayed at the Plaza Hotel on the night of Nov. 15 and met several officers and their wives. Nov. 16 we came to Netterno, where my son is stationed as commanding officer at Graves Registration office. We have a lovely five-room apartment with bath, directly across from Villa headquarters on the Tyrean Sea. So soon we will be using the beach here as it is now between 70 and 80 degrees although the evenings are very cool. We can see snow on the mountains not too far away.

Italy is building up, especially where we are, as Anzio and Netterno are summer resorts and they depend on this trade as their main source of income. These towns are like Columbus and Grandview back home—in one and out of the other. There are large villas all along the coast here and some were very badly damaged in Anzio as that was one of the beach heads in Italy. Salerno was the other.

It rains very easily here in Italy, especially during January and February. There are a lot of leather shops here and all seem to do a good business.

We passed the building where Mussolini made his speeches and saw the balcony, also the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier of World War I. It is a very lovely marble building with solid gold statues on it. We also saw Julius Caesar's Forum. This takes up an entire city block and contains Rome's history. The city was built on the old Ruins. The churches are all very beautiful and the paintings are all being restored to the museums.

Took a trip to southern Italy from Rome to Naples to Salerno and Pasteum and passed several large orange and tangerine orchards. The trees were hanging full of ripe fruit. There were also some figs and olives ripening on the trees.

There is an Italian orphanage about a mile from where we live. Most of the children are from this last war. There are about 400 children. They are taught by nuns and priests.

We have seen three United States Military Cemeteries here in Italy — one in Naples, Pasteum and Cemetery in Pasteum has a lovely background of mountains and not too far away in front of the sea. Lovely white roses are planted in it. The Military Cemetery in Naples is on a high hill and one can look almost all over Naples. The cemetery in Netterno is in a valley. All are very well kept. There is much work being done at all these places.

We do not know a lot about buying food stuffs as we still have our meals at the villa but the goods at department stores runs a lot higher than our prices in the United States. There is not a lot of schooling here in Italy. It is such a pity. If the people were better educated, things would be a lot easier for them. The children in the cities have only five years of compulsory education but they all have to walk back and forth to school. I believe this is one of the biggest drawbacks.

All children have to wear uniforms—either white or black with Peter Pan collars. They hang straight down from the shoulders somewhat like a smock. They go early in the morning and stay all day.

We are studying Italian and can get by but still have a lot of grammar to learn. We have a German professor teaching my daughter-in-law and myself.

Well, I believe this is all the news at present and hope to get the Records soon.

Girls Show Athletic Ability March 12

By Casey

Yea, Sophomores! Yea, Juniors! Yea, Seniors!

This is just one of the many cheers you'll hear at the annual girls' basketball tournament to be held Friday, March 12, at 7:30 P. M. in the West High gym.

One of the events in store is the announding of Miss Senior, elected Queen of the Senior class.

The Sophomore, Junior, and Senior class will be represented by twelve players each.

These girls first competed in a preliminary contest to select the top 24 of each class. Ohio State judges selected the final twelve to compose each team.

Four girls will represent each team as cheerleaders and one girl will be selected by the team as manager.

Following is a list of the teams, cheerleaders and managers.

Sophomores: Elaine Vandenender (captain), Betty Roederer (assistant captain), Margie Smith, Pat Bennett, Mary Beeson, Lois Janes, Betty Walker, Dot Penny, Dody Sanderson and Joanne Shirley Schwind, Mary Ann Ross, Olpp. The manager and the cheerleaders are not yet selected.

Juniors: Janet Patton (Captain), Jerry Woehrle (Assistant Captain), Dot Starkey, Nancy Boyle, Shirley Lyle, Mary Lewis, Orchie Binkley, Dot Manring, Jean McDaniel, Vergene Braithwaite, Mary Lou Dawson, and Shirley Cline. Mary Jones has been selected as manager but as yet the cheerleaders are unknown.

Seniors: Laura Steele (Captain), Barbara Clarkin (Assistant Captain), Barbara Vina, Corrine Taylor, Billie Lombard, Donna Spring, Rose Byrum, Ella Mae Carter, Martha Smith, Martha Dietsch, Nancy Merrick, Joyce Miller, and Jeanzine George (Manager). Mary Jo Delby, Jinny Casey, Jo Mason, and Shirley Thurrell are the cheerleaders.

The teams and cheerleaders will be introduced in an assembly next week.

The following girls will sell tickets the night of the tournament: Helen Braun, Joyce Leiter, Marian Martin, and Baileen Gary.

Tickets will be taken at the door by Vera Smith, Marilyn Jackson, Barbara Stewart, Shirley Bailey, Joan Duffy, Sue Elleman, Phyllis Plank, and Pat Mefford.

Come on, kids, get on the beam.
Buy tickets to see the basketball teams.

Come and see all the girls,
With their long and pretty curls.

Incidentally besides having long curls these girls can really show you a good basketball game.

By Dave Miller

A three-way tie for first place in the West Church Intermediate League Tuesday night when Burgess took its second straight defeat, this time at the hands of West Par Methodi.s West Park Methodist.

Arrangements are now being made for playoffs between Burgess EUB, West Park Methodist and Hoge Memorial. The score on the West Park-Burgess game was 22 to 17 while Hoge was defeat- in Glenwocd, 35 to 23.

In the feature attraction, Burgess took an early lead but soon dropped behind after a couple of good shots by the Methodists. It was the third setback for Burgess, two of them coming in the crucial Class A playoffs.

In the Class B playoffs Tuesday evening St. Aloysius took a 31 to 28 thriller from Riverside Methodist. It was a nip and tuck affair from start to finish with neither team holding the lead for very long. Salvation Army finished off the Class B playoffs by downing Westgate EUB 42 to 27. West Park Wins Title In West Senior Church Loop

By Dave Miller

West Park edged out Avondale 27 to 23, to win the West Senior Church League title in a game played at Glenwood gym Monday night.

The winners kept a good lead throughout the contest, and each time their oppdnents came close to tying the count, they pulled away in time.

In the other Class "A" game of the evening, Westgate, current second placers in the playoffs, took an easy 51 to 36 over fourth-place Avondale. Ralph Watts paved the way for the winners while Crawford helped the losers' cause.

Hoge Memorial took another runaway game from Indianola Church of Christ by a 41 to 19 score. The winners were never seriously threatened throughout the game after holding a good lead at halftime. Don Borror played his usual good game for Hoge No. 1.

The final game of the night in the Class "B" saw Holy Family edge out a 26 to 21 win over Hoge Memorial No. 2. It was a see-saw game all the way until the final moments of the game when the ultimate winners pulled away to a final lead.

A protest turned in by Hoge Memorial No. 1 was allowed by the City Protest Board at a meeting Thursday. Hoge Memorial No. 2 used an ineligible player, Carl Hosler, against the No. 1 team.

Cowboys Are Eliminatted From Tourney Play By South Bulldogs After Win Over Linden

Basketball equipment went back into the mothballs for another year out at West High School this week as the Cowboys bowed out of the Central District Tourney Saturday night.

After getting by Linden McKinley Friday night, Coach George Williams' boys dropped a 56 to 45 decision to the South Bulldogs before more than 5,000 fans in the Coliseum. It was the second defeat West has suffered at the hands of South this year. In regular play the Bulldogs routed the Cowboys to the tune of 65-51 in the first round of play but the Hilltoppers came back to even the count with a 63-52 win in the second round.

Walter Hicks, Paul Theisen and Chuck Weeks teamed up to hand the Panthers their third defeat (at the hands of West) this year in the Friday night win. Theisen topped the individual scoring with 14 points, closely followed by Hicks and Weeks with 13 each.

Playing on even terms through the first period, the Cowboys were sparked by the fast-breaking Hicks as they piled up an eight-point lead at halftime. Although Panthers Fisher and Bruzese tried desperately to whittle down the West lead in the second half, the Cowboys were never in serious trouble.

Rangy Harry Nicholson of South proved to be the thorn in the Cowboys' side in the Saturday night contest as he repeatedly kept his team in the running with keen shooting eye.

Leading 23 to 22 at the halftime, the Hilltoppers could never get out in front during the remainder of the game. The count was knotted at 36 all in the final canto when Nicholson poured in three quick buckets to turn the tide.

Paul Theisen again did yeoman service as he stripped the nets for 10 baskets and six free throws but his efforts were not enough to stop the rugged Bulldogs. Scoring for West was limited to three men. In addition to Theisen, Hicks made 12 tallies and Dick Culbertson 9.

The defeat of West Saturday night marked the fall of the first seeded team in the tourney. In games scheduled for Wednesday night, Newark was to go against Central's City League winners while Grandview engaged the Bulldogs. Finals will be played at the Coliseum Friday night.

Allen Silbaugh To Be Kiwanis Speaker

Allen Sillbaugh of Lancaster, will be on the program at today's luncheon meeting of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club in what has been designated as lieutenant governor's day.

In 150 years we have destroyed 80% of our finest forests, George Emmett, of the Ohio Division of Conservation and Natural Resources, pointed out at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club last Thursday noon.

He further stated that there are two million acres in southern Ohio that need to be reforested at present.

Pointing to the need of conservation of our top soil he stated that a million tons of top soil are dropped down the Mississippi into the gulf each day and that we are rapidly reaching a place where we will not have sufficient soil for the growth of food to support our population.

Thelma Creasap Ellis Passes Screen Test

Friends of Thelma (Creasap) Ellis will be interested to learn that she recently passed a screen test and is expected to be working in motion pictures before long.

The former local girl was one of 50 successful apolicants from a field of over 500. Her mother is Mrs. Mary Creasap, 57 N. Wheatland-av.

Thelma graduated form Watkins High School, attended Bliss Business College here in Columbus and graduated with honors from the Little Rock School of Cosmetology. Her husband is S. S. Ellis, a graduate of Ohio State University, at present a practicing attorney in Cincinnati.

If you're going to look far ahead, be sure you know where your feet are hitting.

Local Angler Makes Nice Catch

Among the Hilltoppers who struck it lucky at fishing off the Florida shores this winter is John Davis, owner of the Hilltop Riding Academy.

The sailfish, shown in the foreground, weighed 55 pounds. The barnadios and dophins averaged from 10 to 20 pounds each.

West Swimmers Undefeated In Eight Aquatic Events

Another successful athletic season has been brought to a close at West High School.

In this instance it is the swimming team that has brought honors to the local school. The tankmen, coached by Jody Gram, won all of their regular meets with the exception of a tie with North, placed third in the district meet and 10th in the state meet.

New emphasis has been placed on the indoor sports as more boys indicate an interest in swimming in spite of the handicap of not having a pool on the Hilltop for winter use.

This is the first time in recent years that West has placed boys in the state meet. The 200-yard free style relay team made up of Green, Hershberger, Wolfe and Sherman, finished fifth in the meet held Saturday.

In the district event West took two seconds ,two thirds, a fourth and a fifth. Local winners in the district meet were as follows:

50-yard free style, Sherman, second; 200-yard free style, Bolin, fourth, and Green, fifth; 100-yard free style, Wolfe, third; 150-yard medley relay, Bolin, Mowrey, Hershberger, second; 200-yard free style relay, Green, Hershberger, Wolfe, and Sherman, third place. All of the above boys were thus qualified for the state events.

The Cowboy tankmen piled up a total of 354 points to 263 for their opponents during the season. The scoring on the various meets was as follows:

West, 54, Arlington, 44, Rosary, 18.
West, 45, University, 30, Academy, 0.
West, 45, Aquinas, 30.
West, 42, St. Charles, 33.
West, 34, North, 34. (tie)
West, 49, Bexley, 19.
West, 47, South, 25.
West, 38, Grandview, 30.

New swim suits and robes were presented to the team just recently by the West High Boosters Club.

Individual scoring during the season showed Louis Wolfe piling up 61 points to lead the Cowboys The individual records follow:

Louis Wolfe	61
Tom Green	49
Dick Hershberger	43
Mike Mowrey	43
Ronald Bolin	43
Dick Sherman	39

Bill McCrady	18
Steve Howesion	9
Bob Burnett	5
Larry Gossett	4

Plans Are Complete For Triangular Meet

Newark and Chillicothe will take part in a triangular track meet with West High School at Mosely Field on May 18, it was announced this week by Coach Rufe Glass.

Two open dates remain to be filled on the 1948 schedule at this time, Glass said. Preparations are being made for a big Hilltop Relays at the local field on May 11. This will be the second year for this all-city track event. Last year the affair drew an enthusiastic crowd.

Fishing License Sale Is Brisk Over State

Ohio fishermen stood in line throughout the state this past week at hardware, sporting goods, and grocery counters, where the bulk of the state's threequarters of a million fishing licenses are sold, to secure the new 1948 license which became effective March 1.

Each spring the first warm days attract early spring anglers to Ohio's streams and lakes to match wits with the hungry fish stirred by the first hint of warm weather.

Conservation Commissioner H. A. Rider announced this week that Ohio stood fourth last year in the United States in the sale of fishing licenses with a total of 669,613. Michigan was first with a sale of 989,333, California second with 848,446 and Minnesota third with 765,335. Ohio, however, in fishing license revenue stood 10th because of the unusually low cost of a license to fish with an income of $680,364 compared to California in first place with a fishing license income of $1,718,066.

9A's Winners Over Next Year's Cage Hopefuls

By Dave Miller

Since West Junior High's basketball season has ended, there was the annual 9B-9A grade game played Monday afternoon. With Ray Wakeman scoring 19 points, the graduating class of 9A's won over their rivals by a 25 to 20 score.

Coach Lehman reports that the following boys will receive varsity letters: Ken Anderson, Dave Caton, George Crissinger, Paul Ellingsworth, Jerry Johnson, Ron McElwee, Dave Miller, Jerry Fry, Bill Scuth, Eugene Thompson, Paul Thompson and Dick Wray. Reserves letters will go to Douglas Clark, Glenn Hays, Dick Hutchinson and Walt Meredith.

Ray Wakeman, stellar West Junior guard, who last week received six out of 10 votes for the Junior-High All City team, totaled 35 quarters this year out of the 40 played. Wakeman's ability was not found out until the second game at Crestview, his first full game, in which he collected 10 points to take scoring honors. Wakeman barely edged out the mid-year graduate star, Paul Ellingsworth, for the scoring honors of the team. Ellingsworth tallied as many buckets in the five games he played in, but was 10 free throws behind Wakeman.

In the prelim to the 9B-9A affair, Lehman had a good chance to view his up and coming boys in action. If everything works out for the best, the West Junior team may equal or better the fine team they had this past season. Doug Clark tossed in a bunny to win a thrilling double-overtime for his team, the seventh-graders, by a 37 to 35 count.

The scoring for the West Junior High team is as follows:

Name	B.	Ft.	Tp.
Wakeman	28	18	74
*Ellingsworth	28	8	64

Business Men's League Hot

The pins tipples plenty fast Thursday as the Business Men took their mark at 6:30. Paul Kauderer, of Schroeck's Service, hit his stride for a 244 while his opponent, Jack Franken, was coming through with 242. Jack had the high series of 634. Other good individual scores were George Kanavel's 622, Bob Barok's 608, Charles Neeshan's 613, and Milt Banning's 622. Shank and Saunders stole the three game series with games of 966, 970 and 983 for a grand 2919. Even with these good games they still lost the middle game to Schroeck's Service, who rolled 1038.

Ardle

Gen. Graham topped the Hilltop Ladies with 219-545. Some of the other ladies were coming through with good scores also. Dip Shaw had 212, Mary Harrity, 201, Lucille Price, 207, and Dot Rowe had 200. Seiller's had the best team games, 856 and 2456.

Kenny Shaw, David Davies, anchor man blasted the pins in the Recreation League as he hit games of 226, 224 and 206 for a grand 658 total. David Davies had the best single team game with a 1023 while Seiller's had the three game total of 2845.

Marian Allen, Mary Lou Beauty Salon, had the high single game of 210 in the Pastime League, while Lucy Whalen was hitting 203-513. Crafts took both team honors with 798-2317.

The Commercial League found J. Reaver having the best night with 214-587 while Tiny's Mkt. was hitting 914 and Wahl Builders 2617 for the best team effort.

Hilltop Van and Storage swept up all the honors in the Friendship League as Ruth Perry hit 220-552. The team had 846-2477.

Kenny Morris came through with 222 and 597 to top the Tuesday Nighters while Home Bakery, the league leading team, had 918-2589.

Friday night found Perry White of Tawco Products coming up with 235 for the best single game while Bob Volz was taking three game honors with 585.

Viola Ritzmann's 149 was the high single game in the Seiller's Girl Brand Boosters League but she had to share the high series with Lois Waters as they both come through with 407.

In the Seiller's Boys Brand Boosters it was the Harold brothers, Gene and Eddie, who really looked good. Gene had 221-513, while Eddie was coming through with 202-552.

We think congratulations are in order for Paul Leighninger of Seiller's Department Store. Paul was presented the Eagle's Civic Award for Meritorious Service for his service in local youth athletics. Leighninger is co-owner of Seiller's Department Store. He sponsors a teen age boy's and girl's bowling league at the Hilltop alleys.

Congratulations Paul!

Marking Time

Cy: "What are you doing these days?"
Ty: "Working in a clock factory."
Cy: "What's your job?"
Ty: "Making faces."

Two men were traveling on a motorcycle on a windy winter day. The breeze was too much for one of them, and he turned his overcoat backwards to keep the wind from blowing into the opening. A few miles farther they ran into a tree. The driver was killed and the man with the overcoat was stunned. A crowd gathered. "What happened?" asked a doctor of a rookie policeman.

"Well," the officer replied, "one of them was dead when I got here, and by the time I got the head of the other one straightened around, he was dead, too."

They Will Present Magic Show

The Mierres are adept in the art of baffling their audiences with their tricks of magic. They are much in demand at dinner parties, banquets and church and school entertainments.

Grove City Edges Rome Senior; St. Matthew, Hope No. 2 Undefeated

By Dave Miller

Grove City edged out Rome Senior in the top pairing of the evening at John Burroughs gym, Monday night, 37 to 35.

It was a nip and tuck affair all the way with the ultimate winners holding the lead throughout most of the game. With nine seconds remaining, Weber of the Rome five tossed in a goal from far out. Then the losers started up a terrific fight for the possession of the ball. Finally getting it with two seconds remaining, Klise attempted another goal, just gliding off the rim and ending the contest of one of the most thrilling games this season.

For Grove City, Bumgardner got 12, Kennedy collected 10 and Grassley totaled seven. Klise topped the scoring for the losing quintet with five goals for 10 markers. The score was knotted at 17-all at the end of the half-time intermission.

St. Matthew clinched undefeated honors in the Intermediate "E" League as they defeated Center for the ninth trouncing. The Matthews downed their opponents by a 33 to 25 score in a rough game. Holding a 12-6 halftime margin, the winners started pouring in buckets from all around. Bill Ott, fifth top scorer in the Lutheran Intermediate League, plunked in 13 points to knock his total to 90 points. James, of the same five, played a swell game and counted 10 points. Wright and Dellanbach scored 14 points together to aid the losing cause. It was Dellanbach's final goals in the waning moments that kept Center in the game.

The other two meetings of the evening saw Hilltop defeat St. John No. 2, 34 to 17, after holding a 14 to 5 intermission lead. St. John No. 1 poured the heat on Hope No. 2 with a 51 to 3 win over their opponents. Also in this pairing, the losers were held pointless in the final half while St. John tallied 20 points.

Ted Fladt, Harry Bradley, Ray Harper, Russ Friend and Dick Briggs scored 22, 10, 8, 4 and 4 points respectively.

In the Hilltop-St. John game, Dave Lazenby got 20 points while his teammate of Hillton, Bob Alford, was getting six. John Messervey got six markers to top the losers.

In a game played at Olentangy Park by the other two teams in the League, Clinton Heights nosed out Bethlehem, 28 to 22.

Bob Anderson scored 20 points and Lestef Sass got a bucket for the Hilltoppers.

HARMONY AND RESPONSIBILITY are two things that make for health, whether you're speaking of an individual, a business or a country. But—harmony cannot exist in any body that constantly changes its "mind", regime, principles and habits.

Human beings need mental landmarks, by which they can steer their daily course. They need to live by natural laws for bodily health, and the laws of society (or experience) for harmony.

The words "security", "welfare" and "duty" are fluently used by dictators, and have long been associated with compulsion — from without.

Responsibility is a word closely allied with freedom, because it implies freedom of choice, action and decision, made within your own brain . . . Freedom always carries with it great personal responsibility, whether you're speaking of freedom from illness—or freedom from political chaos.

Cub Pack 33

Cub Pack 33, sponsored by the Westgate Methodist Church, will hold a pack meeting this Friday evening at the church. The parents are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served by the Married Methodist Class. There will be sound pictures. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m.

A farmer who had spent his life in the country, retired and moved to the city. On the first morning in their new home, his wife said: "Well, Pa, it's about time you started the fire."

"Not me!" he replied, nestling down deeper in bed. "We might as well start right now getting used to all the city conveniences. Call the fire department!"

People find it easier to cheer or to boo than to think.

On March 20, at 2 p. m., the Cubs will compete in a kite flying contest on the St. Mary Magdalene field on Powell-av. Cubs are to make bird houses this month for the achievement award. The awards will be made at the Pack meeting April 2. The winning bird house will be on display in Campbell's Drug Store window April 5.

Troop 214

Troop 214 was entertained at its last meeting by Mick Spangler, who gave a talk on dentistry and care of teeth. He told the boys many interesting things.

The boys are really going to town on merit badges; they handed in 20 applications at one meeting.

Pack Meeting Held

Last Thursday Cub Scout Pack 214 held a "Blue and Gold" pack meeting.

Rev. Father Wise, chaplain for the pack, gave an inspiring talk on "Cubbing and the Church." Ralph Vogal gave the boys some very valuable suggestions for their coming project.

Each den presented a present of their handy-work to the pack. Special award for the outstanding present went to Den 3.

Individual awards for plaques made by the cubs went to James Walters and Joseph Reis.

With impressive candlelight service Wolf badges were awarded to James Sexton, William Sexton, Richard O'Reilly, Jack Armor and Robert Wertz, Wolf and Bear badges were given to Garry Gibson and Robert Wertz.

Attendance award went to Den 2. This is the fifth time Den 2 has earned the award since the pack's organization last May.

Den 3 surprised the pack by presenting a musical number. Jack Keefer, Jim Van Horn and Bob Sifferlin played the accompaniment on saxophones and clarinet while James and John Segbers, Jerry Howard and Fritz Kegelmeyer sang "Hail The Gang's All Here" and "Happy Birthday" to the pack in honor of the anniversary of cubbing.

The new den, No. 7, was introduced. Mrs. John Stack is den mother. Charles King is den chief. Members of the den are David Howe, Richard Sweeny, Jack Armour, James Vogal, Jack Wintle, Jack Stack and David Tonti.

The committee wishes to compliment the Den Mothers, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Hoffman Mrs. Mulragon, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Stack and acting den mothers, Mrs. Howels, Mrs. Van Horn and Mrs. Kegelmeyer, for their splendid work.

Cub Pack No. 86

Cub Scouts and cubbers of Pack 86 turned out 112 strong to attend the Blue and Gold banquet, held at the John Burroughs School Feb. 24, in a double birthday celebration, that of the pack and scouting in America.

The color scheme of blue and gold was carried out in table decorations and the individual birthday cakes with one candle at each place.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Neil Pence, Mrs. Wayne Morrow, Mrs. Russell Martin, Mrs. Fred Spangler, Mrs. T. Bryant and Mrs. Richard Lloyd.

A big magic show was the highlight of the evening for the Cubs. Educational moving pictured were also shown.

A new den mother, Mrs. Ivan Timmons, 307 S. Richardson-av, was presented.

Bobcat pins were presented by Cubmaster William Davis, to six new members, Gary Erlenbach, Robert Courtney, Robert Repp, Michael King, Wesley Ogden and Theado Strohm.

Pack 31

On Feb. 27, Pack 63 had a pot luck supper. The meeting opened by singing "America" and the invocation by Rev. Shellhase. The pot luck supper followed. The program continued with a word of welcome by Cliff Mathews, scout executive.

A tribute was paid to the den mothers and a rose was presented to Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. McCready, Mrs. Ritter and Mrs. Waltman by Mr. Harmon, pack chairman. He also welcomed back the graduates. Graduates present were Roger Burlew, Robert Harmon, Robert Faistl, Jon Kimes, James McCready and Robert Nance.

The dens entertained as follows: Den 1—Charades, Den 2—Song, Den 3—Marble Stunt, Den 4—The graduates and members of the den made a pyramid. The graduates sang "Tumbling Tumbleweeds," accompanied by Robert Faistl, violinist. Two of them also performed tumbling acts. Den 6 presented a comedy.

SPRING SONG

My friend, is it a sign of immaturity
That causes men to write of insecurity
Of love, or have they this, no other reason,
That Spring has always been their silly season?

I've always blamed the vernal equinox
For measles and the chicken pox—
Can these diseases somehow be related
To springtime love insatiated?

Or can it be the time, perhaps,
When nature thinks in terms of "saps?"

Jo Birt, in her book
MERRY MAGDALENE GETS FLOWERS.

NOW IS NO SEASON

Now is no season;
Winter has yet to gather
Her crystal baubles;
Spring is still a green murmuring
Underground, overhead,
This is the adolescence
Of the year . . .
Half child, half woman.

GIRL SCOUT News Notes - - Activities

Girl Scouting at John Burroughs School

The week of March 7 through the 13th will be National Girl Scout Week.

Here at John Burroughs the Scout movement will be four years old. Four years ago there were five or six leaders and five troops. Mrs. Delbert Pugh introduced scouting on the Hilltop and has remained in scouting until recently, when illness forced her to give it up. Mrs. Martin Miesner was neighborhood chairman for two years. Mrs. Walter Lee and Mrs. John Koch followed. Mrs. Carl Driscoll is the present chairman.

The original group has grown to approximately 35 leaders and assistants. There are 19 troops, 13 scouts and six Brownie troops, totaling about 270 registered Girl Scouts.

Much credit must be given the first group of leaders and workers who have stayed with their troops for four years and have encouraged other women to become active in scout work.

There is a great need for leaders, assistant leaders and committee persons to carry on this program.

If you are intereted, call our scout headquarters (AD. 6381) and they will tell you how and where you can help in your neighborhood Girl Scout program.

Troop 142

Investiture ceremonies of Brownie Troop 142 were conducted in John Burroughs School Feb. 18 by Mrs. Howard Reber, assistant neighborhod chairman, and leader, Mrs. Cooley.

The girls who were invested were Julie Robinson, Sharon Dent, Carole Holton, Jay Merrith, Charline Holton, Barbara Cooley, Anice Wavner, Judy Cooley, Donna Foster, Carole Foster, Judith Yeager, Kristian Armstrong and Mary Louise Musselman.

Guests attending the occasion were Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Robinson. Mrs. Merrith, Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. Yeager and Mrs. Musselman.

Troop 149

Troop No. 149, Mrs. Carl Driscoll, leader, is planning to finish its second class activities by the end of April. This troop of 13 intermediate girls will celebrate its second birthday in April. The past few weeks have been spent on working on a skit which was presented at the March 9 PTA meeting at John Burroughs School.

Troop 103

Troop 103 had as their guest Monday, Mrs. Jip Huston of the WCOL radio staff. The girls are working on their radio badge requirements.

They participated in the Girl Scout exhibit Tuesday, March 9, at John Burroughs PTA meeting. They will be showing state fair first prize exhibits.

Troop 105

Troop No. 105 under the leadership of Mrs. Martin Meisner will present a one-act play entitled "Teen Age Problems," in the auditorium of John Burroughs School, Friday, March 12.

The part of Pop Mygatt will be played by Phyllis Truit; Mom Mygatt by Sheila Pugh; Billy, the younger brother, by Carol Knerium; Alice, the teen-age girl, by Gloria Russell; Terrie, the older sister, by Diane Smith; and George Hollingshead, Alice's boy friend, by Janet Sayer.

A style show will be given within the play that will consist of dresses, suits and coats of the average high school girl. The models will be Joan Oliver, Nancy De Witt, Gloria Russell, Margie McDowell, Sonia Meisner, Margaret Johns, Annabelle Allard, Sheila Pugh, Jane Sayer and Suzanne Jennings. The mothers and friends of the girls will be invited.

E-HA-WEE
By Shirley Lou Miller

The E-ha-wee group had a party meal on Feb. 23. They had spaghetti and meat balls, slaw, cocoa, rolls and cherry pie. They made decorated cups for their favors.

The following girls were present, Vera Adams, Eileen Conroy, Mary Vance, Sue Serverns and Shirley Lou Miller. Mrs. Helen Conroy, our guardian, and Mrs. T. A. Smith, our assistant guardian were also present.

The dinner was held at the guardian's home. After dinner the group enjoyed a skating party at Rollerland.

The E-ha-wee group went to the museum on Feb. 28. Mr. Jenny, of the museum, took us through. He explained the life of an Eskimo. Then he gave us some questions on Franklinton and Columbus. We enjoyed this very much.

We then saw the pioneer village. The following girls were on this trip: Vera Adams, Shirley Carr, Eileen Conroy, Sue Severns, Mary Vance and Shirley Lou Miller, Mrs. Helen Conroy, our guardian, also was present.

What's Right With America?

Other Systems Promise; Our People Have

Millions of Americans seem to be apathetic toward charges that there is something basically wrong with our governmental and economic systems, and that socialism, communism and the rest of the assorted isms have more to offer.

Edward C. Sammons, president of the United States National Bank of Portland, Oregon, touched on that vividly when he said:

"Our country is the only nation in the history of the world that has continued with its intrinsic, basic type of government since its beginning 170 years ago . . . In those 170 years our six per cent of the world's population produced 25 per cent of the world's goods and possesses 50 per cent of the world's wealth. In no other country is there such opportunity as here.

"Too many people are saying what is wrong with America. Instead, we should be saying what is right with the United States. Why should capital be on trial here? Why should not socialism or communism instead be on trial, when our people are asked to provide the money and the food and tools for other nations to carry on?

"In my time we have defended our country three times from outside invaders, but we are not defending it sufficiently from within. The working man here is able to live almost as well as a king compared with those in other countries. Other systems promise. Our people have!"

That is a fundamental truth. The American people should shout from the housetops their faith in a system that has given them unprecedented tangible benefits—and infinitely more important, the intangibles that make for a life of freedom.

—Reprinted from Western Hills Press

The state of Tennessee is rich in minerals, its livestock and agricultural interests are varied and important, its lumber production is large, its commercial interests are assisted by reason of its navigable waters, especially the Mississippi River.

The state of Iowa is a great agricultural empire, producing corn, oats, hay, wheat, barley, rye, potatoes, fruits, berries and other farm products. The state also ranks high in livestock, poultry, dairy farming, eggs and produces large quantities of wool.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letter was sent to The Record as a result of a questionnaire published two weeks ago in an effort to determine what our readers like to find in their community paper.

To The Editor:

"What Do You Want?"

What I want cannot be answered on your form by yes or no. I am going to say some things that have been on my mind since the "Go To Church" drive last year when the Kiwanis and other organizations pledged their wholehearted support Do you remember the big paper drive that was conducted one of the Sundays during the "Go To Church" campaign" This took a large number of our men and boys from Sunday School and church but you used more space in your paper to advertise that than anything I have known of.

The argument is that trucks and drivers are not available other days. How about holidays and Wednesday afternoon? You may say boys are in school Wednesday afternoon. Since those things are to the interest of the school could they not be excused for their own recreation. Which is more important, the day set aside by God or that by man? I am not placing all the blame on the clubs or on you, the great responsibility is upon church members. Had they all felt as I do about such things there would have been so little paper on curbs and porches that the last Sunday drive would have been the last.

I see on the front page of your paper that "March To Church In March" is the Kiwanis theme for this month. Will that be carried out, or will we be reading of certain business places furnishing trucks and drivers and serving do-nuts and coffee to workers in the steel drive on one of those Sundays?

Another item on your front page, "Two D-5 Permits Are Issued Here." At the rate such things are dominating the Hilltop, I am wondering how long it will be until there will not be a business place of any kind in which we can enter without being confronted with shelves of all sorts of strong drink. Eating places now are few and far between where the windows are not plastered with advertising of certain brands.

No doubt these business places are the best financial supporters we have of youth centers and other character building organizations but what else do they have to offer to the youth of our Hilltop?

The devil offered Jesus all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them if He would fall down and worship him But Jesus said "get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."

Jesus was divine and could withstand temptation but we are human and as important as all of these youth organizations are, juvenile delinquency will never be curbed as long as temptation is on every hand.

The first thing recommended in rodent extermination is to get rid of all filth on which rodents feed and breed. The same thing can be applied here.

How many men, women and young people who are still imbibing [illegible] will March to Church on March on Sunday?

I am not a member of any temperance group, but heartily approve of them. I claim no prominence in anything, and while I have lived in Columbus, on Hilltop more than 17 years my name has appeared in print very few times, my photograph never that I recall But I have, in my humble way, taught a class in the primary department of Hillcrest Church School for a number of years, where recognition comes from the place I believe it should, from above.

Religious training for the average Protestant child is far too little at best (the average is far short of that) compared to the temptations and pit falls he has to face through the week.

What I have had to say is not in the interest of my own family for I have no children. But I am interested in the community of which I am a part and fear the evils that each day are creeping in upon us. Our Hilltop is fast becoming just what a goodly number want it to be, many of whom are church members.

What are we who dare call ourselves Christian, "men or mice?" Think it over church members and parents.

Irresistible Force . . . Immovable Object

HILL TOPICS —by PW—

You can't beat a bunch of kids for getting full enjoyment out of a movie cartoon and if audience reaction out at the Westmont Theatre Saturday afternoon is any barometer, there are far too few cartoon comedies being included in the movie bill of fare.

It was a big day for the kiddies. (The smattering of parents throughout the house seemed to enjoy it too.) The Westmont opened its doors to the small fry at two bits each for the matinee show, made up entirely of animated cartoons.

Forty-five minutes before the show was scheduled to start, a long line had formed outside the movie house. By 2 p. m. the house was filled to capacity and a more enthusiastic audience you could hardly find. If you think high school kids get worked up over an athletic event, you should listen to 500 kids cheer and applaud when the title of a Mickey Mouse is flashed on the screen.

It was a noisy crowd before the show started but for the most part well behaved. Manager Jack Huebler and some of his assistants had to quiet down a few of the more enthusiastic fans but most of it was just in fun.

The popcorn machine had to be thrown into high gear to keep pace with hungry Mickey Mouse fans. I suppose a small truck load of the white fluffy kernels was dispensed that afternoon.

The concession people have found that by punching a couple of holes in the bag before filling, the noise of consuming contents is held to a minimum. It also serves to make the bag useless for blowing up as my two youngsters soon dicovered. They still haven't figured out a way to discourage the kids from using the empty bag as fodder for spitballs, however.

Bugs Bunny and M. Mouse seemed to draw the most applause. I'm sure that if a popularity poll had been taken there that afternoon such headliners as Lana Turner, Gregory Peck, etc., would have taken back seats to the drawing board characters.

The cartoon parade of some 10 or 12 features was good entertainment for the small fry. It would seem like a good investment for the theater to repeat such a program once a month or some such period of time. Of course it is not a money maker for the movie house but it builds a lot of good will among the kids and provides a show that you don't have to wonder about as to its fitness for children. There's too little entertainment at their level in our present day setup.

I'm sure the kids would be for the idea 100 per cent and who knows, my kids might let me go again. It was a swell way to celebrate my 37th birthday.

TRI-ALLEY by Don Wilson

NEWS ITEM: "The New Castle, Ind. Police are selling $10 books of tickets which entitle the buyer to 20 parking violations a year."

New Castle is, at present, one of the lesser known hamlets in the U. S. but, mark my word, it will someday rival Reno for popularity. If there is one thing we Americans can't resist, it's "new and better ways to waste money," and New Castle has come up with something revolutionary. Mind you, I don't say the effect will be immediate, but in a few years, perhaps, this nation will have added another product to its long list of gimcracks, and all because New Castle took a "flyer."

I can visualize the whole thing now. Radios, magazines, billboards—all crowded with advertisements for the new, time-saving ECONO-CRIMES.

"Ladies," the voice on the radio will coo, "Do your neighbors bother you? Are their children always running through your flower beds? Then visit your local police station, and buy a handy Econo-Crime. For just $35 you can burn their house down.

"And how about you husbands? Tired of that old wife? Always nagging and griping, is she? Let us put an end to all your woes. For just $15 you can beat her up. And for only $10 more, two of our courteous policemen will hold her."

With each state making crime its business, you can imagine the competition. Cigarette ads would be moved off magazine covers. Instead of movie stars, holding king-sized Spuds, there would be post office-type pictures of famous offenders, with captions something like this: "With independent felons—men who know crime best, it's California fines, two-to-one."

Yo Yos put Duncan on easy street, and the man who invented the Pogo Stick now owns a stable full of Cadillacs. So, who knows, maybe the Econocrime could balance the national budget.

I wonder what they charge for shooting politicians.

Loew's Broad this week is showing for a second and final week the technicolor romantic spectacle, "Captain From Castile," starring Tyrone Power with Jean Peters, Miss Ohio State. It is being shown as a single feature at no advance in regular prices.

"Excuse me," said the mild man in the crowded cafeteria, as he returned with a cup of coffee, "but you have my seat."

"Oh, yeah," growled the big man. "Can you prove it?"

"I think so, sir," the little man murmured timidly. "I left my pie and ice cream on the chair."

Bobby, six, was given a real watch for his birthday. Proudly he strolled up and down the street past his home, stopping every moment or two to draw the watch from his pocket and look at it.

Passersby smiled sympathetically at Bobby's performance. But the biggest moment of the day came to him when his cousin, Betty, asked him what time it was.

Studying his watch, with great dignity, Bobby replied: "Two inches to four."

"March To Church In March" Is A Privilege

By Rev. Harold Dutt, Pastor of Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Rev. Dutt

One of the basic fruits of democracy is an open church door. Democracy had its true birth in the climate of the church. The totalitarian form of government robs the people of religious freedom. Those living in our community who do not attend church are not living up to all the privileges our democracy offers. Let us consider some of the religious privileges which our country offers to every citizen.

The privilege to attend the church of your choice. Our constitution gives a legal right for every man to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. Our forefathers experienced religious bondage in the old world. The founders of our nation left their homes and risked their lives in coming to America for the cause of religious freedom. As long as our constitution stands, no person or ruler can tell you what church you must attend. The leaders of our country have always exhorted people to attend the church of their choice. Church attendance has always created better communities and a better nation. Each church denomination has made a worthy contribution in building and sustaining our great nation. This privilege has been purchased in terms of blood and sacrifice. Let us not let this opportunity slip away from us. Let each of us attend the church of our choice next Sunday morning.

The privilege of receiving spiritual resources for effective and dynamic living. The great teacher of all ages said, "Man does not live by bread alone." Divine energy is needed by every struggling human being. Many clock on because they try to live by physical bread alone. The divine resources give unto man the more abundant life. This spiritual energy which the church releases to those who attend the services helps a person to live at a maximum. Too many are living today at a minimum. A certain doctor attended Marble Collegiate Reformed Church in New York City. He said, "As I entered that Sunday I felt defeated but when I came out of that worship service I felt that I could lick the whole world."

The privilege of receiving inspiration. Lofty living does not just happen but is a fruit of true inspiration. Many live on a low sinful level because they have never been inspired to live on a higher level. The Bible tells of a man called to be a prophet. When Isaiah went to the Temple to worship he was living upon the level of his sinful generation. He confessed, "I am a man of unclean lips because I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips." Something happened to this man as he experienced the presence of a Holy God. He was made pure by the power of God. The vision he received that day in God's house made a new man out of him. After the inspiration of that hour he went out to live on the higher level of Christian or righteous living and the end was to render a valuable service to his generation. Men still go out from a true worship experience to live holy lives and serve their present age. Changed lives will change society.

The privilege of receiving guidance, spiritual guidance, is a supreme need of every boy and girl and man and woman. Many pitfalls of life are avoided when we have this spiritual guidance from our youth through all of life. J. Edgar Hoover said, "Sunday School and church attendance is the best solution to our juvenile delinquent problem." Many reap disaster in life because they never had spiritual guidance. The Church offers guidance to all ages of people. Spiritual guidance for the home, for parents, for youth and for children.

The privilege of receiving a new lease on life. A church at her best will fulfill the mission of her founder. "I have come that they might have life and have it more abundantly." The redemptive ministry carried out by the church gives a new life to her worshipers. Christ called it "The new birth" or being "born again." Paul called it "The New Life." The staleness ends where the newness begins. Every generation has its witnesses, out of every walk of life, to the fact of receiving a new lease upon life by attending church regularly and having a religious experience in the hour of worship.

A privilege to build together a better community. The purpose of the Christian church has always been to transform chaos into order. Changing a sinful community into a Christian community. For this purpose the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and the churches join hands. Working together in our community and in every community we can create high ideals and a Christian atmosphere in which wrong and sinful practices cannot thrive. One of our safeguards for democracy against communism is for every person to take advantage of our privilege in attending and supporting the Christian church which gave birth to our American way of life.

Variety Show To Be Presented At Glenwood

The Glenwood Methodist Youth are presenting "A Day on the Radio," a 5-act variety show, in Glenwood Methodist's Motter Hall at 64 S. Highland-av, Friday evening, March 12, at 8 p. m.

This production is meant to summarize a day on a radio network by satirizing five of the chief program varieties in immediate succession.

"Home to the Wars," the two-act domestic comedy given at Glenwood in early January, is the repeat request to be used on the Preview Theater, starring Beverly Phillips and Johnny Brown as the mother and veteran father of three rampant children.

The consequence portion of the program will endeavor to conscript members of the audience into the show, and the plans in order for the lucky recruits give expectations of a lot of informal fun for everyone.

Outstanding characters in the production are Herman Turntable, the merciless disc jockey, played by Ted Manson; "Happy Joe" Higgins; the emotional announcer, played by Jim Gardner; the Knight of the Bargain Basement, played by Roy Link; F. E. Goone, played by Ned Moore; and the Athletics boys, doing a take-off like Jack Benny's Sportsmen on several commercial jingles.

Annis Turner is directing the show.

The production is being sponsored by the Glenwood Men's Council for the church's cottages on the Lancaster Campground, and tickets can be purchased from any member or at the door. Adults' tickets are 50c, and children's are 25c.

REVIVAL CONTINUES

Revival services are now in progress at the Whitethorne Church of Christ in Christian Union. Rev. James Strawser is the evangelist. Special music is presented each night at 7:30 o'clock.

Illinois is one of the great and leading states of the nation. Its agriculture is important and varied; its mining industry is large and valuable; its financial, wholesale and manufacturing interests are immense and valuable.

Eight Million Bibles Needed In Europe

"Eight million Bibles are needed NOW, in 15 war-devastated countries, as support to rehabilitation under the Marshall Plan," said Dr. Eric M. North of the American Bible Society at a conference of Society secretaries from all parts of the country, recently. Dr. North estimated that at least $2,500,000 would be needed to supply the volumes to Europe and Asia.

Recently a delegate at the conference of International Christian leaders at Whitby, Ontario, Dr. North reported on plans laid at that conference for a five year plan of religious education overseas. While expressing anxiety that adequate Bibles for that program would not be available for some time in foreign languages, he was hopeful that the backlog of translations piled up during the war might be printed soon.

Sun Life Sets New Record In Business Volume

The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, with 41 percent of its business and 50 percent of its securities in the United States, broke all records in 1947 with $380 millions of new business for the year, bringing the total now in force to nearly four billion dollars. Total assets are now approximately one and one half billion dollars. Payments to policy-holders and beneficiaries over the year amounted to more than $100 millions while the total of such payments since the first Sun Life policy was issued in 1871 now exceeds two billion dollars.

Jean Worrel and his son, Jack, are representatives of the company here on the Hilltop.

During 1947 Arthur B. Wood, president of the firm, said, the Sun Life of Canada had distributed to its policyholders and beneficiaries the sum of $102,000.00 of which $32,000.00 was paid to beneficiaries of policyholders who died during the year. Other payments included $13,000,000 distributed in payments to annuitants, and $15,000,000 in dividends to policyholders.

In connection with these payments, Mr. Wood revealed that of the policyholders who died 83 per cent were insured for less than $5,000, while the remaining 17% for amounts of $5,000 and over absorbed 61% of the total death claim payments. The policy of the shortest duration was in force for only seven days, and called for a payment of $2,500 for one premium payment of $58. Throughout the year, over half a million dollars was paid out in respect of policy-holders who died during the first policy year, some because of accident, and others from disease, notwithstanding that each had been previously accepted as medically fit. These figures, commented Mr. Wood, give cause for reflection on the uncertainty of life and the importance of life assurance protection.

In concluding his review of the year, Mr. Wood stated that in a world of uncertainty and unrest, the service of life assurance goes on, its fundamental purposes untouched by the disturbing influences of our times. Public confidence in the business has never been at a higher level. The tradition of stability and integrity so long associated with life assurance, he said, continues to attract ever increasing public acceptance in a changing world.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sheets, Pasadena-av, entertained with a demonstration supper put on by the Steelco Company. Those who made up the party were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oatley, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Stickrod and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jones. The demonstrator was Ralph Lawrence.

A mother between two fires was the predicament of Mrs. James Whalen, Buena Vista, who was taking her mother, a heart patient, to the doctor to keep an appointment. They were getting into their car on Front-st when her son, Jimmy, stepped onto a loose coal shute lid, and slid through to the boiler room of the Lazarus Company. They could see him sitting down on the coal pile, but it took some time to go in through the building to get him. The lid had not been securely locked The child was given an immediate check-up but seemed none the worse for his drop. Mrs. Whalen was reluctant to leave her mother, Mrs. Ella McKendree, sitting in the car while she went with her son. Mrs. McKendree has been advised by her doctors to lead a very quiet life and give up all evening affairs.

About 20 volunteer firemen banded together to dig a lengthy ditch that was very much needed for the Prairie Township Fire Station on Maple-dr.

Mrs. Joe Kost of Lancaster, who had charge of the Sunday night service at Columbia Heights Church, was entertained at the home of her cousin, Mrs. R. G. Barnecut. Her Easter message was very well received by a large attendance. She was also her own accordionist for the hymns which she sang.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. English, Pasadena-av, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephenson and son and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Simonson, all former Detroit friends

Local Minister

Accepts Principalship Of African Mission School; Leaves March 22

A former West High School student who shined shoes in a local barber shop to help pay expenses will leave for Africa this month to become principal of a mission school.

He is Rev. Reginald Ashburn, son of Dr. and Mrs. Jacob Ashburn, 300 S. Oakley-av. Dr. Ashburn has been pastor of the Oakley Avenue Baptist Church for more than 30 years.

Rev. Reginald Ashburn and his bride of little more than two months will leave LaGuardia Field by plane on March 22 for Roberts Field in Africa. His assignment is to head a mission grade and high school at Brewerville, Liberia, West Africa. Mrs. Ashburn whose home is only 60 miles from Brewerville, will serve as a member of his teaching staff.

In addition to his school work, he will also serve as pastor of the local church there.

Rev. Ashburn graduated from West in 1940. He attended school at Ohio State University for a while and then enrolled in the Virginia Seminary at Lynchburg, Va. Graduating from the seminary in 1945, he returned to Columbus to assist his father with his ministerial duties at the local church while continuing work toward his bachelor's degree at OSU.

The couple first met at a convention in Roanoke, Va., last summer. Mrs. Ashburn, the former Eugenia Holmes, was a student at New York University at the time. They were married on Dec. 24. In January of this year she took her bachelor's degree from NYU.

The mission school where the two are to work together has enrollment of about 250. It is operated by the Lott Carey Baptist Mission Board.

9th West Band Variety Show Set For Three Nights -- April 22 To 24

"Spring" will be the theme of the ninth annual West High Band Variety Show as more than 200 boys and girls take part in putting on this "perennial" success April 22, 23 and 24, in the West High auditorium.

The combined Junior and Senior High Orchestras, numbering 55 members, the 60-piece Senior High Band, and the Junior High Band, now grown to a membership of 75, will each present short "Pop" concerts during the first part of the show. Many light and entertaining new numbers are promised for all three groups.

For the second half of the show "Spring" will be presented in song, dance and fun. Sixteen acts have been selected by Director Charles W. Bennett, after viewing more than a hundred tryouts. Some of the stars of last year's show will appear again. These include Dick Bowles, remembered for his "Ole Man River," Marilyn Ring, West High's budding primadonna, Jackie Hardy, the Hilltop's popular little dancer, and the Glass Sisters, Sue and Kay, in a new comedy dance routine.

Patron Tickets Available

Persons interested in becoming patron to the Band Variety Show this year may do so by contacting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham, 822 Wiltshire-rd, chairmen of the show this year. Their telephone number is RA. 3094. Mrs. E. B. McCrady, 176 S. Roys-av, president of the Band Parents Club, will also take calls for prospective patrons at RA. 2037.

Patrons are entitled to make reservations earlier than other ticket purchasers. They may have their seats reserved at the school on March 24 and 25, one week before others are available. It costs $1 to become a patron. Tickets must of course be purchased extra.

New Singers

New singers on this year's program include Donna Beck, Jeanette Chakeres, a girls' trio including Alice Mercer, Martha Brown and Lois Stansell, a comedy quartet composed of Don Henderson, Dick Hershberger, Dick Davis and Bob Freshcorn, and a fine background chorus of 30 voices.

As in previous years on Easter Monday, Glenwood Park will be the scene of the Hilltop's Easter Egg Hunt, an event enjoyed by hundreds of youngsters of the grade school age. As in the past it will be sponsored by the Hilltop Community Council in cooperation with the Hilltop Business Association and the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Due to the popularity of this annual event, two hunts will be held simultaneously—one for the real small youngsters and one for the older youngsters.

Members of the Parent-Teacher Associations of the four Hilltop grade schools will be in charge, headed by Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av, Mrs. Roy Hastilow, 197 Midland-av, Mrs. E. M. Bradfute, 330 S. Ogden-av, and Mrs. Harold Beard, 635 Woodbury-av.

Theatre Will Be Completed By June 1st

The Old Trail Theatre being constructed on W. Broad-st just west of the city limits may be ready to start operation by June 1.

That is the prospect advanced this week by Leo Yassenoff of the F & Y Construction Company, developer of the amusement and business center now under construction. Scaffolding was being built this week in preparation for plastering the inside of the theater. Several business units are far enough along that they could be completed on short notice, he said.

The development was started last summer with the erection of the National Auto Theater, an outdoor picture house. Later the permanent movie house was started along with four or five merchandising centers. When the project is finished it will include a shopping and recreation center, including stores of several types, the motion picture house and a bowling center.

In addition to the National Auto Theatre, Yassenoff operates the Westmont and a city-wide chain of neighborhood picture houses.

Service Stations To Handle Scrap For W. Boosters

All Hilltop service stations are cooperating with the West High Boosters Club in the collection of scrap metal. Local stations are serving as depositories for the campaign that is being conducted by the Boosters through April 4.

Metal of almost any type is acceptable. Persons are asked to bring the scrap to the nearest station. There it will be picked up by truck and will be taken to market. Scrap iron and steel are especially badly needed at this time to replenish rapidly dwindling stockpiles at the steel mills.

Leaders in the industry point out that capacity steel production is being threatened by the shortage of scrap.

K. M. (Slim) Elder, 110 S. Southampton-av, is chairman of the drive.

A meeting of the Boosters Club will be held at West High School tonight at 7:30.

Easter Programs Should Be In Fri.

Because of unusual demands for news space at Easter time, all organizations are asked to send in copy for next week's Hilltop Record just as soon as possible.

Churches and other groups desiring to have Easter programs printed in the Record next week are asked to have them in the office not later than Friday evening of this week to insure their publication.

Rodenfels Move To New Location

Rodenfels, a firm that began selling Chevrolets in London, O., 24 years ago, will hold formal open house in a new home at 555 W. Broad-st, Saturday.

The occasion promises to be a big event in the history of this West Side auto firm as the new building is opened to the public for the first time. It will house general offices, sales show room, complete service and parts departments for the rapidly expanding firm. The auto body and paint shop will take over the entire building that formerly housed the entire operation at 1160 W. Broad-st.

Leo Rodenfels, founder of the firm, began selling Chevrolets in London in 1924. Four years later he purchased the West Broad Chevrolet Company and moved his business to 2596 W. Broad-st. Endeavoring to become more centrally located from the standpoint of service to Chevrolet owners of the West Side, the company moved to 1160 W. Broad-st in 1932.

The need for more space than was available at that location was keenly felt as early as 1941 but because of World War II the building program had to be postponed.

The firm now employs over 50 persons,more than 25 per cent of whom have been with the company 17 years or longer.

Rodenfels became an incorporated firm in 1929 with Leo Rodenfels as president, M. A. Rodenfels, vice-president, and John Keefer as secretary. Since that time Richard Rodenfels has been elected treasurer and John L. Rodenfels has been named vice-president in charge of commercial and fleet accounts. W. G. Dennis has been service manager since 1935 and H. C. Lloyd has been used car sales manager since 1929.

Other department heads include Jim Whalen, parts manager, Wilma J. Schneider, office manager, and Perry Davis, manager of the body and paint shop.

Red Cross Drive Is Over The Top

Valley Unit Goes Over Quota

The Franklin County Red Cross was over its 1948 financial goal once more as reports Wednesday showed a total of $312,841, something more than $14,000 over the top.

On the Hilltop Mrs. James Arnold, 267 S. Sylvan-av, colonel for this section, said that additional money to be reported this morning would put the total something over $1800.

Mrs. Harold Kay, 91 Schultsav, colonel of the Valley unit, reported $1600.13 on a quota of $1500. The Valley unit was one of the few residential groups that reached 100 per cent of their quota.

The quota for the Hilltop was set at $2250.

Workers in every area said that contributions were more difficult this year. Increased costs of living and uncertain employment conditions were cited as reasons by many in those solicited.

Both colonels praised the efforts of those who carried the solicitation into the homes.

"We all worked very hard," was Mrs. Arnold's comment. Mrs. C. W. Vance, 2023 Palmetto-st, served as co-colonel with Mrs. Arnold.

New Auto Tags A March "Must"

Now that income tax reports have been filed, there's one more thing on the "must" list for the month of March for every motorist.

Those shiny new auto tags must be purchased and displayed on or before April Fool's Day. Failure to do so is encouraging a brush with the law and "no fooling."

Russell Henry, deputy registrar for the Hilltop, advises that his office, at the Robinson Electric Store, 2403 W. Broad-st, has been designated as headquarters for licenses and permits of every kind for motorists, truck drivers, etc. In anticipation for a big demand for the license plates, the office is being kept open on Wednesday afternoons through the remainder of the month.

The local office has been designated as one of a series of permanent headquarters for the year-round sale of plates and driver's permits. All proceeds from the sale go to support the work of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club of which Henry is a member.

Beacon Light Will Open On April 3

Beacon Light Golf Course will open for play on Saturday, April 3, weather permitting, Jack Kidwell, manager of the nine-hole course, announced this week.

Should the March winds dry up the course before that date, some play may be permitted even before that time on a winter-rate schedule.

Kidwell said that he was holding up play this spring until the fairways and greens have an opportunity to settle from the winter thaws so that the general appearance of the entire course could be maintained.

Action Is Expected Soon On Request For D-5 Permit

Action on the D-5 night club application filed by the Biltmore Restaurant, 2414 W. Broad-st, is expected in the next few days.

A check with W. R. Morris, assistant chief of the Liquor Control Department, this week revealed that this and several similar applications will be up for consideration soon.

"We're getting ready to do something before long. Just what it will be, we don't know," was Morris' only comment.

The application for the night club permit was filed by James Phillips, owner of the restaurant, several months ago. Three churches within a radius of 500 feet of the restaurant filed protests as soon as it was learned that the request was on file.

The Hilltop YMCA - - -

"Of The Hilltop, By The Hilltop, For The Hilltop"

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles to provide additional information regarding the Hilltop YMCA.

Q. Is the YMCA to be a program for men and boys only or for girls and women also?

A. The program will be like that of the South Side YMCA for women and girls and men and boys. This is the best local example of community organization and program. The YMCA also conducts many programs on a "family participation" basis.

Q. What is the purpose and objective of the present financial campaign? What are these funds being raised for?

A. The purpose is to raise a year's operating fund and as much as possible additional for the building fund. It is estimated that the needs of the local branch for the first year will be approximately $13,300. This will cover the cost of an executive secretary with at least five years YMCA training, a secretary to the executive, janitorial services, and the operation of a satisfactory program.

Q. What are the privileges and obligations of a sustaining membership?

A. The sustaining member is one who is willing to underwrite the service in the community and give financial stability to the program. One justification for this is that YMCA serves the community and provides a constructive program for youth. The YMCA is an organization which supplements the homes, churches, schools and community groups in providing wholesome activities and opportunities for character building.

Q. How is the program to be geared in with the present organization in the city? How will the executive secretary go about building the program?

A. He will start by setting up a youth council that will represent church, school and community organizations, and then find the areas of interest and needs. He will start the enlistment and training of leadership for group work. He will work with community groups interested in recreation and sports of all types for which there is need, viz: church leagues, community leagues.

Q. Are there any conflicts with the YWCA in the program that the YMCA is attempting to provide?

A. No. The YMCA has an independent program and does not attempt to cut across the program of any other organization. It respects the integrity of every organization which has been brought into being to serve a particular need.

Q. How will funds of the Hilltop branch be handled?

A. All funds received for the building fund will remain deposited to the Hilltop Branch "Y" account in the First Federal Savings & Loan Association. Three signatures will be required to withdraw any funds, that of the comptroller of the Central YMCA, the treasurer and chairman of the Hilltop "Y" Board. Current operating funds will be handled through the established accounting fund of the YMCA but no expenditures to be made unless first approved by the Hilltop board.

The Hilltop Branch will be provided with a very fine accounting system and an accurate account of expenditures of monies at all times.

Mrs. Ethel Vanzant

Mrs. Vanzant died Tuesday in Grant Hospital. She had been ill for several months. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Crawford, two sisters, Mrs. Nola Hopkins of Jamestown and Mrs. Edna Forshey of Columbus, and four grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

I am deeply grateful and wish to thank the friends, relatives, neighbors and business associates for their sympathy, kindness and beautiful floral offerings during the illness and at the death of my beloved wife, Mrs. Margaret Schneider. I am especially grateful to the nurses at Mt. Carmel Hospital, Rev. Goewey, Jerry Spears Funeral Home, and to all who assisted in any way.

Husband, John P. Schneider.

A committee of four was chosen to write a constitution for the new club. The following are on the committee: Jack Martin, chairman, Dick Brenner, Nancy Hoagland and Barbara Easley.

At the same time four girls were named as members of a program committee. They are Pat Ward, chairman, Betty Landrum, Mary Wilson and Doris McCracken.

Easter Sunday breakfast is an ideal time to try that old-time favorite—biscuits and syrup. Hot, fluffy biscuits made from enriched flour are good to look at—and eating them is a taste treat as well as a sound way to add B vitamins, iron, protein and energy. As for calories, this breakfast idea will provide plenty of energy, but biscuits are no more fattening than any other food of the same caloric value.

March is "bread and gravy" month—time to make economical use of good enriched bread and the tasty gravy made from inexpensive cuts of meat. It's good etiquette to eat every drop of gravy—and it's easy to do when served over bread or toast. Enriched bread contains B vitamins, iron and food energy at a small price.

You'll find the best buys in the Record ads every week.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

The congregation of Columbia Heights Church will be informed regularly as to the progress of its parsonage. Russell Butin, Ray Dougherty, L. W. Johnson, W. G. Lamb, I. A. Thompson and Henry Warner are on this committee. Members of the county engineer's office have been out to check for proper drainage and several important items have been taken care of.

DON'T FORGET — Good Friday Candlelight Communion service, 8 p. m., Columbia Heights Church.

Billjean Lamb, Owen Irvin, Bob Burns, Ralph Vencill and Bob Thompson represented Rome Boy Scout Troop 131 Saturday at the Ohio State Natatorium first class swim test. Bob Burns, Bob Thompson and Ralph Vencill passed the requirements in Boy Scout work. The other boys are expected to go back next week. I. A. Thompson was responsible for their transportation.

Mrs. Ernest Schroeder, Lawrence-av, entertained the Rome Study Club Monday evening. The program for the evening was in charge of Mrs. Elwood Rose, who gave a background regarding the rebuilding of Williamsburg, Va. She had visited there on vacation. This was followed by slides of pictures taken while she and Rev. Rose were vacationing in the West. About 25 regular members answered to roll call and there were six guests, Mrs. R. M. Day, Hubbard Road, Mrs. Trecy Kost, Lancaster, Mrs. Shaner, Mrs. G. T. English, Mrs. Barnecut and Mrs. Ella Rutherford, Shelby, N. Y.

Mrs. John Young, 3195 Parkside-dr, entertained her sister-in-law, Mrs. Joe Kost, Mrs. Barnecut and Mrs. E. C. Sheets at luncheon Tuesday. Mrs. Kost is the niece of Mrs. Sheets.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Grimm, Lennox-av, are both on the sick list. He is improving, but very slowly. She was operated on for head infection and is getting along as well as could be expected.

Friday night the annual triple birthday celebration was held at the home of Mrs. Allan Burns, in honor of her husband, whose birthday is the 14th, her sister, Leigh McCloud on the 13th, and Mrs. Burns on the 12th. It was a family affair and those who were on hand to help celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. Willis (sister of Mrs. Burns), Leigh McCloud and Mr. and Mrs. Paul McCloud.

We are indeed sorry to have the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Garretson, 38 Maple-dr, move from our community to their new home on Ridge-av, on the Hilltop. Mr. Garretson has been away from his work several weeks. He had an arthritis attack that was quite severe.

The first monthly social evening was enjoyed Wednesday night by the choir of Columbia Heights Church. There was a good attendance of regular members.

The measles epidemic has hit Rome pretty hard.

Adam Cloman, 55 Lawrence-av, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kimes and daughter, Nona, 246 Maple-dr, drove to Zanesville Sunday to attend the golden wedding anniversary open house of Mrs. Kimes' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Spragg.

Nona Kimes entertained the Columbus Collie Club of Columbus Wednesday evening at her home. Plans were discussed for the coming Central Ohio Dog Fanciers' Club All Breed Dog Show to be held at the Coliseum, Ohio State Fair Grounds, April 25. Nona is entering her blue merle collie, Byona Blue Duchess.

Mrs. George Terry, 281 Maple-dr, entertained her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Herman, London, and a sister from Louisville, Mrs. Esther Grose, Sunday in honor of their mother's 80th birthday. She is Mrs. William Herman of London. Although the mother had been quite sick while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Terry, she was able to return to her home Sunday afternoon.

A good number from the surrounding community turned out to enjoy the dance that was put on by the Future Farmers of America in Hilliards High School Friday night.

O. G. Rieber has returned home after spending several weeks in Florida. There was a family party at his home Sunday when his sisters and brothers and three of his daughters were on hand to help celebrate his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Grossman, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graul, Mr. and and Mrs. Raymond Graul and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence with their families. The daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Walz, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Dougherty and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Geyer and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Thompson and son, Robert, spent Sunday in Dayton visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laird. Her father has been in ill health during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ball and daughter, Phyllis, spent the weekend in Tuscarawas visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swindlenger.

A genuine birthday surprise party was given Allen Burns, Pusadena-av, Saturday night, when his wife had invited 25 of his business associates and their wives to their home for the evening.

Dick Ardle Bitten By Dog Tuesday

Dick Ardle, 19, of 185 S. Huron-av, was treated in the offices of Dr. D. S. Cowles, 3191 W. Broad-st, Tuesday morning, after being bitten by a dog at 326 S. Algonquin-av.

Ardle, a student at Ohio State University, and columnist and solicitor for the Hilltop Record, was making collections at the time of the incident.

The dog, owned by Arthur Bellar, had broken loose from his leash in the yard. The injury was not of a serious nature.

Troop 5 Plans For Camping Period

At the regular meeting of Troop 5 of Immanuel Baptist Church plans were made for a good start on summer camping and other activities.

The entire troop, with "Gene" Ridenour, scoutmaster, will shove off for a three-day period at Camp Lazarus April 2, 3 and 4.

New projects of each patrol have been started with Horse patrol, taking "Pioneering," Panther patrol, "Handicraft," and Wolf patrol, wood-carving and tin-can craft.

Parents' night with a pot-luck supper is planned for the near future.

West Junior High Diamond Squad Lists Two Lettermen; 47 To Try Out

By Dave Miller

Among the 47 player-prospects for the West Junior High Baseball team this spring, only two are lettermen.

In a meeting Tuesday afternoon, Coach Red Lehman disclosed that not until the weather permits will he hold his first practice.

Returning lettermen are Ron McElwee, a good center field prospect, and Morris Dobbs, a standout third sacker. In the Junior High League, third basemen are rarely found, but this boy should turn out well if everything goes well.

Among other positions, Jerry Fry, Ron Farley and Harry Bradley should prove good enough to make the grade at catcher. Bill South and Ted Fladt have the pitching department nearly sewed up. The infield, Jerry Johnson at first, Russ Friend or Dave Morgan at second, Irvin Denune or Chuck Leipensperger at shortstop, and Dobbs should clinch third. Outfield prospects are McElwee, Dick McDermitt, Al Shade, Ray Harper, Jack Stokes and Dave Miller. McDermitt, Harper and Miller are return players from last year's seventh and eighth grade reserve teams. The managers are Hugh O'Brien and Ray Altman.

The City Junior High League will start April 16. Five league games and five non-league affairs make up the schedule.

Prospective players who played basketball are Bill South, Jerry Fry, Jerry Johnson, Dave Miller, Ron McElwee and Ken Anderson.

The Bethany Bible Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Leah Shimp, 199 N. Oakley-av, Thursday, March 25, at 1:30 p. m. The Bible study will be Amos, Chapter 3.

The Phcda Guild of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of New Rome will hold its Easter Sunrise service and breakfast March 28, at 6:30 a. m. The public is cordially invited.

No waste of flavor when leftover bits of meat are used in this way. It's recommended for chicken, ham or pork leftovers from the Easter feast. Make an enriched flour muffin batter, using a base of two cups of flour. Into the batter, fold chunks of cooked meat, one to one and one-half cups. Bake as usual and serve split wide open with any leftover gravy.

FOR SCHOOL

Cotton takes honors in what promises to be the schoolgirl's favorite—the blouse and skirt ensemble. This pace-setting example—a pirate striped blouse plus a black velveteen skirt—was designed by Dorothy Coe for McMullen, blending the shirtwaist styles of old into the modern sophisticated silhouette.

Calling all outdoorsmen

By JIM MITCHELL

Will there be a longer waterfowl hunting season — and an increased bag limit — for 1948-49? Possibly there will be, for Albert M. Day, director of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, recently said that the current picture would indicate justification of a longer gunning period this fall and winter or, possibly, a larger bag limit. However, there was one big "IF" in Mr. Day's comments. Reports on the breeding of waterfowl this spring and summer must be tabulated and studied before the regulations will be set—and plenty can happen between now and when the ducks and geese start their flights to the southland.

Many conservation-minded sportsmen are campaigning for a closed season on waterfowl for 1948-49; others are equally active in working for more gunning time. The difference is understandable; and, basically, it depends on which section of the nation the sportsman lives as to what side he is on.

A recent survey, made by the Outdoor Writers Association of America, showed 17 states with more waterfowl this past season than for the previous season; nine states reported fewer ducks, and 14 states said the waterfowl populations were about the same as for 1946-47. Eight states failed to report. So, naturally, sportsmen living in areas where there were more ducks feel that a longer season is justified, while the "closed season" group live and hunt in states where the waterfowl were down last season.

Frankly, we are riding the fence in the argument, but we'll wager a new hat against a box of No. 4's that after all sides have their say-so, and the breeding figures are checked, the 1948-49 regulations will remain virtually the same as for 1947-48—30 days of gunning, with a bag limit of four and a possession limit of eight.

It was also interesting to note in the Outdoor Writers' survey that 35 states favored upping the duck stamp fee to $2. Three states were opposed and two states were undecided. Most pointed out, however, that at least half of the increase, and possibly all of it, should be used for enforcement of the Migratory Bird Law. This we heartily endorse, for violations are steadily mounting, and the federal agency responsible for enforcing the regulations is understuffed and incapable of doing the job with present finances.

Highland PTA Plans Festival

Members of the Highland Avenue PTA are making final plans for their spring festival to be held Friday evening of this week at the school. Doors will open at 7 o'clock, with entertainment going on in the classrooms at various times during the evening.

Admission to the building is free but tickets will be sold in the hall on the first floor for the various events, which will include a magic show, movies, cake walk, fish pond, a musical program by the upper grades, and a variety show by the lower grades entitled "Kiddie Kapers."

The musical program entitled "The Highlanders Hit Parade" is under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Clark. A chorus of 25 sixth grade girls and boys will sing a group of popular songs. Celina Lambert and Janet Hill will accompany the chorus on the piano. One of the highlights of the program will be a solo by Patty Carr and a vocal trio by Janet Hill, Barbara Linscott and Mary Martindale.

The "Kiddie Kapers" variety show is under the direction of Helen Ross. The Second Grade Rhythm Band will play three numbers, "Country Garden," "I'm a Lonely Little Petunia," and "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers."

Others taking part include Marilyn Wolfe, who will do a shuffle dance, Jerilyn Hershiser doing a toe dance, Tommy Cooper playing a piano solo, and a poem by Peggy Hastilow entitled "The Secret."

The following girls comprise the chorus to sing a spring song: Patti Donaldson, Joyce Henry, Marilyn Levering, Mary Ellen Grabill, Anne Evans, Carolyn Cooper, Carla Siegfried, Peggy Hastilow and Carol Campbell.

Nancy Jo Cooper will do a tap dance to "Roses in the Rain." Mistress of ceremonies will be Carolyn Cooper.

Glenn T. Miesse will present various magic shows during the evening. Patti Lou Miesse, his daughter, age 12, will present the third act of the evening by herself. Every show during the evening will be different and complete. The last show of the evening will be "The Miracle Trick."

Father Luciers To Address Kiwanians Today

Another address by a member of the clergy is scheduled for March 25 when Dr. Donald Timmerman appears before local Kiwanians to deliver a Holy Week address. Dr. Timmerman is executive secretary of the Franklin County Council of Churches.

Former West Athlete

Discards Navy Blue To Don Baseball Togs For Phillies

Renick Parkey

Among several Hilltop ball players who will be reporting for spring training with professional clubs is Renick Parkey, former West High athlete, who earned all-city recognition in two sports.

Parkey just finished a three-year enlistment with the navy last month and has signed with the Philadelphia Phillies of the National League. He will report for training at Dyersburg, Tenn., March 27. He will play with the Celina Baseball Club, a Class C team at Celina, Kan.

The 178-pound athlete received his diploma from West in absentia in 1945, having joined the navy in April prior to graduation in June. He took his "boot" training at Great Lakes, Ill., and was then assigned to the USS Minneapolis, a heavy cruiser, preparing to leave the west coast for the Orient.

His ship arrived in the Yellow Sea too late to take part in any of the actual fighting but did undergo some air attacks. His outfit was preparing to take part in the invasion of Japan when the war came to an end. After spending some time in China, he returned to the Philadelphia Naval Yard where the Minneapolis was decommissioned. He was next assigned to the USS Rochester, engaged in training reserve crews in the waters around Jamaica. Later he was transferred to the USS New Jersey, then stationed at the Brooklyn Naval Yards. He remained there until his discharge Feb. 12, 1948.

Worked Out With Phillies

The young ball player was first looked over by scouts while he was playing with the 16th Fleet team. He was invited to work out at Shibe Park with the Phillies before game time. In a short time he was told that a Class C contract awaited him at the completion of his naval enlistment.

Parkey started playing ball while a pupil at Starling Junior High School. He received his first instruction from Carl (Smitty) Smith. During the summers he played Knothole ball and later came under the tutelage of Dale Rose at West. He earned two letters and all-city recognition on the football team where he played at half and fullback. On the baseball team he was a catcher, winning two letters and all-city honors in spite of the fact that he did not play his senior year because of his enlistment in service. He averaged around .300 during his high school career.

He was a member of the Hilltop Merchants team that went to Pittsburgh in 1944 to play in the National Amateur Tournament. During his school days he played ball with Dick Hoover, now with Newark, New Jersey, and Sug Haines, who recently signed a contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

When in Columbus, Parkey makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Parkey, 158 W. Park-av. His father is Harold L. Parkey.

Two Tiny Tots Start Out To See The World -- Home Before Dark

The first signs of spring brought out the wanderlust in two pre-school-age boys Monday afternoon, causing their parents a few bad hours until they appeared just before darkness arrived.

Tommy Freeman, 4½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Freeman, 428 S. Burgess-av, and Pat Doyle, same age, son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Doyle, 431 S. Richardson-av, mounted their bikes Monday afternoon and decided to see the world.

Their disappearance was soon discovered and a search was instituted by the families and their friends but all to no avail. Police were notified and immediately joined the search that soon spread to take in the whole Hilltop area but still no trace of the missing youngsters could be found.

Darkness was already beginning to settle over the community when two tiny figures were spotted trudging up the street toward home.

According to one of the small travelers, the pair had gone to the Hilltop Riding Academy "to see the horses."

A check back over the route with our tiny travelers indicated that they had gone to Sullivant Avenue, thence east to about Midland Avenue, where they turned north. As darkness approached they had presence of mind to return to Sullivant Avenue. Once the two weary travelers spotted the big hammer sign on the Gearhart Hardware Store they again felt on familiar soil. Whichever route the youngsters may have taken, they were able to find their way back.

They were back safe in their cribs Monday night, satisfied that home was a pretty good place after all.

and Sue Keller, a fast tap by Mary Steed, and a novelty tap by Katherine Seeds. A "high-stepping" dance-line will also make its initial appearance. The line includes Jackie Hardy, Barbara Bell, Sue Keller, Sony Albery, Delores Moriva and Nancy Bailey.

A fast and furious rope-twirling act is being rehearsed and should prove to be one of the high spots of the show. Bob Johnson will be featured as piano soloist.

Those who were thrilled by the "Star-Dust" black-light number last year will enjoy seeing this year's "Storm" number with black-light and sound-effects. In this number and in several other spots the West High Swing Band will be featured.

Bill Hawes has been selected as master of ceremonies for the show, winning out over a field of eight worthy contenders.

A 16-page souvenir program is being planned for the show and will include pictures of some of the performing groups.

Tickets are 75 cents and will go on sale March 24. All seats for the three performances will be reserved. Reservations will start at the high school office Tuesday, March 30.

Eagle Insurance Plan Is Launched

Of interest to hundreds of members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles in Columbus was the recent granting of a charter for that lodge to operate as an insurance underwriter for coverage of members.

The charter was granted recently by Governor Thomas J. Herbert.

The launching of the insurance company is a part of the golden anniversary jubilee of the Eagles. An extensive membership campaign is also to be conducted at the present time.

Track Candidates Await Break In The Weather

Approximately 65 track candidates have been working out in the corridors at West High School while waiting for a break in the weather. Coach Rufe Glass said this week that outdoor work would start just as soon as the elements permit.

A better than average crop of lettermen is expected to be on hand when training gets in full swing. There are also five reserves and a number of boys who will be up from junior high for the first time this spring.

Lettermen include Glen Schroeder, sprints; Bob Janes, hurdles and 440; Sheldon Conway, distince runner; William Van Atta, hurdles and middle distance; Roland Stout, high jump and 440; Jim Dennis, distance; Kenneth Evans, 440 or high hurdles and distance; Kenneth Mahan, distance; Charles Miller, hurdles; Dick Lanigan, high jump and hurdles; Walter Hicks, dash and broad jump; Don Eisle, distance; Sam Ellis, dashes, and Dick Ham, distance.

Reserves include Bob J. Smith, 440; Jack Kelly, hurdles; Dick Borror, broad jump and dashes; Don Eitic, high jump, and Bill Stevenson, high jump and 440.

Coach Glass expects to assemble good competitors in the hurdles, high jump, 440, distance and broad jump departments but lacks experienced performers in the pole vault and weight departments.

Three of last year's city and district 880 team members will be back. They are Schroeder, Hicks and Ellis. The district-winning mile relay team, composed of Mahan, Evans, Stout and Hicks, is also available again this spring. Janes and Miller are the top hurdle prospects.

A strong cross country team last fall should provide well conditioned runners for the distance events.

The entire team is working for the privilege of making the Huntington Relay trip, the only overnight trek on the 1948 agenda. The first meet is scheduled for April 2 when the Cowboy thinclads meet Linden McKinley here in a dual meet.

Junior high candidates will not be asked to report until weather makes outdoor work possible since the limited indoor space can scarcely accommodate the senior candidates.

In addition to getting his track team in condition and planning for the Hilltop Relays again this year, Coach Glass has been busy helping to plan the State Track Clinic to be held in Columbus April 10. He is chairman of the event.

Burgess Leads West Church Bowling Loop

With only 15 games to go, the Burgess Avenue EUB keglers have a commanding 10-game lead over the nearest competitor in the West Church Bowling League. The six-team church loop bowls at the YMCA alleys every Saturday night.

After a shaky start the Burgess keglers swung into stride and through steady and at times outstanding bowling, finally managed to overtake the field about half-way through the season. Recently the Burgessites have pulled out in front by virtue of six straight weeks in which they lost only three games. Eighth Avenue EUB is at present the nearest competitor.

Westgate EUB led throughout the first half and then hit a slump that has dropped it to third place. Currently the top 10 bowlers in the league are as follows:

Williams, Burgess	170
Ruegg, Westgate	162
T. Leibensperger, Burgess	155
Billingsley, Eighth Ave.	153
West, Avondale	151
Davis, Avondale	151
Gurina, Hillcrest	148
R. Leibensperger, Burgess	143
Rowles, Burgess	141
Sexton, Avondale	141

Cranston Williams, the league leader and captain of the Burgess team, recently won the Citizen Headpin Tourney. Saturday night he rolled a 212-570 combination but his team lost two of the games to Eighth Avenue. Burgess turned in the high single game—875. Avondale's three-game 2494 was tops for the evening.

Louis West of Avondale Church of the Air, is president of the six-team league, which is expected to be expanded to eight teams next year. Harold Freeland, local mailman and a member of the Burgess team, is secretary-treasurer.

High scores for the season are Billingsley's 274 and Williams' 614 while team honors are divided between Eighth Avenue with a 952 for single game and Burgess Avenue's 2684 series.

Harry Howells of Hillcrest led his mates to a two-game win over Westgate EUB Saturday night.

Standings of the teams at present are as follows:

	W	L
Burgess Avenue EUB	51	24
Eighth Avenue EUB	41	34
Westgate EUB	39	36
Avondale Ch. of Air	38	37
Hillcrest Baptist	34	41
Avondale EUB	22	53

Plans For Baseball Team To Be Discussed By Legion Post

Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion, will hold a regular meeting Friday, March 19, at 8:15 p. m. at post headquarters, 10 S. Burgess-av.

Plans will be made for the junior baseball team for the 1948 season and the post urges that all members attend especially those who have been associated with the post junior baseball activity in the past years, and those interested in, or having suggestions to offer for this year's team.

Honored Carrier

Jack Stamper, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stamper, 661 S. Terrace-av, was designated by the Ohio State Journal as "honor carrier of the month" for February.

A bronze honor pin and an educational out-of-town trip at the end of the year will be presented him by the newspaper.

Bob Horch Rolls 289

The big news at the Hilltop Alleys this week was Bob Horch. While rolling with the Curlee team Bob rolled 10 straight strikes then spared, when his ball failed to carry the "4" pin on a good New York hit on the 11th ball for a grand 289. Bob is 17 years old and this week was his last week of bowling for the Curlee team since he leaves for the Navy on Monday. His 289 - 557 was high for the day and it also lead the Curlee team to top honors 837-2235.

Ardle

Jack Franken's 268 and Tom Wolfe's 635 lead the Business Men Thursday evening while Tim's Cafe walked away with team honors 977-2829.

It was Francis Patridge with 191 and Irene Hanson with 541 in the Friendship League while West Hill had 882 and Hilltop Van & Storage 2471. Bertie Angel came through with her first 500 series as she rolled 146, 178 and 184 for 508.

Edna Staley 191-534, Craft Real Estate, 854 and Westgate Electric 2237 were high in the Ladies Pastime League.

The Recreation League had a good night Monday as Tom Wolfe had 260-645 while Spear's Funeral Home had 1050 and Allen Milk 2858. Other good scores were Paul Kauderer, 258-630, Tom Ogier, 634 and Chet Krebs with 243.

I would like to wish Helen Reynolds of Helen's Sandwich Shop good luck and speeded recovery on her coming operation.

Two Teen-age Teams To Bowl In Tourney

The first two teams in the Seiller's Teen-Age Boys' League have been asked to roll in the Teen-agers' National Telegraphic Tournament on March 27. Each year the two top teams in each of the Teen-Agers' Leagues throughout the country rolls three games apiece at their home alleys and these scores are sent to Chicago to the American Junior Bowling Congress where they are tabulated and the winners announced in the teen-agers' magazine Pin Patter.

The two teams this year are Curlee and Rainfair. The Curlee team is composed of Bob Horch, Herman Wihl, Dick Swisher and the Harold brothers, Gene and Ed.

The Rainfair team has LeRoy Wise, Jim Martin, Al Ballenger, Willie Frankenburg, and Dick Ardle, as its starting line-up.

The two teams will roll Saturday afternoon, March 27 with a representative from the American Bowling Congress keeping scores.

Baseball Practice Slated To Start At West High Monday; Only 4 Lettermen

Comes Monday afternoon and (weather permitting) Coach George Williams will start looking over his prospects for the 1948 West High School baseball team. Even if Old Sol doesn't cooperate, some limbering up work will be done inside with the hurlers starting to get their arms in shape for the opening game with Central High on April 13.

Coach Williams will be starting with the smallest crop of lettermen in years with only four of the big numeral wearers to be on deck to start the season. Only five more boys have had any varsity experience whatsoever so it's far too early to be making any kind of a prediction on what's ahead for the Cowboys this spring.

Lettermen are Dick Kirk, an infielder; Don Little, outfielder and catcher; Paul Theisen, pitcher, and Chuck Weeks, who has done some pitching, but can also catch or play the outfield.

These boys had limited varsity experience last season: Don Skipper, infielder; Johnny Cherup, infielder who may take the outer garden; Jim Hamrick, pitcher; Dick Culbertson, first baseman, and Al Andrews, catcher.

Newcomers

Jack Pickens, an infielder, and Tom Wilson, a pitcher from a school over in Indiana, are at least two newcomers to the school who will be candidates. Others will likely come forward by the day practice starts.

There are six boys just up from junior high competition, some of whom may be seen in the lineup before the [redacted] gets too far along. They are Bill Thrush, an infielder; David Caton, infielder; Barry Emerick, outfielder; Phil Young, pitcher; Don Nafsger, catcher, and Paul Thompson, a catcher.

Only the 12 league games have been booked to date, however, Coach Williams will add a few more to the schedule. A recent ruling by the State Athletic Commission permits the scheduling of only 20 games per season any more. The same rule applies in basketball starting with the next season.

The West schedule to date is as follows:

April	13	Central here.
	16	At North
	20	Aquinas here
	27	At South
	30	East here
May	4	At Linden
	7	Tournament
	10	At Central
	14	North here
	18	At Aquinas
	25	South here
	28	At East
June	1	Linden here

Theisen, Weeks Picked By Team For Top Honors

Two members of the West High School basketball team were signally honored by their teammates this week.

Paul Theisen, who played at center during most of the season, was named the most valuable player by vote of his fellow players. The announcement was made Tuesday night at the annual appreciation dinner held at the Seneca Hotel.

Chuck Weeks, who, along with Theisen, has played in every game this year, was elected to captain the team next year.

Theisen was selected on the all-city teams picked by the city's daily sports writers. Weeks was a unanimous choice of sports writers on the all-city 1947 grid team.

Both players are 12B students and each participates in football, basketball and baseball.

LEFTOVER IDEA

Here's an easy way to dramatize leftovers of the Easter ham. Make tricky little biscuit cups and serve creamed ham chunks in them. The biscuit cups are made by cutting circles from enriched biscuit dough and pressing into muffin pans. Prick the bottom with a fork and bake the cups in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) eight to 10 minutes. It may be easier to form the cups by fitting the circles of dough on inverted large greased muffin pans. A four-inch cutter will make circles of just the right size.

Suits For Spring Offer Wide Choice; One Of These Ten Styles Is For You

Suits are traditional for spring, and this year you'll have a variety of styles from which to choose.

"There are many types of spring suits—some are familiar, some are new. But familiar or new, everyone can now find a suit that suits her, in every way, shape and manner. And they all look new, because of their longer skirts, and other things. Below we are calling the roll of the 10 most important spring suits, the tog notchers.

"The Classic Suit — This one really has the long look. Last year its skirt was short, its jacket regulation length. This year the skirt is down to 13 inches from the pavement, and its jacket has sunk from the 25-inch length to the 27. It's still slim, still mannish, and still a wonderful all-year suit. The Shawl-Collar Classic Suit — Classic in every line except for its new collar. Long of skirt, long of jacket, and very slim-jim-trim.

"The Semi-Tailored Suit — The favorite. Everyone can wear it because it's not too tailored, not too soft. This is another of the straight-skirt suits. In spite of all the excitement about flares, straight skirts are still in the majority. The Double-Breasted Suit — Last year it really buttoned up. But one of the best looking of this year's double-breasters has only one pair of buttons, way down at the waistline.

"The Tuxedo Suit — New this year. Another slim type, all long lines. Long skirt, long jacket, long tuxedo revers. The Flared Suit — New. It has a moderately flared skirt, the kind of unexaggerated flare that almost everybody can wear. Usually the jacket is shortish.

"The Whirl Suit — Very big stuff with the young crowd. Its skirt is wide; its jacket, short. Girls who are tall and have small waists can wear it best, and under such ideal conditions, it is a charming thing. The Bustle Suit—Very much revamped from last year's. The jacket is now shorter, and the posterior ripples stand out more perkily. The skirt may flare a little or a lot.

"The Swallow-Tail Suit — This is one of the slim-skirt-long-jacket types. In fact, the jacket may go down to 30 inches, which is really long. A graceful jacket, cut away in front, dipped and rippled in back. The Soft Suit — Best loved, and as it was, except for its new shawl collar, the softest of suit collars. Sometimes it has a soft peplum."

Small-sized Snaps Fix Shoulder Pads

To save time and trouble with shoulder pads, why not make them removable? Instead of sewing them into the clothes, attach them with small-sized snaps. Then you can take the pads out when you launder your clothes or have them cleaned and snap them in again when garment is worn.

Removable pads have many advantages, especially for women who expect to do any traveling. Dresses pack more easily and fold more smoothly without them. And you can save trouble and expense, as well as space in the suitcase, if you use one pair of pads for all dresses of similar style.

SISTER COTTON

Plaid cottons are the rage for the grade school miss. This one, with pert epaulettes, goes to the head of the class. White pique—plaid's perfect complement — gives that crisp and clean look. From Sunny Lee.

A Lift For Your Wardrobe With What You Have

Every woman's heart yearns for new clothes in the spring. But you can give your wardrobe a lift without buying a thing, according to Emily Wilkens, who tells you how to recrganize it in 10 methodical steps:

"First, put on your pet fatigues and dump out your entire closet onto your bed. Pile the dejected items at the head, 'bests' at foot. Second, scruitinize good things. Pin 'sew split seam,' 'fasten snaps' notes to clothes to hasten your needle finger. Third, section off closet neatly with labeled cardboards for dresses, suits, blouses, etc. Run ribbon through label, tie to clothes pole.

"Four, don't waste space with never-worn frocks. Try a swap party. Send what's left abroad Five, plump accessory drawers onto the bed. Experimenting is fun—odd tricks with belts, scarfs, jewelry brighten tired outfits. Six, look at your shoes. Send off those needing repairs. Use stuffers to preserve shape. Keep them on racks.

"Seven, keep your evening shoes unmarred by storing in dustproof, labeled boxes. Decorating boxes with gay shelf edging brightens closet. Eight, save your money for a long plastic bag. Your evening dresses will stay fresher — soft padded hangers keep them in shape. Nine, be sure to keep a clothes brush handy—then you won't forget brisk brushing before hanging things up. Ten, avoid last-minute panic. Plan what you're going to wear for big dates in advance. List the whole outfit on your engagement pad."

Tuna Fish Casserole

If a tuna fish casserole is the featured attraction on a Lenten meal, make it more attractive by weaving a biscuit dough topping. Add two tablespoons chopped parsley to a biscuit dough using two cups enriched flour. Roll out the dough one-fourth inch thick. From half the dough, make linings for individual casseroles. Fill with a favorite tuna fish mixture. From the remaining biscuit dough, cut one-inch strips and weave together loosely to form a topping for each casserole. Cut to fit the shape of the container.

Fall of Man

When's a man slipping?
When he gets bald or gray?
When he puts on bifocals?
Develops a bay?
Oh, no; a man's slipping
When all unaware
He meets with a roller skate
Left on the stair.

Banana Cup Cakes

Sliced bananas show off their good looks in these tempting banana cup cakes made with enriched flour for better food value.

Fruit variety is limited at this season so let's find different ways for using the "dependables" on the market. There are more ways than one to eat bananas. For proof, we offer these cup cakes with a real banana flavor, their fluffy frosting decked with two slices of the fruit.

The cup cakes are made by the usual cake method, with the flour mixture added to the creamed mixture alternately with mashed bananas and milk. Measure ingredients carefully, sifting flour once before measuring. Preserve the golden yellow of the cut bananas in the topping by dipping them in lemon or other citrus juice.

Besides good eating, the cup cakes boast of good food value supplied by the enriched flour with its protein, iron, and B-vitamins. The recipe makes a sufficient quantity to serve at a casual afternoon tea, or for after-school snack and dinner dessert.

BANANA CUP CAKES

2 cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup mashed bananas
2 tablespoons milk
½ cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs, mixing well. Add orange rind, lemon rind and vanilla extract. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture alternately with bananas and milk. Fold in nuts. Fill greased three-inch muffin pans two-thirds full. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 25 minutes. Yield: About 14 three-inch cup cakes.

Catbird Unpopular With Bird Neighbors

A catbird is unpopular with its bird neighbors For, like the cat, it often makes raids on the nests of robins, bluebirds and sparrows during their nesting season. In return, great crowds of these birds often attack the catbird.

Known chiefly as an imitator, this sleek graceful creature can imitate even the deep guttural croak of the frog. But it has a wide range of melodies of its own. Indeed it is almost a whole bird orchestra in itself. Sometimes its song has a flute-like quality. Sometimes it resembles the music of a cello, piccolo or clarinet.

A black and gray member of the thrush family, the catbird ranges over all temperate North America.

Beauty In Indian Names

Do you like to study the origin of names? Some of those coming from the Indian language are most beautiful. For instance, Idaho means "gem of the mountains" and Minnesota "sky-tinted river." Arizona"—one of the nation's most arid states—comes from an Indian name meaning "place of small springs."

Most yeast dough recipes call for "about" so many cups of enriched flour, rather than mentioning the exact amount. This is done because different flours absorb less liquid than others. Hard wheat flour, for example, usually requires more liquid than does soft wheat flour. Homemakers learn to add just the right amount of flour by a little experience in handling yeast doughs and batters.

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

We had quite a few in the class "B" Table Tennis Contest. Those competing were Dick Palmer, Roy Zigler, Larry Oliver, Roger Geist, Joe Hutt, Pete King, Ward Cassel, Jerry Witherspoon and Tom Witherspoon. The finalists in this contest are Hershberger, Palmer, Zigler and Oliver. You can see it's going to be a good and close contest, and to the fellows who have fallen along the wayside —"keep trying."

Who were the ambitious guys who piled all the furniture in the middle of the ballroom at the canteen. Maybe someone could tell me their purpose also.

With everyone talking about spring you know it isn't far away. You want to know what the kids talk about at the Canteen when warm weather comes? Well I guess I can tell you, it's another paper drive with one of those fine parties afterwards, and did you know Mel says it will be next month some time.

Here is some news that will really shock everyone! Chuck Watts has gone long-hair. He actually went to a concert with Guy Celli and Earle Parlette. Do you want to tell us all about it, Chuck? Did you enjoy the music? We hope you did.

Roger Geist seems to get around nowadays. He is the portrait photographer now, at least he was seen taking a portrait of Marylee Neff in the studio the other night.

We don't see much of "Jake" Jacques any more since he is working and going to college. How does it feel being a college man now?

We have overheard some girls talking and they want to know just when you fellas are going to get the ping-pong table out of the middle of the ballroom so they can dance and enjoy those records.

It seems that Bill Hall never did get to see his name in this column, so this is just for his sake.

The Canteen now has a mascot, a cute little cat. No one seems to know where it came from, but it is surely making itself at home.

Elementary School Happenings

West Broad

The 6A class in Room 202 of the West Broad Street School will present a play on Friday morning, March 5, entitled, "How Boots Befooled the King."

The play is patterned from a story in "The Wonder Clock," by Howard Pyle, although the actual theme is based upon a medieval folk tale. It concerns "Boots", a boy Cinderella, who, although sneered at by his family, triumphs in this "rags-to-riches" struggle.

Puppet Show

The Persian Columbus was a puppet show presented by Mrs. Waymer's 6A class at West Broad Street School. The show was adopted from the story of The Persian Columbus in "Let's Go Ahead," sixth grade reader.

Everyone in the room helped in making the characters and the scenery. It was so real the audience almost thought the characters were alive and talking. They made bright colored posters for advertising and gave three performances with a total audience of 700.

John Burroughs

There are 959 boys and girls in the first to sixth grades of our school. In the 7B grade there are 59, in the kindergarten 40, in the maintenance department 4, and 30 teachers, including the principal, Mr. E. B. Graham, making a total of 1089 in all.

We are proud of our 69 new first grade pupils who began in February.

Our kindergarten has 24 beginners this semester for the morning session but only one new one in the afternoon session along with 16 former pupils.

We boast of two sets of twins in our school: Judy and Joy Clay, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Clay, 714 S. Eureka-av, beginners; and Janis and Janet Harvey, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey, 648 S. Harris-av, in the second grade.

March seems to be a popular month for the 7B's at John Burroughs School. The following students have birthdays in the windy month: Carolyn Gordon, March 2; Rita Cruse, March 3; Robert Steffens, March 3; Patti Miesse, March 6; Robert Green, March 7; Chloe Wood, March 8; Barbara Hunter, March 11; Donald Jhensen, March 13; Tommy Doyle, March 13; Barbara Shade, March 18; Patty Sherlock, March 18; Karen Michelis, March 21; John Jackson, March 21, and James Sharkey, March 31.

Our playground is to have 30 tons of gravel spread on it to make a solid foundation and to fill in all muddy places. It will be several years before this work is completed plus many more tons of gravel.

The PTA play, "Free as the Air," held Feb. 26 and 27, was a big success. They netted over $200, which will be used for playground improvements.

The March 31 cookie sale is another PTA project. Be prepared to buy and eat a lot of cookies at 25 cents a dozen.

The PTA has given its yearly appropriation of $10 to each of the 28 teachers to purchase extra library books, records or classroom materials not otherwise furnished.

There's a reason for scalding milk before using it in a yeast dough. The scalding stops the enzyme action which might otherwise cause some softening of the dough. The simple step of scalding the milk makes the dough easier to handle and improves the texture of the breads made from it.

"March To Church In March" -- A Responsibility

By Rev. W. Howard Schoof
Pastor, Immanuel Baptist Church

America cannot go on insulting God!

America cannot go on ignoring Jesus Christ and His gospel of salvation!

Whose responsibility is it to see that righteousness is exalted? Whose responsibility is it to see that truth is proclaimed? Whose responsibility is it to see the evil and unrighteousness and sin in all of its forms is exposed, attacked and eliminated? What tremendous questions!

The American people are living in a strange time. It is a time of turmoil and chaos. It is a time of political struggle. It is a time of gross immorality. It is a time of delinquency. It is a time of war. We have just concluded (and successfully by the goodness of God) the most brutal and costly war in the history of civilization. We are trying to enjoy a peace that really has never come. The lessons God wanted to teach us by that awful tragedy we have refused to learn. Instead of the fruits of victory we have barren, blighted hopes only! This is America today!

The crux of the whole matter is presented by the omniscient Christ in His famous visit with Nicodemus (St. John 3): "And this is the condemnation (literally, CRISIS) that light is come into the world and men loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil." It is interesting that the word translated "condemnation" is the Greek word "crisis." Yes, a crisis is always precipitated when men choose evil instead of righteousness, when men choose darkness rather than light, when men choose sin and Satan rather than Christ! What a crisis we face in America. The issue is Jesus Christ and righteousness; peace and salvation which He offers to humanity; or evil and its consequent destruction and death! Dr. Vance Havner says: "We are living in a land that blames its sin upon society instead of itself; fed on movies from the gutter; reared on music apes would be ashamed of; with a code of morals that eclipses Sodom and Gomorrah; where only one out of twelve goes to church; where fifteen million sex magazines are read every month by one-third of the people; where there are more barmaids than college girls; where 60 suicides occur every day, a murder every 40 minutes, a major crime every 22 seconds." All of this in spite of the fact that America has been favored of God as no other nation in all the world. All of this in spite of the rich and generous spiritual heritage received at such a cost from our fathers. America has not only forgotten God—America has insulted God! Man has been deified and God humanized!

It has been said, "America is running on the momentum of a Godly ancestry and when that momentum is spent, God help America!" That momentum is well nigh spent. There is no fear of God before the eyes of American men, women and young people. Children are not being instructed in the eternal truths of the Word of God. Indeed in many homes, schools and even churches, the Bible is made the laughing-stock of supposedly intelligent people. Higher learning, inventive genius and material wealth cannot make up for moral and spiritual corruption! We have just seen in Germany what happens to a people who build a state upon the quicksand of moral decadence. All history points to the fact that moral rot and inner corruption inevitably brings in its wake destruction, disaster and death. Since V-Day America has been on a moral vacation—V stands for Vacation as well as Victory. We are asking, "What must I do to succeed?" We ought to be asking, "What must I do to be saved?" We are saying, "So What?" We ought to be saying prayers! Americans would rather go anywhere else than to a prayer meeting.

Whose responsibility is it to change this picture? IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST! The Church is the only divine institution in the world. The Church is not a human agency or organization to be formed into another political pressure group. The church is not to become an agent for the propagation of sociology and psychology. The Church is God's agency for the propagation of His Truth! The Church was founded by His only begotten Son who "gave Himself for it." The Church is to be eternally headed by its founder, Jesus Christ. The Church was given a divine message to proclaim to the whole world and to each individual. The mission of the Church is to tell evil men, sinners, how to be reconciled to God. The central theme of its message is Jesus Christ, the only name given under heaven among men whereby men must be saved. America is sick because Americans are sick! The world is sick because its citizens are sick! America can be cured only as Americans are cured! The world can be cured only as its citizens are cured! The Church has the cure—the life-giving power of the gospel of Christ.

Because the Church is God's agency for the reconstruction and salvation of Americans and America, because the Church is God's agency for the cure of human sin sickness, it is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY first to accept of its life-giving message for yourself. After that it is your responsibility to support it by your attendance upon its ministry regularly, by your active membership, by giving your influence and wealth to maintain it.

Americans must not go on insulting God! Americans must not go on ignoring and trampling under foot the Son of God and His eternal gospel of salvation!

SCRIPTURE: Mark 4:26-29; Luke 6: 16-22a; 17:20-21; Romans 14:17.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Isaiah 60: 1-3, 18-14.

The Kingdom of God

Lesson for March 21, 1948

JESUS went back to his boyhood home in Nazareth, and on the Sabbath he went into the synagogue, "as was his custom."

Dr. Newton

They gave him the Book of Isaiah, from which he read a passage in the 61st chapter, adding, "This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears," Luke 4:21.

Jesus had come to let people know about God—to reveal the Father's perfect love for all men. He loved the Bible, and was constantly reading it, which in his day was the Old Testament only. And he loved the Sabbath day, which we now call the Lord's day. Beginning with his resurrection, the first day of the week has been observed as the Lord's day. And Jesus loved the appointed places of worship, and was always found in some synagogue on the Sabbath. Don't you wish you might have been in Nazareth that day when he stood up to read the Scripture?

WHAT HE CAME TO DO

JESUS, I repeat, came to reveal God to men, which is but another way of saying that he came to teach men about the Kingdom of God. Here we shall need to read Mark 4:26-29, and Romans 14:17.

"The Kingdom of God is as if a man should cast seed into the ground," said Jesus; and Paul, in Romans 14:17, says, "The Kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit."

Jesus, then, came to establish a kingdom within the hearts of men. It means the rule of God in human hearts. What he wills, we gladly do. It manifests itself in the daily life of the individual, in the home, in the school, in the church—everywhere.

"THY KINGDOM COME"

SO VITAL is this truth for the Christian that Jesus, in the pattern prayer, teaches us to say, "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as in heaven."

If we live in the atmosphere of this prayer, we shall embody daily the fruits of the coming Kingdom of God. If we really "seek first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness," we lift the level of life wherever we stand and serve. This is precisely what Jesus did. "He went about doing good."

We help to answer the prayer, "Thy Kingdom come," when we do with all our might what our hands find to do—in the home, in the community, in the church.

KINGDOM OF GOD AMONG MEN

IT IS not enough to consider this truth in terms of some far-off dramatic event. It is a present force and factor in today's world.

One day the Pharisees asked Jesus when the Kingdom of God should come. He told them that it would not come with observation—that it is within the hearts of men.

What did he mean? I believe that he meant just this, that the Kingdom of God will and must manifest itself in the common affairs of everyday life. We may hinder its manifestation. We may retard its coming. On the other hand, we may make it manifest and hasten its spread to earth's remotest bounds.

How? By yielding ourselves to the rule and reign of God in every relationship of life. In race relations, in social service, in relief to the afflicted, in united effort for peace, in better housing, in better recreational facilities, in educational opportunities for all. The Kingdom of God is not an impractical theory, but a working principle, even as the leaven works in the loaf.

WHEN WILL IT COME?

THE Kingdom of God will come when redeemed hearts everywhere enthrone God in their whole attitude and purpose. Then, and not until then.

Will it come? This is a stubborn question. From our viewpoint, it may seem doubtful; but Jesus declares that it will come. "I have overcome the world," he declared.

The one question for you and for me, What part shall I have in the coming of the Kingdom of God upon the earth? We each decide by our willingness or unwillingness to follow him.

101 Are Attending Bible Institute

The Columbus Bible Institute, Inc., is enjoying the most prosperous year of its history. This Christian interdenominational school, which meets on Monday and Tuesday evenings at 743 Dennison-av., is devoted to the purpose of preparing men and women for more effective Sunday School and church work. Its founders and directors believe that the Bible is its own best commentary and II Timothy 3:16-17 is the institute's scripture motto: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be complete, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

The total registration for this school year, to date, is 101 representing 39 different churches in Columbus and vicinity. Twenty different subjects have been offered during the fall and winter quarters and plans are completed for 10 more subjects to be offered during the spring quarter, which opens Monday, March 15. A course for the training of teachers for Daily Vacation Bible School will be featured so that this part of the Columbus church program for the summer of 1948 may be encouraged and strengthened.

The teaching staff consists of 21 men and women, who are either ordained ministers, institute graduates or seminary graduates. All staff members and officers give of their time and talents free in order to promote this work.

Columbus Bible Institute is looking forward to the day when it may be located in a permanent home. Its building fund has now reached $1150. Contributions from churches and individuals are being received for this purpose.

Detailed information, regarding the spring quarter will be gladly supplied anyone interested. Anyone wishing this literature should call LA. 61181 or WA. 1475.

Pack 33

Cub Pack 33 held its reorganization meeting last Friday evening at Westgate Methodist Church with 17 Cubs registered and five registrations requested. Jack Sensenbrenner, Rev. James F. Lorenz, R. M. Lloyd, Pack 86, Mrs. Meddles, den mother of Pack 86, and Elmer Howard, Pack 214, were speakers — each giving a phase of Cub work and the Pack's ambitions.

C. A. Minor, Pack 56, was in charge of reorganization effort and acted as consultant to W. L. Rayburn, Cubmaster, and W. F. Rector, committee chairman. Two new committeemen, William McCullough and Clifford Dunn, were selected.

A sports picture was shown to the Cubs while the business meeting was being held. Light refreshments were served by the sponsoring group, the Married Methodist Class of the Westgate Sunday School.

Troop 79

Members of Troop 79 were taken on an inspection tour of the Lockbourne Army Air Base Sunday afternoon by Lt. Hudson of the public information office. The party included 19 members of the troop, a few of the parents and Scoutmaster Richard McFadden and assistants, Dave Haines and William Thomas.

Authorities learned that a Canadian had married four wealthy women, procured their money, then murdered them. Some people would say this is an unethical way to make a living.

The most difficult job in educating the public is unteaching it many things that are not true.

How to reduce! Eat at a boarding house, and use good manners.

Christ Is Risen

In Christian churches throughout the world, happy voices sing loud hallelujahs. Christ is risen. The Easter season is at hand. The old, old promise rings anew, that if He be lifted up, He shall draw all men unto Him.

Today, with the memories of two world-shaking wars still fresh in the minds of men throughout the universe, and with the atomic age a reality, Christian men and women are convinced there can be but one answer to the world's great conflicts and contradictions—CHRIST:

Man, it seems, is desperate. He is willing to try almost anything: Universal military training, the United Nations organization, the Marshall Plan—but why not Christ?

Christ today is the hope of the world, just as He was almost 2,000 years ago. This joyous Easter season is a timely reminder that faith in and love of Him can alone bring about the "peace that passeth understanding" and the brotherhood of man.

The world's Christian churches invite all who would know Christ better to join with them, not only at Easter time, but throughout the year.

Union Good Friday Service Will Be Held In Glenwood Methodist Church

Plans were announced this week for the annual Good Friday service of Hilltop churches to be held at the Glenwood Methodist Church on March 26, from 1 to 3 p. m. This union service is sponsored by the Hilltop Ministerial Association.

The two-hour service will be led by Rev. Chester G. Stanley, president of the ministerial group. Other local ministers participating in the program are Rev. Roscoe Parr, Hilltonia Evangelical United Brethren; Rev. Patrick Heard, Franklin Heights Friends; Rev. Paul D. Gordon, St. Paul's Evangelical Congregational; Rev. C. C. Dutt, Cocherl Memorial; Rev. James F. Lorenz, Westgate Methodist; Rev. H. E. Harwood, Edgewood Chapel United Brethren, and Rev. A. J. Wold, Hoge Memorial Presbyterian.

Soloists for the afternoon will include Mrs. Robert Hawthorne, Mrs. Harold Dutt and Mrs. W. O. Colwell.

Burgess EUB Is Hymn Sing Host

The Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church will be host to the Hilltop Hymn Sing Sunday evening at 9 o'clock.

The Hymn Sing is held in one of the local churches every two weeks. It follows the regular evening service. It is open to all hymn-lovers regardless of faith or creed. It is made up of an hour of informal song service with selections being made by the singers.

Lady Evangelist Draws Capacity Crowds Here

"Dr. Nettie A. Miller who closed her campaign as evangelist at the Warren Avenue Church of the Nazarene, draws a larger attendance while here than any other evangelist who has appeared at the church in the last 10 years," said Rev. Harris B. Anthony, pastor.

The dynamic young woman who is a Miss by the way, really packed them in at the local church. Friday evening was one of lesser attendance but she still maintained a full house.

The former dancer also used to entertain by giving readings. After being converted she attended Trevecca Nazarene College in Nashville, Tenn., and then carried on post graduate work at the Peabody University there. From that time on she was asked to preach in all types of churches all over the United States. While attending college the teacher recognized her ability and she established a reputation even before graduation.

This invigorating lady with a personality which is magnetic, according to those she has met, was born in Columbus, Ga. The students at West High School were entertained by the humorous readings she gave from memory at the school on Mar. 5. They were facinated by her Georgia drawl, and talked about her visit for several days afterward.

Miss Miller, who is said to be the best paid of any Nazarene evangelist, has visited the Warren Avenue Church every other year for the past eight years. The church board voted last week to ask her back again in two years if she is able to fill the engagement. Rev. Anthony said last week that she has had 85 invitations to various churches which had to be turned down due to her full schedule.

From Columbus she was to go to Lansing, Mich., and from there to Detroit, Mich. in the United States she travels from coast to coast and has the same schedule for the Dominion of Canada.

Highlighting her sermons are such diversions as a little song which is ended by each person turning to shake hands "as if he meant it" with his neighbor. She does not confine her talk to the pulpit as some would think but walks along the aisles as she talks and injects much humor into her evangelism

Rev. C. C. Dutt Resigns Local Church April 4

Rev. C. C. Dutt, pastor of the Cocherl Memorial Alliance Church during the past four years, will resign that parish effective April 4 to assume similar duties with the Bethel Alliance Church at Sandusky, O.

Rev. Dutt came to the Hilltop from a pastorate in Centerville, La. A brother, Rev. Harold Dutt, is pastor of the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Rev. and Mrs. Dutt and their daughter, Patricia Elaine, 3, will move to Sandusky shortly after Easter.

Before leaving the local church, Rev. Dutt has planned a one-week revival to start Sunday and continue through Easter Sunday. Rev. C. W. Ruhlman will be the evangelist. Special music will be presented at every service. There will be no Saturday service but an Easter Sunrise service is being planned in cooperation with the Valleyview Church of Christ in Christian Union. Rev. R. F. Ferguson, pastor of the Valleyview Church, will be the speaker.

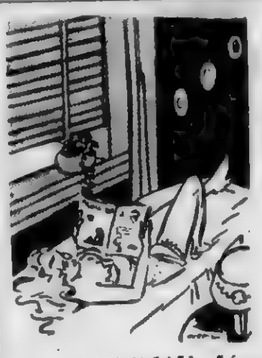
Columbus will have the opportunity to hear the first presentation of Hermann Hagedorn's great epic poem "The Bomb That Fell on America" on Palm Sunday evening, March 21, at eight o'clock, at the First Congregational Church, 444 E. Broad-st.

Against the background of a verse chorus, David Lattimer, as narrator, will tell the story. Kenneth Clinton, associate pastor, will read the role of the Conscience of Modern Man struggling to make America make up to her responsibility in this new age.

Mrs. Edward H. Giesy, known in music and dramatic circles as Dolores Peters, has trained the verse speaking chorus and will read the part of Interpreter. Donald Kettring, organist, will accompany the reading with music. Mrs. John MacLean has created original color projections to indicate the changing moods of the presentation.

There will be no admission charge for this production which is being given as part of the Lenten program of First Congregation Church.



All Columbus citizens are invited.

Ruby Glassware A Secret Formula Used By Westlake Family For Over 20 Years

By Bob Wiener

If you bought any pieces of ruby glassware at the Ohio State Fair last summer the chances are it was made right here on the Hilltop—that is, if you bought it at the booth operated by W. Ralston Westlake, owner of the Westlake Ruby Glass Works at 3294 W. Broad-st.

Mr. Westlake is the only manufacturer of ruby-coated glassware in the United States. He uses a secret formula he discovered after months of painstaking experimentation more than 20 years ago.

The ruby glass Mr. Westlake turns out does not have a solid ruby color throughout. It is really crystal glass with a thin ruby colored glass covering baked over all or only part of it. Mr. Westlake doesn't make his own crystal glass but buys it from a glass making firm in West Virginia. The covering which gives the glass its ruby coloring is then put on by Mr. Westlake in his shop at the rear of his home on West Broad-st.

The process used in making ruby glass was long a secret of glass makers in Bohemia. He became interested in it many years ago when his father, Milton W. Westlake, a former Columbus city councilman, was a retailer for ruby glassware made by a Bohemian who had emigrated to Monaca, Pennsylvania. The Bohemian refused to divulge or sell the secret of the process and he carried it with him when he died.

By constant trial and error Mr. Westlake finally developed successful means of making the ruby covering in 1925, and, assisted by his father, he began making his own ruby glass. There have been a number of refinements and improvements in the process since then and the secret of its manufacture has been kept within the family.

A Family Enterprise

The business has always been conducted solely as a family enterprise. Mr. Westlake is assisted by his wife, Helen, and their three children, David, 12, now at the Columbus Boy Choir School, Diane, 6, and Marilyn, 4. David is allowed to do everything but operate the kilns, while the two younger children assist mainly with wrapping and unwrapping the glassware.

There is no mass production in the making of ruby glass and Mr. Westlake points out that it is only by extreme care and painstaking effort in making each piece that good results are obtained.

The process of making ruby glass begins when the crystal glass arrives in barrels from the West Virginia factory where it is made. These are opened and each piece of glass cleaned thoroughly. Next, a light brown "mud" made by the secret chemical formula is applied and allowed to dry. The "mud-covered" glass is then baked in a kiln during which time other chemicals in the form of a gas are added. During this operation care must be taken to keep the amount of heat uniform throughout the oven. The temperature is controlled only by watching the color of the walls inside the kiln. It is impossible to use a pyrometer, Mr. Westlake says, because it would be coated over quickly by the chemicals in the air inside the kiln.

After this first baking the glassware is removed and a black charred coating of waste chemicals cleaned off by washing. The part over which the "mud" has been applied then has an amber color.

Glass Baked Again

Next, another chemical application is made using a different chemical compound and the glass is again baked in the oven. When it is removed from this second baking it has a ruby colored covering and does not need to be cleaned or polished.

If the glassware is to have gold trim, gold leaf is then painted on and a third baking is necessary. This does not affect the ruby glass as the temperature maintained is much lower than on the first two bakings.

The Westlake Ruby Glass Works turns out such items as children's drinking mugs, wine glasses, pitchers, cigarette boxes, vases, and other types of small ornamental glassware.

You won't see any of Mr. Westlake's ruby glassware in local stores because it isn't sold through retail outlets. Each summer Mr. and Mrs. Westlake and their son, David, travel throughout the mid-west to state fairs to sell their glassware at their own consessions. They have been as far south as Dallas, Texas, and as far east as Richmond, Va., selling their product at fairs. In this way they feel they can give a personal touch to the articles they sell by inscribing people's names on the glass, particularly on drinking glasses.

Although his ruby glassware is in great demand, Mr. Westlake has no desire to expand his production at the expense of its quality. That's why he keeps up the method of selling the ruby glassware only at state and a few county fairs. At the Ohio State Fair he continues a concession started by his father 52 years ago when he sold only crystal glassware. It is, Mr. Westlake says, the oldest concession at the fair.

More Local Youngsters

Joellyn (upper left photo), left, and twin sister, Janine Daugherty, are two interesting youngsters introduced to Record readers this week. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Daugherty, 352 Midland-av. They have an older daughter, Michele Lynn, 4 years. The twins were just 14 months of age when they were photographed by J. Curtis Allen. Mr. Daugherty is connected with the Butler Insurance Agency. Mrs. Daugherty is the former Betty Jo Butler.

Jack, 9 months and Bob 2½ years, are the healthy youngsters of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Weiler, 66 Demorest-rd. (Pictured upper right). Their father is a warehouseman for the Sun Oil Company. Mrs. Weiler is the former Valedith Miller.

Kay Christine, 2 (lower left), is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Minniear, 3350 Wicklow-rd. Her baby brother, Orval, had his picture in the Record recently at the age of five months. Mr. Minniear is a machinst for the Joffrey Manufacturing Company. Mrs. Minniear is the former Lucille Koerner.

Stephen Louis Edgar (lower right) couldn't keep his eyes open for the cameraman after taking his bottle. Stephen, who was only one month, when the picture was taken, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Edgar, 659 S. Richardson-av. He has an older brother, David E., 2. His father is a plumber.
